

The Knight and the Firefly

A Boy, A Bug, and a Lesson in Bravery
by Tara McClary Reeves & Amanda Jenkins,
Illustrated by Daniel Fernández
ISBN: 9781433681196

REMEMBER

[God] will cover you with His feathers; you will take refuge under His wings. His faithfulness will be a protective shield. – Psalm 91:4

READ

Psalm 91:1-16. The Bible says that God is in charge, so we can feel safe. Sure, we'll still stump our toes, think bad thoughts, and get sick—we live in a broken world. But when we choose to trust Jesus, we're never alone, and God has a great adventure planned for our lives.

THINK

1. What scares Oliver?
2. What scares you?
3. Have you ever had to deal with a bully like Doyle? What happened?
4. Name a fear that has kept you from doing something you know you should do.
5. God is perfect. What about Him can you focus on when you are afraid?

DO

Make your own protective wings.

1. Get two sheets of paper. Construction paper or cardstock is best, but any paper will do.
2. On each sheet of paper, draw (or ask an adult to draw) a large wing.
3. On one wing, write: "God will cover you with His feathers; you will take refuge under His wings." On the other wing, write: "God's faithfulness will be a shield." – Psalm 91:4
4. Cut out (or ask an adult to cut out) your wings. Color or decorate them.
5. Hang your wings over your bed, on the refrigerator, or by the door to remind you of God's protection. If you know someone else who is afraid, make them a set of wings too!

*Long after your paper wings are gone,
God's wings of protection will still be there to shelter you.*