Christ-Centered Conflict Resolution

A Guide for Turbulent Times

TONY MERIDA

Have you ever noticed that conflict is absolutely everywhere? Though we all want harmony in our relationships and our world, peace seems so hard to come by. Maybe for you, conflict looks like the latest culture war that relentlessly screams at you to pick a side, and you're tired of all the fighting. Or perhaps it takes another shape, like a hot-tempered spouse, rebellious child, passive-aggressive friend, difficult church member, withdrawn roommate, or angry social media comment. No matter its form, conflict always finds us. And often, we let it overtake us.

In this short, biblical, and practical book, pastor and author Tony Merida shows us that it doesn't have to be this way. Merida not only paints a stunning picture of Christ our Peacemaker, he also shows us how to stop wishing for peace and go make it. In these pages, Tony will help you:

- Discover where conflict comes from
- Realize conflicts don't have to define you, scare you, or undo you
- Stop allowing your relationships to simmer in a place of division, anger, or strife
- Understand the pattern and power of Christ as the ultimate Peacemaker
- Tap into the Spirit's supernatural ability to change you in the midst of your conflicts
- Learn how to overcome evil with good
- Anticipate conflicts and resolve them in biblical, Christ-centered ways

Stop waiting for peace to "hopefully" come to your doorstep. Instead, in the power and strength God provides, become a person who can make the peace you so deeply desire, and watch your relationships transform.

Gun Lap

Finishing Your Race With Grace

ROBERT WOLGEMUTH

When the lead runner starts his final lap in a long-distance race, the starter fires his pistol for the second time. This signals the start of the gun lap, the last chance to leave it all out on the track.

Gun Lap is for men who are at this point in their lives, running—or getting ready to run—their last lap and wondering if they, since their “productive years” are behind them, still have any usefulness left. Or maybe younger men who are not in their gun lap but want to begin now to be ready as their gun lap approaches.

This is no small thing. In fact, it’s a big deal, because we only get one chance at this life. The author of the New Testament book of Hebrews wrote, “It is appointed unto people to die once and after this, judgment” (9:27 CSB). If we only die once, we’d better pay close attention to how we live. Gun Lap will help you pay close attention to the life you have left by:

- Equipping you with biblical truth for the days ahead;
- Sharing encouraging stories of men in the race with you or ahead of you; and
- Challenging you to live the rest of your life with grace and strength

audience

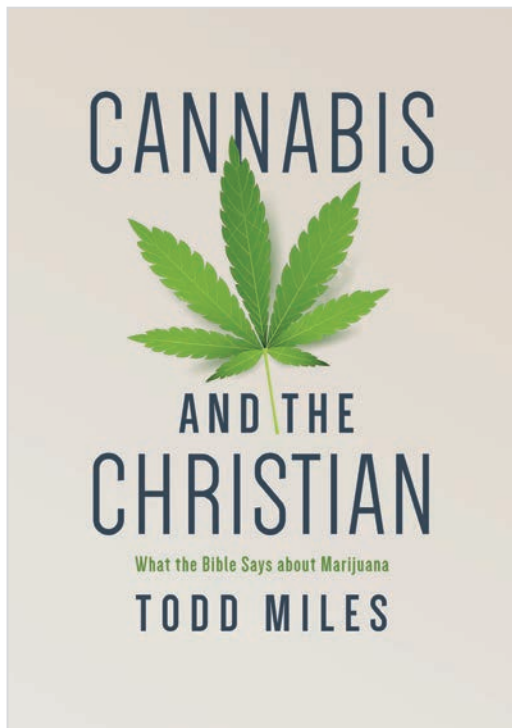

- Men who are fifty years old and older—and those who love them—looking for encouragement and hope from a fellow traveler during these challenging years
- With over 2 million books in print, past readers of Robert Wolgemuth titles (She Calls Me Daddy, Lies Men Believe, Like the Shepherd, Men of the Bible, etc) and those connected to him through his wife, Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, and Revive Our Hearts
- Readers of retirement books, members of retirement Facebook groups, and older people who listen to Moody Radio, Dave Ramsey, and others

marketing highlights

- Robert has done his best to live his fourscore-and-ten, grounded in God’s Word and a close walk the Jesus
- Many who reach their sixties and seventies suddenly find themselves without purpose. This book will give them hope;
- Robert is incredibly well-connected, his firm representing authors like Henry and Richard Blackaby, Greg Laurie, Jack Graham, Keith and Kristyn Getty, Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, Jen Wilkin, Kevin DeYoung, Ellen Vaughn, Russell Moore, Levi Lusko, Albert Mohler Jr., Joni Eareckson Tada, and more

ROBERT WOLGEMUTH graduated from Taylor University in 1969, from where he also received an honorary doctorate in May, 2005. He is the author of more than twenty books, including The Most Important Place on Earth, She Calls Me Daddy, The Most Important Year in a Man’s Life, Lies Men Believe, Like the Shepherd, and You Can Trust God to Write Your Story cowritten with his wife, Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth. Robert is the father of two grown daughters, two sons-in-law, granddaddy to five, and granddaddy-in-law to one. Robert and Nancy live in Michigan.

Cannabis and the Christian

What the Bible Says about Marijuana

TODD MILES

What does the Bible say about marijuana? If it doesn't directly address marijuana, how can Christians know what to make of the legalization of recreational cannabis and the advocacy of medical marijuana?

In the past, Christians could easily answer the question of whether or not it was permissible to use cannabis by deferring to state prohibitions. We could simply say, "It's against the law." Today, that answer is no longer possible. Christians are now forced to do what they should have been doing all along: think like disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ and bring to bear the wisdom of the sufficient Word of God.

Since cannabis is not explicitly mentioned in the Bible, we must understand what it is and how it affects the user. We also must understand what the Bible says about discipleship, healing, suffering, and what it is to be human. Only then can we answer the critical questions regarding the recreational use and the medical use of cannabis.

In Cannabis and the Christian, Todd Miles gives readers:

- Biblical wisdom applied to the question of recreational cannabis
- Biblical wisdom related to the medical use of cannabis
- A grid to think through other ethical questions that aren't directly addressed in the Bible
- Confidence to respond to challenging issues standing on the sufficient Word of God

audience

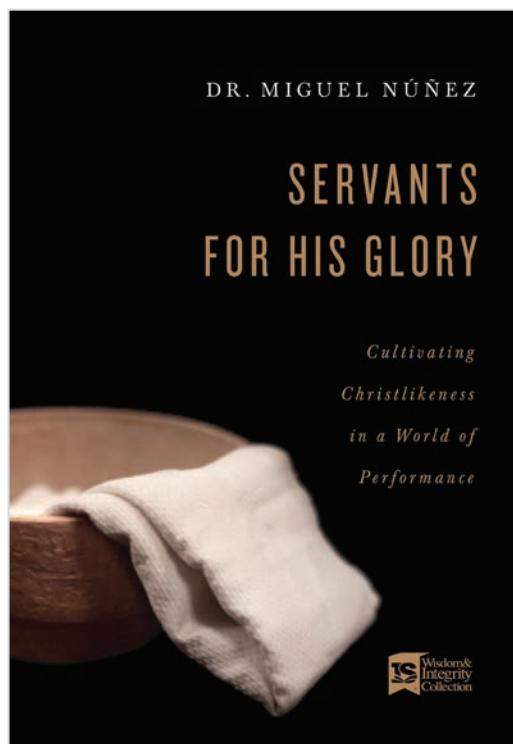

- Those living in states where cannabis is legalized
- Theologically-focused Christians seeking to better know how to think about this issue
- Christians questioning how they should feel about cannabis use

marketing highlights

- Gives biblical wisdom and a helpful grid for thinking through the challenging ethical questions related to recreational and medical uses of cannabis
- Provides a framework to think through other ethical questions that aren't directly addressed in the Bible
- Todd is a pastor in Portland, Oregon, and has firsthand experience with ministry in the midst of a community where cannabis is legalized and a part of everyday life

TODD MILES is Professor of Theology at Western Seminary in Portland, Oregon, where he teaches theology, church history, hermeneutics, and ethics. Prior to becoming a seminary professor, he was a nuclear engineer at Pacific Northwest National Laboratory. Married, with six children, Todd is a fan of all-things Oregon State, and enjoys running and reading (though rarely at the same time).

Servants for His Glory

Cultivating Christlikeness in a World of Performance

DR. MIGUEL NÚÑEZ

Being is greater than doing.

We all come into the world with a certain emptiness in our lives—an emptiness that leads to a search for meaning. And the world tells us that search for meaning can be solved by doing. Unfortunately, an overemphasis on doing has led many people away from cultivating an interior life that allows them to sustain their exterior life.

This explains the many failures we continuously see in day-to-day life. When a person's inner life—who he or she is—is not prepared, that person's character does not have the maturity or the strength to sustain them in the long run.

In this book, Miguel Núñez points us to Scripture and experience to show us how being is more important than doing. He teaches us how to cultivate the foundations of our lives, so we can be what we need to be, in order to do what we need to do.

audience

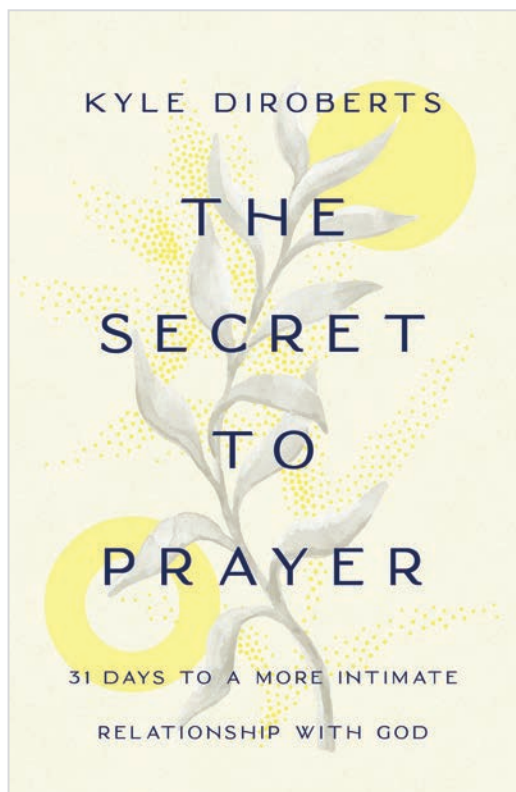

- Christian readers looking for a scriptural guide to becoming more like Jesus in a world of performance and understanding the heart of Jesus
- Followers of The Gospel Coalition, Desiring God and T4G (all places where Núñez is a contributor or speaker)
- Readers of books by Tim Keller, Dane Ortlund, Jen Wilkin, Albert Mohler, and Juan Sánchez

marketing highlights

- Dr. Miguel Núñez is a Dominican-American doctor, author, speaker and founder of Wisdom & Integrity Ministries. Núñez is a practicing doctor with specializations in Internal Medicine and Infectious Diseases and head pastor of the International Baptist Church in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic
- He's the cohost of the TV show "Respuestas: Verdades Absolutas para un Mundo Relativo" (Answers: Absolute Truths for a Relative World), which airs in more than 30 countries, and presents the biblical worldview on a variety of issues
- Dr. Núñez has authored many books in English and Spanish and is a frequent conference speaker throughout Latin America and the U.S.

DR. MIGUEL NÚÑEZ MD, DMin serves as the senior pastor of the International Baptist Church in Santo Domingo, and is the founding president of Wisdom & Integrity Ministries, which seeks to impact today's generation with God's revelation in the Spanish-speaking world. In addition, he is the President of the Wisdom and Integrity Institute, as well as a member of the teaching staff. The Secret to Prayer

31 Days to a More Intimate Relationship with God

KYLE DIROBERTS

Everyone wants to know how to talk to God and get answers to their prayers. Yet most people are skeptical of prayer, or convinced they're doing it wrong.

Is there a secret to talking with God?

God is more concerned about the condition of our hearts than the words we use. He cares more about the posture of our hearts than the posture of our bodies. And what is the right heart posture? Humility.

The Secret to Prayer will take readers on a thirty-one-day journey, examining the hearts and actions of biblical characters whose prayers were answered. On the other side of the journey, readers will have a more vibrant prayer life, and a more intimate relationship with the God to whom we pray.

audience

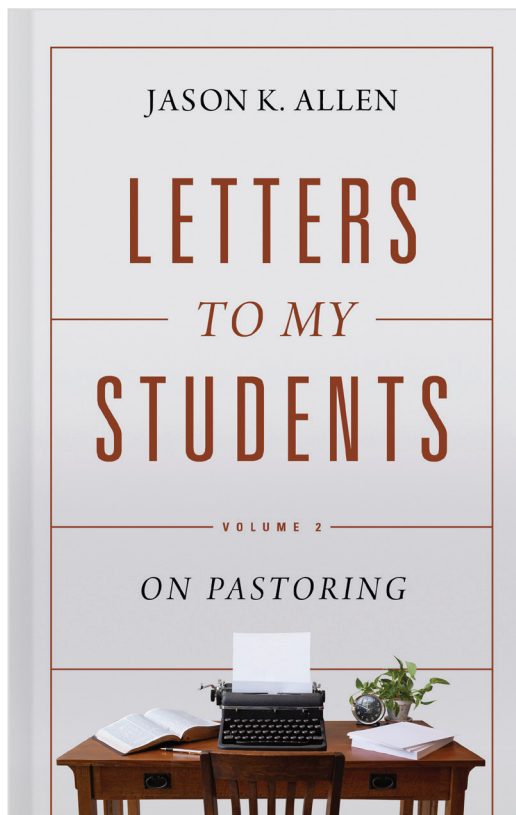

- Christian men and women seeking to better understand prayer and implement daily rhythms of prayer
- Devotional readers

marketing highlights

- Prayer is a perennial topic that every Christian benefits from studying
- Devotional format of thirty-one days is accessible and simple for Christians of all walks of life and experiences
- Kyle has written on prayer at the doctoral level, bringing much wisdom from that learning while writing in a way that is understandable for all

KYLE DIROBERTS (PhD) is associate professor of Biblical and Theological Studies at Arizona Christian University in Phoenix, Arizona, adjunct professor at Phoenix Seminary, and director of the minister in residence and internship programs at Scottsdale Bible Church. He is married to Lolly and the father of Kaden and Oliver. With any free time, he hangs out with his wife and kids, his favorite people, going to Michael Bublé concerts, cooking, traveling, eating good food, and getting to coach his kids in golf and baseball.

Letters to My Students Volume 2

On Pastoring

JASON K. ALLEN

Few books have more influenced those called to gospel ministry than Charles Spurgeon's Lectures to My Students. The influence of this book, like the Prince of Preachers himself, reverberates to our present age.

Carrying forward this tradition is Jason Allen's Letters to My Students. Dr. Allen serves as president of Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and Spurgeon College, the former ranking as one of the largest and fastest growing seminaries in North America. Dr. Allen has also served in multiple pastorates. His passion to serve the church by equipping a generation of pastors, missionaries, and ministers for faithful service is reflected in Letters to My Students.

Letters to My Students is a biblical, accessible guide for ministers and ministers-in-training. It brings both biblical and practical wisdom to bear on the minister's three main responsibilities: preaching, leading, and shepherding the flock of God.

Martin Lloyd-Jones famously described the call to ministry as the highest, greatest, and most glorious calling to which one can be called. If this assessment resonates with you, you'll want every available tool to strengthen your ministry. Letters to My Students is one such resource.

audience

- Previous buyers of volume 1 and other books by Jason Allen
- Seminary students and those training for ministry
- Pastors who need an inspiring reminder of best practices for pastoral ministry

marketing highlights

- Allen is president at one of the fastest growing seminaries, training the next generation of pastors and well-connected to other seminary and church leaders within the Southern Baptist Convention
- Excellent gift for pastors or graduation gift for those entering or graduating seminary or Bible college
- Event opportunities where the book will be for sale include For the Church, The Gospel Coalition, the Southern Baptist Convention, and other events where the attendees are often pastors or those training for leadership in ministry

JASON K. ALLEN is the fifth president of Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Kansas City, Mo. Since coming to Midwestern, he has led the institution to become one of the largest and fastest growing seminaries in North America. In addition to his role as president, Dr. Allen serves as an associate professor for preaching and pastoral ministry. More broadly, he serves the church through his preaching and writing ministries. He is the author or editor of several books, including The SBC and the 21st Century, Discerning Your Call to Ministry, Being a Christian, and Portraits of a Pastor. Dr. Allen regularly posts essays on his website, jasonkallen.com, and hosts a weekly podcast, "Preaching and Preachers." It's Not Just You

Freeing Women to Talk about Sexual Sin and Fight It Well

ASHLEY CHESNUT

There's no way other women are struggling sexually like I am. My church wouldn't understand. Isn't this a guy's issue?

For too long Christian women have assumed they are alone as they navigate sexual struggles. Thinking they are the outlier, they keep silent and try to face the battle all by themselves. But the truth is, if these thoughts sound familiar to you, you aren't even close to the only one. Whether it takes the form of masturbation, viewing porn, same sex attraction, or sexual fantasies, it's not just you. These temptations are common not only for men in the church, but many women also.

So how do we fight against sexual sin as women? What do we do when there's a disconnect between what the Bible says and how we feel and live? Written from the trenches of ministering to young women, young adult minister Ashley Chesnut explores why sexual sin is "sin" to begin with, and how Scripture speaks into topics like masturbation, oral sex, and sex robots—even when those words aren't found in the Bible.

In these pages, you'll be empowered with the truth that God has already won the war against sin, and the victory he offers you is available right this moment. As you examine his Word along with Ashley, you'll be given exactly what you need to win in your own battles against sexual sin, and also to aid other sisters in the fight.

No, it's not just you. And yes, you can have victory. Right now.

audience

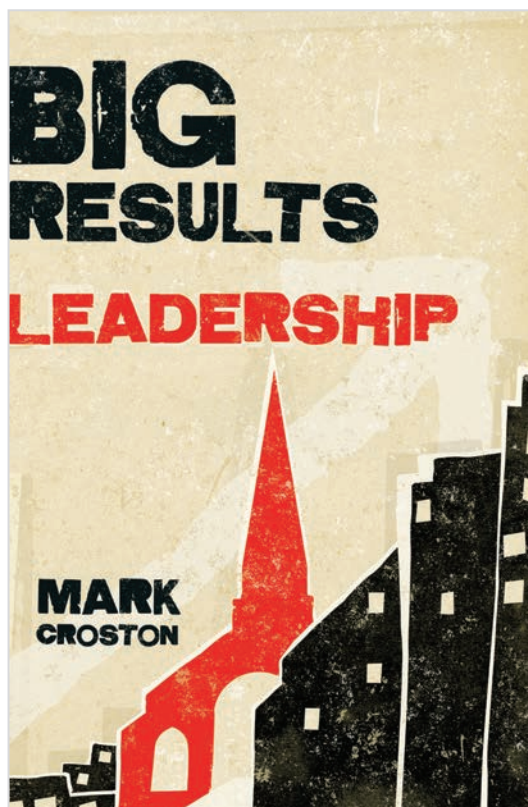

- Christian women of any age who are looking for a resource about fighting sexual sin
- Pastors and ministry leaders looking to give a resource to those in their congregation about this topic

marketing highlights

- There aren't many resources on the market for women struggling with sexual sin. This will serve women and churches with a trustworthy resource that speaks to how women can navigate and fight sexual sin
- This book is "written from the trenches" of ministering to young women, as the author is a young adult minister at The Church at Brook Hills
- Ashley shows how Scripture speaks into topics like masturbation, oral sex, and sex robots—even when those words aren't found in the Bible

ASHLEY CHESNUT serves as the Associate Singles 20s/30s Minister at The Church at Brook Hills in Birmingham, Alabama. She has a Master of Divinity from Beeson Divinity School and a Certificate of Biblical Counseling from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. While Ashley has a passion for discipling young women, she also loves her city and has written a children's book about it called Down in the Ham: A Child's Guide to Downtown Birmingham. When she's not at the church or meeting with girls, you can probably find her at the farmer's market or trying some new local restaurant.

Big Results Leadership

MARK CROSTON

The success of any leadership is all too often pointed to the characteristics of good leadership. The reality is that many of us are fully aware of the qualities of a good leader. Book after book in the pastoral community may light the path to good leadership but rarely gives us the markers that allow us to discern if we are still moving in the right direction.

Big Results Leadership tackles that obstacle by guiding our future leaders in their early steps but also points to the “results” of that kind of leadership. The main take away from this read is that God-centered leadership always yields big results.

audience

- Pastors and ministry leaders who desire to lead well and want to understand the results that come from God-centered leadership
- Previous buyers of church leadership books

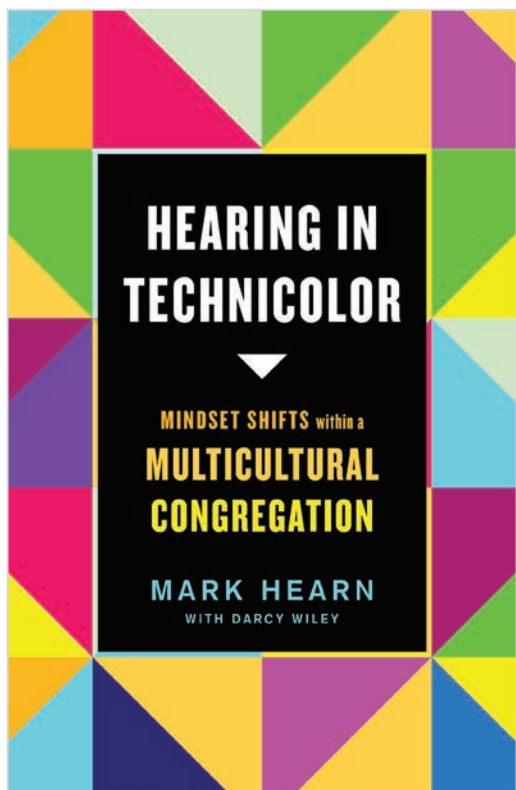

marketing highlights

- Before moving into his current role as the National Director of Black Church Partnerships for LifeWay Christian Resources, Dr. Mark Croston served in pastoral ministry for more than 25 years
- Big Results: Leadership helps leaders see the end results of faithful God-centered leadership in all areas of life
- Tackles questions of “What is a good leader?”, “How does one become a good leader?”, and “How do I know this is working?”

MARK CROSTON is the National Director of Black Church Partnerships for LifeWay Christian Resources. He was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and is the eighth of nine children. For his masters, he attended the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and graduated with a concentration in Pastoral Care and Counseling. He then received his DMin in Christian Education from Virginia Union University.

After twenty-six years of successful pastoral ministry, he transitioned to his current role at LifeWay in November 2013. He has been a contributing author to The Chosen Path, Seeds of Hope: Liberia and Virginia Baptists, From My Heart to Yours, and Worship: How to Say to God I Love You.

Mindset Shifts within a Multicultural Congregation

MARK HEARN with DARCY WILEY

In a 2011 State of the City Address, the mayor of pastor and author Mark Hearn's city said there were fifty-seven languages spoken at the local high school. Hearn left asking himself, How should our church respond?

This question led to a movement that brought First Baptist Duluth to reflecting its surrounding community. This journey was captured in Pastor Hearn's first book, Technicolor: Inspiring Your Church to Embrace Multicultural Ministry.

Now, nearly five years after Technicolor, members of his congregation discuss the joys, struggles, and triumphs of being a part of a multiethnic church—providing a glimpse of the nature of a church that reflects its community.

audience

- Previous buyers of Technicolor interested in discovering what it means to be part of an established multicultural church
- Previous buyers of books around church leadership and leading through change

marketing highlights

- Through interviews with members at Mark Hearn's church, readers can catch a glimpse of what it means to be a church that reflects its community

MARK HEARN has been a pastor for more than thirty-five years. Since 2010, he has served as the senior pastor at First Baptist Church in Duluth, Georgia, one of the most diverse counties in America. During his tenure, the church has transformed from a monolithic Anglo-American congregation to a cross-cultural community with members from thirty-seven different countries. Pastor Mark holds degrees from Carson Newman College, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and Luther Rice Seminary. Mark and his wife Glenda are the parents of four grown daughters and are proud grandparents.

Grace upon Grace Journaling Devotional

Trusting God No Matter What

SOPHIE HUDSON

Today's teen girls are coming of age in a world full of shallow distraction, divided communities, and cancel culture. To counter these crazy days, bestselling author Sophie Hudson offers Grace upon Grace, a journaling devotional to encourage young women to spend time engaging with Scripture, insightful devotional thoughts, and the wild gift of God's grace.

For much of her career, Sophie has worked with teen girls, so she knows not only their struggles but how to reach their hearts as well. These 100 devotions offer the right balance of wise words, thought-provoking journal prompts, and plenty of Sophie's trademark wit.

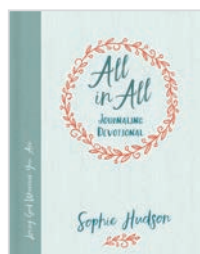

Elegantly designed, this new book will be a sister devotional to Sophie's first teen journaling devotional, All in All, which has been a strong and consistent seller for B&H. This new collection will have a similar format and feel, but it will focus on grace—God's grace in the day to day, and His grace in the hard stuff too. Teen girls and young women will read, write, and walk away with tons of encouragement and a new understanding of God's goodness toward us.

Elijah

Faith and Fire

PRISCILLA SHIRER

Old Testament heroes are best known for their most celebrated, highlight moments: Moses dividing the Red Sea; David slaying Goliath; Joshua marching around the defiant walls of Jericho.

And Elijah—calling down fire on Mount Carmel.

Blinded by the remarkable narratives of our biblical heroes, we can forget they each had a backstory—months and years of development, even difficulty, which fortified their spiritual muscle and prepared them for the tasks that made their lives unforgettable.

Every serious believer longs to summon up the kind of boldness and faith that can stand firm on Mount Carmel and pray down heaven into impossible situations. Yet few are willing to go through the process required to get them there. This 7-session Bible study is your invitation to surrender to that process.

Join author and Bible teacher Priscilla Shirer on a journey through the life and times of Elijah. Discover how the fire on Mount Carmel was forged in the valley of famine. And how the emboldened, fiery faith you desire is being fashioned by God in your life right now.

features

- 7 video teaching sessions with Priscilla Shirer, available for purchase or rent
- 6 weeks of personal study, looking at the life and ministry of the prophet Elijah

The Practice of Preaching to Yourself Through Every Season
 RUTH CHOU SIMONS

Many of us want God's Word to dwell richly in us, but life can get in the way.

We'd never intentionally write chapters of confusion, failure, loss, pain, conflict, or suffering into our stories. No one plans to wrestle with her identity in Christ, to struggle to love her husband, to feel lonely in ministry, or to feel helpless in motherhood. Yet we often find ourselves in these seasons, struggling to embrace the gospel hope we need to fill our discouraged souls.

Join Ruth Chou Simons in this 7-session study of the Book of Colossians as she leads us through a practice of preaching gospel truth to ourselves by studying Paul's example. In every changing season of life, we can rest in God's character, rehearse our identity in Christ, respond in faith, and remember God's provision for us. In today's culture, there's no shortage of self help, easy fixes, and worldly advice, but only the truth of God's Word was meant to fill you up and satisfy you fully.

Now there arose a new king over Egypt, who did not know Joseph.
—Exodus 1:8

With that introduction, we enter into the story of the Hebrew people in the Book of Exodus. No longer under the protection of their forefather Joseph, the children of Israel became slaves to the Egyptians. But God was raising up a deliverer in Moses, to lead His people from bondage to freedom so they could worship Him.

In this 10-session exploration of Exodus chapters 1–18, journey with God's people to Mt. Sinai to unpack the deeper meaning behind stories that may already be familiar to you: the struggle of God's people in slavery, the birth and life of Moses, the plagues God leveled against Pharaoh, and more.

How Much More

Discovering God's Extravagant Love in Unexpected Places

LISA HARPER

Have you ever wished certain passages weren't in the Bible?

It can be all too easy to trade the truth of God's grace and mercy for a skewed view of certain biblical texts that seem to paint God as oppressive, distant, or hard to understand. Upon closer examination, this harsh view of God is the exact opposite of His true character. God welcomes His children with deep compassion and care, while holding all power and authority.

In How Much More, Lisa Harper will help you discover God's extravagant love in some often overlooked and misunderstood passages of Scripture. Through this 7-session study, we'll be surprised by God's kindness and reminded that the God of the Old Testament is the same redemptive, loving, and grace-filled God we see through Christ in the New Testament.

- 6 weeks of personal study to be completed between the 7 group sessions
- Leader helps for group discussion
- Articles for each session to enhance study for those who want more in-depth, theological study
- Teaching videos, approximately 25–30 minutes per session, available for purchase or rent

benefits

- Tackle some overlooked or misunderstood passages in Scripture, uncovering how they ultimately show God's kind character.
- Explore the historical-cultural context of biblical texts to grasp their deeper meaning.
- Learn about God's real redemption from real stories in the Bible and how He longs to redeem your story too.
- Allow a renewed understanding of God's perfect compassion and perfect holiness to fuel your worship of Him and trust in Him.

Anxious

Fighting Anxiety with the Word of God

SCARLET HILTIBIDAL

We live in a broken, sad, scary place. And the world is full of faulty solutions for our anxiety. But true peace comes when we learn to hold God's Word up to what worries us. There, we learn we can't fix ourselves; we can't protect ourselves.

Instead, the Bible tells us we can rest, knowing that Jesus walked into the broken, sad, scary place to rescue us and love us. When we fear the Lord rather than fearing the brokenness in our world, we are able to take hold of the perfect peace that is only available in Him.

Join Scarlet Hiltibidal in this 8-session study to learn how peace is found in the already finished work of Christ revealed to us over and over again in God's Word, through prayer, and with our Christian community. When those of us who live with sinkhole awareness and constant cancer concern see the power of Jesus in the pages of the Bible, we can say with certainty, "The Lord is on my side; I will not fear. What can man do to me?" (Ps. 118:6).

Fighting Anxiety with the Word of God

SCARLETT HILTIBIDAL

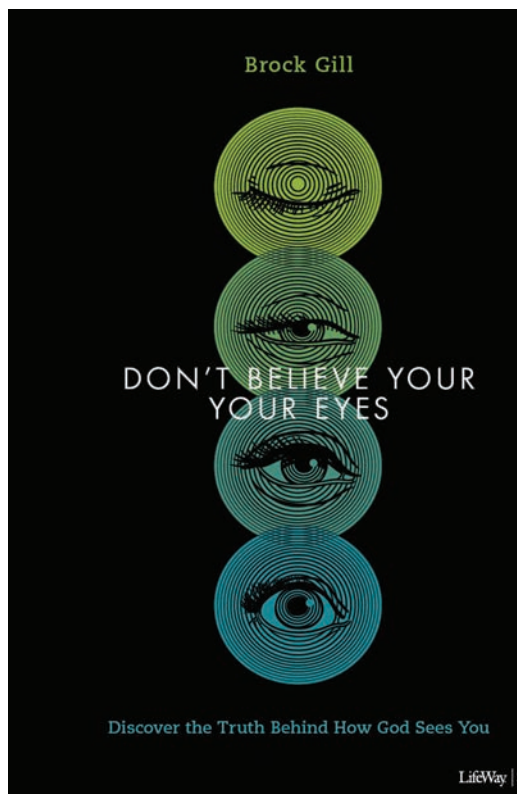

We live in a broken, sad, scary place. We don't need to watch the natural disasters and political unrest in the news to know it; our own bodies tell us. Our bodies get sick. Our minds are fragile. The mortality rate for humans is astonishingly high. There is plenty to worry about. And the world is full of faulty solutions for our anxiety. But peace comes when we learn to hold God's Word up to what worries us. There, we learn we can't fix ourselves; we can't protect ourselves. Instead, the Bible tells us we can rest, knowing that Jesus walked into the broken, sad, scary place to rescue us and love us. This research sent her to the USC Graduate School of Gerontology and into the confidence of America's healthcare professionals and thought leaders. In 2015, she released I'll Have It My Way: Taking Control of End-of-Life Decisions, which led to a lecture that airs on public television stations. Now, she has combined her research about end-of-life care with her lifelong faith to create this resource that will help Christians live fully all the way to heaven.

SUMMER 2021

Featuring the CHRISTIAN STANDARD BIBLE

Accurate. Readable. Shareable. The Christian Standard Bible is a translation for everyone—a translation you can take to seminary and read to your kids. A translation that new believers can understand and that every believer can return to for lifelong discipleship.

The CSB captures the Bible’s original meaning without sacrificing clarity. It’s an optimal blend of accuracy and readability—in the many places throughout Scripture where a word-for-word rendering is clearly understandable, a literal translation is used. When a word-for-word rendering might obscure the meaning for a modern audience, a more dynamic translation is used.

The result is a translation that communicates both the words and the thoughts of the original text clearly and accurately to today’s readers. A translation pastors can preach from and one you can share with your neighbor hearing God’s Word for the very first time.

Every Christian is unique.

We don't all talk the same, look the same, or think the same.
But we can all gather around the same Bible.

For every person in your church, the Christian Standard Bible is an exceptionally clear and faithful translation—so your whole congregation can meet God through his life-transforming Word.

GENESIS 1

THE CREATION

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.^a Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness covered the surface of the watery depths, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the waters.^b Then God said, "Let there be light," and there was light.^c God saw that the light was good, and God separated the light from the darkness.^d God called the light "day" and the darkness he called "night." There was an evening, and there was a morning: one day.

^e Then God said, "Let there be an expanse between the waters, separating water from water."^f So God made the expanse and separated the water under the expanse from the water above the expanse. And it was so.^g God called the expense "sky."^h Evening came and then morning: the second day.

ⁱ Then God said, "Let the water under the sky be gathered into one place, and let the dry land appear." And it was so.^j God called the dry land "earth," and the gathering of the water he called "seas." And God saw that it was good.

^k Then God said, "Let the earth produce vegetation: seed-bearing plants and fruit trees on the earth bearing fruit with seed in it according to their kinds." And it was so.^l The earth produced vegetation: seed-bearing plants according to their kinds and trees bearing fruit with seed in it according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good.^m Evening came and then morning: the third day.

ⁿ Then God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of the sky to separate the day from the night. They will serve as signs for seasons^o

^a1:1 Or created the universe ^b1:2 Or "Heavens." ^c1:3-4 Or for the appointed times

¹¹¹ BASIL THE GREAT: The birth of the world was preceded by a condition of things suitable for the exercise of supernatural powers, outstripping the limits of time, eternal and infinite. The Creator and Demiurge of the universe perfected his works in it, spiritual light for the happiness of all who love the Lord, intellectual and invisible natures, all the orderly arrangement of pure intelligences who are beyond the reach of our mind and of whom we cannot even discover the names. They fill the essence of this invisible world, as Paul teaches us. "For by him were all things created that are in heaven and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones or dominions or principalities or powers" [Col 1:16] or virtues or hosts of angels or the dignities of archangels. To this world at last it was necessary to add a new world, both a school and training place where the souls of men should be taught and a home for beings destined to be born and to die. HEXAMERON 1.5.

¹¹² EPHREM THE SYRIAN: It was appropriate to reveal here that the Spirit hovered in order for us to learn that the work of creation was held in common by the Spirit with the Father and the Son. The Father spoke. The Son created [see Jn 1:3]. And so it was also right that the Spirit offer its work, clearly shown through its hovering, in order to demonstrate its unity with the other persons. Thus we learn that all was brought to perfection and accomplished by the Trinity. COMMENTARY ON GENESIS 1.

¹¹³ AUGUSTINE: We ought to understand that God did not say "Let there be light" by a sound brought forth from the lungs or by the tongue and teeth. Such thoughts are those of persons physically preoccupied. To be wise in accord with the flesh is death. "Let there be light" was spoken ineffably. ON THE LITERAL INTERPRETATION OF GENESIS 1.9.

¹¹⁴ AUGUSTINE: These words do not mean that God found before him a good that he had not known but that he was pleased by one that was finished. TWO BOOKS ON GENESIS AGAINST THE MANICHAEANS 1.8.13.

¹¹⁵ CYRIL OF JERUSALEM: [W]hat fault have they to find with the vast creation of God, who out of the fluid nature of the waters formed the stable substance of the heavens? For God said, "Let there be firmament in the midst of the waters." God spoke once for all, and it stands fast, never failing. CATECHETICAL LECTURES 9.5.

¹¹⁶ ORIGEN: Although God had already previously made heaven, now he makes the firmament. For he made heaven first, about which he says, "Heaven is my throne" [Is 66:1]. But after that he makes the firmament, that is, the corporeal heaven. For every corporeal object is, without doubt, firm and solid; and it is this that "divides the water which is above heaven from the water which is below heaven" [see vv. 6-7]. HOMILIES ON GENESIS 1.2.

¹¹⁷ IGOR GREGORY OF NYSSA: "Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen are not made of things which do appear" [Heb 11:3]. Let us, following the example of the apostle, leave the question of the "how" in each created thing without meddling with it at all but merely observing incidentally that the movement of God's will becomes at any moment that he pleases a fact, and the intention becomes at once realized in nature. ON THE SOUL AND THE RESURRECTION.

¹¹⁸ BASIL THE GREAT: When the earth heard, "Let it bring forth vegetation and the fruit trees," it did not produce plants that it had hidden in it, nor did it send up to the surface the palm or the oak or the cypress that had been hidden somewhere down below in its womb. On the contrary, it is the divine Word that is the origin of things made. HEXAMERON 1.1.

¹¹⁹ BASIL THE GREAT: There is nothing truer than this, that either each plant has seed or there exists in it some generative power. And this accounts for the expression "of its own kind." For the shoot of the reed is not productive of an olive tree, but from the reed comes another reed, and from seeds spring plants related to the seeds sown. Thus what was put forth by the earth in its first generation has been preserved until the present time, since the kinds persisted through constant reproduction. HEXAMERON 1.2.

ARTICLE

CREATION OUT OF NOTHING

Some theologians today reject that God created the universe out of nothing because they do not see any one verse in Scripture that explicitly teaches this doctrine. Augustine, however, shows in the following excerpt (Confessions 11.5) that it is a logical inference from Genesis 1:1. He prays his thoughts and asks God how he could create the heavens and the earth, and he concludes that God made everything not by fashioning preexistent matter into the heavens and the earth but by speaking them into existence out of nothing.

How did you make the heaven and the earth, and what was the tool of such a mighty work as yours? For it was not like a human worker fashioning body from body, according to the fancy of his mind, able somehow or other to impose on it a form which the mind perceived in itself by its inner eye (yet how should even he be able to do this, if you had not made that mind?). He imposes the form on something already existing and having some sort of being, such as clay, or stone or wood or gold or such like (and where would these things come from if you had not furnished them?). For you made his body for the artisan, and you made the mind which directs the limbs. You made the matter from which he makes anything. You created the capacity by which he understands his art and sees within his mind what he may do with the things before him. You gave him his bodily sense by which, as if he had an interpreter, he may communicate from mind to matter what he proposes to do and report back to his mind what has been done, that the mind may consult with the Truth which presides over it as to whether what is done is well done.

All these things praise you, the Creator of them all. But how did you make them? How, O God, did you make the heaven and earth? For truly, neither in heaven nor on earth did you make heaven and earth—nor in the air nor in the waters, since all of these also belong to the heaven and the earth. Nowhere in the whole world did you make the whole world, because there was no place where it could be made before it was made. And you did not hold anything in your hand from which to fashion the heaven and the earth, for where could you have gotten what you had not made in order to make something with it? Is there, indeed, anything at all except because you are? Thus you spoke, and they were made, and by thy Word you made them all.

For wherever you go, I will go,
and wherever you live, I will live;
your people will be my people,
and your God will be my God.
¹⁷ Where you die, I will die,
and there I will be buried.
May the LORD punish me,^a
and do so severely,
if anything but death separates you and me.
¹⁸ When Naomi saw that Ruth was determined to go with her, she stopped talking to her.
¹⁹ The two of them traveled until they came to Bethlehem. When they entered Bethlehem, the whole town was excited about their arrival^a and the local women exclaimed, "Can this be Naomi?"
²⁰ "Don't call me Naomi. Call me Mara,"^c she answered, "for the Almighty has made me very bitter."²¹ I went away full, but the LORD has brought me back empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since the LORD has opposed^a me, and the Almighty has afflicted me?"
²² So Naomi came back from the territory of Moab with her daughter-in-law Ruth the Moabitess. They arrived in Bethlehem at the beginning of the barley harvest.

RUTH AND BOAZ MEET

2 Now Naomi had a relative on her husband's side. He was a prominent man of noble character from Elimelech's family. His name was Boaz.
² Ruth the Moabitess asked Naomi, "Will you let me go into the fields and gather fallen grain behind someone with whom I find favor?"
Naomi answered her, "Go ahead, my daughter."³ So Ruth left and entered the field to gather grain behind the harvesters. She happened to be in the portion of the field belonging to Boaz, who was from Elimelech's family.
⁴ Later, when Boaz arrived from Bethlehem, he said to the harvesters, "The LORD be with you."
"The LORD bless you," they replied.
⁵ Boaz asked his servant who was in charge of the harvesters, "Whose young woman is this?"
⁶ The servant answered, "She is the young Moabite woman who returned with Naomi from the territory of Moab."⁷ She asked, "Will you let me gather fallen grain among the bundles behind the harvesters?" She came and has been on her feet since early morning, except that she rested a little in the shelter.⁸ ⁸ Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Listen, my daughter." Don't go and gather grain in another field, and don't leave this one, but stay here close to my female dered the young men not to touch you?" When you are thirsty, go and drink from the jars the young men have filled."

¹⁰ She fell facedown, bowed to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found favor with you, so that you notice me, although I am a foreigner?"
¹¹ Boaz answered her, "Everything you have done for your mother-in-law since your husband's death has been fully reported to me: how you left your father and mother and your native land, and how you came to a people you didn't previously know."¹² May the LORD reward you for what you have done, and may you receive a full reward from the LORD God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge.
¹³ "My lord," she said, "I have found favor with you, for you have comforted and encouraged^a your servant, although I am not like one of your female servants."
¹⁴ At mealtime Boaz told her, "Come over here and have some bread and dip it in the vinegar sauce." So she sat beside the harvesters, and he offered her roasted grain. She ate and was satisfied and had some left over.
¹⁵ When she got up to gather grain, Boaz ordered his young men, "Let her even gather grain among the bundles, and don't humiliate her."¹⁶ Pull out some stalks from the bundles for her and leave them for her to gather. Don't rebuke her."
¹⁷ So Ruth gathered grain in the field until evening. She beat out what she had gathered, and it was about twenty-six quarts^b of barley.¹⁸ She picked up the grain and went into the town, where her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned.
She brought out what she had left over from her meal and gave it to her.
¹⁹ Her mother-in-law said to her, "Where did you gather barley today, and where did you work? May the LORD bless the man who noticed you." Ruth told her mother-in-law whom she had worked with and said, "The name of the man I worked with today is Boaz." ²⁰ Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "May the LORD bless him because he has not abandoned his kindness to the living or the dead." Naomi continued, "The man is a close relative. He is one of our family redeemers." ²¹ Ruth the Moabitess said, "He also told me, 'Stay with my young men until they have finished all of my harvest.'" ²² So Naomi said to her daughter-in-law Ruth, "My daughter, it is good for you to work^c with his female servants, so that nothing will happen to you in another field."²³ Ruth stayed close to Boaz's female servants and gathered grain until the barley and the wheat harvests were finished. And she lived with^d her mother-in-law.

RUTH'S APPEAL TO BOAZ

3 Ruth's mother-in-law Naomi said to her, "My daughter, shouldn't I find rest for you, so that you will be taken care of? ² Now isn't Boaz our relative? Haven't you been working with his female servants? This evening he

Revival

NOTETAKING BIBLE

Hosanna Revival was created on the belief that as people of a broken and boring life, we are in desperate need of revival. When something is new and beautiful, it can become fun, exciting, and yours. For that reason, our founder, Katie, began re-binding and hand-painting beautiful Bibles in 2015. Years later, our mission is the same: we work to excite women about engaging in Scripture by creating beautiful and intentional tools for their lives. We make beautiful Bibles, journals, and other lovely things because we believe they can be used to draw us closer to our Creator, and that's what we're all about.

Why Believe

Christian Apologetics for a Skeptical Age

TAWA J. ANDERSON

Why bother with apologetics? Because the truth about God is worth understanding. In an age of skepticism, the truth of the gospel can be difficult to defend. Faithful Christians may struggle to explain the reasons for their beliefs; they may even doubt that their faith is rational at all. In the face of difficult questions of truth, Why Believe offers a clear path forward: a Christian apologetic that is both winsome and sound. It provides accessible explanations of several core concerns of apologetics, from arguments for the existence of God and the validity of Christ's resurrection to common questions about the practice of faith. Most important, Why Believe argues that Christianity is not only reasonable, but also fulfilling. Only through Christianity can we know Jesus, who is "the way, the truth, and the life" (John 14:6).

The Method of Christian Theology

A Basic Introduction

RHYNE R. PUTMAN

When handling the things of God, our method matters.

Everyone who thinks about God has a method for approaching the subject, whether they recognize it or not. A theological method addresses foundational questions such as: What is theology? How should we approach Scripture? What is the role of tradition, philosophy, and experience? How do we use theology in ministering to others? These questions are vital for anyone studying God and his Word—how one defines theology, sees its task, and uses its sources will shape one's doctrine, for better or worse.

In The Method of Christian Theology, Rhyme Putman guides readers through the essential “first words” of systematic theology. Written for entry-level theology students, this book gives clear suggestions about how to use theological sources, how to reason through difficult problems, and how to apply theological reflection to paper writing and preaching. By studying the foundations of theology, readers will be better equipped to serve God's people in whatever ministry they are called to.

- Students new to theological academia

marketing highlights

El Dios Santo

Cómo la santidad de Dios nos ayuda a confiar en Él

HOLY GOD

JACKIE HILL PERRY

Why is it so hard to trust God sometimes? We say we trust Him with our mouths, but often not with our lives. We live like God can't be trusted. Like He doesn't actually want what is best for us. Like He is just another person who, as Eve assumed in the Garden all those years ago, might hold out on us. Bestselling author Jackie Hill Perry, in her much anticipated follow-up to Gay Girl, Good God, helps us find the reason we don't trust God—we misunderstand His holiness. In Holier Than Thou, Jackie walks us through Scripture, shaking the dust off of "holy" as we've come to know it and revealing it for what it really is. In these pages, we will see that God is not like us. He is different. He is holy. And that's exactly what makes Him trustworthy. As it turns out, God being "holier than thou" is actually the best news in the world, and it's the key to trusting Him.

*¿Por qué algunas veces es tan difícil confiar en Dios? Decimos que confiamos en Él con nuestra boca, pero muchas veces no con nuestras vidas. Vivimos como si no pudiéramos confiar en Dios. Como si en verdad Él no quisiera lo mejor para nosotros, como si fuera una persona más que como Eva asumió en el huerto hace todos esos años atrás, no nos da lo que merecemos. La autora de éxitos de venta Jackie Hill Perry, en la esperada continuación de Chica gay, Dios bueno, nos ayuda a encontrar la razón por la cual no confiamos en Dios y malentendemos Su santidad. En El Dios Santo, Jackie nos lleva a través de la Escritura, desempolva la «santidad» como la hemos conocido y nos la revela como realmente es. A través de estas páginas, veremos que Dios no es como nosotros, Él es diferente. Él es Santo y precisamente eso es lo que lo hace confiable. A fin de cuentas que Dios sea más santo que nosotros en realidad es la mejor noticia del mundo, y es la clave para confiar en Él.*

Por amor de Su nombre

Un estudio bíblico de los nombres hebreos de Dios

FOR THE LOVE OF HIS NAME

CATHERINE SCHERALDI DE NÚÑEZ and JEANINE MARTÍNEZ DE URREA

God is so great and all-encompassing, that one name is not enough to describe him. We need to have different names in order to be able to grasp his greatness. Each name expounds upon one of his characteristics and even after putting them all together, we still fall short of understanding him fully. Each name symbolizes an aspect of his character and is revealing the essence and nature of who he is. We hope that through Por amor de Su nombre, his glory and greatness will be revealed, and each reader will be in awe of how our great God humbled himself & became a man so that we could understand and love him..

Dios es tan grande y abarca tanto que un solo nombre no es suficiente para describirlo. Necesitamos tener diferentes nombres para Él para que sea posible comprender Su grandeza. Cada nombre expone Sus características y aun después de unirlas todas, no nos alcanza para comprenderlo del todo. Cada nombre simboliza un aspecto de Su carácter y revela la esencia y naturaleza de quién es. Esperamos que a través de Por amor de Su nombre, Su gloria y grandeza sean reveladas y que cada lector se maraville de cómo nuestro gran Dios se humilló y se convirtió en hombre para que pudiéramos comprenderlo y amarlo.

¿Cómo ordeno mi vida?

HOW DO I ORDER MY LIFE?

The COVID-19 pandemic has revealed our christian generation's deficiencies regarding selfcare and how to put our life in order. We need a biblical, balanced, and practical perspective. There are two ways to approach this, and as in every dichotomy, acting upon one extreme or the other does not guarantee a healthy balance. We often ask ourselves things like: What does God say about selfcare? How can I take care of myself and organize my life in a wholesome way? Isn't that selfish?

La pandemia del COVID-19 ha venido a revelar las deficiencias de nuestra generación de creyentes en el tema del autocuidado y de cómo ordenar nuestras vidas. Necesitamos una perspectiva bíblica, balanceada y práctica. Actualmente hay dos vertientes del discurso y como toda dicotomía, dichos extremos no necesariamente nos llevan a un balance sano. Nos hacemos preguntas como: ¿Qué dice Dios acerca del autocuidado? ¿Por qué y cómo puedo cuidarme y ordenar mi vida de manera integral? ¿No es egoísta?

12 principios sobre el liderazgo en la iglesia

LEAD

PAUL DAVID TRIPP

The church is experiencing a leadership crisis. For every celebrity pastor existing in the spotlight, there are hundreds of lesser-known pastors leaving in the shadows. Why are so many pastors leaving the ministry? Best-selling author Paul David Tripp suggests that lurking behind the failure of a pastor is a weak leadership community.

Turning to Scripture for guidance, Tripp presents readers with twelve leadership-community principles necessary for a gospel-centered leadership model. Here is a book with a message for those new to ministry as well as those experienced in it—God's abiding presence is your hope in leadership.

La iglesia está experimentando una crisis de liderazgo. Por cada pastor famoso siendo el centro de atención hay cientos de pastores no tan conocidos que desaparecen. ¿Por qué hay tantos pastores dejando el ministerio? El autor de éxitos de venta Paul David Tripp sugiere que detrás del fracaso de un pastor existe un liderazgo débil.

Usando la Escritura como guía, Tripp presenta al lector un modelo con doce principios necesarios para un liderazgo centrado en el evangelio. Este libro contiene un mensaje tanto para aquellos que son nuevos en el ministerio como para aquellos con más experiencia: la presencia permanente de Dios es nuestra esperanza para el liderazgo.

En espíritu y en verdad

12 principios sobre el liderazgo en la iglesia

IN SPIRIT AND IN TRUTH

SAMUEL E. MASTERS

True spirituality is not born out of a personal intuition and it is not developed on the basis of our own efforts. Rather, true spirituality comes from outside of us, because God has spoken and He has given us His words in the Bible. These words are life. These words come to us, and the Spirit makes them alive in us. Many times the process is painful and excruciating as going into labor "until Christ is formed in you" (Gal. 4:19). Discovering the dynamics of this process must be the primary goal of our lives.

La verdadera espiritualidad no nace de una intuición interna ni se desarrolla con base en nuestros propios esfuerzos. Nos llega desde afuera. Dios ha hablado y ha dejado Sus palabras registradas en la Biblia. Estas palabras son vida. Su Palabra llega a nosotros y el Espíritu las aviva en nosotros. El proceso a veces es doloroso y extenuante como un parto, pero su fin es «Cristo formado en nosotros» (Gál. 4:19). Descubrir las dinámicas de este proceso debe ser la meta principal de nuestras vidas.

¿Es Jesús realmente Dios?

Lo que la Biblia enseña sobre la divinidad de Cristo

IS JESUS TRULY GOD?

GREGORY R. LANIER

The question of Jesus's divinity has been at the epicenter of theological discussion since the early church. At the Council of Nicea in AD 325, the church fathers affirmed that Jesus the Son of God is "true God from true God." Today, creeds such as this are professed in churches across the world, and yet there remains confusion as to who Jesus is. To some, Jesus is a radical prophet—nothing more than a footnote in history. To others, Jesus is the only Son of God, fully God and fully man—the author of history entering history. Lanier shows from both the Old and New Testaments why the latter view is the truly biblical one.

La pregunta sobre la divinidad de Jesús ha sido el epicentro de discusiones teológicas desde el principio de la iglesia. En el concilio de Nicea en el 325 d.C., los padres de la iglesia afirmaron que Jesús el hijo de Dios es «el Dios verdadero del Dios verdadero». Hoy en día, credos como este son la guía de las iglesias a través del mundo y aun así existe confusión sobre quién es Jesús. Para algunos, Jesús es un profeta radical, nada más que un pie de página en la historia. Para otros, Jesús es el único Hijo de Dios, un Dios completo y un Hombre completo, el autor de la historia entrando en la historia. Lanier nos muestra usando el Antiguo y Nuevo Testamento por qué este último punto de vista es verdaderamente bíblico.

Many people are unfamiliar with the stories of the Bible and how they fit together into the grand narrative of God's Word. The RVR 1960 Day-by-Day Chronological Bible features a clear narrative approach to the Bible, arranging the complete text into a fresh chronological reading plan with daily readings. In this plan, the books, chapters, and verses of the Bible are thoughtfully arranged so readers can track the story of Scripture, day-by-day, from beginning to end, understanding the flow of events and how the grand narrative of Scripture applies to everyday life. Las lucecitas

THE LIGHTLINGS

R.C. SPROUL

In The Lightlings, Dr. R.C. Sproul weaves an allegorical tale that captures the essence of the biblical story of redemption in a manner that will fascinate and delight children. A race of tiny beings known as lightlings are a picture of humanity as they pass through all the stages of the biblical drama - creation, fall, and redemption. In the end, children will understand why some people fear light more than darkness, but why they need never fear darkness again.

The Lightlings is an excellent introduction to the key themes of Scripture. Richly detailed illustrations by Justin Gerard will hold children's interest, and discussion questions with Scripture references in the back will help parents guide children into the deeper meaning of the story.

En Las lucecitas, el doctor R.C. Sproul teje un alegórico cuento que captura la esencia de la historia bíblica de la redención de una manera que cautivará y fascinará a los niños. Una raza de pequeñas criaturas llamadas lucecitas son un reflejo de la humanidad a medida que atraviesan todas las etapas del drama bíblico: la creación, la caída y la redención. Al final, los niños comprenderán por qué algunas personas le temen más a la luz que a la oscuridad y a la vez por qué no deben volver a temer a la oscuridad.

Las lucecitas es una excelente introducción a temas clave de la Escritura. Las ilustraciones llenas de detalles a cargo de Justin Gerard mantendrán a los chicos interesados, y las preguntas de discusión con referencias bíblicas en la parte de atrás ayudarán a los padres a guiar y poder encontrar el significado más profundo de la historia.
