Love Lives Here

Finding What You Need in a World Telling You What You Want

MARIA GOFF

This is a book about discovering what we really need.

There are a lot of second-best options, but we weren't made to live a second-best life. Finding what we actually need is different than what we are often offered. There are many books full of opinions, steps, and programs. This isn't one of them. This is about craving the things that matter. Things that don't just work, but last.

In a life that may seem to be all fun and games with an endless supply of balloons, author Maria Goff shows how this life is also lived with intentionality, passionate purpose, and a little planning—all of which make a life rich in legacy. But she had to figure out the help she needed first in order to live the beautiful life God wanted for her and wants for us.

Love Lives Here is a collection of stories that include the ways Maria and her husband, Bob, navigated family their way, without clear instructions or a road map. It's about what they learned to make their lives meaningful and whimsical and how they created a space for their family to grow together while they reached outward.

Never Unfriended

The Secret to Finding and Keeping Lasting Friendships

LISA-JO BAKER, (in)courage Community Manager

In a world where women can unfriend each other with the swipe of a finger, how do we find friendships that we can trust to last? Maybe by first becoming those kinds of lasting friends ourselves.

As the (in)courage community host at the website incourage.me since 2010, Lisa-Jo Baker has had the chance to engage hundreds of conversations with women about friendship. She's learned that no one can make us quite as unsure about ourselves as another woman. And nothing can wound as deeply as unkind words from a friend. While we are all hungry for friendship, it's the fear of feeling awkward and being rejected, left out, or hurt (again) that often keep us from connecting.

But what if we knew we could never be unfriended? Would we risk friendship then?

Starting with that guarantee from the most faithful friend who ever lived—Jesus—this book is a step-by-step guide to friendships you can trust. It answers the questions that lurk under the surface of every friendship—What are we afraid of? What can't we change? What can we change? And where do we start?—with personal stories and practical tips to help you make the friends, and be the friend, that lasts.

MacDonald’s teaching is biblical, personal, practical, and aimed at leading people to the transforming power of God.

The Will of God is the Word of God

JAMES MACDONALD

What is God's will for my life?

This is a question, if we are honest, we all struggle to answer. We live in fear that we will disrupt a special, secret destiny that only God knows. But the Bible clearly reveals God's will for your life. You only need to listen.

When it comes to the subject of God's will, author and pastor James MacDonald finds rampant misunderstandings among Christians:

- "Can I ever be sure about what God wants me to do?"
- "What if I discover I've been doing something other than His will?"
- "If I somehow stepped out of God's will at some point, can I ever get back on track, or is my case hopeless?"

If these are questions you never think about, then you are living in willful ignorance.

And if you want to stay that way, don't read this book!

“ There is purpose in me sharing my story. By sharing with others the moment where I stared Jesus in the face, I allow my eyes to see God move and watch His hand at work. I also allow my mind and heart to remember what He has done and thus fan the flame of faith and hope in my forever home with God.

This is not just my story. It can be your story too. It can be a means through which, I pray, you see how Jesus is pursuing after your soul, your worship, and your full affections. And, in return, may He give you the courage to live with vulnerability, urgency, and intentionality as you share your own story . . . your own heart.

My Heart

Every Beat Surrendered to Our Unchanging God

JULIE MANNING

What if you were told there's a possibility you would not be alive to see this afternoon or wake up tomorrow morning? Do you think you would live differently? How would this reality affect every single moment of the life you have been given?

Julie Manning was in the middle of giving birth to her second child when doctors noticed an irregularity in her heartbeat. Within six weeks, tests revealed it was no one-time occurrence. This ultra-capable mom, wife, marathon runner, and pediatric nurse practitioner was in active heart failure, finding herself at risk for experiencing a sudden cardiac death.

Julie's book, My Heart, is the first-person account of her journey from then to now—from a healthy woman's normal expectations and self-reliance to the surrendering of her dreams, plans, and deepest desires into the hands of our unchanging God. Part retelling and reflection, part in-the-moment prayer journal, her story takes you with honest vulnerability into the jaws of fear and suffering, and speaks realistic hope into your own story, leaving you with well-fought, well-placed confidence for the road ahead. It's what her heart would like to say to you . . . about the faithful, loving, impeccably trustworthy heart of God.

ANDREW MURRAY was a late nineteenth century pastor, writer, and missionary. He authored more than 240 books, and considered missions to be "the chief end of the church." "May not a single moment of my life be spent outside the light, love, and joy of God's presence," was his prayer. "And not a moment without the entire surrender of myself as a vessel for Him to fill full of His Spirit and His love."

Excerpt:

This life of entire self-abnegation, of absolute submission and dependence upon the Father's will, Christ found to be one of perfect peace and joy. He lost nothing by giving all to God. God honored His trust, and did all for Him, and then exalted Him to His own right hand in glory. And because Christ had thus humbled Himself before God, and God was ever before Him, He found it possible to humble Himself before men too, and to be the Servant of all. His humility was simply the surrender of Himself to God, to allow Him to do in Him what He pleased, whatever men around might say of Him, or do to Him.

It is in this state of mind, in this spirit and disposition, that the redemption of Christ has its virtue and efficacy. It is to bring us to this disposition that we are made partakers of Christ. This is the true self-denial to which our Savior calls us, the acknowledgment that self has nothing good in it, except as an empty vessel which God must fill, and that its claim to be or do anything may not for a moment be allowed. It is in this, above and before everything, in which the conformity to Jesus consists, the being and doing nothing of ourselves, that God may be all.

JOHN BUNYAN was a seventeenth century Baptist preacher and writer. He was imprisoned for his Christian beliefs, and it was at that time he began work on The Pilgrim's Progress. Bunyan passed away in 1688, but left the legacy of fifty-eight published titles; The Pilgrim's Progress being his most popular.

“Next to the Bible, perhaps the world’s best-selling book . . . translated into over 200 languages.”

Excerpt:

“You are going now,” they said, “to the paradise of God, where you shall see the tree of life, and eat of the never-fading fruits; and when you come there, you shall have white robes given to you, and your walk and talk shall be every day with the King, even all the days of eternity. There you shall not see again such things as you saw when you were in the lower region upon the Earth, to wit, sorrow, sickness, affliction, and death, ‘for the former things are passed away.’ You are now going to Abraham, to Isaac, and Jacob, and to the prophets—men that God has taken away from the evil to come, and that are now resting upon their beds, each one walking in his righteousness.” The men then asked, “What must we do in the holy place?” To whom it was answered, “You must there receive the comforts of all your toil, and have joy for all your sorrow; you must reap what you have sown, even the fruit of all your prayers, and tears, and suffering.”

HANNAH WHITTALL SMITH A late nineteenth century lay speaker and author, Hannah Whitall Smith, along with her husband Robert, were influential both in the United States and Europe, as speakers on the "higher life" and "holiness."

Excerpt:

Man's Christianity teaches sacrifice to save ourselves; Christ's Christianity teaches sacrifice to save others. Man's Christianity produces the fruitless selfishness of too much of our religion. Christ's Christianity produces the blessed unselfishness of lives that are poured out for others, as was His.

Put together all the tenderest love you know of dear reader, the deepest you have ever felt and the strongest that has ever been poured out upon you, and heap upon it all the love of all the loving human hearts in the world, and then multiply it by infinity and you will begin perhaps to have some faint glimpses of what the love of God in Christ Jesus is. And this is grace.

Answers to Prayer

Read and Reflect with the Classics

GEORGE MULLER

Prayer is vital to the Christian life, and no author of Christian literature has exemplified this more than George Muller. In his work, Answers to Prayer, Muller shows how powerful prayer and God's provision can be when it is fully relied on. Reflection questions at the end of each chapter will help the reader to take the inspiring lessons Muller's life presents and apply them to their own life.

BUYING AUDIENCE

- Evangelical Christians
- Known readers of George Muller
- People looking for great gifts for Evangelicals during Christmas, birthdays, and other special life events

MARKETING HIGHLIGHTS

- Perfect gift for all seasons: birthdays, Easter, teacher's gift, graduation, Mother's Day, Father's Day, and Christmas
- Gives the reader enduring wisdom on a crucial issue along with reflection questions and prayer prompts to apply the information

GEORGE MULLER was an English Christian Evangelist in the nineteenth century. He devoted his life to directing the Ashley Down orphanage in Bristol, England. In his lifetime he cared for more than 10,000 orphans. This alone is a great feat of faith, but what makes him a pillar of prayer in Christian history is that he never once requested financial support for the orphanage, nor did he ever go into debt. He prayed for what was needed, and God provided—many times hours before funds or provisions were needed. His story and journals stand as the picture of God's faithfulness.

Excerpt:

In our natural state we dislike dealing with God alone. Through our natural alienation from God we shrink from Him, and from eternal realities. This cleaves to us more or less, even after our regeneration. Hence it is, that more or less, even as believers, we have the same shrinking from standing with God alone—from depending upon Him alone—from looking to Him alone: and yet this is the very position in which we ought to be, if we wish our faith to be strengthened. The more I am in a position to be tried in faith with reference to my body, my family, my service for the Lord, and my business, the more shall I have opportunity of seeing God's help and deliverance.

RON BLUE WITH KAREN GUESS

Have you ever worried that doubling down on your debt repayment is robbing your family of memories and fun? Or had a major appliance fail, right after splurging on an expensive purchase or vacation? Money and life are inextricably linked. They don't run on independent tracks but rather continually exist together, both of them somehow needing to be handled with steady applications of wisdom and biblical integrity, even when they seem in direct competition. Veteran financial counselor and trusted author Ron Blue helps you navigate the seeming incompatibilities of money management. His liberating, simplifying analysis breaks down all your financial options to a basic four, then shows you how to adeptly keep them spinning alongside each other without leaving you consumed by confusion or regret—in fact, with all your dreams, plans, and principles still intact.

The Gospel & Pornography

Russell Moore and Andrew T. Walker

God designed sex, and sex is good. Sex is a powerful union that brings men and women together. But when sex is distorted by sin, the misuse of our sexuality can alienate us from one another, causing immense harm and pain. Enter pornography—the most prevalent distortion of sexual sin in America. Pornography is not only a problem in terms of personal morality, but a social epidemic that is making the possibility of sexually-fulfilled marriages harder to achieve. It is rewiring our brains to think about sexuality in destructive ways. We have a very serious problem, and it's not isolated to any one segment of culture.

The Gospel & Parenting

Russell Moore and Andrew T. Walker

Having parents in the home doesn't mean that parenting is actually happening. Parenting is a God-given task that ensures young children are protected and nurtured into maturity in the fear and admonition of the Lord. But America and the church faces a crisis of parenting: detached or absentee fathers, single mothers, and grandparents raising the next generation. What's more, how should parents actually parent? And what does the gospel have to say to the epidemic of family breakdown, and the difficult task of raising children well?

The Gospel & Work

Russell Moore and Andrew T. Walker

So often, in America, we define who we are by what we do. We introduce ourselves by our job titles. We ask, "What do you do?" to be polite in small talk. We define others by their occupation.

But there are good reasons to connect what you do with your time, whether that is 9-to-5 work, or managing a household full of children. God created us to work, not as judgment, but in cooperation with a mandate given to humanity long before the Fall. Your work isn't who you are, but it is central to why you are here. When we get that confused, our work can be the most frustrating aspect of our lives.

The Curious Christian

How Discovering Wonder Enriches Every Part of Life

BARNABAS PIPER

Curiosity is such a childish word, right?

Not so fast. Just because we grow up doesn't mean we should lose our wonder at the world, or the people around us. When we do, we lose so much because curious is how God made us to be.

Without curiosity a Christian's life is incomplete. His relationship with God is incomplete. His connections to others are incomplete. He doesn't know how to interact with the world around him—politics, media, art, entertainment, science, and so much more simply fly past or overwhelm him. Without curiosity he can never discover deep things, deep connections God tucked below the banal surface of life.

Author Barnabas Piper explores what curiosity is, and how it affects relationships. What if people so sought to learn about each other that the most unlikely people became advocates and friends?

It would be transformative, and it would stem from curiosity.

Among Wolves

Disciple-Making in the City

DHATI LEWIS

How do we turn passive participants into active disciple makers in an ever-changing urban context?

We have reduced Christianity to concerts, conferences, and church services. We are surrounded by passive participants of Christianity, content to soak in information without any intent to make disciples. But the question remains: How do we turn passive participants into active disciple makers in an ever-changing urban context?

Among Wolves seeks to help us move to obedience to the call of Christ to labor among wolves. You will walk through eight significant movements in the book of Matthew, beginning with Jesus establishing His presence with us, to Him mobilizing an army to go and make disciples of all nations. As we follow Jesus' patterns and teachings in Matthew, you will be equipped to establish a thriving disciple making culture in your context as your burden to see your city reached moves toward reality.

BUYING AUDIENCE

- People who read church leadership books
- Evangelical church leaders, especially church planters, and missions-focused Christians
- Urban evangelicals who admire Dhati's leadership

MARKETING HIGHLIGHTS

DHATI LEWIS is the lead pastor of Blueprint Church in Atlanta, Georgia, founder of the Rebuild Network, and serves as the BLVD Experience Team Director with the Send Network Team at the North American Mission Board. He is passionate about disciple-making in the local church and is committed to raising up indigenous urban practitioners to encourage, equip, and empower them to make disciples in the city. “Mom, will I ever be in a battle?”

This question from my son inspired me to write a new series for kids—teaching them about the importance of the armor of God and of the reality of the spiritual world. We are in a battle—a daily battle—and it’s time for our young people to learn how to suit up, too. The characters in these stories will draw tweens in with relevant and relatable experiences and then show them how to achieve spiritual victory in their own lives.

PRISCILLA SHIRER is a homemade cinnamon-roll baker, Bible teacher, and bestselling author who didn't know her books (The Resolution For Women and Fervent) were on the New York Times Best Seller list until somebody else told her. Because who has time to check such things while raising three rapidly growing sons? When she and Jerry, her husband of sixteen years, are not busy leading Going Beyond Ministries, they spend most of their time cleaning up after and trying to satisfy the appetites of these guys. And that is what first drove Priscilla to dream up this fictional story about the very un-fictional topic of spiritual warfare—to help raise up a new generation of Prince Warriors under her roof. And under yours.

RAEHEL MYERS loves God's Word. A reluctant writer but lover of story, she delights in the evidence of God's beauty, goodness, and truth in everyday life—just ask her kids. Co-founder and CEO of She Reads Truth, Raechel has a bachelor's degree in Housing and Environmental Design, and is not afraid to paint a whole house over a long weekend. She longs to cook artisanal meals, but loves Chinese takeout, wearing too much chambray, and kissing her husband. Raechel is fueled by double tall mochas and her strong passion to direct women to God and His Word. She lives south of Nashville, Tennessee with her three favorite people and an old dog named Scout.

AMANDA BIBLE WILLIAMS is crazy about words. True words are her favorite, one of many reasons she adores her role as Chief Content Officer of She Reads Truth. Amanda first met Jesus in an East Tennessee church pew as a little girl, and now she finds Him daily in the pages of God's Word and in a loud, old farmhouse east of Nashville where she lives with her husband and three young children. She has degrees in English and Psychology and nearly a master's in Religion. Amanda enjoys dancing with her kids, reading herself to sleep, and explaining that her maiden name really is Bible.

Reformation 500

How the Greatest Revival Since Pentecost Continues to Shape the World Today

RAY VAN NESTE AND J. MICHAEL GARRETT

In a church marked by the dismissal of Scripture, idolatrous worship, and corrupt clergy, men and women arose in protest. Today we call this protest movement the Protestant Reformation. At its heart, the Reformation was a great God-sent revival of the church. ## Sharing Jesus without Freaking Out

Evangelism the Way You Were Born to Do It

ALVIN L. REID

You were born for this.
 God hardwired you—yes, you—for this.

I'm talking about sharing Jesus with others.

What if I told you evangelism is less about delivering a polished presentation and more about having a real conversation? What if I told you that God has created you to bring glory to Himself by sharing Jesus with others, and that you don't need years of training to obey what He already made you to do?

God created you for His glory to advance His gospel with the gifts, talents, and opportunities He gave you. You live at this time in history for a purpose bigger than yourself. In these pages you will read how to connect the gospel story with your story, and how to talk about that story in normal conversations with people you know.

No gimmicks.
 Nothing clever.
 No need to freak out.
 Just you, Jesus, and others—in conversations that matter.

BUYING AUDIENCE

The God Who Goes Before You

A Biblical and Theological Vision for Leadership

MICHAEL S. WILDER AND TIMOTHY PAUL JONES

When it comes to leadership, there is much to be learned from empirical research and from the intuitive reflections of marketplace leaders. But without the entirety of Scripture as our supreme and sufficient authority, flawed views of human nature and deficient perspectives on God's purposes will skew our views of leadership. That's why a Christ-centered, kingdom-focused vision of leadership must precede any principles of leadership that derive from human wisdom. The aim of this book is to provide a foundation for the study of leadership that looks at leadership with both feet firmly planted in the whole of Scripture. This foundational vision for Christian leadership has emerged from examining the story line of Scripture as a whole, interpreting biblical texts in light of their historical, epochal, and canonical contexts.

READING AUDIENCE

- Pastors, small group leaders, interested laypeople, Christian high school and college students

MARKETING HIGHLIGHTS

28 Se unieron asimismo a Baal-peor,
Y comieron los sacrificios de los muertos.
29 Provocaron la ira de Dios con sus obras,
Y se desarrolló la mortandad entre ellos.
30 Entonces se levantó Finees e hizo juicio,
Y se detuvo la plaga;
31 Y le fue contado por justicia
De generación en generación para siempre.

32 También le irritaron en las aguas de Meriba;
Y le fue mal a Moisés por causa de ellos,
33 Porque hicieron rebelar a su espíritu,
Y habló precipitadamente con sus labios.
34 No destruyeron a los pueblos
Que Jehová les dijo;
35 Antes se mezclaron con las naciones,
Y aprendieron sus obras,
36 Y sirvieron a sus ídolos,
Los cuales fueron causa de su ruina.
37 Sacrificaron sus hijos y sus hijas a los demonios,
38 Y derramaron la sangre inocente, la sangre de sus hijos y de sus hijas,
Que ofrecieron en sacrificio a los ídolos de Canaán,
Y la tierra fue contaminada con sangre.
39 Se contaminaron así con sus obras,
Y se prostituyeron con sus hechos.

40 Se encendió, por tanto, el furor de Jehová sobre su pueblo,
Y abominó su heredad;
41 Los entregó en poder de las naciones,
Y se enseñorearon de ellos los que les aborrecían.
42 Sus enemigos los oprimieron,
Y fueron quebrantados debajo de su mano.
43 Muchas veces los libró;
Mas ellos se rebelaron contra su consejo,
Y fueron humillados por su maldad.
44 Con todo, él miraba cuando estaban en angustia,
Y oía su clamor;
45 Y se acordaba de su pacto con ellos,
Y se arrepentía conforme a la muchedumbre de sus misericordias.
46 Hizo asimismo que tuviesen de ellos misericordia todos los que los tenían cautivos.

47 Sálvanos, Jehová Dios nuestro,
Y recógenos de entre las naciones,
Para que alabemos tu santo nombre,
Para que nos gloriemos en tus alabanzas.

48 Bendito Jehová Dios de Israel.
Desde la eternidad y hasta la eternidad;
Y diga todo el pueblo, Amén.
Aleluya.

GENESIS 1-2 10

<sup>10</sup> "I will move on your belly and eat dust all the days of your life."<sup>a</sup>

<sup>11</sup> I will put hostility between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed. He will strike your head, and you will strike his heel.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>12</sup> He said to the woman: "I will intensify your labor pains; you will bear children with painful effort."<sup>c</sup>

Your desire<sup>d</sup> will be for your husband, yet he will rule over you.

<sup>17</sup> And he said to the man, "Because you listened to your wife and ate from the tree about which I commanded you, 'Do not eat from it:'

<sup>a</sup>11:11 LXX from your hand <sup>a</sup>11:11 Or sin <sup>a</sup>11:15 LXX, Vulg, Septuagint "her serpent" <sup>a</sup>11:15 Or suffer severely <sup>a</sup>12:20 Little dweeler of tent and livestock

Instructions to Adam. Therefore it seems that Adam had given his wife an additional command beyond what God said, or else Eve herself exaggerated the command as Satan tempted her to view God as selfish and overly restrictive. If Adam added to God's command, he almost certainly had a good motive—what all, if he never touched the tree, she certainly wouldn't eat its fruit. However, the sad truth is that when people add to the word of God, they create confusion and trouble.

the ground is cursed because of you.<sup>e</sup>

You will eat from it by means of painful labor,<sup>f</sup> all the days of your life. It will produce thorns and thistles for you, and you will eat the plants of the field.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>19</sup> You will eat bread<sup>h</sup> by the sweat of your brow until you return to the ground,<sup>i</sup> since you were taken from it. For you are dust, and you will return to dust.<sup>j</sup>

Lord God made clothing from skins for the man and his wife, and he clothed them.

<sup>27</sup> The Lord God said, "Since the man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil, he must not reach out, take from the tree of life eat, and live forever."<sup>l</sup> So the Lord God sent him away from the garden of Eden to work the ground from which he was taken.

<sup>28</sup> He drove the man out and stationed the cherubim and the flaming whirling sword east of the garden of Eden to guard the way to the tree of life.

4 The man was intimate with his wife Eve, and she conceived and gave birth to Cain. She said, "I have had a male child with the Lord's help."<sup>m</sup>

<sup>5</sup> She also gave birth to his brother Abel. Now Abel became a shepherd of flocks, but Cain worked the ground.<sup>n</sup> In the course of time Cain presented some of the land's produce as an offering to the Lord.<sup>o</sup>

<sup>6</sup> And Abel also presented an offering—some of the firstborn of his flock and their fat portions.<sup>p</sup> The Lord had regard for Abel and his offering.<sup>q</sup> But he did not have regard for Cain and his offering. Cain was furious, and he looked despondent.<sup>r</sup>

<sup>7</sup> Then the Lord said to Cain, "Why are you furious?"<sup>s</sup> "And why do you look despondent?"

GENESIS 2-3

<sup>1</sup> "If you do what is right, won't you be accepted? But if you do not do what is right, sin is crouching at the door. Its desire is for you, but you must rule over it."<sup>t</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Cain said to his brother Abel, "Let's go out to the field." And while they were in the field, Cain attacked his brother Abel and killed him.<sup>u</sup>

<sup>3</sup> Then the Lord said to Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?"

"I don't know," he replied. "Am I my brother's guardian?"

<sup>10</sup> Then he said, "What have you done? Your brother's blood cries out to me from the ground!"<sup>v</sup> So now you are cursed, alienated, from the ground that opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood; you have shed it.

<sup>11</sup> If you work the ground, it will never again give you its yield. You will be a restless wanderer on the earth.<sup>w</sup>

<sup>12</sup> But Cain answered the Lord, "My punishment is too great to bear!"<sup>x</sup> Since you are banishing me today from the face of the earth, and I must hide from your presence and become a restless wanderer on the earth, whoever finds me will kill me.<sup>y</sup>

<sup>13</sup> Then the Lord replied to him, "In that case,"<sup>z</sup> whoever kills Cain will suffer vengeance seven times over.<sup>aa</sup> And he placed a mark<sup>ab</sup> on Cain so that whoever found him would not kill him.<sup>ac</sup> Then Cain went out from

<sup>33</sup> God took the initiative in reaching out to sinful humanity. This pattern—humanity sinning, then God seeking out sinners—becomes the primary theme of the rest of the Bible. Its ultimate expression is found in Jesus Christ, who came to seek and to save people alienated from God because of their sin. In 12:10, in Him God once again walked on the earth in search of sinners. The all-knowing God asked Adam, "Where are you?" for Adam's benefit, to encourage Adam to face his sin.

<sup>34</sup> When Adam heard God, he was afraid. Rather than walking with God as a righteous man of later generations would do (Enoch, 5:2; Noah, 6:9; Adam hid from him), he hid from God and admitted that prior to eating the fruit he had not sinned.

<sup>35</sup> Adam answered neither of God's questions, because he sought to shift the blame for his sin first to the woman, and then to God. If the woman passed the blame to the serpent and admitted that prior to eating the fruit she had not sinned, God does not overlook sin, but He can be merciful in overlooking it.

Biblia Peshitta

PESHITTA BIBLE

Biblia basada en el texto Peshitta, un antiguo manuscrito bíblico en arameo, el idioma del Señor Jesús y Sus apóstoles. El resurgimiento del interés actual por el arameo bíblico se manifiesta principalmente en la traducción del texto Peshitta al español. Este texto, obra cumbre de la literatura aramea, dejó registrado para la posteridad el mensaje del evangelio en un idioma claro, sencillo y directo, que es el significado de “Peshitta.” El lector encontrará notas explicativas a pasajes de relevancia.

Bible based on the Peshitta text, an ancient Bible manuscript written in Aramaic, the language spoken by our Lord Jesus and His apostles. The current renewed interest in biblical Aramaic is mainly conveyed by the translation of the Peshitta text into Spanish. This work, the ultimate masterpiece in Aramaic literature, left the message of the gospel and the apostles as a historical record in a “clear, simple, straightforward” language, and this is—incidentally—what the word Peshitta means. In the final section of this work, the reader will find footnotes explaining relevant text selections.

READING AUDIENCE

- Pastors and lay teachers of the Word of God
- Seminary professors and students
- Serious students of the Word

MARKETING HIGHLIGHTS

- Previous edition has sold over 112,000 units

- An excellent supplementary tool for students of biblical languages

¿Es Razonable Creer en Dios?

Creer, en Una Era de Escepticismo

THE REASON FOR GOD

Timothy Keller

Timothy Keller, aborda las frecuentes dudas que escépticos e incrédulos plantean al mundo de la fe. Mediante literatura, filosofía, antropología, cultura popular y razonamiento intelectual, Keller explica cómo la creencia en un Dios cristiano es, de hecho, una creencia racional y sana. A los creyentes auténticos el autor les ofrece una sólida plataforma sobre la cual resistir el contragolpe que la era del escepticismo ha engendrado contra la fe. Y a los escépticos, ateos y agnósticos les presenta un desafiante argumento para determinar si es razonable creer en Dios. La revista Newsweek ha dicho “es un asombroso best seller en la lista del New York Times, escrito por ‘el C.S. Lewis del siglo XXI’”. La revista Christianity Today lo describe como “un best seller en la lista del New York Times, que es creíble y cuyo autor es un pionero de la nueva iglesia cristiana urbana”.

Timothy Keller, addresses the frequent doubts that skeptics and nonbelievers bring to religion. Using literature, philosophy, anthropology, pop culture, and intellectual reasoning, Keller explains how the belief in a Christian God is, in fact, a sound and rational one. To true believers he offers a solid platform on which to stand against the backlash toward religion spawned by the Age of Skepticism. And to skeptics, atheists, and agnostics he provides a challenging argument for pursuing the reason for God. The remarkable New York Times best seller by the “C. S. Lewis for the 21st century” (Newsweek). A New York Times best seller people can believe in-by a “pioneer of the new urban Christians” (Christianity Today magazine).
