REMEMBER

Whatever you do, do it from the heart, as something done for the Lord and not for people.
—Colossians 3:23

READ

Reading Bible stories and learning the lessons that God teaches us through them can be lots of fun, but Jesus points out in Mark 10:17–21 that we need to do more than simply know what God says. The rich young ruler knew what all the commandments were, but he still needed to use those lessons in his own life. Knowing what God wants for us is good, but using those lessons in the way we live every day shows that we have faith and trust in God. It also allows us to show God’s love to others.

THINK

1. Which is your favorite Bible story? What did you learn from it?
2. What are three other lessons that you learned?
3. How can you apply these lessons to your life?

DO

The day after a Bible story is read, talk with your family about ways to use the lesson that day. Then do it! Remember, Bible stories and lessons aren’t just for reading—they’re for living.
