HCSB Study Bible

Developed in direct response to what consumer focus groups asked for, only one study Bible delivers more than you'd expect—right where you'd expect it.

When reading a passage in the Bible, you shouldn't have to wonder where to find supporting reference notes and commentary that go along with it. That's why the HCSB Study Bible—featuring approximately 15,000 study notes—is designed so that every clarifying resource is there on the same page spread as the biblical text to which it refers. You'll never again forget what you were looking for, because the pertinent note, map, chart, word study, or illustration is already there. And when an even deeper view is desired, there are also introductions for each book, outlines, timelines, a topical concordance, and more.

For the growing believer whose desire is to know Scripture more intimately and live out its loving instruction, the HCSB Study Bible always keeps you and God on the same page.

The Creation

The Creation

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

"Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and God's Spirit was hovering over the surface of the waters." Then God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. God saw that the light was good, and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light "day," and the darkness he called "night." Evening came, and then morning—the first day.

God said, "Let there be an expanse between the waters, separating water from water." So God made the expanse, and separated the water above the expanse from the water below the expanse. This was the first "day." Evening came, and then morning—the second day.

God said, "Let the water under the earth be gathered into one place, and let the dry land appear." And God called the gathered water "seas," and the dry land he called "earth." And God called the gathering of the waters "the seas," and the dry land "earth." And God said, "Let the earth produce vegetation: seed-bearing plants and trees on the earth that bear fruit and have seeds." And it was so. The earth produced vegetation: seed-bearing plants and trees on the earth that bear fruit and have seeds in each of their kinds. "Evening came, and then morning—the third day."

God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of the sky to separate the day from the night, to mark the seasons, days and nights." So God made the lights in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth—the greater lights to have dominion over the day and the lesser lights to have dominion over the night—as well as the stars. "And God put them in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth." So God made the lights in the sky. "So God made the lights in the sky: the greater light to have dominion over the day, the lesser light to have dominion over the night, and the stars." And God placed them in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth, to mark the seasons, days and nights, and to give light on the earth.

99 Essential Christian Doctrines

The goodness of creation (Genesis 1)

In Genesis 1, God repeatedly affirmed that all of His creation was good, even "very good" (1:31). It is good, in God's judgment, because He created it for purpose that it fulfilled—to reflect and display the good character of the Creator. Therefore, sin and evil should not be seen as a foundational part of the world but rather as a corruption of it. While the creation has been marred and distorted as a result of sin, it still glows in the hands of God and in His purpose of proclaiming His glory in the world. God's people should reflect His goodness in their lives and in their witness to the world (Eph. 3:10).

L in them were completed. <sup>2</sup>By the seventh day God completed His work that He had done, and He rested on the seventh day from all His work that He had done. <sup>3</sup>God blessed the seventh day and declared it holy, for on it He rested from His work of creation.

Man and Woman in the Garden

<sup>4</sup>These are the records of the heavens and

In the Beginning, God.

God's transcendence, power, and authority commanded creation into existence. The name used to describe God in Genesis 1 is Elohim, the common name of God in Hebrew. It means God is mighty, powerful, and exceedingly great. It describes the kind of God who speaks and the universe is born, a God who owns everything in creation because He spoke it into being. He is high, seated on the throne of the heavens. All created beings, including humankind, owe their allegiance to this amazing God because there is none like Him; there is no other God who has such power and authority, such bigness and transcendence.

Moses, the author of Genesis, then takes a moment to retell the story of creation in chapter 2, this time with a subtle yet critical difference. In the second account we see Moses refer to God as "LORD God." This name is different from what was used in chapter 1. This name is the personal name of God; it doesn't describe an attribute or role of God but instead calls Him by His personal name: Yahweh.

When Moses uses the personal name of God, he is communicating something about the Creator. While we see God as powerful and authoritative in Genesis 1, we see in Genesis 2 that He is also personal and intimate. He is separate and holy, but also near and able to be known. Moses teaches us this by sharing God's personal name, but we also see it in the unique and intimate way God created humankind. God didn't just speak the first man into existence, as He did with the rest of creaation. Instead, God formed Adam from the dirt, shaped and knitted him as a Craftsman working on His masterpiece. And if that wasn't intimate enough, the Almighty breathed life into Adam. Man's first breath was, as it were, the breath of God. Can you imagine Adam's lungs inflating for the first time with a breath given by God?

As Elohim, God owns everything. All allegiance and worship are due Him because He is powerful and holy, set apart from creation as the infinitely mighty Creator. He has rights over us, and we are accountable to Him.

Voices from the Church
The God of the Bible in the very first chapter is not some abstract "unmoved mover," some spirit impossible to define, some ground of all beings, some mystical experience. He has personality and dares to disclose himself in words that human beings understand. Right through the whole Bible, that picture of God constantly recurs. However great or transcendent he is, he is a talking God."<sup>6</sup>

—D. A. Carson

(Genesis 1:1-25)

But there is an amazing truth we often miss because our view of God stops there. Yes, because He is Elohim, we have to give Him our all. But because He is Yahweh, the God who is near and compassionate with His people, we should want to give Him our all. We should want to surrender all of our rights because this God wants better things for us than we could ever dream up for ourselves! Because our God is Elohim, we must give Him all our worship, but because He's Yahweh, we gladly offer it, as nothing else could make us happier. »

Apologetics Study Bible for Students

Hard Questions, Straight Answers

General Editor: Dr. Sean McDowell

The Apologetics Study Bible for Students will anchor younger Christians in the truths of Scripture by equipping them with thoughtful and practical responses for whenever the core issues of their faith and life are challenged.

percent of them leave church altogether. The Apologetics Study Bible for Students works against that trend by helping this audience begin to better articulate its beliefs. In addition to the complete HCSB text and dozens of articles collected from today's most popular youth leaders, including general editor Sean McDowell, this new study Bible also features:

SEAN MCDOWELL, Ph.D. is a speaker, author, and professor at Biola. He has written, co-written, or edited over 15 books.

Life Essentials Study Bible

In the Life Essentials Study Bible, renowned Bible teacher Gene Getz complements the full text of the popular HCSB translation by elaborating on 1,500 principles in Scripture that are as relevant today as when the sixty-six books of the Bible were written. Distilling these truths into principles, Getz helps the reader more easily remember and effectively apply the Bible's wisdom to everyday life. He explains how each of these principles represents a supracultural truth—one that can and should be applied at any moment in history and in every cultural situation.

In addition, the Life Essentials Study Bible was created with an integrated digital study system—more than 250 hours of free online coaching content led by Getz—that fosters a greater understanding of the Bible's grand story.

Along the way, Getz adds pertinent questions in print to inspire personal reflection or group discussion of each principle. There's also an introduction to each book of the Bible and its list of corresponding principles, plus a topical index and cross references for all 1,500 principles. Other features of this dynamic study Bible—available in six different editions—include a two-piece gift box (leather editions only) as well as a presentation page.

The Mission of God Study Bible

The Mission of God Study Bible encourages followers of Jesus Christ to see their everyday life from God's perspective and have His heart for people. It's a reminder that we live around people in desperate need of redemption and reconciliation with God, which can only be found in Jesus. The mission of God has never been just for specialists; it is for all believers to live out through their daily lives and by sharing the good news of what God has done through the death and resurrection of His Son Jesus. Wherever you are, you are on mission.

In The Mission of God Study Bible, readers will hear from today's top thinkers, theologians, and leading voices in the church about what it means to live in the mission of God. Essay contributors include Matt Chandler, Tullian Tchividjian, Ed Stetzer, Matthew Barnett, Andrea Mullins, Dave Ferguson, Christopher J. H. Wright, and many others.

Readers will also discover "Letters to the Church" from elder statesmen that speak to the grand narrative of God's mission in Scripture. These words from Billy Graham, Jack Hayford, R. T. Kendall, Erwin Lutzer, Calvin Miller, and R. C. Sproul will inspire you to live God's mission daily.

Every Day with Jesus Daily Bible

with Devotions by Selwyn Hughes

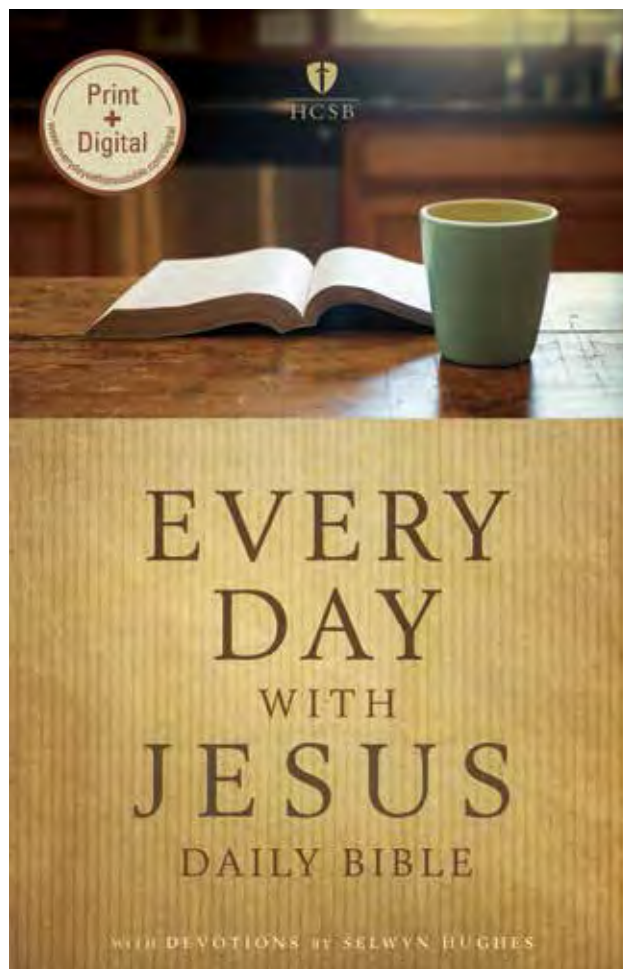

Many people begin a new year with a commitment to read the Bible through in 365 days. These intentions are good, but the reading plan they choose may not be the most effective one for reaching the goal.

Every Day with Jesus Daily Bible manages to overcome many difficulties of reading the Bible straight through in a year. From day one, the plan provides a rich variety in the readings. Each day includes a selection from: the Old Testament, the New Testament, Psalms and Proverbs. There's also a devotion from beloved pastor Selwyn Hughes that is linked to one of the four readings for the day.

Those who follow this plan will read the entire Bible in a year. Reading the four different Scripture portions each day has the benefit of introducing many readers to passages they have never explored. And this is done in a context where encountering the four different Scripture selections together at the same time will yield new insights into God's Word.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Selwyn Hughes was a minister born in Wales best known for writing the daily devotional Every Day with Jesus that continues to touch lives around the world. He also founded Crusade for World Revival and authored many books.

HCSB Heroes Bibles

Speaking at Arlington National Cemetery on Memorial Day in 2009, President Barack Obama called the soldiers, sailors, airmen, marines, and coastguardsmen “the best of America.” Indeed, these men and women move beyond narrow self-interest, volunteering to put their lives on the line for people they don’t personally know. They have the same spirit as those who signed the Declaration of Independence, who, with firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, mutually pledged “to each other, our Lives, our Fortunes, and our Sacred Honor.”

HCSB Heroes Bibles are uniquely designed for each military branch, with the full text of the popular HCSB translation and an extended section of essays, prayers, patriotic hymns, and spiritual guidance. The smaller trim size, durable LeatherTouch™ binding, and added inspirational notes make them easy to use in the field. Other features include a special presentation page, the words of Christ in red, the plan of salvation, and a two-piece gift box.

HCSB Heroes Bibles

The events of September 11, 2001 heightened our great respect for emergency medical services personnel, firefighters, and police officers. Those brave men and women who turned Ground Zero into a place of heroes—and others like them nationwide—show true courage and faith in daily putting their lives on the line for someone else in need.

Even with a strong sense of calling, such work is especially stressful and full of uncertainty for these servant-hearted people and their families. HCSB Heroes

Bibles—separate editions thoughtfully designed for EMS professionals, firefighters, and law enforcement—pair the complete text of the popular HCSB translation with an extended devotional section of articles, prayers, and spiritual guidance.

The smaller trim size, durable LeatherTouch™ binding, and added inspirational notes and helps make these Bibles easy to use in the field. Other features include a special presentation page, the words of Christ in red, the plan of salvation, and a two-piece gift box.

HCSB Evangelism Bible

The HCSB Evangelism Bible is designed for churches and ministries to provide seekers the Word of God with ancillary resources that will gradually draw them into reading the Scriptures a few verses at a time. Second, this Bible will answer some questions about God and His revelation that may have prevented seekers from seriously considering the claims of Jesus Christ. Finally, the HCSB Evangelism Bible provides a succinct invitation to consider and respond to what Jesus has done.

Features include God's plan for salvation, frequently asked questions, where to turn guide, and suggested resources for further study.

ABOUT THE HCSB TRANSLATION:

The Holman Christian Standard Bible is a trusted, original translation of God's Word. A team of more than 100 scholars from 17 denominations pursued two ideals with every translation decision: each word must be faithful to the original languages of the Bible and each word must reflect clear, contemporary English.

CHAPTER 2

Jesus' first miracle was turning water into wine at a wedding feast. This kind act, done at the behest of His mother, shows that Jesus had compassion for all the needs of His people. John explains that this sign was designed to manifest Jesus' glory. At the time of the Passover, Jesus went to the temple and found that the money changers were making a mockery of God's house by doing dishonest business there. He threw them out and promised that one day He would give a sign proclaiming His identity—destroying the temple of His body and raising it up in three days at the resurrection. Many believed in Jesus because of the signs He performed, but Jesus did not entrust Himself to them because He knew that one day these same people would shout, "Crucify him!" What convinced you that Jesus is God and your Savior? What can you do to share that news with others?

2 And the third day there was a marriage in Ca-na of Gal-i-lee; and the mother of Je'-sus was there:

<sup>2</sup> And both Je'-sus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

<sup>6</sup> And there were set there six waterpots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

<sup>7</sup> Je'-sus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

<sup>8</sup> And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

<sup>9</sup> When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

<sup>10</sup> And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

in Ca-na of Gal-i-lee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

<sup>12</sup> After this he went down to Ca-per'-na-um, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

<sup>13</sup> And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Je'-sus went up to Je-ru'-sa-lem.

<sup>14</sup> And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:

<sup>15</sup> And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables:

<sup>16</sup> And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise.

<sup>17</sup> And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

<sup>18</sup> Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

<sup>19</sup> Je'-sus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

<sup>20</sup> Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

<sup>21</sup> But he spake of the temple of his body.

<sup>22</sup> When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Je'-sus had said.

JOHN 3:18

CHAPTER 3

<sup>19</sup> Now when he was in Je-ru'-sa-lem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

<sup>20</sup> But Je'-sus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men,

<sup>21</sup> And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

People were beginning to be curious about who this man Jesus was. One of the rulers of the Jews named Nicodemus came to Jesus at night to ask about the source of His power. Jesus told him that in order to see the kingdom of God, a person must be born again—of the Spirit. He declared that the Son of Man came to save sinners and give them eternal life. Nicodemus came to faith that night because later we read that he came to anoint Jesus' body after his death (19:39). Sometime later, as Jesus and His disciples were baptizing, the disciples of John the Baptist became jealous. John once again declared that Jesus was the Son of God. Whether in secret, like Nicodemus, or in the daylight, like John, everyone must come to Jesus to be born again.

3 There was a man of the Phar'-i-sees, named Nic-o-de'-mus, a ruler of the Jews:

<sup>2</sup> The same came to Je'-sus by night, and said unto him, Rab'-bi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

<sup>3</sup> Je'-sus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

<sup>4</sup> Nic-o-de'-mus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

<sup>5</sup> Je'-sus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spir'-it, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

<sup>6</sup> That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spir'-it is spirit.

<sup>7</sup> Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

<sup>8</sup> The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spir'-it.

<sup>9</sup> Nic-o-de'-mus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?

<sup>10</sup> Je'-sus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Is'-ra-el, and knowest not these things?

<sup>11</sup> Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.

<sup>12</sup> If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

<sup>13</sup> And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

<sup>14</sup> And as Mo'-ses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up.

<sup>15</sup> That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

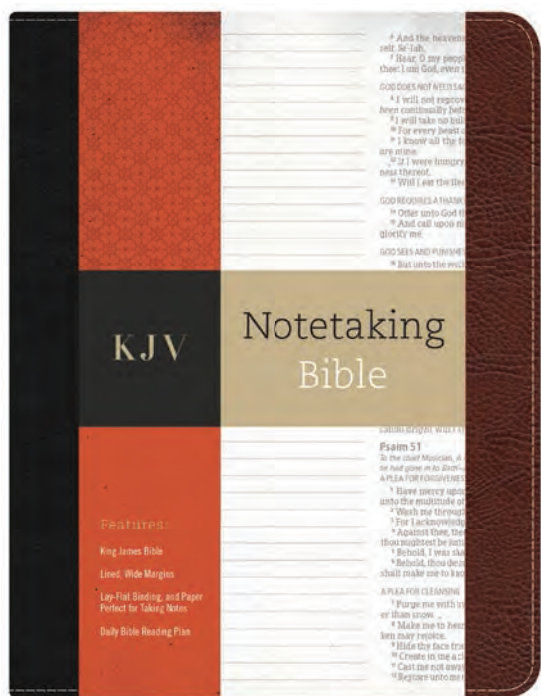

<sup>16</sup> For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

<sup>17</sup> For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

<sup>18</sup> He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not

GENESIS 1

The Creation

1 In the 'beginning' God created the heaven and the earth.
2 And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

The First Day

3 ¶ And God said, 'Let there be light; and there was light.'

4 And God saw the light, that it was good; and God divided the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light 'Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.'

The Second Day

6 ¶ And God said, 'Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.'

7 And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament; and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

The Third Day

9 And God said, 'Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear; and it was so.'

10 And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas; and God saw that it was good.

11 ¶ And God said, 'Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth; and it was so.'

12 And the earth brought forth grass, and yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind; and God saw that it was good.

13 And the evening and the morning were the third day.

14 ¶ And God said, 'Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day and the night, and let them be signs, and seasons, and days, and years.'

15 And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: and the stars also.

16 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth, and to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.

17 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

18 ¶ And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth, and to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.

19 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

20 ¶ And God said, 'Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven.'

21 And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after their kind; and God saw that it was good.

22 And God blessed them, saying, 'Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth.'

23 And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

24 ¶ And God said, 'Let us make man in our image, after our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.'

25 So God created man in his own image, 'in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.'

26 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, 'Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and

THE TAKEAWAY

A product of Canaanite culture, Rahab was a devotee of false gods. As a "world's oldest profession," her character was marked by immorality and dishonesty, her heart hardened by such a brutal existence.

The good news is that if God is willing to rescue someone like Rahab, he can transform anyone. Rahab's transformation shows that God is not wanting any to perish but all to come to faith in who God is and what he has done for us.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

1. Who in your life right now is most encouraged by the life—that no one is beyond God?
2. Rahab had heard stories of God, but the truth only clicked when she saw two of God's people who were living out God's mission. How involved are you in your neighborhood?

Rahab

THE SHADY LADY

"By faith Rahab the prostitute received the spies in peace and didn't perish with those who disobeyed." — Hebrews 11:31

There's no nice way to say it.

Rahab was a harlot—in modern parlance, a hooker. At her home atop the wall that surrounded the bustling, ancient city of Jericho, Rahab took in strange men and gave out sexual favors.

Because of her prominent role in the story of Israel, a few prim and proper types have tried to improve Rahab's image by engaging in a bit of revisionist history. "Maybe," they've suggested, "she wasn't actually a 'lady of the night.' Perhaps she was only an 'innkeeper.'"

It's a nice try, a kind and understandable gesture; however, it can't change the truth that the Bible repeatedly calls Rahab a "prostitute." This is how the Bible introduces her when we first meet her in the book of Joshua (Joshua 2:1; see also 6:17). It's likely her "home" was less a motel, and more a "brothel."

Fully appreciating Rahab's remarkable story takes some historical and cultural background. Here's the context: After forty years of wandering in the desert wilderness east of Egypt and south of Canaan, the nation of Israel camped near the Jordan River, not far from Jericho. This was right along the edge of the territory said to be "flowing with milk and honey" (Exodus 3:8; Numbers 14:8). It was this land the LORD (i.e., Yahweh, the God of the Jews) had promised Abraham and his descendants centuries before.

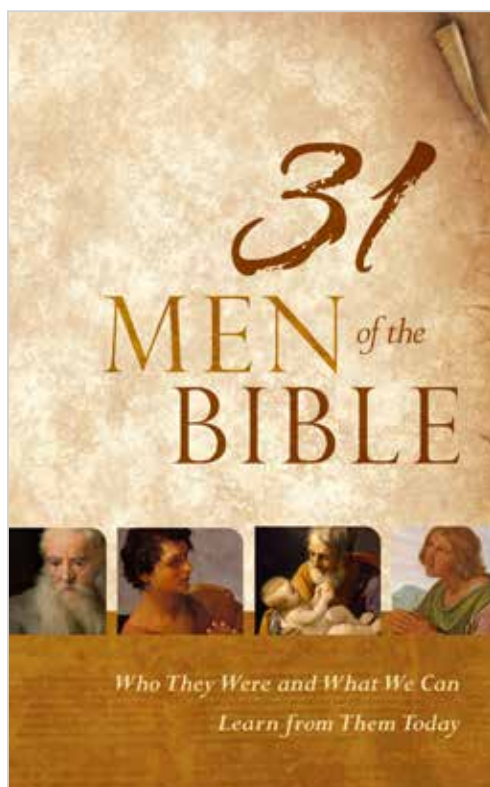

Nervously watching the two to three million "homeless" refugees on their doorstep were the Canaanites, the current occupants of the land. ("Canaanites" is the generic name applied to the Amorites, Jebusites, Ammonites, et al.—all those fierce, polytheistic tribes that lived in a patchwork of city-states stretching across Palestine all the way to the Mediterranean.)

Like the rest of her neighbors, Rahab had heard all the stories: Yahweh's obliteration of the mighty Egyptians in liberating his people, his annihilation of lesser nations that dared to stand in Israel's way. Such anecdotes not only raised eyebrows, but heart rates and neck hairs! The Hebrews themselves weren't much in the way of a fighting force, but their God was not to be trifled with. And suddenly there they were, massed on the border, clearly preparing to invade.

What do you suppose went through Rahab's mind when two Israelite men—sent by Joshua to scope out the city—knocked on her door? No one can say for sure, but clearly something shifted in the soul of this woman of ill repute.

Neither Paul nor Barnabas would budge, and their disagreement turned sharp—so sharp, in fact, that the two decided to part ways. Paul teamed with Silas for his next journey, and Barnabas traveled to Cyprus with Mark. And that's where Mark fades from the Bible's story line. The second half of the book of Acts follows Paul and his exploits. Mark isn't mentioned again.

In three short New Testament passages, Mark makes a name for himself as the guy who

- ran away in a naked panic (literally) when Jesus desperately needed the support of his followers;
- failed to carry out his crucial role in Paul's first missionary journey;
- split up one of the best-known missionary teams of the first century.

As his ship set sail for Cyprus (see Acts 15:39), it seems Mark's story was written. His legacy was sealed.

Except it wasn't.

Again, details are scarce. What we do know is that at the end of his life, the apostle Paul was imprisoned in Rome. In his final letter to his dear friend Timothy, he poured out his feelings of loneliness and abandonment: "Make every effort to come to me soon, for Demas has deserted me, because he loved this present world, and has gone to Thessalonica. Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. Only Luke is with me. Bring Mark with you, for he is useful to me in the ministry" (2 Timothy 4:9–11). Mark is useful to me.

In the years since their falling out, Mark had become a valuable ally to Paul. He had become someone who brought Paul joy and comfort. He had become a confidante, a friend, a peer.

That's the final verdict on Mark in Scripture.

After an unbelievably rough start, Mark orchestrated a comeback for the ages. Imagine how hard he worked to regain Paul's trust, to prove himself faithful, to change people's minds, and to forge a new legacy for himself.

THE TAKEAWAY

John Mark's story demonstrates that it's far gone to stage a comeback. No disqualify you from God's service, willingness to forgive.

In fact, many people who have seen Mark's find that their past failures have them for service and ministry. No convincing about God's grace they experienced it in spades.

That's a message people need to hear to remind themselves of our

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

1. What practical advice would you give someone who's struggling with a bad first impression or failure?
2. Which aspects of Mark's story hit closest to home with you? Explain.
3. What have your past failures taught you about God's grace?

The Gospel of Mark describes a curious incident that took place on the night of Jesus' arrest in the Garden of Gethsemane. As the mob of Jewish religious leaders and Roman soldiers started to drag Jesus away, they noticed a young man in a linen garment sneaking around. "They caught hold of him, but he left the linen cloth behind and ran away naked" (Mark 14:51–52).

The fact that the encounter is mentioned nowhere else in Scripture suggests that the young man who fled Gethsemane in shame (and very little else) may very well have been the writer of the Gospel himself: John Mark.

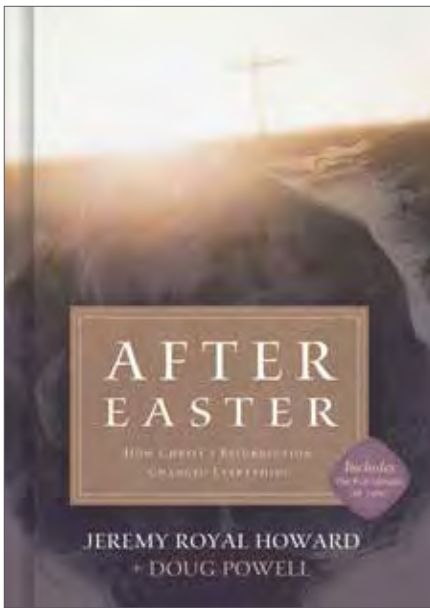

As humiliating as that experience may have been, John Mark's story actually goes downhill from there. His family was well known in first-century Christian circles. When the apostle Peter was released from prison, he went to the house of John Mark's mother, Mary, because he knew he would find fellow believers there. John Mark (better known as just Mark) likely rubbed shoulders with a number of Jesus' disciples and close friends.

He was also the younger cousin of Barnabas, a traveling companion of the apostle Paul and one of the leading evangelists of the day. As for Mark himself, little is known about his ministry experiences. It's hard to say, then, whether it was nepotism or a legitimate reputation that got him invited to accompany Paul and Barnabas on their first missionary journey.

Acts 13:5 describes Mark's role as an "assistant." He may have served as a business manager or a scribe who recorded the words and deeds of Paul and Barnabas. Whatever he did, though, he didn't do for long. When the team reached the city of Perga, Mark had a change of heart and returned to Jerusalem (see Acts 13:13).

Details of the split are scarce. The only clues the Bible offers are found in Acts 15:37–39. As Paul and Barnabas prepared for their second missionary journey together, Barnabas wanted to invite Mark to accompany them again, but Paul vehemently opposed the idea. As far as he was concerned, Mark had deserted them on their previous journey and Paul didn't want it to happen again.

100 Blunders in Church History (& What We Can Learn from Them)

churchfails is a collection of 100 articles describing people who claim to be Christians doing foolish things and what we can learn from them. Each article will include a picture of the subject.

From the Introduction: "Groucho Marx once said, 'I refuse to join any club that would have me as a member.' If Christianity is a club, it has featured innumerable inglorious members. As abashed affiliates of said club, what can we do? We can try to deny our past and present peccadilloes, but covering up a crime is like poking a polecat—it's worse in the end. So, we can rant and rave, or we can laugh and learn. This book settles on the second strategy."

Biblical Theology For Christian Proclamation Commentary

THOMAS R. SCHREINER

The Biblical Theology for Christian Proclamation Commentary series explores the theology of the Bible in considerable depth, spanning both Testaments. Authors come from a variety of backgrounds and perspectives, though all affirm the inerrancy and inspiration of Scripture. United in their belief in the underlying unity of Scripture, each author explores the contribution of a given book or group of books to the theology of Scripture as a whole. All volumes provide a discussion of introductory matters, including the book's historical setting and the literary structure. Also included is an exegetical treatment of all the relevant passages in succinct commentary-style format. The major contribution of each volume, however, is a thorough discussion of the most important themes of the biblical book in relation to the canon as a whole.

This format, in itself, would already be a valuable contribution to biblical theology. But there are other series that try to accomplish a survey of the Bible's theology as well. What distinguishes the present series is its orientation toward Christian proclamation. As a result, the ultimate purpose of this set of volumes is not exclusively, or even primarily, academic. Rather, we seek to relate biblical theology to our own lives and to the life of the church. Our desire is to equip those in Christian ministry who are called by God to preach and teach the precious truths of Scripture to their congregations.

In his volume on Hebrews, Thomas R. Schreiner says, "The words of Jesus on the cross, 'it is finished' (John 19:30) capture the theology of Hebrews. My aim in this commentary is to focus on the biblical theology of the letter. The emphasis on biblical theology shows up especially in the introduction and conclusion where theological structures and themes are considered. The commentary will conclude, after presenting an exegesis of each chapter, with a discussion of some major theological themes in Hebrews."

The Holman Apologetics Commentary on the Bible

The Gospels and Acts

MICHAEL J. WILKINS, CRAIG A. EVANS, DARRELL L. BOCK
& ANDREAS J. KÖSTENBERGER

The proliferation of information and its sources makes skimmers of us all. We take a little here and a little there—not giving ourselves the time to evaluate and connect the dots. Skimming the popular media about the Gospels can easily lead one to conclude that these are curious ancient documents whose import has been badly misinterpreted by the church.

A few sound bites in a pre-Christmas or pre-Easter TV documentary. A cynical remark in a religious studies course. Even a work of fiction like Dan Brown's The DaVinci Code can leave the skimmer thinking Jesus is just a figment of some first or second century imaginations.

The Holman Apologetics Commentary on the Bible puts us on pause and invites us to go deeper. This first volume in the series contains a commentary on each of the four Gospels and the Acts of the Apostles that features apologetics-focused analysis and exposition of biblical passages in which apologetics issues arise. Criticisms of the text are answered. Positive proofs are brought to light. And readers are educated in the basic issues of New Testament literature and composition that will help clear away some of the apparent difficulties in the New Testament text.

Each of these authors (Michael J. Wilkins on Matthew, Craig A. Evans on Mark, Darrell L. Bock on Luke and Acts, and Andreas J. Köstenberger on John) is aware not only of recent criticisms of these documents but criticisms that have arisen over the two-millennia since the documents were written. Moreover, each of these authors comes with the conviction that the historical reliability and truthfulness of these documents is of enormous consequence and worth careful consideration.

Women's Evangelical Commentary

The Women's Evangelical Commentary is written for 21st century women who love the Bible and want to probe its depths under the guidance of women who have unique scholarly preparation. The team is comprised of only women; and, without apology, has been prepared for women to use. We are passionate about woman-to-woman exposition, and the passages selected for comment address the needs of and questions from women. May every woman who uses this commentary find a renewed commitment of personal time and the determination to acquire resources that will unlock the riches of God's Word for her and then make her a conduit for women who want to pursue serious study of Scripture.

Holman Illustrated Bible Handbook

Many who would be willing to search for truth in the Bible are intimidated by its size, the length of time it spans, the different languages and cultures within, or questions about the historical reliability and contemporary relevance of Scripture.

The Holman Illustrated Bible Handbook is designed with an awareness of the obstacles people have to understanding the Bible. It begins with an essay on “How to Read and Study the Bible” before proceeding to chapters that provide a thorough overview of each of the Bible’s 66 books, summarizing each one’s content, author, evidences of authenticity, and historical context.

In addition to the full-color maps, photographs, reconstructions, and charts that equip readers throughout the volume, a smartphone-accessible QR code is included for each chapter that leads to related online teaching from noted Bible scholar Gene Getz. There’s also an article by Jeremy Howard (general editor of the award-winning HCSB Study Bible) explaining how each book of the Old and New Testaments was accepted into the Bible.

KJV Illustrated Bible Handbook

Many who would be willing to search for truth in the Bible are intimidated by its size, the length of time it spans, the different languages and cultures within, or questions about the historical reliability and contemporary relevance of Scripture.

The KJV Illustrated Bible Handbook is designed with an awareness of the obstacles people have to understanding the Bible. It begins with an essay on “How to Read and Study the Bible” before proceeding to chapters that provide a thorough overview of each of the Bible’s sixty-six books, summarizing each one’s content, author, evidences of authenticity, and historical context.

In addition to the full-color maps, photographs, reconstructions, and charts that equip readers throughout the volume, a smartphone-accessible QR code is included for each chapter that leads to related online teaching from noted Bible scholar Gene Getz. There’s also an article by Jeremy Howard (general editor of the award-winning HCSB Study Bible) explaining how each book of the Old and New Testaments was accepted into the Bible.

A great resource for seekers and Bible scholars alike.

The Secret of the Talpiot Tomb

Unraveling the Mystery of the Jesus Family Tomb

The Secret of the Talpiot Tomb is a full-color text and visual presentation of the most compelling evidence for Jesus' victory over death. Written by research professor Gary Habermas, considered by many to be the world's leading apologist for the historicity of Jesus' resurrection, this case for Christ's immortality is placed in the context of new claims made about the alleged bones of Jesus having been discovered in the so-called Talpiot Tomb located in southeast Jerusalem.

FEATURES

- The compelling case for Jesus' resurrection as a historical event is presented here with great clarity, precision, and colorful design.
- Takes account of the ongoing debate between scholars over the claim that the Talpiot Tomb contained Jesus' bones.
- Provides believers with a frame of reference with which they can evaluate and respond to other such sensational claims that will be forthcoming.
- Counters current wave of best-selling atheist books such as God Is Not Great, The God Delusion, and Letters to a Christian Nation.

HCSB Holman Classic Children's Bible

Before Israel entered the promised land, Moses reminded the people about the importance of sharing God's commands with children:

"Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength. These words that I am giving you today are to be in your heart. Repeat them to your children. Talk about them when you sit in your house and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up."

Deuteronomy 6:5–7 (HCSB)

The setting has changed, but the principle of imparting who God is, what He has done, and what He commands endures today.

FAITHFUL AND TRUE

Introducing the CHRISTIAN STANDARD BIBLE

Faithful and True: These words remind us that God's Word serves to reveal his character and will to us, transform our lives, and leave us in awe of his glory. At LifeWay, we strive to be centered on the Word of God in all that we do, and we know that God is faithful and true to guide us as we publish biblical resources for life.

We are excited to introduce you to the Christian Standard Bible (CSB). Throughout its history, the Holman Christian Standard Bible (HCSB) has held firm in its commitment to combine strong biblical scholarship with a translation fit for modern readers. Continuing this commitment to scholarship and readability, the Christian Standard Bible is now positioned to serve more people and churches than ever before.

In the following pages, you'll find information about the Christian Standard Bible translation, CSB products that are releasing throughout 2017, as well as details on marketing and merchandising.

ABOUT THE CHRISTIAN STANDARD BIBLE

The Christian Standard Bible is proven to be the optimal blend of accuracy and readability—a text faithful for serious study, delivered with heart-stirring clarity that will inspire readers to read it, live it, and share it.

History of the CSB

Over 20 years ago, a team of more than 100 top conservative scholars from 17 denominations came together with one common vision: to create an original English translation meticulously faithful to the ancient Scriptures and exceptionally clear to understand. With the benefit of up-to-date manuscript discoveries and significant advances in research, these translators, reviewers, and stylists exhaustively scrutinized ancient source texts — including the critical Greek text favored by scholars — to determine every nuance of original meaning and intent. The result was a Bible that not only shines by academic standards, but is also remarkably enjoyable to read — the Holman Christian Standard Bible.

Revised and Improved

To ensure the very best balance of fidelity and clarity, a team of top biblical scholars have reviewed the full text of the Holman Christian Standard Bible based on feedback from pastors, seminaries, and other conservative denominations. Providing Bible readers with a translation that's even more accurate and readable, this revision, called the Christian Standard Bible, will be available early in 2017 in a wide variety of editions from Holman Bibles and other publishing partners. Reference works based on the CSB are also being prepared.

Faithfully Conservative, Faithfully True

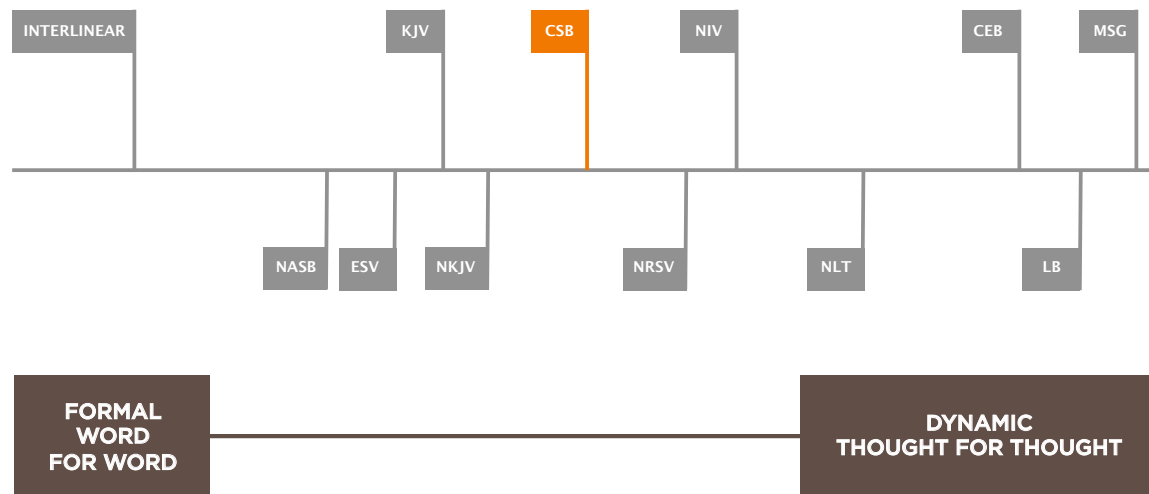

While the CSB incorporates both the latest scholarship and linguistic advances, those responsible for stewarding the translation are committed to traditional, conservative principles, and prayerfully dedicated to pursuing the timeless truth of God's Word.

For more information, visit CSBible.com

OPTIMAL EQUIVALENCE—A BEAUTIFUL BALANCE

The CSB was created using Optimal Equivalence, a translation philosophy that balances contemporary English readability with linguistic precision of the original languages. In the many places throughout Scripture where a word-for-word rendering is clearly understandable, a literal translation is used. When a word-for-word rendering might obscure the meaning for a modern audience, a more dynamic translation is used. This process assures that both the words and thoughts contained in the original text are conveyed as accurately as possible for today's readers.

TRANSLATION CONTINUUM

Bible translations shown in the top half of the graph are original translations directly from ancient texts to English. Those below the line are revisions of earlier English translations.

On one hand, the CSB provides a highly accurate text for faithful sermon preparation and serious study, translated straight from the biblical languages by scholars who love God's Word. It is highly faithful to the original text. On the other hand, it does not compromise readability and clarity for those who may be less familiar with the traditional (and sometimes difficult) vocabulary retained in some translations of the Bible.

Beyond that, we know that the good news of the Bible is meant to be shared. A translation that hits the sweet spot between fidelity and readability opens the door for every believer to share the Bible with someone who has read it for a lifetime, or with someone who has never before read its life-changing message.

CSB: BEST COMBINATION OF FIDELITY AND READABILITY

Seeking to provide Chinese-speaking people across the world with an accurate and understandable Bible in contemporary Chinese, Global Bible Initiative (formerly Asia Bible Society) researched all of the current Bible translations in English. Their in-depth study concluded that the CSB achieves the optimal balance of fidelity and readability. Below is the result of their research.

	READABILITY SCORES	FIDELITY SCORES		READABILITY SCORES	FIDELITY SCORES
CSB:	66.75%	64.83%	NET:	66.28%	53.94%
ESV:	62.36%	68.74%	NIV:	67.20%	53.10%
NASB:	61.65%	67.99%	KJV:	48.83%	66.58%
NKJV:	60.32%	65.21%	NLT:	70.08%	39.90%
NRSV:	63.08%	60.51%

A quantitative linguistic comparison of Bible translations using computerized statistical analysis, developed in 2016 by Dr. Andi Wu of the Global Bible Initiative, formerly the Asia Bible Society.

TRANSLATION OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE

More than 100 scholars from 17 denominations translated the HCSB from the original Hebrew and Greek manuscripts. Keeping that transdenominational focus, the CSB revision and oversight committee is comprised of top conservative biblical scholars from Baptist, Presbyterian, Anglican, Lutheran, and non-denominational backgrounds.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE CHRISTIAN STANDARD BIBLE

How is the CSB different From the HCSB?

The CSB is a revision of the HCSB, updating translation and word choices in order to improve on the HCSB's balance of faithfulness and clarity, as well as enhance the shareability of the translation to new Christians or those who have never read a Bible. See page 141 for more detailed information.

Why was the Christian Standard Bible updated?

We are committed to improving our translation based on advances in biblical scholarship, and input from Bible scholars, pastors, and readers. Taking all of these items into consideration, the CSB has improved on the HCSB's faithfulness to the original text and clarity for a modern audience.

Why was the word “Holman” removed from the name of this translation?

We are proud of the heritage of Holman Bible Publishers, which dates back to 1743, making us the oldest North American Bible publisher. While we are retaining that name for our publishing entity, the Holman name in the Bible translation name often created more questions than answers (who was Mr. Holman?). “Christian Standard Bible” removes some of those questions and increases appeal to the broad audience that the CSB is designed to serve.

What denominations were involved in creating the CSB?

100 scholars from 17 denominations translated the HCSB from the original Hebrew and Greek manuscripts. Keeping that transdenominational focus, our revision and oversight committee is comprised of ten members from Baptist, Presbyterian, Anglican, Lutheran, and Non-Denominational backgrounds. See pages 144-145 for more information about these world-class biblical scholars.

How does the Christian Standard Bible compare to other translations?

The CSB lands in the sweet spot between the more formal (“word-for-word”) translations and the more dynamic (“thought-for-thought”) translations. We believe that you don’t have to choose between faithfulness to the original text and clarity; the CSB text has been proven to optimize both. The CSB reflects our commitment to Optimal Equivalence—more literal than the NIV, more understandable than the ESV, making it ideal not only for preaching and study, but for sharing with others. (see pages 142-143)

What is the schedule for replacing HCSB Bibles with CSB Bibles?

HCSB Bibles should remain available for your customers at least through the end of February 2017, or until the replacement CSB product arrives. The updated Christian Standard Bible text will be available in March 2017 through a variety of products and text Bibles, while others will be released throughout the rest of the year and in subsequent years. See pages 154-170 for details on the first wave of CSB Bibles.

How do I replace the HCSB SKUs with CSB SKUs?

We have created a promotional plan to help you sell your remaining HCSB SKUs to make this transition smooth and efficient. You'll want to work with your B&H sales representative to monitor your inventory, price point it for sell-through, and take advantage of our attractive returns policy on any leftover stock after the CSB editions of HCSB products are released. For additional help, call B&H Customer Service at 800-251-3225.

When will the CSB be announced to my customers?

We will begin promoting the Christian Standard Bible publicly in January 2017, with the first CSB Bibles available in March. See pages 148-151 for an overview of our extensive marketing plan.

Is there CSB training available for my sales associates?*If so, when is it available?

Yes. Training materials will be available for your staff in January, several weeks before the first Christian Standard Bibles arrive at your store.

GENESIS 1-2

You will move on your belly and eat dust all the days of your life.<sup>15</sup> I will put hostility between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed. He will strike your head, and you will strike his heel.<sup>16</sup> He said to the woman: I will intensify your labors; you will bear children with painful effort.<sup>17</sup> Your desire<sup>18</sup> will be for your husband, yet he will rule over you. And he said to the man, "Because you listened to your wife and ate from the tree about which I commanded you, 'Do not eat from it':

<sup>14</sup>4:11 Let blood from your hand <sup>15</sup>4:13 Or sin <sup>16</sup>4:15 LXX, Sy, Vg read 'Not eat' <sup>17</sup>4:15 Or suffer severely <sup>18</sup>4:20 Let the duster of test and breaststroke instructions to Adam. Therefore it seems that Adam had given his wife an additional command beyond what God said, or else Eve herself exaggerated the command as Satan tempted her to view God as selfish and overly restrictive. If Adam added to God's command, he almost certainly had a good motive—after all, if Eve never touched the tree, she certainly wouldn't eat its fruit. However, the sad truth is that when people add to the word of God, they create confusion and trouble.

The ground is cursed because of you.<sup>19</sup> You will eat from it by means of painful labor<sup>20</sup> all the days of your life. It will produce thorns and thistles for you, and you will eat the plants of the field.<sup>21</sup> You will eat bread<sup>22</sup> by the sweat of your brow until you return to the ground,<sup>23</sup> since you were taken from it. For you are dust, and you will return to dust.<sup>24</sup> The man named his wife Eve<sup>25</sup> because she was the mother of all the living.<sup>26</sup> The she had thought God said (v. 13)—she ate it. Though Adam was with her at the time, he did nothing to stop her. Perhaps he wanted to eat of it as much as the woman did, but fearing the consequences, used his wife as a "guinea pig" to make sure it would not cause instant death. <sup>37</sup>As the serpent had indicated, the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew, but instead of producing godlike power, the knowledge brought only a sense of human inadequacy, fear, and shame.

Loth God made clothing from skins for the man and his wife, and he clothed them.<sup>27</sup> The Lord God said, "Since the man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil, he must not reach out, take from the tree of life, eat, and live forever."<sup>28</sup> So the Lord God sent him away from the garden of Eden to work the ground from which he was taken.<sup>29</sup> He drove the man out and stationed the cherubim and the flaming, whirling sword east of the garden of Eden to guard the way to the tree of life.<sup>30</sup>

<sup>11</sup>Then the Lord said to Cain, "Why are you furious?<sup>12</sup> And why do you look dejected?"

<sup>29</sup>God took the initiative in reaching out to sinful humanity. This pattern—humanity sinning, then God seeking out sinners—becomes the primary theme of the rest of the Bible. Its ultimate expression is found in Jesus Christ, who came to seek and to save people alienated from God because of their sin (Lk 19:10; in Him God once again walked on the earth in search of sinners. The all-knowing God asked Adam, Where are you? for Adam's benefit, to encourage Adam to face his sin.

<sup>31</sup>When Adam heard God, he was afraid. Rather than walking with God as righteous men of later generations would do (Enoch, 5:22; Noah, 6:9), Adam hid from Him.

<sup>32</sup>Through the use of two direct questions God brought Adam to accountability for his sin. God does not overlook sin, but He can be gently firm in confronting it.

<sup>33</sup>Adam answered neither of God's questions. Instead he sought to shift the blame for his sin first to the woman, and then to God.

<sup>34</sup>The woman passed the blame to the serpent and admitted that prior to eating, she was deceived (1 Tim 2:14).

<sup>35</sup>Though accountability began with God's confrontation of Adam, judgment began with the serpent. Because of the serpent's key role (being used of Satan) in bringing sin into the human experience, it would be permanently consigned to the position of ultimate shame,

<sup>36</sup>Hostility between the first woman and the serpent would be passed on to future generations. This verse is known in Christendom as the protoevangelium, or "first good news," because it is the first foreshadowing of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Using an emphatic Hebrew construction, God announced here that a male descendant—He would someday deal the serpent (meaning Satan) a fatal blow. The NT writers understood Jesus Christ to have fulfilled this prophecy (Heb 2:14; 1 Jn 3:8). In an extended sense, the NT also indicates that God would work through the church—those indwelt by the Spirit of Christ—to destroy the works of the Devil (Rev 16:20). The assertion that the snake would only strike his opponent's heel (as opposed to head) suggests that the devil will be defeated in the ensuing struggle (Rev 20:2, 10).

<sup>37</sup>Even though the woman had been deceived into eating the forbidden fruit, she was still held accountable for her act. Its desire is for you, but you must rule over it.<sup>8</sup> Cain said to his brother Abel, "Let's go to the field." And while they were in the field, Cain attacked his brother Abel and killed him.<sup>9</sup> Then the Lord said to Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?" "I don't know," he replied. "Am I my brother's guardian?"<sup>10</sup> Then he said, "What have you done? Your brother's blood cries out to me from the ground.<sup>11</sup> So now you are cursed, from the ground that opened it to receive your brother's blood you have to work it. If you work the ground, it will never give you its yield. You will be a restless wanderer on the earth."<sup>12</sup>

<sup>13</sup>But Cain answered the Lord, "My punishment<sup>14</sup> is too great to bear!"<sup>15</sup> Since you are banishing me today from the face of the earth, and I must hide from your presence and become a restless wanderer on the earth, whoever finds me will kill me.<sup>16</sup>

<sup>17</sup>Then the Lord replied to him, "In that case," whoever kills Cain will suffer vengeance seven times over."<sup>18</sup> And he placed a mark<sup>19</sup> on Cain so that whoever found him would not kill him.<sup>20</sup> Then Cain went out from

THE BIG PICTURE INTERACTIVE BIBLE

THE BIBLE BROUGHT TO LIFE FOR KIDS OF ALL AGES

NOW AVAILABLE IN CSB!

God gave rules for Sacrifice, Leviticus 1-27

CHRIST CONNECTION

God Gave Rules for Sacrifice

Leviticus 1-27 The book of Leviticus contains many rules for the Israelites, but we do not obey all the rules in Leviticus today because we trust Jesus, who obeyed the law perfectly for us. The Israelites had to make a blood sacrifice for their sin every year. Jesus sacrificed His blood on the cross to pay for our sin once and for all (Hebrews 7:26-27). When we trust in Christ, God forgives us of our sin.

be forgiven. The rest will belong to the priest, like the grain offering."

The Restitution Offering

"Then the LORD spoke to Moses: "If someone offends by sinning unintentionally in regard to any of the LORD's holy things, he must bring his penalty for guilt to the LORD: an unblemished ram from the flock (based on your assessment of its value in silver shekels, according to the sanctuary shekel) as a guilt offering. "He is to make restitution for his sin regarding any holy thing, adding a fifth of its value to it, and give it to the priest. Then the priest will make atonement on his behalf with the ram of the restitution offering, and he will be forgiven."

"If someone sins and without knowing it violates any of the LORD's commands concerning anything prohibited, he is guilty, and he will bear his iniquity. "He must bring an unblemished ram from the flock according to your assessment of its value as a guilt offering to the priest. Then the priest will make atonement on his behalf for the error he has committed unintentionally, and he will be forgiven. "It is a guilt offering; he is indeed guilty before the LORD."

The LORD spoke to Moses: "When someone sins and offends the LORD by deceiving his neighbor in regard to a deposit, a security, or a robbery; or defrauds his neighbor; or finds something lost and lies about it; or swears falsely about any of the sinful things a person may do — once he has sinned and acknowledged his guilt — he must return what he stole or defrauded, or the deposit entrusted to him, or the lost item he found, or anything else about which he swore falsely. He will make full restitution for it and add a fifth of its value to it. He is to pay it to its owner on the day he acknowledges his guilt. "Then he is to bring his guilt offering to the LORD: an unblemished ram from the flock according to your assessment of its value as a guilt offering to the priest. "In this way the priest will make atonement on his behalf before the LORD, and he will be forgiven for anything he may have done to incur guilt."

The Burnt Offering

"The LORD spoke to Moses: "Command Aaron and his sons: This is the law of the burnt offering: the burnt offering itself must remain on the altar's hearth all night until morning, while the fire of the altar is kept burning on it. "The priest is to put on his linen robe and linen undergarments. He is to remove the ashes of the burnt offering the fire has consumed on the altar, and place them beside the altar. "Then he will take off his garments, put on other clothes, and bring the ashes outside the camp to a ceremonially clean place. "The fire on the altar is to be kept burning; it must not go out. Every morning the priest will burn wood on the fire. He is to arrange the burnt offering on the fire and burn the fat portions from the fellowship offerings on it. "Fire must be kept burning on the altar continually; it must not go out."

The Grain Offering

"Now this is the law of the grain offering: Aaron's sons will present it before the LORD in front of the altar. "The priest is to remove a handful of fine flour and olive oil from the grain offering, with all the frankincense that is on the offering, and burn its memorial portion on the altar as a pleasing aroma to the LORD. "Aaron and his sons may eat the rest of it. It is to be eaten in the form of unleavened bread in a holy place; they are to eat it in the courtyard of the tent of meeting. "It must not be baked with yeast; I have assigned it as their portion from my fire offerings. It is especially holy, like the sin offering and the guilt offering. "Any male among Aaron's descendants may eat it. It is a permanent portion throughout your generations from the fire offerings to the LORD. Anything that touches the offerings will become holy."

"The LORD spoke to Moses: "This is the offering that Aaron and his sons are to present to the LORD on the day that he is anointed: two quarts of fine flour as a regular grain offering, half of it in the morning and half in the evening. "It is to be prepared with oil on a griddle; you are to bring it well-kneaded. You are to present it as a grain offering of baked pieces, a pleasing aroma to the LORD. "The

PART 2: HCSB Bible Returns

You shouldn't have mixed HCSB and CSB inventory of comparable Bible lines after the Christian Standard Bible launches in March 2017.

When each new CSB Bible line arrives at your store, we would like you to return remaining inventory of the corresponding HCSB product lines that the CSB edition is replacing. For example, when your order of CSB Study Bibles arrives, return all HCSB Study Bibles that remain on your shelves after the sell-down promotion. Do not return copies of the HCSB Apologetics Study Bible until after the CSB Apologetics Study Bibles arrive later in the summer.

We have one return form, which will have product divided into groups for return purposes.

Return each group at one time. Once you have pulled all of the appropriate HCSB Bibles, you may email or fax for a call tag.

Return Process

1. The HCSB Return Form will have all HCSB product sorted and listed in groups by eligibility date.
2. Fill out an HCSB Return Form for each group of returns and submit it to your B&H representative, or send via the indicated fax number to expedite processing.

Return Dates for Eligible Products

Please make sure each group of eligible ISBN's are shipped from your store by the indicated deadline in order to receive a full refund.
