How many times have we heard these statements...

- “We can’t compete with the megachurch in our town!”
- “A new church was started two blocks from us. We’ve got plenty of churches without them!”
- “The church brought another one of their campuses near us. It’s totally unethical what they are doing.”
- “We can’t reach young families. They all go to the big church that has all the children’s and student stuff.”
- “We don’t have the money or the people the other churches have.”

Bestselling author Thom S. Rainer (I Am a Church Member, Autopsy of a Deceased Church) has heard comments like these hundreds, if not thousands, of times. They are statements of hopelessness. They are statements of despair. They are statements of defeat.

Church leaders don’t want to feel this way. They desire to break out of the mediocrity of the same, lame, and tame existence of their churches. They want their churches to make a difference.

There is hope. God’s hope. God’s possibilities.

What does a scrappy church look like? Let’s take a look together.

"WHAT HAPPENED BETWEEN 14 AND 36 IS THE STORY I HAVE TO TELL.

This isn’t an easy story. It’s the one about me and my mom, about addiction, hard moments, and redemption. Through her journal pages, I know she wanted to do right by me, but it was all just so complicated.

But it’s also the world’s story. Brokenness, darkness, and difficulty are sure to invade our lives, but it is God that lifts us out of pits. It is God that redeems and that has redeemed my life, my mom, you, and the world.”

The Complicated Heart

Loving Even When It Hurts
BY SARAH MAE

People always ask Sarah how she forgave her alcoholic mother.

How do you forgive someone who wounded you so deeply, who carelessly brushed aside your pain, who caused such destruction? How do you forgive them when your wounds are still open, they show no remorse, and you’re so tangled up with them you’re not sure how to get untangled?

These are the questions Sarah Mae has wrestled with since she was fourteen years old—the year she moved in with her mother.

The Complicated Heart takes readers on a journey where they will experience Sarah’s story with her. Readers will be able to peek behind the curtain into the heart of her mom as well, through journal entries and letters. The story of Sarah and her mom is the story of how light finds a way in, even in the deepest darkness. It is a story that shows victory, hope, and redemption in the midst of trauma and pain.

Specifically, The Complicated Heart will help you:
• Learn how to forgive when your wound is still open
• Heal even when circumstances don’t change
• Get out of the cycle of dysfunction that you seem trapped in
• Love when it feels impossible
• Persevere in hope even when you think it’s a waste of time
• Support a friend who is dealing with a broken or painful relationship

buying audience
• Women with messy relationships with a loved one who is struggling with addiction, substance abuse, or alcoholism
• Readers of Sarah Mae’s blog, podcast listeners, and past book purchasers
• Women ages twenty-two to fifty-five who have experienced trauma or know someone who has experienced trauma

Sarah makes her home in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, with her woodworker husband and three spunky kiddos. Learn more and be encouraged in the tough stuff of life at sarahmae.com.

Above All
The Gospel Is the Source of the Church’s Renewal
BY J.D. GREEAR

Is gospel Christianity dead?

Pundits are writing the obituary of historic, Orthodox Christianity, but pastor and author J.D. Greear (Gospel, Stop Asking Jesus into Your Heart) believes the postmortems are premature. Jesus promised to build His church. He said that the gates of hell would not prevail against it. The church is not going away. Along with this promise, Jesus gave clear instructions for how the church would prevail. He promised to build it on the rock of the gospel. The most pressing need for Christianity today is not a new strategy. It is not an updated message. It is a return to keeping the gospel above all.

Gospel
The 90-Day Devotional
BY J.D. GREEAR

The gospel dwells at the core of Christianity. What God has done for us in Christ is the entire basis for our faith, our hope, our love, our lives. Yet too often, in seeking to grow as a Christian, we leave the gospel back at the starting line—as if it’s something we must grow beyond, as if going deeper requires moving on from it.

Pastor and author J.D. Greear’s (Not God Enough, Stop Asking Jesus into Your Heart, Gospel) first-ever devotional book is a 90-day reminder that we never move past the gospel; it is the beginning, middle, and end of what God has given to save us and make us more like Christ. Only by renewing our minds in God’s absolute acceptance of us through the cross are we enabled to truly desire and live out what religion can only impose against our will. It’s how the need to keep proving ourselves worthy to Him becomes supplanted by a heart that simply, purely loves Him.

Packed with Scripture and extra study features, as well as an ongoing “Gospel Prayer” emphasis, the Gospel Devotional takes you back to the roots of Christ’s work on your behalf so you can bear fruit for a lifetime.

Sometimes, life takes you places you don’t want to go.

Coffee with Mom is about a journey neither author and pastor Mike Glenn nor his mom wanted to take but had to anyway. Life didn’t give them a choice. Mike’s mom didn’t want to be sick, and, while she couldn’t overcome the devastation of dementia and Alzheimer’s, she wasn’t going down without a fight. She fought the illness denying its presence. She fought the doctors, “Who were these idiots anyway?” And she fought him, “How come you think you’re in charge now?”

She would lose the war, but Mom went down swinging. Coffee with Mom is a book about a mom’s fight and the struggle of a son who wanted to help but didn’t always know how. Most of these conversations and battles happened during morning coffee. This book isn’t about knowing all of the answers. This book is one son’s journey with his mom; A story of a son who did the best he could, who wrote this story in hopes that you’ll find a few laughs for your journey, realize you’re not alone, and find the courage to do the best you can. So, pour yourself a cup of coffee, and join us on the journey. You’ll find yourself in the laughter and tears of not knowing what to do next and making a decision and hoping it all works out but knowing it’s the best you can do in the moment.

In the end, that’s all that matters. “Do the best you can” is all love requires.

buying audience
- Gen Xers are dealing with aging parents who are living with this disease
- Millennials dealing with their parents being diagnosed with early onset dementia
- Conservative evangelicals, most notably Southern Baptists, who, follow Mike Glenn
- Previous buyers of Mike Glenn’s books (The Gospel of Yes and In Real Time)

marketing highlights
- Mike Glenn pastors Brentwood Baptist Church, one of the largest churches in Tennessee and in the United States
- Few resources exist to meet the great needs of those who love people who have been diagnosed with dementia
- Mike is active on Twitter @MikeGlenn (15,000+ followers), and many of his humorous and heartfelt stories about his mother have come from here
- 10 percent of the United States population over 65 has dementia
- 7.7 million have dementia in the United States (2017)
- According to the Alzheimers Association, Alzheimer’s disease is the sixth leading cause of death in the United States
Advocates or Agitators?
The Narrow Path to Racial Reconciliation
BY DHATI LEWIS

A slave runs away from his master. A mutual friend steps in to mediate between the two of them. Can there be healing in such a scarred relationship? In the face of such a daunting breach, is reconciliation (not to what was, but to what God designed) even possible?

This is the situation faced in the book of Philemon. From this short New Testament letter, pastor and author Dhati Lewis (Among Wolves) unpacks key principles that Paul applied to being an advocate in the midst of division.

The divisions of our day don’t look the same as Paul’s, but the principles are timeless. In 1 Corinthians 5, God commissioned us to be his ambassadors and gave us the ministry of reconciliation. Whether we’re engaging in issues of politics, ethnicity, or religious beliefs, our heart posture should be one of an advocate set on reconciliation. The problem is, too many of us approach difficult conversations with the heart of an agitator. Agitators sometimes look like they are pursuing good things, but their heart is not toward reconciliation. Any motive less than reconciliation falls short of the desires of God’s heart.

We need godly advocates in every sphere of life. This book will specifically apply these principles to issues of ethnic division. Are you willing to call any division caused by discrimination, prejudice, or racism a sin? Do you want to grow in your ability to navigate tense and emotional conversations about ethnic divisions? Are you ready to become an advocate?

There are a few questions that lie just below the surface for many Christians.

Does God really love me despite my failures?

Can God use me for good in this world despite all my sin and shortcomings?

Do my doubts and questions about faith make God think less of me?

Do I have a future in the family of God despite my past?

In the biblical story of the prodigal son, Jesus answers all those questions that lurk in the heart of so many believers. In The Long Walk Home, author and pastor Matt Carter takes a fresh look at this age-old story and helps the reader discover and experience, once again, the radical, never-ending love of God for His sons and daughters.

When Kile Graves began his high school journey, his father saw an opportunity to give him something he’d never gotten before—a series of intentional “life deposits,” crucial conversations that could help guide him into adulthood. So, Steve Graves began a personal journal about the critical lessons he wanted to share with his son. Then he and Kile discussed those lessons over bagels while meeting regularly over the next three years.

Steve wasn’t looking for an immediate, radical transformation in his son. But he knew if the deposits were made, Kile would have opportunities to put them to use. The regular, honest, uncut conversations about life, relationships, and work provided a unique opportunity to strengthen the integrity of their father-son relationship.

41 Deposits shares the lessons Steve felt were important to him and his son so other fathers and sons can learn and apply those lessons to their own lives and relationships. Each chapter includes a story that drives home a specific deposit, followed by key insights to consider and questions to ask and answer. It’s not a study guide or a one-size-fits-all program, but this very personal account of the investments Steve made with Kile provides a blueprint for other fathers who are on a similar journey.

Letters to My Students
Biblical & Practical Advice for Gospel Ministers
BY JASON K. ALLEN

Few books have more influenced those called to gospel ministry than Charles Spurgeon’s Lectures to My Students. This influence of this book, like the Prince of Preachers himself, reverberates to our present age.

Carrying forward this tradition is Jason Allen’s Letters to My Students. Dr. Allen serves as president of Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and Spurgeon College, the former ranking as one of the largest and fastest growing seminaries in North America. Dr. Allen has also served in multiple pastorates. His passion to serve the church by equipping a generation of pastors, missionaries, and ministers for faithful service is reflected in Letters to My Students.

Letters to My Students is a biblical, accessible guide for ministers and ministers-in-training. It brings both biblical and practical wisdom to bear on the minister’s three main responsibilities: preaching, leading, and shepherding the flock of God.

Martin Lloyd-Jones famously described the call to ministry as the highest, greatest, and most glorious calling to which one can be called. If this assessment resonates with you, you’ll want every available tool to strengthen your ministry. Letters to My Students is one such resource.

In addition to his role as president, Dr. Allen serves as an associate professor for preaching and pastoral ministry. More broadly, he serves the church through his preaching and writing ministries. He is the author or editor of several books, including The SBC and the 21st Century, Discerning Your Call to Ministry, Being a Christian, and Portraits of a Pastor. Boys need strong role models.

In an age when the world is confused about what it means to be a strong man, boys need the examples of godly men who have gone before them. The eleven men in Strong are examples of true strength—men who stood firm when no one else would stand with them. As they read about these men, boys will learn about some familiar figures as well as those they may never have heard of before. They’ll read harrowing stories of danger, risk, and miraculous tales of courage and sacrifice.

By reading about the humility of Alvin York, the courageous conviction of Dietrich Bonhoeffer, the strong faith of Jackie Robinson, and the missionary heart of George Liele, boys will come away with an inspiring vision of manhood. But even more, they’ll encounter a personal God who strengthens His children “with all power, according to his glorious might” (Colossians 1:11). Rather than feeling the need to live up to impossible standards, they’ll see that true power comes from God, and the same God who strengthened the men in this book will empower readers to walk in His strength right where they are.

- Boys ages 8-14

Buying audience
- Parents, grandparents, and ministry leaders of boys ages 8-14

When Scarlet Hiltibidal was a teenager, plastic butterfly clips were all the rage. She couldn’t understand why they didn’t look the same in her “frizzy, bulbous hair” as they did on the blonde whose mom was a professional hair stylist. Back then, she would have sanctioned the destruction of scores of actual butterflies just to own the label “pretty butterfly clips girl.” And so it goes for many girls like Scarlet who strive for self-worth yet struggle to find it.

He Numbered the Pores on My Face is for teens who long for beauty, love, and rest. Any labels you long for today might as well be “looks good in butterfly clips” if you are not rooted in who Jesus says you are, because any self-centered identity is going to leave you in the same place: unfulfilled and unhappy. Girls will relate to Scarlet’s stories as she discusses hottie lists, eating disorders, and haphazard beauty in a way that is both humorous and thought provoking. Through it all, she describes how she found peace by learning to see life not through a mirror but through a Savior who shapes who we were, who we are, and who we will be.

Reading audience
- Teen girls ages 13-18

Buying audience
- Parents and grandparents of girls ages 13-18

Marketing highlights
- Girls will relate to Scarlet’s stories as she discusses finding identity in Christ in a culture that tells you to find identity in materialistic things.

- Provides humorous and thought-provoking stories on topics like beauty and love.

Scarlet Hiltibidal is a very professional wife and mother to her family in Middle Tennessee. She loves sign language with her daughters, nachos by herself, writing for her friends, and dreaming of being a famous chef while spilling the cheese dust from the macaroni box on the kitchen counter and using it anyway. She treasures the freedom of resting in the work of Jesus and hopes to help others rest as well. Her book Afraid of All the Things released in January 2019.
Seven Arrows Journal

BY MATT ROGERS

The Seven Arrows Journal presents a clean template for all students of the Bible to record their notes on any passage of Scripture. 7. How does this passage prompt me to pray?

The Ultimate Bible Character Guide

BY GINA DETWILER

The Bible is filled with incredible and interesting characters—from Jesus to Eglon, Gabriel to Legion. This unique encyclopedia brings 150 of them to life with comic-book style illustrations and hundreds of facts for kids to explore.

Young readers will be captivated to read about both well-known characters of the Bible and some they’re yet to discover. They’ll learn what characters’ names meant, what strengths God gave them, who they considered enemies, and what battles they fought. Which one was possessed by demons? Who wrestled an angel? Who never died? It’s all here, the good and the evil, the famous and the infamous.

In true encyclopedia form, characters will be arranged alphabetically and indexed so that favorites can be found easily. Contemporaries will be marked as such, and a timeline will help kids understand and place each story. Spreads will include full-length illustrations of each character, list of facts, descriptions, and background info.

Featuring the CHRISTIAN STANDARD BIBLE

Accurate. Readable. Shareable. The Christian Standard Bible is a translation for everyone—a translation you can take to seminary and read to your kids. A translation that new believers can understand and that every believer can return to for lifelong discipleship.

The CSB captures the Bible’s original meaning without sacrificing clarity. It’s an optimal blend of accuracy and readability—in the many places throughout Scripture where a word-for-word rendering is clearly understandable, a literal translation is used. When a word-for-word rendering might obscure the meaning for a modern audience, a more dynamic translation is used.

The result is a translation that communicates both the words and the thoughts of the original text clearly and accurately to today’s readers. A translation pastors can preach from and one you can share with your neighbor hearing God’s Word for the very first time.

CSB Day-by-Day Chronological Bible

GUIDED BY DR. GEORGE GUTHRIE

Many people are unfamiliar with the stories of the Bible and how they fit together into the grand narrative of God’s Word. God gave us the Bible to reveal great truth about himself and about our lives, and he wants to draw us into the ongoing story of what he is doing in the world. The CSB Day-by-Day Chronological Bible features a clear narrative approach to the Bible, arranging the complete text into a fresh chronological reading plan with daily readings guided by Dr. George Guthrie.

In this plan, the books, chapters, and verses of the Bible are thoughtfully arranged so readers can track the story of Scripture, day-by-day, from beginning to end, understanding the flow of events and how the grand narrative of Scripture applies to everyday life. Unlike other chronological Bibles, this arrangement is not date specific (e.g., “January 1”), so the reading plan can begin at any point in the calendar year.

FEATURES

- 52 weeks of readings (six readings per week) in chronological order
- Scripture presented in three main acts (God’s Plan for All People; God’s Covenant People; God’s New Covenant People) and 17 total scenes

Exalting Jesus in Genesis

Christ-Centered Exposition Commentary

BY DR. RUSSELL MOORE AND DR. PHILLIP BETHANCOURT

Exalting Jesus in Genesis is part of the Christ-Centered Exposition Commentary series. Edited by David Platt, Daniel L. Akin, and Tony Merida, this commentary series, to include forty-eight volumes when complete, takes a Christ-centered approach to expositing each book of the Bible. Rather than a verse-by-verse approach, the authors have crafted chapters that explain and apply key passages in their assigned Bible books.

Readers will learn to see Christ in all aspects of Scripture, and they will be encouraged by the devotional nature of each exposition presented as sermons and divided into chapters that conclude with a “Reflect & Discuss” section, making this series ideal for small group study, personal devotion, and even sermon preparation. It’s not academic but rather presents an easy reading, practical, and friendly commentary.

The Exegetical Guide to the Greek New Testament (EGGNT) closes the gap between the Greek text and the available lexical and grammatical tools, providing all the necessary information for greater understanding of the text. The series makes interpreting any given New Testament book easier, especially for those who are hard pressed for time but want to preach or teach with accuracy and authority.

Each volume begins with a brief introduction to the particular New Testament book, a basic outline, and a list of recommended commentaries. Dios creó las familias
Génesis 2:7–8, 16–24; 3:15, 20; 4:1–2

Árboles, hierba, flores, pájaros, gatos y vacas; Dios lo hizo todo. Él creó todas las plantas y a todos los animales, pero su obra más maravillosa fue hacer a las personas. El primero fue un hombre. Dios le dio a Adán las cosas en un hermoso jardín, el jardín del Éden. Adán debió cuidar el hermoso huerto de Dios.

Dios sabía que Adán estaba solo y que necesitaba ayuda, así que Dios creó a las mujeres y las puso en el jardín. Muchas clases de animales. Y podían hacer muchas clases de cosas. Algunos corrían. Otros volaban, pero ninguno de ellos era la clase de ayuda que Adán necesitaba. De modo que Dios hizo una mujer, y Adán la llamó Eva. Adán y Eva disfrutaban juntos.

Para otra historia sobre la creación, vea “Dios hizo un mundo hermoso”, en la página 1449.

Cuando la Biblia habla sobre la mano de Dios, expresa algo de su naturaleza cuidadosa y misericordiosa. Dios extiende su mano para incluir a todos, a diferencia de la acción de Maradona que únicamente favoreció a su propio equipo.

La Biblia enseña lo siguiente sobre la mano misericordiosa y compasiva de Dios:

El apóstol Pedro fue abrumado por lo poderoso que es Dios. Él sabía que solamente podemos lograr grandes cosas a través de Él. Nuestra respuesta debe ser humillarnos bajo su poderosa mano.

Jesús nos enseña que estamos seguros porque la mano del Padre nos sostiene.

La mano de Dios es tierna, amable y misericordiosa. Él siempre nos ve con ojos tiernos, amables y llenos de gracia.

«Humillaos, pues, bajo la poderosa mano de Dios, para que Él os exalte cuando fuere tiempo».
- 1 Pedro 5:6

«Mi Padre que me las dio, es mayor que todos, y nadie las puede arrebatar de la mano de mi Padre».
- Juan 10:29

«Porque somos hechura suya, creados en Cristo Jesús para buenas obras, las cuales Dios preparó de antemano para que anduviésemos en ellas».
- Efesios 2:10

La experiencia de Kanu lo llevó a crear la Fundación Kanu Heart en el 2000, una organización que ayuda a niños africanos y adultos jóvenes que viven con enfermedades del corazón.

Kanu es conocido en todo África por su trabajo humanitario. También es embajador de la UNICEF.

Nacido el 1 de agosto de 1976

El número más alto de goles anotados por un jugador en un solo juego de fútbol es 16. Stefan «Stanis» Dembicki, un francés que jugó para el RC Lens en diciembre de 1942.

Kanu de manera frecuente menciona su fe cristiana en entrevistas. Él ha hablado sobre su tiempo de dificultad en su carrera como un tiempo en el que oró a Dios.

handling your order
When you order, include the product ISBN of each product ordered. Please specify order need-by date (as appropriate) to ensure receipt according to your needs. Orders without a need-by date or noted “Send best way” will be shipped the least expensive way. Orders requested to be shipped by motor freight will be shipped by the line which we believe will give you the best service if you have not asked for a specific carrier. Orders for “one” of a product packaged and cataloged in certain quantities will be interpreted to mean “one packaged unit.” Orders weighing less than 250 pounds are usually shipped UPS. Orders weighing more than 250 pounds are usually shipped by motor freight. (You may have a preference for Spanish & international orders)
