

GraceFull

“But what does grace look like?” asked Hope.

Mom thought for a second. “Well, kind of like the rain. Every good gift is from above, Hope. God showers blessings on all of us. When we truly understand that, we can’t help but share grace and lift others up. Much like how the rain makes this rosebush grow full of flowers we can then share. When grace is full and overflowing, we are graceFull!”

GraceFull

Anna stretched her hands out to catch the raindrops. "It's showers of blessing!" she said.

"Yep!" said Hope, "and thanks to God, we're graceFull!"
