The Christ-Centered Expositor

A Field Guide for Word-Driven Disciple Makers

TONY MERIDA

The Christ-Centered Expositor by pastor and preaching professor Tony Merida provides a comprehensive overview of effective expository preaching that begins with the inner life of the expositor, and then moves to the essential elements of sermon preparation and delivery. Ideal for pastors and students, The Christ-Centered Expositor will equip you for greater faithfulness to God, his Word, and his mission.

TONY MERIDA is the founding pastor of Imago Dei Church in Raleigh, N.C. He also serves as Associate Professor of Preaching at Southeastern Baptist Seminary in Wake Forest, NC. He is the author of several books including Ordinary and eight volumes in the Christ-Centered Exposition commentary series, of which he also serves as a general editor, along with Danny Akin and David Platt.

First Freedom

The Beginning and End of Religious Liberty, Second Edition

EDITED BY JASON G. DUESING, THOMAS WHITE,
AND MALCOLM B. YARNELL III

Challenges to religious liberty are increasingly common today as historical Christianity comes into conflict with a new, secular orthodoxy. In this thoroughly revised second edition of First Freedom, leading evangelical scholars present the biblical and historical foundations for religious freedom in America, and address pressing topics such as:

- Religious freedom and the exclusivity of the gospel
- The Christian doctrine of religious liberty
- Religious liberty and the public square
- Religious freedom and the sexual revolution
- Baptist contributions to religious freedom, and more

The contributors equip churches, pastors, and Christian citizens to uphold this “first freedom” given by God and defended by Christians throughout our nation’s history.

JASON G. DUESING is Provost and Associate Professor of Historical Theology at Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Kansas City, MO.

THOMAS WHITE is President of Cedarville University in Cedarville, OH.

MALCOLM B. YARNELL III is Research Professor of Systematic Theology, Director of the Center for Theological Research, and Director of the Oxford Study Program at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, TX.

The
of the
ATONEMENT

A Historical and Critical Review

DAVID L. ALLEN

The Extent of the Atonement

A Historical and Critical Review

DAVID L. ALLEN

The extent of Christ's atoning work on the cross is one of the most divisive issues in evangelical Christianity. In The Extent of the Atonement: A Historical and Critical Review, David L. Allen makes a biblical, historical, theological, and practical case for a universal atonement. Through a comprehensive historical survey, Allen contends that universal atonement has always been the majority view of Christians, and that even among Calvinist theologians there is a considerable range of views. Marshalling evidence from Scripture and history, and critiquing arguments for a limited atonement, Allen affirms that an unlimited atonement is the best understanding of Christ's saving work. He concludes by contending that an unlimited atonement provides the best foundation for evangelism, missions, and preaching.

DAVID L. ALLEN is the Dean of the School of Preaching, Distinguished Professor of Preaching, George W. Truett Chair of Pastoral Ministry, and Director of the Center for Expository Preaching at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas.

The Essence of the New Testament

A Survey, Second Edition

EDITED BY ELMER L. TOWNS AND BEN GUTIERREZ

The Essence of the New Testament, Second Edition surveys the books of the New Testament from Matthew to Revelation. Drawing on decades of scholarly research and classroom teaching, the authors provide a practical, readable, and insightful introduction to the second major division of the Christian biblical canon.

This new edition contains new information about the emergence of an early Christian canon, the significance of Second Temple Judaism for New Testament study, an overview of tools for New Testament research, an introduction to Jesus studies, and a synopsis of the relationship of the Old Testament to the New Testament.

Other beneficial features for students and instructors include:

- More than 150 full-color photographs, maps, illustrations, and charts
- Introductions to each New Testament book, including background, outline, message, and theological significance.
- Introductory chapters on how we got the New Testament, principles of interpretation, the intertestamental period, and the Synoptic problem.
- Sidebars focusing on significant topics and Greek word studies for English readers.
- Study questions and recommended further reading.

Editors Elmer L. Towns and Ben Gutierrez draw from their years of teaching experience to provide a time-tested New Testament overview written at the college level, yet also appropriate for pastors, scholars, and laypeople. They combine the finest evangelical scholarship with a passion to open windows of spiritual and practical insight into the biblical text.

ELMER L. TOWNS is President of Elmer L. Towns Ministries and Co-founder of Liberty University in Lynchburg, Virginia.

BEN GUTIERREZ is Co-Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs and Professor of Divinity at Liberty University School of Divinity in Lynchburg, Virginia.

The Historical Reliability of the New Testament

Countering the Challenges to Evangelical Christian Beliefs

CRAIG L. BLOMBERG

Questions about the reliability of the New Testament come from many directions today. This volume addresses all of the most common ones, including the transmission of the text, the choice of books for the canon, the formation of the Gospels, the supposed contradictions among parallels, a comparison of Jesus and Paul and another of Acts and Paul, proposals of pseudonymity for various letters, and even the value of the book of Revelation. Selected historical corroborations of details from all parts of the New Testament are also presented. A chapter on the unique problems associated with miracles rounds out the volume. This book is a fully stocked toolbox for anyone interested in whether we can still trust the New Testament in the twenty-first century. Blomberg answers the question with a ringing affirmative.

CRAIG L. BLOMBERG is Distinguished Professor of New Testament at Denver Seminary.

Inductive Bible Study

Observation, Interpretation, and Application through the Lenses of History, Literature, and Theology

RICHARD ALAN FUHR JR. AND ANDREAS J. KÖSTENBERGER

Inductive Bible Study is a practical, relevant, and time-tested approach to interpreting Scripture. This volume incorporates insights from contemporary evangelical hermeneutics into an approachable, step-by-step process moving from observation through interpretation and on to the application of God's Word.

Each step is viewed through the lenses of the hermeneutical triad, exploring the historical, literary, and theological elements that impact how one observes, interprets, and applies the Bible. Inductive Bible Study explores a broad representation of biblical texts as it illustrates the steps of inductive methodology across the literary landscape of Scripture. This volume is an ideal textbook for courses in biblical interpretation, and for anyone who desires to better understand and teach Scripture.

ANDREAS J. KÖSTENBERGER is founder of Biblical Foundations™ and Senior Research Professor of New Testament and Biblical Theology at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, NC. He is a prolific author and distinguished evangelical scholar.

RICHARD ALAN FUHR JR. is Associate Professor of Biblical Studies at Liberty University School of Divinity. He is co-author of The Message of the Twelve: Hearing the Voice of the Minor Prophets.

The Bible Expositor's Handbook

New Testament

GREG HARRIS

Using the Bible as the original textbook, Greg Harris shows readers the continuity and cohesiveness of God's Word. The Bible Expositor's Handbook, New Testament picks up where the Old Testament edition ended. Rather than jumping into Matthew, where our New Testament begins, Harris instead looks to Luke 24 where Jesus taught through every book of the Old Testament, showing truths that were either already fulfilled by him or would be in the future. This unique approach enables the reader to have a greater confidence in what God's Word teaches, and a greater love and appreciation for our Lord Jesus Christ.

GREG HARRIS is Department Head and Professor of Bible Exposition at The Master's Seminary in Sun Valley, CA.

The Bible Expositor's Handbook

Old Testament

GREG HARRIS

The Bible Expositor's Handbook, Old Testament provides a thorough introduction to the attitudes and practices required to deeply understand the message of the Old Testament. Exhorting students of Scripture to approach the Old Testament with an attitude of humility and expectation, Greg Harris lays the groundwork for a Christ-centered interpretation that takes into account the redemptive story of the whole Bible. Employing a literal-grammatical hermeneutic, Harris leads the reader through the process of observing, interpreting, and applying the Old Testament.

GREG HARRIS is Department Head and Professor of Bible Exposition at The Master's Seminary in Sun Valley, CA.

A History of Israel

From the Bronze Age through the Jewish Wars

WALTER C. KAISER, JR. AND PAUL WEGNER

This volume provides a comprehensive introduction to the history of ancient Israel—from the creation account to setting the stage for the New Testament era. This edition has been thoroughly revised, but maintains its focus on Old Testament texts as well as ancient Near Eastern literary and archaeological sources to highlight the important modern controversies surrounding this part of Scripture. The work provides an up-to-date, conservative, evangelical position on matters relating to ancient Israel's history and is illustrated with over 600 figures, charts, and maps.

WALTER C. KAISER, JR. is President Emeritus and Colman M. Mockler Distinguished Professor Emeritus of Old Testament and Old Testament Ethics at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary.

PAUL WEGNER is Distinguished Professor of Old Testament Studies at Gateway Seminary in Ontario, CA.

Reformation 500

How the Greatest Revival Since Pentecost Continues to Shape the World Today

EDITED BY RAY VAN NESTE AND J. MICHAEL GARRETT

In a church rocked by controversies over vernacular Scripture, iconoclasm, and the power of clergy, men and women arose in protest. Today we call this protest movement the Protestant Reformation. At its heart, the Reformation was a great revival of the church centered on the recovery of biblical truth and the gospel of free grace. This movement continues to instruct and inspire believers even into the present day.

Reformation 500 celebrates the Reformation and probes the ways it has shaped our world for the better. With essays from an array of disciplines, this book explores the impact of the Reformation across a wide range of human experience. Literature, education, visual art, culture, politics, music, theology, church life, and Baptist history all provide prisms through which the Reformation legacy is viewed. From Augustine to Zwingli, historical figures like Luther, Calvin, Barth, Bonhoeffer, Rembrandt, Bach, Bunyan, and Wycliffe all find their way into this amazing 500-year story. From Anglicans to Baptists, scientists to poets, Reformation 500 weaves these many historical threads into a modern-day tapestry.

RAY VAN NESTE is Professor of Biblical Studies and Director of the Ryan Center for Biblical Studies at Union University in Jackson, Tennessee.

J. MICHAEL GARRETT is the Assistant Director and Librarian of the Ryan Center for Biblical Studies at Union University in Jackson, Tennessee.

The Lost Sermons of C. H. Spurgeon (Volume 1)

His Earliest Outlines and Sermons Between 1851 and 1854

CHRISTIAN T. GEORGE

In 1857, Charles Spurgeon—the most popular preacher in the Victorian world—promised his readers that he would publish his earliest sermons. For almost 160 years, these sermons have been lost to history. In February 2017, B&H Academic began releasing a multi-volume set that includes full-color facsimiles, transcriptions, contextual and biographical introductions, and editorial annotations. Written for scholars, pastors, and students alike, The Lost Sermons of C. H. Spurgeon adds approximately 10 percent more material to Spurgeon's body of literature.

CHRISTIAN T. GEORGE serves as Curator of The Spurgeon Library and Assistant Professor of Historical Theology at Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Kansas City, Missouri.

Infants and Children in the Church

Five Views on Theology and Ministry

A congregation rejoices when a new child is added to its midst, yet the church often wrestles—in both theology and practice—with how to best receive and minister to infants and children entrusted to her care.

Frequent questions arise like:

- How are infants and children impacted by sin?
- How does God treat people who die in their infancy or childhood?
- When and how are children considered members of the church?
- When and how are children instructed in Christian doctrine?

Infants and Children in the Church addresses these critical and sensitive questions from a variety of rich traditions, including Eastern Orthodox, Roman Catholic, Lutheran, Reformed, and Baptist, so that Christians can make the most of every opportunity as they minister to children.

ADAM HARWOOD is associate professor of theology, director of the Baptist Center for Theology and Ministry, holds the McFarland Chair of Theology, and is editor of the Journal for Baptist Theology and Ministry at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary in New Orleans, Louisiana.

KEVIN E. LAWSON is professor of Christian education, and director of the PhD and EdD programs in educational studies at Talbot School of Theology, Biola University in La Mirada, California. He is also editor of the Christian Education Journal.

Sharing Jesus Without Freaking Out

Evangelism the Way You Were Born to Do It

ALVIN L. REID

What if I told you evangelism is less about delivering a polished presentation and more about having a real conversation? What if I told you that God has created you to bring glory to himself by sharing Jesus with others, and that you don't need years of training to obey what he already made you to do?

God created you for his glory to advance his gospel with the gifts, talents, and opportunities he gave you. You live at this time in history for a purpose bigger than yourself. In these pages you will read how to connect the gospel story with your story, and how to talk about that story in normal conversations with people you know.

No gimmicks.

Nothing clever.

No need to freak out.

Just you, Jesus, and others—in conversations that matter.

ALVIN L. REID is the Senior Professor of Evangelism and Student Ministry and holds the Bailey Smith Chair of Evangelism at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, North Carolina.

Romans: Exegetical Guide to the Greek New Testament

JOHN D. HARVEY

The Exegetical Guide to the Greek New Testament (EGGNT) closes the gap between the Greek text and the available lexical and grammatical tools, providing all the necessary information for greater understanding of the text. The series makes interpreting any given New Testament book easier, especially for those who are hard pressed for time but want to preach or teach with accuracy and authority.

Each volume begins with a brief introduction to the particular New Testament book, a basic outline, and a list of recommended commentaries. The body is devoted to paragraph-by-paragraph exegesis of the Greek text and includes homiletical helps and suggestions for further study. A comprehensive exegetical outline of the New Testament book completes each EGGNT volume.

JOHN D. HARVEY is Dean of the Seminary and School of Ministry at Columbia International University in Columbia, South Carolina.

Pastoral Theology

Theological Foundations for Who a Pastor Is and What He Does

DANIEL L. AKIN AND R. SCOTT PACE

While many pastoral ministry books focus on the practical duties of the pastor, few actually consider how theological truth defines the pastor's role and responsibilities. Pastoral Theology constructs a theological framework for pastoral ministry that is biblically derived, historically informed, doctrinally sound, missionally engaged, and contextually relevant. Through careful theological integration the authors formulate a ministry philosophy that defines the pastoral office and determines its corresponding responsibilities in light of theological truth.

The authors provide a theological understanding of the pastorate that will equip aspiring pastors to discern and pursue their calling, challenge younger pastors to build on ministerial truth instead of ministerial trends, and inspire seasoned pastors to be reinvigorated in their passion for Christ and his church.

DANIEL L. AKIN is Professor of Preaching and Theology, holds the Ed Young Sr. Chair of Expository Preaching, and is President at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, North Carolina.

R. SCOTT PACE holds the Rev. A. E. and Dora Hughes Chair of Christian Ministry and is the Chair of the Christian and Cross-Cultural Ministry Department at Oklahoma Baptist University in Shawnee, Oklahoma.

Removing the Stain of Racism from the Southern Baptist Convention

Diverse African American and White Perspectives

EDITED BY JARVIS J. WILLIAMS AND KEVIN M. JONES

The Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) has a historical stain. The SBC once affirmed slavery and openly opposed and condemned abolitionists. Even though the convention repented of this sin publicly, a profound divide between the white majority and the black and brown minority still exists for many churches.

This stain is more than historical fact; it prohibits Southern Baptist churches from embracing the one new man in Christ promised in Ephesians 2:11–22 and from participating in the new song of the saints from every tongue, tribe, people, and nation in Revelation 5:9.

The glorious gospel of Jesus Christ commands all his followers to do our part in removing racism from our midst. Removing the Stain of Racism from the Southern Baptist Convention is a powerful and practical call to sacrifice, humility, and perseverance—along with a relentless commitment to Christian unity—for the sake of the gospel and our brothers and sisters in Christ.

JARVIS J. WILLIAMS is Associate Professor of New Testament Interpretation at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, KY and author of numerous books and articles.

KEVIN M. JONES is Associate Dean of Academic Innovation and Professor of Teacher Education at Boyce College in Louisville, Kentucky.

Encountering God through Expository Preaching

Connecting God's People to God's Presence through God's Word

JIM SCOTT ORRICK, BRIAN PAYNE, AND RYAN FULLERTON

Preaching occurs when a holy man of God opens the Word of God and says to the people of God,

"Come and experience God with me in this text."

Encountering God through Expository Preaching ushers preachers of all levels of experience through the practical steps necessary to preach with power. The authors not only cover the exegetical skills and homiletical techniques necessary for sound preaching, but they also dive deeper to emphasize how a pastor's character and reliance upon the Holy Spirit are essential to preaching God's word effectively.

As the preacher encounters God in preaching, he will preach with spiritual power and see lives transformed and churches strengthened.

JIM SCOTT ORRICK is Professor of Literature and Culture at Boyce College in Louisville, Kentucky.

BRIAN PAYNE is Professor of Christian Theology and Expository Preaching at Boyce College in Louisville, Kentucky, and Senior Pastor of First Baptist Church of Fisherville.

RYAN FULLERTON is Lead Pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church in Louisville, Kentucky, and helps lead the efforts of the Immanuel Network to plant and cultivate healthy churches.

Illustrated Bible Survey

An Introduction, Revised Edition

EDITED BY ED HINDSON AND ELMER L. TOWNS

Illustrated Bible Survey, Revised Edition introduces all the books of the Bible from Genesis to Revelation. Based on more than thirty years of scholarly research and classroom teaching, editors Ed Hindson, Elmer Towns, and scholars from Liberty University provide a visually engaging, practical, readable, and insightful overview of God's Word and its eternal message.

Ideally suited for undergraduate students, laymen, and pastors, this volume features:

- More than 200 full-color photographs, maps, charts, and illustrations
- Introductions to each book of the Bible, including background, date, author, outline, and message
- Introductory chapters on the themes of the Bible, how we got our Bible, and the people and places of the Bible
- Sidebars on the unique features, beneficial insights, and practical applications of biblical truths
- Study questions and recommended further reading

ECPA Gold Medallion award winners Hindson and Towns draw from a lifetime of teaching more than 100,000 students. They represent quality evangelical scholarship, along with a passion to make the Scriptures come to life as they open windows of insight into the biblical text. This exciting survey highlights the key elements of the literature, history, archaeology, and wisdom of the biblical text with an eye on the practical application of its timeless truths, moral principles, and theological insights so desperately needed in today's world.

ED HINDSON, is Dean of the Institute of Biblical Studies, Dean of the Rawlings School of Divinity, and Distinguished Professor of Religion at Liberty University in Lynchburg, Virginia.

ELMER L. TOWNS is the Distinguished Professor of Systematic Theology and Dean of the School of Religion at Liberty University and Liberty Baptist Theological Seminary in Lynchburg, Virginia.

Theology, Church, and Ministry

A Handbook for Theological Education

EDITED BY DAVID S. DOCKERY

We live in a precarious time when many are questioning the necessity of formal theological education for ministers. Theology, Church, and Ministry: A Handbook for Theological Education helps readers understand the critical role theological education plays in equipping God-called ministers for service in the church. This distinct resource explains both the development and purpose of theological education as well as its role in student formation. The contributors include outstanding thinkers and leaders in the field of theological education, including Con Campbell, Tim Tennent, Mark Bailey, Kevin Vanhoozer, Dan Block, Robert Smith, Dana Harris, Malcolm Yarnell, Danny Akin, and Greg Wills, among others.

DAVID S. DOCKERY has been the president of Trinity International University in Deerfield, Illinois since 2014. Before coming to Trinity, Dockery served as president of Union University in Jackson, Tennessee for more than 18 years. He has also served as chairman of the board of the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities. Dockery has authored or edited thirty books including Renewing Minds, Shaping a Christian Worldview, and Christian Leadership Essentials.

Pastoral Ministry

The Ministry of a Shepherd, Volume 1 in A Treasury of Baptist Theology Series

EDITED BY DERON J. BILES

“So he shepherded them according to the integrity of his heart, and guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.” —Psalm 78:72

Being a pastor is an audacious calling—both a remarkable privilege and an unaccomplishable task. In general, the Bible talks about the identity of a shepherd more than the activity of a shepherd. Yet both are vital in ministry. Ezekiel 34 is God’s message to pastors: His template by which our ministries will be measured. Pastoral Ministry brings together this mandate of God, the needs of the sheep, and the model of the good Shepherd to uniquely inspire and equip you to fulfill your ministry as a shepherd.

DERON J. BILES is Director of the Professional Doctoral Program in the School of Preaching and Professor of Pastoral Ministry and Preaching in the School of Theology and the School of Preaching at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas.

The Story of Scripture

An Introduction to Biblical Theology
Volume 1 in the Hobbs College Library

MATTHEW Y. EMERSON

Although the Bible contains sixty-six books, written by forty authors, it is one book written by one author, the Holy Spirit, with one subject: Jesus Christ. How do these books, from Genesis to Revelation, fit together? The Story of Scripture guides the reader through the four major themes of the Bible—Creation, Fall, Redemption, New Creation—showing how each individual book of the Bible tells a cohesive story centered on Jesus.

MATTHEW Y. EMERSON is Associate Professor of Religion and holds the Dickinson Chair of Religion at Oklahoma Baptist University in Shawnee, OK.

Teaching the World

Foundations for Online Theological Education

JOHN CARTWRIGHT, GABRIEL ETZEL, CHRISTOPHER D. JACKSON, AND TIMOTHY PAUL JONES

More and more seminaries, Christian universities, and Bible colleges are opting to train future ministers and missionaries online.

What happens when the movement toward online education is shaped by pragmatic or financial concerns instead of Scripture and theology? Ministry training can be reduced to a mere transfer of information as institutions lose sight of their calling to shape the souls of God-called men and women in preparation for effective ministry.

How might online ministry training look different if biblical and theological foundations were placed first? Teaching the World brings together educators from a wide range of backgrounds and from some of the largest providers of online theological education in the world. Together, they present a revolutionary new approach to online theological education, highly practical and yet thoroughly shaped by Scripture and theology.

JOHN CARTWRIGHT is Associate Professor of Christian Leadership and Education and Associate Dean of Liberty University's School of Divinity in Lynchburg, VA.

GABRIEL ETZEL is Professor of Theology and Christian Leadership and Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education at Liberty University in Lynchburg, VA.

CHRISTOPHER D. JACKSON is Pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church and St. Peter's Lutheran Church in northeast Wisconsin.

TIMOTHY PAUL JONES is the C. Edwin Gheens Professor of Christian Family Ministry and Associate Vice President of the Global Campus at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, KY.

Together on God's Mission

How Southern Baptists Cooperate to Fulfill the Great Commission

D. SCOTT HILDRETH

The Southern Baptist Convention has a rich heritage of cooperation. However, in recent years, the SBC Cooperative Program has suffered significant decline in local church participation, leading some to question if we still believe in its mission. Together on God's Mission is a plea to all Southern Baptists to reclaim the power of cooperation. For a new generation, Scott Hildreth tells the story of Southern Baptist cooperation, what will be lost if it dissolves, and reveals how the Southern Baptist Convention is uniquely positioned to take the gospel to the nations.

D. SCOTT HILDRETH is Assistant Professor of Global Studies and Director of the Center for Great Commission Studies at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, North Carolina.

SBC FAQs

A Ready Reference

KEITH HARPER AND AMY WHITFIELD

SBC FAQs provides a general overview of the Southern Baptist Convention in the format of frequently asked questions. Covering details of basic history, polity structure, entity functions and more, this ready reference seeks to answer the most common inquiries about how America's largest Protestant denomination functions. The topics range from the founding of the SBC to how officers and committees work, what individual entities do, movements in modern denominational history, common terminology, and more. It is designed for first-time messengers and longtime messengers to the SBC Annual Meeting, as well as students, church members, and those in full-time ministry. Whether one is new to the denominational family and wants to learn the big picture or a lifelong Southern Baptist who wants to refresh his or her knowledge about a specific detail, SBC FAQs offers clear and concise explanations. Cooperation begins with an informed commitment to participation. This resource will not only help readers find information, but also inspire them to find their place in the process.

KEITH HARPER is Senior Professor of Baptist Studies at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, NC.

AMY WHITFIELD is Director of Communications at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, NC.

Preaching by the Book

Developing and Delivering Text-Driven Sermons

Volume 2 in the Hobbs College Library

Preaching by the Book is a practical handbook offering fundamental guidance for preachers beginning to explore their gifts and fresh insights for seasoned veterans desiring to refine their craft. It is a unique resource that provides a concise overview of the sacred task by considering its theological foundation, textual framework, and technical features.

Readers will be motivated by the survey of doctrinal truths used to define the preaching task. Core convictions that include God revealing himself through the Scriptures, redeeming the lost through his Son, and ordaining preaching as his strategy, serve as a compelling impetus to faithfully proclaim his truth.

Preachers will also be equipped with a practical strategy and essential tools for interpreting Scripture, dissecting a passage, and preparing a message. The process presented offers a systematic approach for designing and developing sermons that proclaim the timeless and theological truths of God's word with conviction, fidelity, and relevance.

Sermon preparation also requires preachers to consider other critical elements of faithful proclamation that many works on preaching overlook. Preaching by the Book provides biblical principles and practical insights for several of these components with individual chapters devoted to sermon introductions, illustrations, and invitations. It also challenges preachers to develop their style as well as their substance by considering their unique personality and gifts, the work of the Spirit, and the particular audience on a given occasion. The tools and tips provided will help preachers clearly and effectively communicate God's word by fully considering their context and congregation.

Preaching is a sacred privilege that God has graciously entrusted to us as servants of Christ and as stewards of the gospel. As such, we must be found faithful (1 Cor 4:1-2). This is a volume devoted to that end.

Eschatological Discipleship

Leading Christians to Understand Their Historical and Cultural Context

TREVIN WAX

Christian eschatology forms a basic, but necessary component of discipleship. The New Testament authors consistently appealed to eschatology when exhorting Christians to live according to biblical ethics. This book demonstrates the importance of the worldview question “What time is it?” for missiology through the examination of prevailing rival eschatologies in North America today. Additionally, the book demonstrates the need for common evangelical modes of disciple-making to go beyond the adoption of personal spiritual disciplines or engagement in church-related activities to a missionary encounter and confrontation with the world.

TREVIN WAX is the Bible and Reference Publisher for LifeWay Christian Resources. A former missionary to Romania, Trevin hosts a blog at The Gospel Coalition and regularly contributes to The Washington Post, Religion News Service, World, and Christianity Today, which named him one of 33 millennials shaping the next generation of evangelicals. His previous books include Counterfeit Gospels, Clear Winter Nights, This is Our Time, and Gospel-Centered Teaching.

Superheroes Can't Save You

Epic Examples of Historic Heresies

TODD L. MILES

Comic Superheroes embody the hopes of a world that is desperate for a Savior. But those comic creations do not have what it takes to save us from our greatest foes—sin and death.

Jesus Christ is able to save us because he is all that the Bible says that he is, fully human and fully divine. According to the logic of the gospel, Jesus must be everything the Bible says that he is so that he can do everything the Bible says that he does.

Throughout the history of the Church there have been bad ideas, misconceptions, and heretical presentations of Jesus. Each one of these heresies fails to present Jesus as the Bible reveals him.

And each one of these heresies is embodied in a different comic superhero.

Using a comic superhero as an illustration of each heresy, Superheroes Can't Save You presents:

- A history of the deficient view of Jesus
- An investigation of contemporary proponents of that heresy
- Warnings on how contemporary Christians can unwittingly fall into such bad thinking of Jesus
- A biblically faithful correction on who Jesus is
- And an explanation of why it is important that we understand who Jesus actually is

Many Christians may not understand the language and vocabulary of theological terms like hypostatic union, person, or essence. But they do know who Superman, Batman, and other superheroes are. By comparing something everybody already knows (who the superheroes are) with what they need to know (who Jesus is), this book makes vitally important Christian truths understandable, applicable, and heartwarming to a wide audience.

TODD L. MILES is Professor of Theology and Director of the Master of Theology Program at Western Seminary in Portland, OR.

From Hermeneutics to Exegesis

The Trajectory of Biblical Interpretation

MATTHEW R. MALCOLM

Interpreting the Bible requires theoretical discernment and practical know-how. Many textbooks focus on the philosophical underpinnings of interpretation, without giving dedicated attention to how these foundations might form the basis of intelligent exegesis of biblical texts from Old and New Testaments. Other textbooks focus on interpretive methods, without helping students to understand why these are philosophically or theologically robust, or how they relate to centuries of reflection on the phenomenon of interpretation. This textbook gives serious attention to both of these areas. Beginning with hermeneutics, the book surveys the history of this discipline, engages with important theological issues, and arrives at a memorable depiction of what is happening when fruitful interpretation takes place. The book then moves to focus on exegesis, helping students to understand the issues at stake in interpreting biblical passages, and providing a straightforward guide to writing an exegesis paper. Academically solid without being overwhelmingly detailed, this is a reliable guide to the important path from hermeneutics to exegesis.

MATTHEW R. MALCOLM is Dean of the Faculty of Liberal Arts at Universitas Pelita, Harapan, Indonesia.

Preaching for the Rest of Us

Essentials for Text-Driven Preaching

ROBBY GALLATY AND STEVEN W. SMITH

Preaching for the Rest of Us serves as a starter's guide to text-driven preaching. Driven by the conviction that pastors hold the weighty and honorable responsibility of explaining Scripture to their congregations, Gallaty and Smith present a clear step-by-step process for re-presenting Scripture in compelling text-driven sermons.

This unique type of preaching is the interpretation and communication of a text of Scripture driven by the substance, structure, and spirit of the text. It's not the presentation of a sermon, but the re-presentation of a text of a Scripture. For those who don't feel trained for text-driven preaching, whose preaching template is tired and predictable, or need a preaching restart, Preaching for the Rest of Us provides a compelling reason and method for preaching texts of Scripture.

ROBBY GALLATY is the Senior Pastor of Long Hollow Baptist Church in Hendersonville, TN, and President of Replicate Ministries.

STEVEN W. SMITH is the Senior Pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church in Little Rock, AR, and an Adjunct Faculty member at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Spirit-Led Preaching

The Holy Spirit's Role in Sermon Preparation and Delivery, Revised Edition

BY GREG HEISLER

Preaching simply does not happen apart from the Holy Spirit. In fact, preaching is the Spirit's ministry! Spirit-Led Preaching helps readers understand preaching from the Spirit's point of view and teaches about the Spirit's role in both the preparation and delivery process, showing what it means to be truly empowered by the Spirit when you preach. It also explains the crucial connection between Word and Spirit as they depend on each other to bring about spiritual transformation in the lives of the congregation. This revised edition includes a new chapter on the congregation's role in relationship to the Spirit and preaching—a subject not often mentioned in books on preaching. Spirit-Led Preaching is a book written by a pastor to pastors and students of preaching and is filled with personal examples from the author's own preaching ministry. It has encouraged both novice students of preaching as well as seasoned pulpit veterans for over a decade.

GREG HEISLER serves as Senior Pastor of Madison Avenue Baptist Church in Maryville, TN. He previously served as the Johnny Hunt Chair of Expository Preaching and Associate Professor of Preaching at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, NC.

God the Trinity

Biblical Portraits

MALCOLM B. YARNELL III

Is the Trinity biblical? Must we affirm God as three persons in one being? Despite a renewed interest in the Trinity in recent years, many Christians, including most evangelicals, relegate the Son of God to creaturely status or repudiate the personhood of the Holy Spirit. In addition, many scholars affirm the Trinity is derived from but not directly revealed in Scripture, with some arguing it is thus unnecessary.

MALCOLM B. YARNELL III is Research Professor of Systematic Theology, Director of the Center for Theological Research, and Director of the Oxford Study Program at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas.

Church Government for an Anti-Institutional Age

EDITED BY MARK DEVER AND JONATHAN LEEMAN

Ours is an anti-polity age, perhaps more than any other in the history of the church. Yet polity remains as important now as it was in the New Testament church. But what does a faithful biblical polity look like? In this volume, representatives of several North American Baptist seminaries and a Baptist university make the exegetical and theological case for a Baptist polity.

MARK DEVER is Senior Pastor at Capitol Hill Baptist Church in Washington DC, President of 9Marks, and Adjunct Professor at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

JONATHAN LEEMAN is Editorial Director at 9Marks and occasional lecturer at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary and The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

The Anabaptists and Contemporary Baptists

Restoring New Testament Christianity Essays in Honor of Paige Patterson

EDITED BY MALCOLM B. YARNELL III

According to the scholarly and pastoral authors of this essay collection, sixteenth-century Anabaptists have much to teach Baptists and other Free Church evangelicals. A study of the lives and theology of evangelical Anabaptists encourages readers to dig deeper into the Bible, count the cost of discipleship to Jesus Christ, and commit oneself to engaging the world with the gospel of Jesus Christ.

MALCOLM B. YARNELL III is Research Professor of Systematic Theology, Director of the Center for Theological Research, and Director of the Oxford Studies Program at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas.

The Bible Expositor's Handbook

GREG HARRIS

The Bible Expositor's Handbook of the Old Testament provides a thorough introduction to the attitudes and practices required to deeply understand the message of the Old Testament. Exhorting students of Scripture to approach the Old Testament with an attitude of humility and expectation, Greg Harris lays the groundwork for a Christ-centered interpretation that takes into account the redemptive story of the whole Bible.

GREG HARRIS is Department Head and Professor of Bible Exposition at The Master's Seminary in Sun Valley, CA.

Biblical Hermeneutics

A Comprehensive Introduction to Interpreting Scripture, Second Edition

EDITED BY BRUCE CORLEY, STEVE LEMKE, AND GRANT LOVEJOY

Biblical Hermeneutics is a textbook for introductory courses in hermeneutics. It takes an interdisciplinary approach that is both balanced and practical with six major foci: the history of biblical interpretation, philosophical presuppositions, biblical genre, the uniqueness of Scripture, the practice of exegesis, and use of exegetical insights that will be lived and communicated in preaching and teaching.

BRUCE CORLEY is former President and Professor of New Testament and Greek at B.H. Carroll Theological Institute.

STEVE W. LEMKE is Provost Emeritus, Vice President for Institutional Assessment, and Professor of Philosophy and Ethics at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary.

GRANT I. LOVEJOY is Director of Orality Strategies for the International Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Interpreting the New Testament

Essays on Methods and Issues

EDITED BY DAVID ALAN BLACK AND DAVID S. DOCKERY

The editors of this book contend that one of the world's best-known and most influential bodies of literature is one of the least understood. This is due both to the proliferation of modern hermeneutical approaches and to the lack of understanding of the historical backgrounds of the New Testament.

DAVID ALAN BLACK is Professor of New Testament and Greek at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, North Carolina.

DAVID S. DOCKERY is President of Trinity International University in Deerfield, Illinois. He has also served as Chairman of the Board of the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities. Dockery has authored more than thirty books and is a consulting editor for Christianity Today magazine.

Enduring Truth

Restoring Sound Theology and Relevance to African American Preaching

AARON E. LAVENDER

Enduring Truth argues that faithfulness to Scripture is the solution to a "crisis" among African American preaching. Though misinterpreting God's Word is not restricted to one race or culture, author Aaron Lavender identifies three factors that have precipitated the decline of black preaching specifically: racial segregation, black liberation theology, and prosperity theology. While focused on the African American context, this volume addresses topics relevant to all preachers.

AARON E. LAVENDER is Vice President of Carver Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary in Kansas City, Missouri, and has served as the Senior Pastor of Grace Baptist Church since 1986.

Counseling the Hard Cases

True Stories Illustrating the Sufficiency of God's Resources in Scripture

EDITED BY STUART SCOTT AND HEATH LAMBERT

Biblical counselors have worked for decades to demonstrate that God's resources in Scripture are sufficient to help people with their counseling related problems. In Counseling the Hard Cases, editors Stuart Scott and Heath Lambert use the true stories of real patients to show how the truths of God's Word can be released to bring help, hope, and healing into the lives of those who struggle with difficult psychiatric diagnoses.

STUART SCOTT is Associate Professor of Biblical Counseling at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky.

HEATH LAMBERT is Associate Professor of Biblical Counseling at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and its undergraduate institution, Boyce College.

New Testament & Portions

meat was locusts and wild honey. *Then went out to him Jeru- salem, and all Judea, and all the region round about Jordan. *And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins. *But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come? *Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance. *And think not to say within your- selves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. *And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. *I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire: *Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquench- able fire.
of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins. *And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat locusts and wild honey. *And preached, saying, There cometh one might- ier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose. *I indeed have baptized you with water; but he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost.
repentance for the remission of sins. *As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. *Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth; *And all flesh shall see the salvation of God. *Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come? *Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. *And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. *And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then? *He answered and saith unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise. *Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do? *He said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you. *And the soldiers like- wise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages. *And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ, or not; *John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire: *Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable. *And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people.
sayest thou of thyself? *He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias. *And they which were sent were of the Pharisees. *And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet? *John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not; *He it is, who com- ing after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose. *These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.
answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becom- eth us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him. *And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him: *And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.
the Spirit like a dove descending upon him: *And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.
upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.
John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him. *And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost. *And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.
preferred before me: for he was before me. *And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water. *And And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost. *And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.
THE TEMPTATION OF JESUS
¹Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil. *And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred. *And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. *But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. *Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple, *And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone. *Jesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God. *Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; *And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. *Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. *Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him.
¹²And immediately the Spirit driveth him into the wilderness. *And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Satan; and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him.
¹And Jesus being full of the Holy Ghost returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, *Being forty days tempted of the devil. And in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered. *And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command that it be made bread. *And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God. *And the devil, tak- ing him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. *And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it. *If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine. *And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. *And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence. *For it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee: *And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone. *And Jesus answering said unto him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God. *And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.
THE BAPTISM OF JESUS
¹³Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him. *But John forbade him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me? *And Jesus
*And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Naza- reth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan. *And straight- way coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and
²¹Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heavens were opened, *And the Holy Ghost descend- ed in a bodily shape like a dove
²⁹The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. *This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is

KJV Creedal Bible

Tom Nettles (Commentary)

KJV text Bible with special front matter section that includes the most significant creeds of Christian history with accessible commentary on their origin, meaning, and importance.

Most Christians today have lost contact with the historic creeds of the Christian faith. Starting with the creeds in the New Testament itself and going on to the Apostle's Creed and others, this edition of the KJV Bible includes the most significant creeds of Christian history with accessible commentary on their origin, meaning, and importance. Also included is an essay introducing the reader to the importance of creeds today.

FEATURES

- Special front matter section including the most significant creeds of Christian history such as the Apostle's Creed, the Creed of Nicea, and the Constantinopolitan Creed
- Accessible commentary provided on the origin, meaning, and importance of each creed
- Over 32 pages of exclusive content provides theological and historical appreciation of church history and the witness of the Scripture
- Large, easy to read print
- A unique product both in its inclusion of the creeds, but also in its commentary about the creeds
- Dr. Nettles is a widely respected theologian, historian, and author

Commentary on Romans

Biblical Theology for Christian Proclamation

The Biblical Theology for Christian Proclamation commentary series explores the theology of the Bible in considerable depth, spanning both Testaments. General Editors include T. Desmond Alexander, Andreas J. Kostenberger, and Thomas R. Schreiner with contributing authors from a variety of backgrounds and perspectives, though all affirm the inerrancy and inspiration of Scripture. All volumes provide a discussion of introductory matters, including the book's historical setting and the literary structure. Also included is an exegetical treatment of all the relevant passages in succinct commentary-style format. The major contribution of each volume, however, is a thorough discussion of the most important themes of the biblical book in relation to the canon as a whole. What distinguishes this series is its orientation toward Christian proclamation. Within its pages, the authors seek to relate biblical theology to our every day lives and to the life of the church. The desire behind this commentary series is to equip those in Christian ministry who are called by God to preach and teach the precious truths of Scripture to their congregations.

FEATURES

- Series brings a unique approach to market offering the combination of both exegetical commentary and a comprehensive biblical theology application
- Provides a discussion of introductory matters—including the historical setting and the literary structure of a given book of Scripture, an exegetical treatment of all the relevant passages in succinct commentary-style format, as well as a thorough discussion of the most important themes of the biblical book in relation to the canon as a whole

Planting Missional Churches

Your Guide to Starting Churches that Multiply, Second Edition

ED STETZER AND DANIEL IM

Planting a church is one of the most exciting adventures you'll ever embark on. It's also one of the hardest. It requires initiative, leadership, strategy, systems, and a lot of prayer.

ED STETZER is the Billy Graham Distinguished Chair for Church, Mission, and Evangelism and Executive Director of the Billy Graham Center at Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois.

DANIEL IM is the Director of Church Multiplication for LifeWay and NewChurches.com. Daniel has served and pastored in church plants and multisite churches ranging from 100 to 50,000 people in Vancouver, Ottawa, Montreal, Korea, and Edmonton.

Missiology

An Introduction, Second Edition

EDITED BY JOHN MARK TERRY

Thoroughly updated and revised—with half of the chapters new to the second edition—Missiology equips the reader with a vast resource on contemporary missions. This graduate-level introduction is divided into five sections (Introduction to the Study of Missions, Biblical Basis of Missions, Theology of Missions, and Applied Missiology) and offers essays on modern missions issues and methods such as contextualization, spiritual warfare, and morality, as well as chapters on major world religions and cults in North America.

JOHN MARK TERRY is Professor of Missions at Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary. He served with the International Mission Board for twenty-four years in Southeast Asia.

Sharing Jesus Without Freaking Out

Evangelism the Way You Were Born to Do It

ALVIN L. REID

God created you for his glory to advance his gospel with the gifts, talents, and opportunities he gave you. You live at this time in history for a purpose bigger than yourself. In these pages you will read how to connect the gospel story with your story, and how to talk about that story in normal conversations with people you know.

ALVIN L. REID serves as Senior Professor of Evangelism and Student Ministry and holds the Bailey Smith Chair of Evangelism at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, North Carolina.
