

Their Side of the Story: The Frog and the Plague

by Troy Schmidt, Illustrated by Cory Jones

ISBN: 9781433687204

REMEMBER

"A gentle answer turns away anger, but a harsh word stirs up wrath." – Proverbs 15:1

READ

The whole story of Moses, Pharaoh, and those nasty plagues is found in Exodus 5-14. You'll see how Pharaoh's stubbornness only caused more trouble for his people. And you'll see how God's power and protection set His people free.

THINK

1. Why do you think Frog was so mad?
2. Do you think Frog was being selfish? Why or why not?
3. How do you think Frog could have made these things better?
4. Tell about a time that you were mad or selfish.
5. How could you have made things better?

DO

Think of an event, like a vacation or birthday party, that you expected to be fun but ended up being terrible.

Let's create a postcard from that event:

1. Ask an adult for a blank index card or a small piece of paper.
2. On the front, draw a scene from the event. Include as many details as you can.
3. On the back, write a note about the event. What went wrong?

Now let's recreate the scene.

1. Imagine the day as it should have been. Create another postcard with that scene.
2. What would you do differently next time? Write it on the back.
3. Look at your two postcards. Which would you choose? How can you be sure to choose the better path next time?

When you are feeling angry or selfish, pray. God can help.