Featuring the CHRISTIAN STANDARD BIBLE

Accurate. Readable. Shareable. The Christian Standard Bible is a translation for everyone—a translation you can take to seminary and read to your kids. A translation that new believers can understand and that every believer can return to for lifelong discipleship.

The CSB captures the Bible’s original meaning without sacrificing clarity. It’s an optimal blend of accuracy and readability; in the many places throughout Scripture where a word-for-word rendering is clearly understandable, a literal translation is used. When a word-for-word rendering might obscure the meaning for a modern audience, a more dynamic translation is used.

The result is a translation that communicates both the words and the thoughts of the original text clearly and accurately to today’s readers. It’s a translation pastors can preach from and one you can share with your neighbor hearing God’s Word for the very first time.

GENESIS 2

MAN AND WOMAN IN THE GARDEN

4 These are the records<sup>a</sup> of the heavens and the earth, concerning their creation. At the time<sup>b</sup> that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens, "no shrub of the field" had yet grown on the land,<sup>c</sup> and no plant of the field had yet sprouted, for the LORD God had not made it rain on the land, and there was no man to work the ground.<sup>d</sup> "But mist would come up from the earth and water of the ground."<sup>e</sup> Then the LORD God formed the man out of the dust from the ground<sup>f</sup> and breathed the breath of life into his nostrils,<sup>g</sup> and the man became a living being.<sup>h</sup>

"The LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the east,<sup>i</sup> and there he placed the man he had formed.<sup>j</sup> "The LORD God caused to grow out of the ground every tree pleasing in appearance and good for food, including the tree of life in the middle of the garden,<sup>k</sup> as well as the tree of the knowledge of good and evil."<sup>l</sup>

"A river went<sup>m</sup> out from Eden to water the garden. From there it divided and became the source of four rivers.<sup>n</sup> "The name of the first is Pishon, which flows through the entire land of Havilah,<sup>o</sup> where there is gold.<sup>p</sup> "Gold from that land is pure, "bdellium" and onyx" are also there. "The name of the second river is Gihon, which flows through the entire land of Cush. "The name of the third river is Tigris, which runs east of Assyria. And the fourth river is the Euphrates."<sup>q</sup>

"The LORD God took the man and placed him in the garden of Eden to work it and watch over it.<sup>r</sup> "And the LORD God commanded the man, "You are free to eat from any tree of the garden,"<sup>s</sup> "but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for on the day you eat from it, you will certainly die."<sup>t</sup> "Then the LORD God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper corresponding<sup>u</sup> to him."<sup>v</sup> "The LORD God formed out of the

Questions & Answers

Q You have called The Kingdom Agenda your "magnum opus." Why do you view this book and philosophy of life as so critical and central to your life's work?

A The Kingdom Agenda is my life's work because of its comprehensive nature. When I saw that the whole Bible is the summary of God's kingdom program and plan—and saw how all the pieces fit together—it made the Bible come alive to me. I began to see that things people often view as irrelevant are actually terribly relevant to our decision-making, our relationships, and every aspect of our lives. When I saw how comprehensive this is and how it knits together all the questions that I had, it became a driving force for everything I did. It became clear to me that God had given me a world-view based on His Word that, if understood by God's people, could be as transforming for their lives as it was for mine.

GENESIS 2:8

5 KINGDOM LIVING FAMILY

The Role of Helper

An unfortunate, yet common, belief in Christian circles is that since God made Eve as a "helper" for Adam, women are somehow less valuable than men. People frequently compare women to the Holy Spirit in his role of "helper" because he, the member of the Trinity who does a substantial amount of work but gets very little recognition. Yet a deeper examination of the word used for "helper" in the original language to eye-opening. The Hebrew word translated "helper" ... corresponding to him" (Gen. 2:20) in the creation story are important to examine because they are uniquely powerful. The words are ezer and kenegdo. The word ezer occurs twenty-one times in the Old Testament, with only two of those occurrences relating to a woman. In all the other instances, the word is used to refer directly to God the Father.

The term kenegdo was added to ezer in order to distinguish it from every other time in the Old Testament that it was used to refer to a strong help from God. The addition of kenegdo draws from its literal definition which is, "before your face, within your view or purpose." It can also be translated as a "counterpart."

Through a careful look at the original language, it is easy to determine that Eve's role was not one of subservience, maid service, or even that of simply playing a support role. In the original language of Scripture, hers is a strong, visible help comparable to that provided by God the Father.

FOR THE NEXT FAMILY KINGDOM LIVING LESSON SEE P. XXXX.

6 This one at last is bone of my bone and flesh of my flesh; this one will be called "woman," for she was taken from man.

"This is why a man leaves his father and mother and bonds with his wife, and they become one flesh."<sup>2</sup> Both the man and his wife were naked, yet felt no shame.

7 Now the serpent was the most cunning of all the wild animals that the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, "Did God really say, 'You can't eat from any tree in the garden?'"

"The woman said to the serpent, "We may eat the fruit from the trees in the garden."<sup>3</sup> "But about the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden, God said, 'You must not eat it or touch it, or you will die.'"<sup>4</sup>

"Not! You will not die," the serpent said to the woman. "In fact, God knows that when you eat it your eyes will be opened and you will be like God," knowing good and evil."<sup>5</sup> "The woman saw that the tree was good for food and delightful to look at, and that it was desirable for obtaining wisdom. So she took some of its fruit and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who ate it.<sup>6</sup> "Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew they were naked; so they sewed figleaves together and made coverings for themselves.

8 Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze."

9 The LORD God said, "You have become like one of us, knowing good and evil. Now the serpent is cursed above all animals, because you listened to its voice and ate from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. You will be a serpent and will crawl on your belly all the days of your life. You will eat dust all the days of your life. I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers. You will be his enemy, and she will be yours. She will bruise your head, and you will bruise her heel. Adam and Eve were naked, yet they were not ashamed. The serpent sought to reverse the divinely ordained roles in the family by bypassing the man and appealing to the woman. Satan also ignored the name "LORD" while retaining the name "God," thus retaining religion while removing relationship. Notice Satan's tactics. He intentionally misrepresented God, implying that God had commanded, "You can't eat from any tree in the garden." God, however, had commanded, "You can't eat from any tree in the garden." Satan's tactic was to alter the meaning of the word "LORD" and imply that God was holding alluring today as then, is this: God is holding out His hand to the woman. Satan reveals two more classic lies. The first is the lie of carnality. He says, "You will not die" (3:4). The second is that humans can become equal to God (3:5). The irony is that God intended for us to be like him, sharing in his reign and ruling over his world. But Satan tempted Adam and Eve to try to take God's place. Notice that Adam was with her the whole time. He became the reporter instead of the leader and literally all he took home as a result. 3:7 The manifestation of death was emotional, spiritual, relational, environmental, and ultimately physical. Adam and Eve sewed figleaves together for clothing (3:7). Awareness

CSB Day-by-Day Chronological Bible

GUIDED BY GEORGE GUTHRIE

Many people are unfamiliar with the stories of the Bible and how they fit together into the grand narrative of God’s Word. God gave us the Bible to reveal great truth about himself and about our lives, and he wants to draw us into the ongoing story of what he is doing in the world. The CSB Day-by-Day Chronological Bible features a clear narrative approach to the Bible, arranging the complete text into a fresh chronological reading plan with daily readings guided by Dr. George Guthrie.

In this plan, the books, chapters, and verses of the Bible are thoughtfully arranged so readers can track the story of Scripture, day-by-day, from beginning to end, understanding the flow of events and how the grand narrative of Scripture applies to everyday life. Unlike other chronological Bibles, this arrangement is not date specific (e.g. “January 1”), so the reading plan can begin at any point in the calendar year.

FEATURES

- 52 weeks of readings (six readings per week) in chronological order
- Scripture presented in three main acts (God's Plan for All People; God's Covenant People; God's New Covenant People) and seventeen total scenes
- Concordance
- An introduction for each act and scene to orient the reader to its importance in the grand story
- Single-column text with plenty of space for taking notes
- Smyth-sewn binding
- Presentation page
- Full-color maps

MARKETING HIGHLIGHTS

- An organized daily reading plan that will help Bible readers understand how the smaller stories of the Bible fit into the grand narrative
- Contains daily readings guided by Dr. George Guthrie
- Includes plenty of space at the bottom of each page for individuals to proactively engage the passage they are reading that day
- Featured as part of the multi-year Christian Standard Bible translation marketing campaign
- The CSB is endorsed by reputable Bible teachers including David Platt, Alistair Begg, Eric Mason, Tony Evans, Lisa Harper, Kyle Idleman, J.D. Greear, and more

| meat was locusts and wild honey. <sup>3</sup>Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the region round about Jordan. <sup>4</sup>And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins. <sup>5</sup>But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath of heaven? <sup>6</sup>Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance: <sup>7</sup>And thus saith the Lord, Every tree that beareth not good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. <sup>8</sup>Whosoever is not brought forth with water, and with the Holy Ghost, and with fire, shall be burned, and his wheat is gathered, and he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire. of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins. <sup>3</sup>And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat locusts and wild honey. <sup>7</sup>And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose. <sup>11</sup>Indeed he hath baptized you with water; but he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost. repentance for the remission of sins; <sup>8</sup>As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. <sup>9</sup>Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth; <sup>10</sup>And all flesh shall see the salvation of God. <sup>11</sup>Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come? <sup>12</sup>Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. <sup>13</sup>And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. <sup>14</sup>And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then? <sup>15</sup>He answered and saith unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise. <sup>16</sup>Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do? <sup>17</sup>And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you. <sup>18</sup>And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages. <sup>19</sup>And as the people were in expectation, and all men missed in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ, or not; <sup>20</sup>John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire: <sup>21</sup>Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable. <sup>22</sup>And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people. THE BAPTISM OF JESUS <small>MATT. 3:13-17    MARK 1:9-11    LUKE 3:21-22    JOHN 1:29-34</small> <sup>13</sup> Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him. <sup>14</sup> But John forbade him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me? <sup>15</sup> And Jesus <sup>19</sup> Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened, <sup>20</sup> And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. <sup>21</sup> Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. <sup>22</sup> Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him. | answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. And in those days he did eat nothing; and when they were ended, he afterward hungered. <sup>3</sup> And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. <sup>4</sup> And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God. <sup>5</sup> And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. <sup>6</sup> And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it. <sup>7</sup> If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine. <sup>8</sup> And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. <sup>9</sup> And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence: <sup>10</sup> For it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee: <sup>11</sup> And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone. <sup>12</sup> And Jesus answering said unto him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God. <sup>13</sup> And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season. |

For wherever you go, I will go,
and wherever you live, I will live;
your people will be my people,
and your God will be my God.

<sup>17</sup> Where you die, I will die,
and there I will be buried.
May the LORD punish me,<sup>4</sup>
and do so severely,
if anything but death separates you and me.

<sup>19</sup> The two of them traveled until they came to Bethlehem. When they entered Bethlehem, the whole town was excited about their arrival<sup>6</sup> and the local women exclaimed, "Can this be Naomi?"

<sup>20</sup> "Don't call me Naomi. Call me Mara," she answered, "for the Almighty has made me very bitter. <sup>21</sup>I went away full, but the LORD has brought me back empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since the LORD has opposed<sup>7</sup> me, and the Almighty has afflicted me?"

RUTH AND BOAZ MEET

2 Now Naomi had a relative on her husband's side. He was a prominent man of noble character from Elimelech's family. His name was Boaz.

<sup>2</sup> Ruth the Moabitess asked Naomi, "Will you let me go into the fields and gather fallen grain behind someone with whom I find favor?"

Naomi answered her, "Go ahead, my daughter." <sup>3</sup> So Ruth left and entered the field to gather grain behind the harvesters. She happened to be in the portion of the field belonging to Boaz, who was from Elimelech's family.

<sup>4</sup> Later, when Boaz arrived from Bethlehem, he said to the harvesters, "The LORD be with you."

"The LORD bless you," they replied.

<sup>5</sup> Boaz asked his servant who was in charge of the harvesters, "Whose young woman is this?"

<sup>6</sup> The servant answered, "She is the young Moabite woman who returned with Naomi from the territory of Moab." She asked, "Will you let me gather fallen grain among the bundles behind the harvesters?" She came and has been on her feet since early morning, except that she rested a little in the shelter.<sup>4</sup>

<sup>8</sup> Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Listen, my daughter. Don't go and gather grain in another field, and don't leave this one, but stay here close to my female servants. <sup>9</sup> See which field they are harvesting, and follow them. Haven't I ordered the young men not to touch you?" When you are thirsty, go and drink from the jars the young men have filled."

<sup>10</sup> She fell facedown, bowed to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found favor with you, so that you notice me, although I am a foreigner?"

<sup>11</sup> Boaz answered her, "Everything you have done for your mother-in-law since your husband's death has been fully reported to me: how you left your father and mother and your native land, and how you came to a people you didn't previously know. <sup>12</sup> May the LORD reward you for what you have done, and may you receive a full reward from the LORD God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge."

<sup>13</sup> "My lord," she said, "I have found favor with you, for you have comforted and encouraged<sup>5</sup> your servant, although I am not like one of your female servants."

<sup>14</sup> At mealtime Boaz told her, "Come over here and have some bread and dip it in the vinegar sauce." So she sat beside the harvesters, and he offered her roasted grain. She ate and was satisfied and had some left over.

<sup>15</sup> When she got up to gather grain, Boaz ordered his young men, "Let her even gather grain among the bundles, and don't humiliate her. <sup>16</sup> Pull out some stalks from the bundles for her and leave them for her to gather. Don't rebuke her."

<sup>17</sup> So Ruth gathered grain in the field until evening. She beat out what she had gathered, and it was about twenty-six quarts<sup>6</sup> of barley. <sup>18</sup> She picked up the grain and went into the town, where her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. She brought out what she had left over from her meal and gave it to her.

<sup>19</sup> Her mother-in-law said to her, "Where did you gather barley today, and where did you work? May the LORD bless the man who noticed you."

Ruth told her mother-in-law whom she had worked with and said, "The name of the man I worked with today is Boaz."

<sup>20</sup> Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "May the LORD bless him because he has not abandoned his kindness to the living or the dead." Naomi continued, "The man is a close relative. He is one of our family redeemers."

<sup>21</sup> Ruth the Moabitess said, "He also told me, 'Stay with my young men until they have finished all of my harvest.'"

<sup>22</sup> So Naomi said to her daughter-in-law Ruth, "My daughter, it is good for you to work<sup>3</sup> with his female servants, so that nothing will happen to you in another field." <sup>23</sup> Ruth stayed close to Boaz's female servants and gathered grain until the barley and the wheat harvests were finished. And she lived with<sup>4</sup> her mother-in-law.

RUTH'S APPEAL TO BOAZ

3 Ruth's mother-in-law Naomi said to her, "My daughter, shouldn't I find rest for you, so that you will be taken care of? Now isn't Boaz our relative? Haven't you been working with his female servants? This evening he

NEW PHOTOS,
280 UPDATED
ARTICLES!

For twenty-five years the Holman Illustrated Bible Dictionary has been the go-to Bible reference resource for lay Bible students, teachers, pastors, academic courses, and libraries. Those who have used it have praised its comprehensiveness, conciseness, and clarity. Over 6,500 articles from Aaron to Zuzite are written to equip the reader for greater competence in understanding and interpreting the Scriptures. Each article is structured to begin with a concise definition followed by a thorough development of the topic. Some 700 full-color photos, maps, reconstructions, and charts enrich the experience of those who use the dictionary for personal study, academic work, and preparation for teaching and preaching the Bible.

Contemporary Bible readers are separated from the original documents by 2,000 to 3,500 years. Bridging this chasm requires linguistic, literary, geographical, historical, and cultural information that the Holman Illustrated Bible Dictionary provides. This third edition of the Dictionary makes available up-to-date archaeological information that illuminates the biblical text.

It begins with an essay on “How to Read and Study the Bible” and then provides a brief and basic overview of each of the Bible’s sixty-six books: each book’s author, main message, evidences of authenticity, and historical context.

Holman Illustrated Guide to Biblical Geography

Reading the Land
PAUL H. WRIGHT

The Holman Illustrated Guide to Biblical Geography includes more than 200 images and over fifty maps to provide a coherent and meaningful set of pegs on which to hang the events that march across the biblical stage. For many Bible readers (and teachers), one king, one battle, one story often blurs into the next. A geographical grid provides an objective structure to make sense of the biblical narrative. Historical and cultural geography give hue and texture to what are sometimes seen as rather flat, black-and-white pages of the biblical text.

Chapters include:

- Exploring the World of the Bible
- Building Blocks of Biblical Geography
- The Land of Ancient Israel: The Southern Regions (Judah/Judea)
- The Land of Ancient Israel: The Central Regions (Israel/Samaria)
- The Land of Ancient Israel: The Northern Regions (Galilee)
- Transjordan
- Afterword: Geography of the Heart

Biblical geography has great apologetic value. The biblical writers had to be accurate when presenting geographical material. Unlike some matters of history and doctrine, their assertions about the realities of landforms and climate, or about the relation of one city to another, or about the use of strategic routes could easily be verified both by their first readers as well as by contemporary readers. Verifiable geographic information provides a solid foundation on which to place and evaluate the veracity of other truth claims in the biblical text.

THE TAKEAWAY

A product of Canaanite culture, Rahab was a devotee of false gods. As a "world's oldest profession," her character was marked by immorality and dishonesty, her heart hardened by such a brutal existence.

The good news is that if God is willing to rescue someone like Rahab, he can rescue anyone. The transformation shows that God is not wanting any to perish but all to come to repentance (2 Peter 3:9). Rahab's experience underscores the truth that we are not saved by our own efforts but by the faith in who God is and what he has done for us.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

1. Who in your life right now is most encouraged by the least likely—that no one is beyond the reach of God?
2. Rahab had heard stories of God's power but the truth only clicked, and her life only changed, when she interacted with two of God's people who were engaged in God's mission. How involved are you in what God is doing in your city, church, neighborhood?

Rahab

THE SHADY LADY

"By faith Rahab the prostitute received the spies in peace and didn't perish with those who disobeyed." — Hebrews 11:31

There's no nice way to say it. Rahab was a harlot—in modern parlance, a hooker. At her home atop the wall that surrounded the bustling, ancient city of Jericho, Rahab took in strange men and gave out sexual favors.

Because of her prominent role in the story of Israel, a few prim and proper types have tried to improve Rahab's image by engaging in a bit of revisionist history. "Maybe," they've suggested, "she wasn't actually a 'lady of the night.' Perhaps she was only an 'innkeeper.'"

It's a nice try, a kind and understandable gesture; however, it can't change the truth that the Bible repeatedly calls Rahab a "prostitute." This is how the Bible introduces her when we first meet her in the book of Joshua (Joshua 2:1; see also 6:17). It's likely her "home" was less a motel, and more a "brothel."

Fully appreciating Rahab's remarkable story takes some historical and cultural background. Here's the context: After forty years of wandering in the desert wilderness east of Egypt and south of Canaan, the nation of Israel camped near the Jordan River, not far from Jericho. This was right along the edge of the territory said to be "flowing with milk and honey" (Exodus 3:8; Numbers 14:8). It was this land the LORD (i.e., Yahweh, the God of the Jews) had promised Abraham and his descendants centuries before.

Nervously watching the two to three million "homeless" refugees on their doorstep were the Canaanites, the current occupants of the land. ("Canaanites" is the generic name applied to the Amorites, Jebusites, Ammonites, et al.—all those fierce, polytheistic tribes that lived in a patchwork of city-states stretching across Palestine all the way to the Mediterranean.)

Like the rest of her neighbors, Rahab had heard all the stories: Yahweh's obliteration of the mighty Egyptians in liberating his people, his annihilation of lesser nations that dared to stand in Israel's way. Such anecdotes not only raised eyebrows, but heart rates and neck hairs! The Hebrews themselves weren't much in the way of a fighting force, but their God was not to be trifled with. And suddenly there they were, massed on the border, clearly preparing to invade.

What do you suppose went through Rahab's mind when two Israelite men—sent by Joshua to scope out the city—knocked on her door? No one can say for sure, but clearly something shifted in the soul of this woman of ill repute.

Exalting Jesus in Romans

Christ-Centered Exposition Commentary

TONY MERIDA

Exalting Jesus in Romans is part of the Christ-Centered Exposition Commentary series. Edited by David Platt, Daniel L. Akin, and Tony Merida, this commentary series, to include forty-seven volumes when complete, takes a Christ-centered approach to expositing each book of the Bible. Rather than a verse-by-verse approach, the authors have crafted chapters that explain and apply key passages in their assigned Bible books.

Readers will learn to see Christ in all aspects of Scripture, and they will be encouraged by the devotional nature of each exposition presented as sermons and divided into chapters that conclude with a "Reflect & Discuss" section, making this series ideal for small group study, personal devotion, and even sermon preparation. It's not academic but rather presents an easy reading, practical, and friendly commentary.

The Ultimate Bible Character Guide

by Gina Detwiler

The Bible is filled with incredible and interesting characters—from Jesus to Eglon, Gabriel to Legion. This unique encyclopedia brings 150 of them to life with comic-book style illustrations and hundreds of facts for kids to explore.

Young readers will be captivated to read about both well-known characters of the Bible and some they're yet to discover. They'll learn what characters' names meant, what strengths God gave them, who they considered enemies, and what battles they fought. Which one was possessed by demons? Who wrestled an angel? Who never died? It's all here, the good and the evil, the famous and the infamous.

In true encyclopedia form, characters will be arranged alphabetically and indexed so that favorites can be found easily. Contemporaries will be marked as such, and a timeline will help kids understand and place each story. Spreads will include full-length illustrations of each character, list of facts, descriptions, and background info.
