REMEMBER

The one who is from God listens to God's words.
John 8:47

READ

In 2 Timothy 1:3-5, Paul praises Timothy for his true faith. Paul reminds Timothy that his faith was passed down to him from his grandmother, to his mother, and then to Timothy. When loved ones read the Bible with you, when they share their faith with you, they are changing your life for eternity. And then you have the chance to turn around and change the life of someone else.

THINK

1. Who reads your Bible with you?
2. How do you feel when you read together?
3. Why do you think reading the Bible with someone is important?
4. Which Bible story do you think is sad? Funny? Hopeful?
5. When you can read all by yourself, who will you share the Bible with?

DO

You may never know how your life will be changed because someone took the time to help instill faith in you. Let's say "thank you" right now to those who read the Bible with you.

1. Fold a piece of cardstock or paper in half.
2. On the front of the card, draw your favorite Bible story scene.
3. On the inside, write a special note of thanks. Tell the person how much you enjoy reading with them and why you think it's important.
4. Deliver the card and watch the person smile!

If there are several people who read the Bible with you, be sure to thank them all!
