Armor: Helmet of Salvation

You probably wear a helmet when you ride a bike or a scooter, right? That's smart, because a helmet protects your brain. The Helmet of Salvation is no different! It protects your mind against lies about God. Salvation means Jesus died to save you, and nothing can take that away. When you believe in Jesus and are confident about your salvation, villains don't stand a chance!

Activity

Sometimes a lie can seem like the truth. But if you look closer and remember God's Word, you'll start to see the difference! The two pictures below look the same. But see if you can find ten differences!

Armor: Shield of Faith

I never leave headquarters without the Shield of Faith! That's because doubt is sneaky. It can creep up on you when you feel weak or sad or angry. When we notice tricky villains like the Shadow of Doubt or the Mayor of Maybe, or even Dr. Fear, we spring into action and block their devious deeds with the Shield—no matter where they strike! When you learn God's Word and practice believing His promises, you're building your own Shield of Faith. Don't leave home without it!
