

Multi-Site Churches

Guidance for the Movement's Next Generation

by Scott McConnell

Foreword by Ed Stetzer

ABOUT THE BOOK

Based on research of forty congregations that have grown by opening one or more additional worship locations, Multi-Site Churches provides the next generation of believers interested in this same type of growth with practical insights about how and when to proceed. Common practices and mistakes to avoid are clearly explained, and first-person advice and anecdotes from leading multi-site church pastors offer an invaluable advantage for when your church considers whether or not to follow this path of ministry.

BEST-SELLING POINTS

- Research on forty of America's leading multi-site churches helps the next generation of ministry leaders decide whether or not this type of growth is right for their congregations.
- First-person advice from top multi-site church leaders and experts including Dave and Jon Ferguson (Community Christian Church and coauthors of The Big Idea), James MacDonald (Harvest Bible Chapel), Geoff Surratt (Seacoast Church), Warren Bird (Leadership Network) Scott Chapman (The Chapel), Jimmie Davidson (Highlands Fellowship), Dino Rizzo (Healing Place), and Rick Rusaw (LifeBridge Christian Church).
- Book is based on the work of LifeWay Research whose findings continue to create a stir in the media (USA Today, CNN, etc).

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Scott McConnell is associate director of LifeWay Research and has researched the needs and preferences of churches for ten years. He received a bachelor of science degree from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and lives with his wife and children in Nashville, Tennessee.
