Steal Away Home

Charles Spurgeon and Thomas Johnson, Unlikely Friends on the Passage to Freedom

MATT CARTER AND AARON IVEY

Thomas Johnson and Charles Spurgeon lived worlds apart.

Johnson, an American slave, born into captivity and longing for freedom—Spurgeon, an Englishman born into relative ease and comfort, but, longing too for a freedom of his own. Their respective journeys lead to an unlikely meeting and an even more unlikely friendship, forged by fate and mutual love for the mission of Christ. Steal Away Home, a new kind of book based on historical research, tells a previously untold story set in the 1800's of the relationship between an African-American missionary and one of the greatest preachers to ever live.

Authors Matt Carter and Aaron Ivey tell a compelling story in a fresh, new way about one of Christianity's most famed ministers. Readers will discover, perhaps for the first time, Spurgeon was merely one among many in a court of London preachers.

Sing!

Why and How We Should Worship

KEITH & KRISTYN GETTY

Why do you sing at church?

It's a question we almost never ask out loud. Yet, this is a question that is central to the lives of Christians who regularly gather together for worship.

Do you sing to God? Or do you "address one another in hymns and spiritual songs," as the Scripture says? Do you close your eyes? What is your posture in worship? This book is designed with these questions in mind.

Or maybe you don't sing at church—or if you do, not with very much enthusiasm, hoping to hide behind a wall of sound. After all, not everyone sings at the same skill level, same rhythm, or pitch.

Authors, lyricists, and worship leaders, Keith and Kristyn Getty write to church members to remind them why the Church should sing, when the Church should sing, and how the Church should sing. A congregation that gains a greater understanding of why they sing won't dread a worship service, with arms crossed and shoulders slumped, but see singing as an opportunity to proclaim the gospel together in obedience to God.

Sing! guides individual church members together with their congregations on a campaign to declare with one voice, "This is why we sing!"

BUYING AUDIENCE

- Pastors, leaders, music and worship ministers looking to guide congregations through a theology of singing
- Christians looking to grow their theology of singing

The Sacrament of Happy

Surprised by the Secret of Genuine Joy

LISA HARPER

Imagine hearing your physician tell you that chips and queso contain more nutritional benefits than kale and quinoa. Or opening an envelope that looks like just another bill, and unfolding instead an official document declaring you the sole beneficiary of an anonymous billionaire's estate.

In her new book, The Sacrament of Happy: Surprised by the Secret of Genuine Joy, Lisa Harper unveils a similarly extravagant, unexpected surprise, declaring that happiness—just plain feeling happy—is a gift from God that you can unashamedly enjoy.

Wearing the twin hats of seminarian and belly-laughing adoptive mom, Harper delivers a warm, vignette style built upon solid theological scaffolding. She observes, for example, that God's choice of wording for the first verse of the first psalm (a word often translated as "blessed") literally means happy—one of many biblical reasons for dismantling the old-school idea that joy, not happiness, is the truly spiritual one of the Christian family. In truth, they're more like fraternal twins than distant cousins, meaning we as Christ-followers are not called to jettison happiness—like a no-longer-needed set of spiritual floaties—as we learn to swim in the deep waters of intimacy with God. Beyond merely a circumstances-based, up-and-down emotion, happiness comes from a deep conviction in the unmitigated goodness of our Creator-Redeemer, freeing us to feel and express genuine joy, fulfillment, and contentment, regardless of personal or global tumult.

The author's personal story includes such happiness killers as sexual abuse, the deaths of near loved ones, a heartbreaking failed adoption, followed by the arrival of an adopted daughter from Haiti who is HIV-positive. Yet she writes on themes like: "The lost sacrament of laughter"—"Does happy have a personality type?"—"Tuning out the Pharisees who try to mute your happiness in the context of spiritual maturity." So this is obviously not a book of trite, untested clichés. It goes well beneath most people's surface understanding of happiness, gently guiding readers closer to the heart of God . . . with naturally a few genuine laughs and grins to enjoy along the way.

BUYING AUDIENCE

- Christian women of all ages yearning to understand the Biblical meaning of happiness
- MOPS & women's ministry leaders
- Women who connect with Lisa through the Propel and Abundance conferences

LISA HARPER is a hilarious storyteller and theological scholar—a gifted communicator whose writing and speaking overflows with colorful, pop-culture references that connect the dots between the Bible era and modern life. "Her God-given ability to not merely teach the Word but package it in a way that stirs the heart and calls to action is incomparable" says Priscilla Shirer. For six years Lisa served as the director of Focus on the Family's national women's ministry where she created the popular Renewing the Heart conferences. The next six years found her serving on the local level as the women's ministry director at a large church in Nashville. Lisa has authored eleven books, earned a Masters of Theological Studies degree with honors from Covenant Seminary, and is a sought-after Bible teacher and speaker. Lisa was on the Women of Faith national arena tour and speaks at many other large events as well as at hundreds of churches all over the world. Lisa describes her greatest accomplishment to date as getting to be Missy's mama.

WHAT IF WE'VE BEEN ASKING all THE WRONG QUESTIONS?

This Is Our Time uncovers the subtle ways in which our everyday life shapes and molds us in profound ways. With a winsome, engaging style, Wax helps Christians to see the unique and profound tides of our cultural moment. He helps us to understand our times and what to do about them.

“What if we are living according to the myths of our culture without even questioning them?”

What if we are falling for false stories, not because they are in our history books, but because they're in our everyday habits?

When we feel uncertain and confused about our rapidly changing society, we lack confidence in the gospel and in the power of the church. Many of us wonder: Are we truly up to the task of being faithful in this time?”

This Is Our Time

Everyday Myths in Light of the Gospel

TREVIN WAX

Uncertain. Confused. Overwhelmed.

Many Christians feel bombarded by the messages they hear and the trends they see in our rapidly changing world.

How can we resist being conformed to the pattern of this world? What will faithfulness to Christ look like in these tumultuous times? How can we be true to the gospel in a world where myths and false visions of the world so often prevail?

In This is Our Time, Trevin Wax provides snapshots of 21st-century American life in order to help Christians understand the times. By analyzing our common beliefs and practices (smartphone habits, entertainment intake, our view of shopping, sex, marriage, politics, and life's purpose), Trevin helps us see through the myths of society to the hope of the gospel.

As faithful witnesses to Christ, Trevin writes, we must identify the longing behind society's most cherished myths (what is good, true, beautiful), expose the lie at the heart of these myths (what is false and damaging), and show how the gospel tells a better story – one that exposes the lie but satisfies the deeper longing.

All of Grace

CHARLES SPURGEON

"It is not the object of this book to ask anything of you, but to tell you that salvation is ALL OF GRACE, which means, free, gratis, for nothing."

Spurgeon wants readers only to consume his work and ponder it, he asks nothing in return because he believes in the power of God to bring unbelievers to Him. This classic text brought into contemporary English is both a perfect introduction to salvation for unbelievers and an assurance of it for the saved. In the last line, Spurgeon beseeches readers to accept salvation now and "Meet me in heaven."

100 Days with Jesus

A Daily Glimpse into the Person of Christ

DIANN COTTON

How do you capture who Jesus really is? What words would you use to describe Him?

Explore the endless possibilities with these 100 names and attributes, pulled directly from Scripture, and presented with uncommon clarity and depth. Full in scope. Rich in devotion. Through prayers and insights that widen your view of Jesus' nature and purpose, you will see Him in ways you've perhaps never noticed before—specific to your need, complete in His love for you. You won't just be informed. You'll be transformed. One day at a time, 100 days in a row, inspired toward a deeper, more knowing sense of worship . . . for a lifetime.

"Please come along with me for the next 100 days as we walk through the names that describe Jesus. Each day you'll look at Jesus through the lens of descriptive names and words. No Silver Bullets

Five Small Shifts that will Transform Your Ministry

DANIEL IM

What if I told you that you were only one step away from unlocking new levels of maturity and growth in your church?

The myth of the silver bullet still exists because we desperately want it to be true. We all prefer quick fixes and bandage solutions to the long, hard, slow work that produces real change. So the moment we learn about a new ministry or strategy and see its effect in another church, we run to implement it in our own. Unfortunately, this impulse is usually met by opposition, skepticism, and ultimately, rejection.

What if the solution isn't a new model or a complicated strategy, but a shift in perspective? What if you could keep your church's current vision, values, and model, and simply make a few micro-shifts...leading to macro-changes?

This book explores five micro-shifts that have the potential to produce macro-changes in your church. As you read, you will discover how to integrate these micro-shifts into the life of your church, starting with the way you disciple. You will finish by developing a plan to structure, communicate, and evaluate these changes to insure that they take root and pave the way for lasting change and kingdom impact.

Technicolor

Inspiring Your Church to Embrace Multicultural Ministry

MARK HEARN

By the year 2040, no major city in the United States will have a majority ethnic group.

Every major city will be majority-minority. This future nationwide reality has already been a present reality in several cities, including many in the urban south, for nearly a decade. In a 2011 State of the City Address, the mayor of pastor and author Mark Hearn's city said there were fifty-seven languages spoken at the local high school.

Hearn left asking himself, "How should our church respond?"

In the years that have followed, a phenomenal transformation has taken place. This transition has been chronicled in the Gwinnet Daily Post, the Christian Index, the Wall Street Journal, LifeWay's Facts and Trends, and the Atlanta Magazine. Now, Hearn shares the life-changing story through his own lens. By reading his firsthand experience of this transition as a pastor, you too can be equipped to make the shift to church in technicolor.

During his tenure, the church has transformed from a monolithic Anglo-American congregation to a cross-cultural community with members from thirty-seven different countries. Pastor Mark holds degrees from Carson Newman College, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and Luther Rice Seminary. Mark and his wife Glenda are the parents of four grown daughters and are expecting their seventh grandchild.

The Quest

Looking for a New Pastor

DR. FRANK PAGE

Your senior pastor has just stepped down. Your church is at a loss. Where do you go from here?

The Quest: Looking for a New Pastor, is a product of more than three decades of full-time, pastoral ministry from Dr. Frank Page. This is truly one of the most practical works on the subject that has ever been published. Using Scripture as the foundation and real-life examples of searches done well and searches gone bad, Dr. Frank Page gives advice on what to look for, what to ask, and what to do.

The Quest uses insider experience and information to answer questions that all search committees ask. It lists warning signs for every church, and includes questions that churches and prospective pastors alike wish they had known to ask. The Quest deals with the “how-to” of a pastor search, but more importantly, it deals with the “why” and “why not.”

The importance of having a pastor who will shepherd your flock well cannot be overstated. With this book, Dr. Frank Page has provided a great resource for churches seeking to discern the will of God in their search for a pastor.

All in All

NEW FROM BEST-SELLING
AUTHOR SOPHIE HUDSON!

ENJOY THIS EXCERPT FROM ALL IN ALL.

It's weird, isn't it? We let all sorts of people (and who knows how many labels) define us. We tell ourselves that our lives will be perfect if we can just get that grade or win this competition or beat that time. We listen to lies and convince ourselves that we're only as good as the number of followers we have on a social media platform, and we hide other people's criticisms in our hearts and play them on repeat when we're alone. We so desperately want to be known for something that we'll sometimes settle for being known for anything.

And when we do that, we chip away at our true identity, which has only ever been—and will only ever be—in Him.

I'm so grateful that Jesus looks at all those other words and labels and names that we call ourselves—the things we think will make us known—and He lovingly shakes His head.

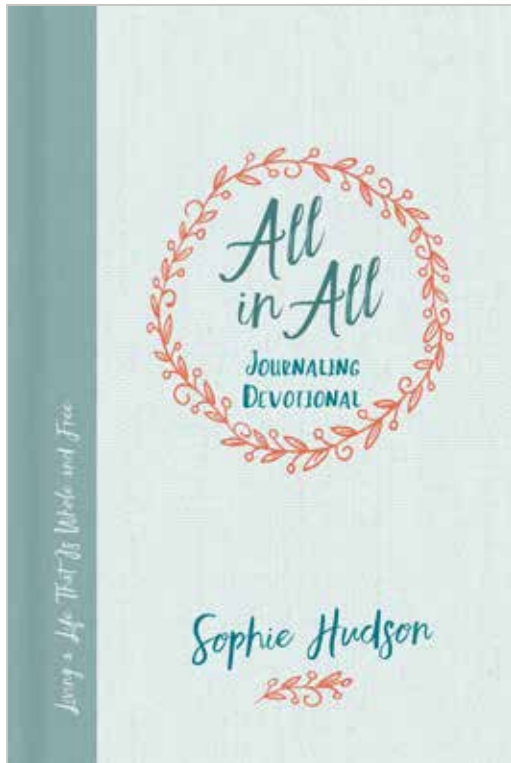

No ma'am.

Here's what really and truly matters.

You are mine.

"When I was at Mississippi State, I used Charles Swindoll's Growing Strong in the Seasons of Life as my devotional book, and that book stayed with me throughout college, moved with me to my first apartment, then to my second apartment, and everywhere I've lived since. It has been with me for more than 25 years! That's the vision I have for All in All—that girls will initially use it to spend 100 days with the Lord, and then they'll continue to carry it with them as a reminder of the Lord's ongoing work in their lives. My prayer is that the Lord will use All in All to minister to young women as they work through each day's devotion—and that as they get older, the book will become a memorial stone for them, something that would prompt them to remember the Lord's faithfulness, provision, and care." – SOPHIE HUDSON

Commentary on Romans

Biblical Theology for Christian Proclamation

The Biblical Theology for Christian Proclamation commentary series explores the theology of the Bible in considerable depth, spanning both Testaments. General Editors include T. Desmond Alexander, Andreas J. Kostenberger, and Thomas R. Schreiner with contributing authors from a variety of backgrounds and perspectives, though all affirm the inerrancy and inspiration of Scripture. All volumes provide a discussion of introductory matters, including the book's historical setting and the literary structure. Also included is an exegetical treatment of all the relevant passages in succinct commentary-style format. The major contribution of each volume, however, is a thorough discussion of the most important themes of the biblical book in relation to the canon as a whole. What distinguishes this series is its orientation toward Christian proclamation. Within its pages, the authors seek to relate biblical theology to our every day lives and to the life of the church. The desire behind this commentary series is to equip those in Christian ministry who are called by God to preach and teach the precious truths of Scripture to their congregations.

Pastoral Theology

Theological Foundations for Who a Pastor Is and What He Does

DANIEL L. AKIN AND R. SCOTT PACE

While many pastoral ministry books focus on the practical duties of the pastor, few works actually consider how theological truth defines the pastor's role and responsibilities. These pragmatic ministry tools, though instructionally beneficial, essentially divorce biblical doctrine from ministerial practice. As a result, pastors' lives and ministries often lack the theological roots that provide the stability and nourishment necessary to sustain them.

Pastoral Theology constructs a theological framework for pastoral ministry that is biblically derived, historically informed, doctrinally sound, missionally engaged, and contextually relevant. By using traditional theological categories the authors explore the correlation between evangelical doctrine and pastoral practice. Through careful theological integration they formulate a ministry philosophy that defines the pastoral office and determines its corresponding responsibilities in light of theological truth.

The authors provide a theological understanding of the pastorate that will equip aspiring pastors to discern and pursue their calling, challenge younger pastors to build on ministerial truth instead of ministerial trends, and inspire seasoned pastors to be reinvigorated in their passion for Christ and his church.

- New and seasoned pastors
- Church leaders

MARKETING HIGHLIGHTS

- Lays a theological foundation for the work of pastoral ministry missing in many similar works

Removing the Stain of Racism from the Southern Baptist Convention

Diverse African American and White Perspectives

JARVIS J. WILLIAMS AND KEVIN M. JONES

The Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) has an obvious historical stain on it: racism, evident by the SBC's affirmation of slavery, its fairly recent repentance of this sin in 1995, and the numerous segregated Southern Baptist churches. This stain prohibits Southern Baptist churches from embracing the one new man in Christ outlined in Ephesians 2:11–22 and from participating in the new song of those saints from every tongue, tribe, people, and nation in Revelation 5:9.

The glorious gospel of Jesus Christ necessitates that all Southern Baptists do their part to remove this stain from the SBC. This requires sacrifice, humility, and perseverance, along with a relentless commitment to Christian unity. This volume, edited by and contributed to primarily by African-American voices in the SBC, is one small effort to help remove the stain of racism from the SBC in pursuit of this unity in our beloved denomination.

BUYING AUDIENCE

- Pastors and church leaders
- Anyone interested in the past and future of America's largest Protestant denomination

JUAN 1	JUAN 1-2
El Verbo hecho carne 1 En el principio era el Verbo, y el Verbo era con Dios, y el Verbo era Dios. ² Este era en el principio con Dios. ³ Todas las cosas por él fueron hechas, y sin él nada de lo que ha sido hecho, fue hecho. ⁴ En él estaba la vida, y la vida era la luz de los hombres. ⁵ La luz en las tinieblas resplandece, y las tinieblas no prevalecieron contra ella. ⁶ Hubo un hombre enviado de Dios, el cual se llamaba Juan. ⁷ Este vino por testimonio, para que diese testimonio de la luz, a fin de que todos creyesen por él. ⁸ No era él la luz, sino para que diese testimonio de la luz. ⁹ Aquella luz verdadera, que alumbra a todo hombre, venía a este mundo. ¹⁰ En el mundo estaba, y el mundo por él fue hecho; pero el mundo no lo conoció. ¹¹ A lo suyo vino, y los suyos no le recibieron. ¹² Mas a todos los que le recibieron, a los que creen en su nombre, les dio potestad de ser hechos hijos de Dios; ¹³ los cuales no son engendrados de sangre, ni de voluntad de carne, ni de voluntad de varón, sino de Dios. ¹⁴ Y aquel Verbo fue hecho carne, y habitó entre nosotros (y vimos su gloria, gloria como del unigénito del Padre), lleno de gracia y de verdad. ¹⁵ Juan dio testimonio de él, y clamó diciendo: Este es de quien yo decía: El que viene después de mí, es antes de mí; porque era primero que yo. ¹⁶ Porque de su plenitud tomamos todos, y gracia sobre gracia. ¹⁷ Pues la ley por medio de Moisés fue dada, pero la gracia y la verdad vinieron por medio de Jesucristo. ¹⁸ A Dios nadie le vio jamás; el unigénito Hijo, que está en el seno del Padre, él le ha dado a conocer. Testimonio de Juan el Bautista (Mt. 3:11-12; Mr. 1:7-8; Lc. 3:15-17) ¹⁹ Este es el testimonio de Juan, cuando los judíos enviaron de Jerusalén sacerdotes y levitas para que le preguntasen: ¿Tú, quién eres? ²⁰ Confesó, y no negó, sino confesó: Yo no soy el Cristo. ²¹ Y le preguntaron: ¿Qué pues? ¿Eres tú Elías? Dijo: No soy. ¿Eres tú el profeta? Y respondió: No. ²² Le dijeron: ¿Pues quién eres? para que demos respuesta a los que nos envían. ¿Qué dices de ti mismo? ²³ Dijo: Yo soy la voz de uno que clama en el desierto: Enderezad el camino del Señor, como dijo el profeta Isaías. ²⁴ Y los que habían sido enviados eran de los fariseos. ²⁵ Y le preguntaron, y le dijeron: ¿Por qué, pues, bautizas, si tú no eres el Cristo, ni Elías, ni el profeta? ²⁶ Juan les respondió diciendo: Yo bautizo con agua; mas en medio de vosotros está uno a quien vosotros no conocéis. ²⁷ Este es el que viene después de mí, el que es antes de mí, del cual yo no soy digno de desatar la correa del calzado. ²⁸ Estas cosas sucedieron en Betábara, al otro lado del Jordán, donde Juan estaba bautizando. El Cordero de Dios ²⁹ El siguiente día vio Juan a Jesús que venía a él, y dijo: He aquí el Cordero de Dios, que quita el pecado del mundo. ³⁰ Este es aquel de quien yo dije: Después de mí viene un varón, el cual es antes de mí; porque era primero que yo. ³¹ Y yo no lo conocía; mas para que fuese manifestado a Israel, por esto vine yo bautizando con agua. ³² También dio Juan testimonio, diciendo: Vi al Espíritu que descendía del cielo como paloma, y permaneció sobre él. ³³ Y yo no lo conocía; pero el que me envió a bautizar con agua, aquel me dijo: Sobre quien veas descender el Espíritu y que permanezca sobre él, éste es el que bautiza con el Espíritu Santo. ³⁴ Y yo le vi, y he dado testimonio de que éste es el Hijo de Dios. Los primeros discípulos ³⁵ El siguiente día otra vez estaba Juan, y dos de sus discípulos. ³⁶ Y mirando a Jesús que andaba por allí, dijo: He aquí el Cordero de Dios.	³⁷ Le oyeron hablar los dos discípulos, y siguieron a Jesús. ³⁸ Y volviéndose Jesús, y viendo que le seguían, les dijo: ¿Qué buscáis? Ellos le dijeron: Rabi (que traducido es, Maestro), ¿dónde moras? ³⁹ Les dijo: Venid y ved. Fueron, y vieron dónde moraba, y se quedaron con él aquel día; porque era como la hora décima. ⁴⁰ Andrés, hermano de Simón Pedro, era uno de los dos que habían oído a Juan, y habían seguido a Jesús. ⁴¹ Este halló primero a su hermano Simón, y le dijo: Hemos hallado al Mesías (que traducido es, el Cristo). ⁴² Y le trajo a Jesús. Y mirándole Jesús, dijo: Tú eres Simón, hijo de Jonás; tú serás llamado Cefas (que quiere decir, Pedro). Jesús llama a Felipe y a Natanael ⁴³ El siguiente día quiso Jesús ir a Galilea, y halló a Felipe, y le dijo: Sígueme. ⁴⁴ Y Felipe era de Betsaida, la ciudad de Andrés y Pedro. ⁴⁵ Felipe halló a Natanael, y le dijo: Hemos hallado a aquel de quien escribió Moisés en la ley, así como los profetas: a Jesús, el hijo de José, de Nazaret. ⁴⁶ Natanael le dijo: ¿De Nazaret puede salir algo de bueno? Le dijo Felipe: Ven y ve. ⁴⁷ Cuando Jesús vio a Natanael que se le acercaba, dijo de él: He aquí un verdadero israelita, en quien no hay engaño. ⁴⁸ Le dijo Natanael: ¿De dónde me conoces? Respondió Jesús y le dijo: Antes que Felipe te llamara, cuando estabas debajo de la higuera, te vi. ⁴⁹ Respondió Natanael y le dijo: Rabi, tú eres el Hijo de Dios; tú eres el Rey de Israel. ⁵⁰ Respondió Jesús y le dijo: ¿Porque te dije: Te vi debajo de la higuera, crees? Cosas mayores que éstas verás. ⁵¹ Y le dijo: De cierto, de cierto os digo: De aquí adelante veréis el cielo abierto, y a los ángeles de Dios que suben y descienden sobre el Hijo del Hombre. Las bodas de Caná 2 Al tercer día se hicieron unas bodas en Caná de Galilea; y estaba allí la madre de Jesús. ² Y fueron también invitados a las bodas Jesús y sus discípulos. ³ Y faltando el vino, la madre de Jesús le dijo: No tienen vino. ⁴ Jesús le dijo: ¿Qué tienes conmigo, mujer? Aún no ha venido mi hora. ⁵ Su madre dijo a los que servían: Haced todo lo que os dijere. ⁶ Y estaban allí seis tinajas de piedra para agua, conforme al rito de la purificación de los judíos, en cada una de las cuales cabían dos o tres cántaros. ⁷ Jesús les dijo: Llenad estas tinajas de agua. Y las llenaron hasta arriba. ⁸ Entonces les dijo: Sacad ahora, y llevadlo al maestrales. Y se lo llevaron. ⁹ Cuando el maestrales probó el agua hecha vino, sin saber él de dónde era, aunque lo sabían los sirvientes que habían sacado el agua, llamó al esposo. ¹⁰ Y le dijo: Todo hombre sirve primero el buen vino, y cuando ya han bebido mucho, entonces el inferior; mas tú has reservado el buen vino hasta ahora. ¹¹ Este principio de señales hizo Jesús en Caná de Galilea, y manifestó su gloria; y sus discípulos creyeron en él. ¹² Después de esto descendieron a Capernaum, él, su madre, sus hermanos y sus discípulos; y estuvieron allí no muchos días. Jesús purifica el templo (Mt. 21:12-13; Mr. 11:15-18; Lc. 19:45-46) ¹³ Estaba cerca la pascua de los judíos; y subió Jesús a Jerusalén. ¹⁴ Y halló en el templo a los que vendían bueyes, ovejas y palomas, y a los cambistas allí sentados. ¹⁵ Y haciendo un azote de cuerdas, echó fuera del templo a todos, y las ovejas y los bueyes; y esparció las monedas de los cambistas, y volcó las mesas; ¹⁶ y dijo a los que vendían palomas: Quitad de aquí esto, y no hagáis de la casa de mi Padre casa de mercado. ¹⁷ Entonces se acordaron sus discípulos que está escrito: El celo de tu casa me consume. ¹⁸ Y los judíos respondieron y le dijeron: ¿Qué señal nos muestras, ya que haces esto? ¹⁹ Respondió Jesús y les dijo: Destruid este templo, y en tres días lo levantaré. ²⁰ Dijeron luego los judíos: En cuarenta y seis años fue edificado este templo, ¿y tú en tres días lo levantarás? ²¹ Mas él hablaba del templo de su cuerpo.

LOST OR DAMAGED PRODUCT

B&H Publishing Group cannot be responsible for products lost or damaged in shipment. In the event you receive damaged products or find a carton shortage, please follow the following procedure.

FREIGHT SHIPMENTS

Sign the delivery receipt and state the exact number of cartons received and any visible damage. If damage is discovered after delivery, notify carrier for inspection within 15 days of delivery. Retain all packing material including boxes from the shipping company. Notify B&H Customer Service, and we will file a claim for you with the carrier and enter a replacement order.

UPS/FEDEX GROUND SHIPMENTS

Notify UPS/FedEx within 15 days in case of damage or B&H Publishing Group Customer Service in case of shortage. UPS/FedEx will inspect, pick up, and return damaged products to B&H. We will file a claim for damage and trace the shortage.

HANDLING YOUR ORDER

When you order, include the product ISBN of each product ordered. Please specify order need-by date (as appropriate) to ensure receipt according to your needs. Orders without a need-by date or noted "Send best way" will be shipped the least expensive way. Orders requested to be shipped by motor freight will be shipped by the line which we believe will give you the best service if you have not asked for a specific carrier. Orders for "one" of a product packaged and cataloged in certain quantities will be interpreted to mean "one packaged unit." Orders weighing less than 250 pounds are usually shipped UPS. Orders weighing more than 250 pounds are usually shipped by motor freight. (You may have a preference entered on your permanent customer file.)
