the old has passed away,

World on Fire

Walking in the Wisdom of Christ When Everyone's Fighting About Everything

Does it feel like no matter where you look or what the issue is, everyone seems to be fighting about everything?

We live in the information age, with more access to knowledge than ever before, flowing to us in a never-ending digital stream of updates, statistics, polls, opinions, news, and narratives from those on opposing sides of any issue. And while we'd assume this influx of information would help us find a good, informed way forward in our culture, it actually stirs up all sorts of anger, anxiety, and even loneliness. This all contributes to an increasingly defensive society that feels like it's not only fracturing, but could go up in flames at any moment.

If you're anything like the contributors to World on Fire, you've realized that all this knowledge isn't the same thing as wisdom. While our world relies on expected, reflexive, status-quo, earthly wisdom to make a way forward or take a side on any given issue, Christ would rather us rely on His unexpected, counter-intuitive, going-against-the-grain, heavenly wisdom as outlined in His famous Beatitudes. This surprising wisdom is not a call to be removed from the fire we feel blazing around us, but one to engage and tame it—beginning with our own hearts first.

Whatever those nearest you seem to be arguing about today, and no matter what the fire looks like in your neck of the woods, Jesus has an answer for the ways his Kingdom citizens should walk as they navigate the flames in His power and posture. In their own unique voice and in their own unique way, each contributor in World on Fire welcomes you to come explore not only some of the polarizing issues of our day, but how the unexpected wisdom of Jesus might help us be more discerning and Christlike amidst them.

Hope for the Hurting

TONY EVANS

Life is painful.

Everyone's story comes with unique challenges, difficulties, bumps, and bruises that leave you lost and drowning in their wake. It could be a financial disaster, a health issue, a broken relationship, or the loss of a loved one.

Tony Evans, bestselling author and pastor of Oak Cliff Bible Fellowship, understands life's hardships firsthand. In a span of less than two years, he lost his brother, sister, brother-in-law, two nieces, father, and wife. At the same time, both of his daughters received cancer diagnoses. In the wake of all this pain, Dr. Evans had to put into practice, at the deepest levels, the truths he has preached about God for more than forty years.

God's Word doesn't promise us a life free from pain and trouble. It promises us something else—Someone else. Someone who will walk with us through all of life's trials and troubles.

There is hope for the hurting: His name is Jesus.

You're the Worst Person in the World

Why It's the Best News Ever that You Don't Have it Together, You Aren't Enough, and You Can't Fix It on Your Own
SCARLET HILTIBIDAL

Are you tired of the unrelenting pressure to be the best at everything? Author and speaker Scarlet Hiltibidal was too.

For Scarlet, attempting to be the best at pretty much everything—whether that be the best wife or the best sub-sandwich maker or the best Christian—was her life story. But in the midst of all her striving and reaching to hit the mark, she somehow still couldn't grab hold of the joy and freedom and life-change that's supposed to come with the gospel's good news. That is, until she realized something revolutionary—instead of the best, she might actually be...the worst. The "chief of sinners." Poor in spirit and gone astray.

In her much-anticipated follow-up to Afraid of All the Things (and in her humorous and relatable style), Scarlet tells plenty of stories of her own "worstness" to help you see your own and rejoice in the reality that our goodness and badness aren't what make God smile at us.

Instead of hiding from our brokenness, this book will help us stare that broken reality straight in the face, along with a laugh or two, as we feel the weight of just how absurdly and glaringly off the mark we all are! What's more—this book will also help us embrace our status as "sinners" and "sheep" and "worst people on earth" who have been mercifully rescued and impossibly loved by the best person who has ever lived: Jesus. And the unbelievable part? As we admit our worstness, stop trying to be perfect on our own, and simply walk with the One who really is perfect, we'll find along the way that we are actually changing for the better!

If you're tired of hustling to be the best, take a load off with Scarlet and say the honest and laughable truth along with her: we're the worst people in the world!

audience

- Past purchasers of Scarlet's books and Bible studies
- Those who have attended events where Scarlet has spoken
- Christian women who see that the "you are enough" message just doesn't work and who want to see clearly who they are in Christ

SCARLET HILTIBIDAL is the author of Afraid of All the Things, He Numbered the Pores on My Face, and Anxious. She writes regularly for ParentLife magazine and She Reads Truth, and enjoys speaking to women around the country about the freedom and rest available in Jesus. Scarlet has a degree in biblical counseling and taught elementary school before she started writing. She and her husband live in Southern California, where she loves signing with her three daughters, eating nachos by herself, writing for her friends, and studying stand-up comedy with a passion that should be reserved for more important pursuits.

Fasting & Feasting

40 Devotions to Satisfy the Hungry Heart
ERIN DAVIS

Does your relationship with food come as a constant source of regret, frustration, or shame? Or does it feel like a God-given blessing? Do you bounce between the two sometimes, in a love/hate relationship with food?

Whether it's a warm croissant, a bright bowl of fruit, a piece of cake, or a steaming cup of coffee put in front of her, author and Bible teacher Erin Davis has experienced all sorts of complicated reactions to food, too. And she's come to find that God's Word celebrates food as a gift while simultaneously inviting us to surrender every area of our lives to the authority of Jesus, including the very things we put on our plates. Rather than the yo-yo of loving food versus hating it, Erin invites you to accept Scripture's invitation into a different, nourishing, and refreshing rhythm.

In this 40-day devotional filled with heartfelt reflections on key passages of Scripture (and a few inspirational stories thrown in for good measure!), you'll learn just how satisfying it is to join in the biblical rhythms of fasting and feasting.

- Christian, evangelical women ages 25-55 whose relationship food comes as a constant source of regret, frustration, or shame

Embrace Your Life

How to Find Joy When the Life You Have Is Not the Life You Hoped For ELIZABETH WOODSON

All of us live with some sort of longing in our hearts—a gap between the life we want and the life we actually have. As we try to navigate this sense of longing and the circumstances we desperately wish would change, we try to hang on to the belief that God will fulfill our desires, while waiting to see the answers to our prayers realized.

For some, those prayers are answered. Yet for others, the longing persists, making us weary at best and debilitated at worst. Living this way leaves us asking the same questions: “How do I find God’s joy in this life when it isn’t the life I hoped for?” or “How do I deal with the gap between the life I want and the life I’ve been given?”

In this powerful book, Bible teacher and fellow traveler down the well-worn road of unmet longings Elizabeth Woodson equips you for joyful living in that gap. As you walk with Elizabeth through some key biblical passages in the book of Joshua and beyond, you’ll learn to:

- Realize joy is possible
- Avoid emotional escapism and naïve blindness to reality
- Have your eyes opened to what “biblical contentment” really means
- Enjoy God’s unfailing presence
- Understand your divine calling

Through biblical wisdom, personal stories, and practical advice, Elizabeth shares life-changing truth that has the heart-healing power you’ve been searching for, and helps you walk through your current life situations from a new perspective—one that embraces actual, real, deep joy in the midst of the inevitable longings of life.

audience

- Christian women ages 25-55
- Readers who can relate to the feeling of longing in life, who identify with the gap between the life you want and the life you actually have
- Followers of other authors such as Jen Wilkin, Jackie Hill Perry, Melissa Krueger, The Gospel Coalition, Gretchen Saffles, and others

marketing highlights

- Elizabeth is connected to many authors and influencers who will likely promote her book including Jen Wilkin, Matt Chandler, J.T. English, Alexandra Hoover, Tony Evans, and others
- B&H will heavily promote Elizabeth as a new author, introducing her through media interviews and exposure, digital ads, targeted emails and other marketing opportunities
- Many deal with the disappointments of unmet expectations or life looking different than they hoped, and this book provides hope and encouragement for those walking this road

ELIZABETH WOODSON is a Bible teacher, writer, and speaker. She is passionate about helping people understand and live out the rich theological truths of Scripture. She is a graduate of Dallas Theological Seminary and works as an Institute Minister at The Village Church in Flower Mound, Texas.

What does a weary mom need? What will help her not only keep going in her life and work of motherhood, but enjoy it?

While being a mom is one of the most rewarding jobs, it is also one of the hardest. For all its joys, motherhood can leave us weary as we pour ourselves out for our children and wonder where we’ll get the strength to serve another day. If we’re honest, we can become exhausted by the constant call to tend to our family. We can even sometimes resent the posture of servanthood it requires. We may get the actions of motherhood right, but many times, our hearts are off.

As mom and author Kristen Wetherell experienced these things first-hand in the work of mothering, she wondered, “How do I go about the weighty and wonderful calling of motherhood not simply as a servant, but with a servant’s heart—a humble heart?”

Instead of offering a parenting plan or a pep talk or a list of things you need to do to be a better mom, Humble Moms offers you exactly what Kristen needed in seasons of struggle: biblical meditations on Jesus, who reveals to us what servant-heartedness looks like as the walking and talking embodiment of humility. As you journey along with Kristen through the book of John, soaking in the entire life and work of Christ (his incarnation, life, ministry, death, resurrection, ascension, and return), you’ll find that your life and work as a mom is sustained in the process.

In our exhaustion as moms, Kristen points us to the true Sustainer of our souls, the loving Servant who has tended to us in both hand and heart, and the only One powerful enough to grow us into women who reflect his humility in our daily work of motherhood.

audience

- Moms looking for devotional and encouraging content
- Past readers and followers of Kristen Wetherell

To Be Concluded

How to Prevent Your Past from Piling Up and Find Hope for Your Future

The words build anticipation for what’s coming . . . which is great for a Netflix binge, but not a healthy pattern for our lives. In real life, constant continuation causes our lives to pile up, episode upon episode, with no space for reflection or rest, contentment or closure.

This book is for the too-busy, driven person who’s moving on to the next win, without ever processing how one season of life affects the next. It’s for the person stuck and held back because she’s never done the hard work of getting real closure on a season. When we fail to finish well, we live with a pile of unfinished beginnings. But finished things become usable things because they are a part of the story of God’s grace and faithfulness.

In these pages, you’ll discover:

- How beginnings are important because they give birth to hope
- How we can hold on to hope when the journey is hard and the future is uncertain
- How to conclude moments, days, and seasons and find God’s grace to be enough
- How hope sustains us as we learn to live in this moment and discover the beauty of redemption

The pressure of our piled up past needs to be brought to an end. Instead of vague storylines that stretch “to be continued,” learn to start with the end in mind: To Be Concluded.

audience

- Younger millennial and older gen Z Christians between 20-30 years old
- Individuals who are constantly busy and moving on to the next win
- Purchasers of Mike Ashcraft’s previous book My One Word, and members and attendees of Port City Community Church

marketing highlights

- Mike is the pastor of a large church with several thousand attendees, and his previous book My One Word performed very well
- This topic on bringing seasons to completion resonates with the target audience
- Readers will learn how to conclude moments, days, and seasons, and find God’s grace to be enough

MIKE ASHCRAFT serves as the Senior Pastor at Port City Community Church which he helped start in 1999. He married Julie, his high school sweetheart, in 1992. They grew up in Atlanta and relocated near the beach in southeastern North Carolina. He enjoys family time with his two daughters and one son-in-law. The beach is his happy place and surfing is the only hobby he needs.

The Real Cost of Social Media

Do we use social media, or are we being used by it?

Social media is brilliant and obscene. It sharpens the mind and dulls it. It brings nations together and tears them apart. It perpetuates, reveals, and repairs injustice. It is an untamed beast upon which we can only hope to ride, but never quite corral.

What is it doing to us?

In Terms of Service, Chris Martin brings readers his years of expertise and experience from building online brands, coaching authors and speakers about social media use, and thinking theologically about the effects of social media. As you read this book, you will:

- Learn how social media has come to dominate the role the internet plays in your life
- Learn how the “social internet” affects you in ways you may not realize
- Be equipped to push back against the hold the internet has on your mind and your heart

audience

- Readers who want to discover how social media affects them, often in ways they may not realize, and want to be equipped to push back against the hold social media can have on their minds and hearts
- Readers of books around the intersection of social media, culture, and faith
- Readers who have watched The Social Dilemma and similar documentaries about the effects of social media

marketing highlights

- Chris Martin brings readers his years of expertise and experience from building online brands, coaching authors, and speakers about social media use
- More and more books, movies, podcasts, journalism, and music is coming out about the effects of social media on our lives, showing the rising demand for resources; this book meets those needs from a Christian perspective

CHRIS MARTIN is a content marketing editor at Moody Publishers and a social media, marketing, and communications consultant. He has led social media strategy at Lifeway Christian Resources and advised some of the foremost Christian leaders and authors on digital content strategy. He writes regularly at TermsOfService.social. Chris lives outside Nashville, TN with his wife, Susie, their daughter, Magnolia, and their dog, Rizzo.

What Was I Thinking?

How to Make Better Decisions So You Can Live and Lead with Confidence
DAVID ASHCRAFT & ROB SKACEL

How do you know when the rewards outweigh the risks?

If you want to reach your full potential in life, you can't play it safe. If you're too risk averse, you'll be resigned to a life of mediocrity. But if you risk foolishly, you may destroy your life's work and legacy.

But we can be overwhelmed by the sheer number of decisions we face, and the challenge of weighing the risks and rewards of each. In all this confusion, how can you be sure you won't end up asking yourself, what was I thinking?

In this new book, David Ashcraft, pastor of a large and influential church, and Rob Skacel, licensed psychologist and business leader, encourage readers to embrace risk and to live their lives to the fullest potential, in order to both run and finish the race with no regrets.

Shepherding Like Jesus

Returning to the Wild Idea that Character Matters in Ministry
ANDREW C. HÉBERT

Spiritually bankrupt. Broken. Humble. Hungry. Sympathetic. Pure. Reconciling. Enduring. These are not the words that describe the typical picture of the modern-day successful American pastor, but these are the words Jesus said should characterize the lives of his twelve disciples. In the beatitudes of the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus paints a very clear picture of eight attitudes his disciples should embrace if they expect blessing.

Many modern-day pastors cut a very different image than the biblical picture of a local church shepherd. We are supposed to be dreamers, visionaries, catalysts, ambitious, thought leaders, influencers, motivators, and change agents. Much time is spent crafting and sustaining our image, broadening our reach, and extending our platform. Poor in spirit? Mourning? Humble? Not so much. In many circles, the image of what a pastor is or does looks nothing like the picture Jesus paints for his disciples of the character that marks citizens of his kingdom.

Shepherding Like Jesus is a call to rebel against much of what our culture understands pastoral leadership to be and return to being the shepherd God has called pastors to be. It's an invitation to recover the most essential element of pastoral ministry: the character of Christ.

audience

- Pastors wanting to better understand the character of Christ and how it should guide every aspect of their ministry
- Ministry leaders who are exhausted trying to sustain their own image and status and need a refreshed view on what their call to ministry is really all about
- Accessible for both new and seasoned pastors alike

marketing highlights

- Andrew Hébert confronts the cultural misunderstanding of what "successful" pastoral ministry should look like
- As a senior pastor, Andrew guides leaders away from chasing after anything else in ministry but the character of Christ
- Pastors who have experienced challenges throughout the last year or two will find this book specifically encouraging and helpful as they seek to continue to shepherding their congregations

ANDREW C. HÉBERT is the lead pastor of Paramount Baptist Church in Amarillo, Texas. He holds undergraduate and graduate degrees from Criswell College and a doctoral degree from The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. Andrew and his wife, Amy, have four children: Jenna, Austin, Mackenzie, and Brooklyn.

PRISCILLA SHIRER is a homemade cinnamon-roll baker, Bible teacher, and bestselling author who didn't know her books (The Resolution for Women and Fervent) were on The New York Times Best Seller list until somebody else told her. Because who has time to check such things while raising three rapidly growing sons? When she and Jerry, her husband of twenty-two years, are not busy leading Going Beyond Ministries, they spend most of their time cleaning up after and trying to satisfy the appetites of these guys. And that is what first drove Priscilla to dream up this fictional story about the very un-fictional topic of spiritual warfare—to help raise up a new generation of Prince Warriors under her roof. And under yours.

GINA DETWILER is a mom of three and the author of the Forlorn series, novels about spiritual warfare for teens and young adults. In addition to making up stories, she had the great privilege of writing the biographies of a hundred and fifty Bible characters for The Ultimate Bible Character Guide. Still, working on The Prince Warriors series with Priscilla and the B&H team was one of her greatest joys. Like Priscilla, she hopes to help the next generation of Jesus followers put on the armor of God and stand firm in whatever spiritual battle comes their way. Gina currently lives in Bucks County, Pennsylvania.

Knowing and Loving the Bible

HUNTER BELESS

Have you heard of the special Book God gave to us? If not, this is something that we should discuss! This Book is the Bible. It's timeless and true. It's God's written Word—both for me and for you.

In Hunter Beless's delightfully whimsical picture book, Read It, See It, Say It, Sing It!, multiple diverse families grow in their knowledge of and love for the Bible in four simple ways:

- Reading, or hearing God's Word read aloud
- Seeing, or memorizing Scripture
- Saying, or talking about the Bible together
- Singing, or worshiping God and proclaiming the Gospel

As the characters read, see, say, and sing the Bible, they learn that God uses His Word to speak to us, mature us, help us fight sin, and expand His kingdom. Young readers will understand that as we study, memorize, repeat, and declare Scripture, Jesus is glorified, and our lives are changed forever!

A celebration of the living and active Word of God, Read It, See It, Say It, Sing It! elevates Scripture to the place it belongs in our lives—as the highest and most trustworthy authority. Children will see that by knowing and loving God's Word, we can draw closer to Jesus, the hero of the Bible!

The Magnificent Names of Jesus

A Children’s Guide to Praying to the Savior
JIMMY and SALLY DODD

Names can tell us a great deal about people, and the names of Jesus are no exception. The Gospels alone offer more than one hundred names for Christ, presenting a beautiful picture of Him as our Teacher, King, and Lord. Our Light, our Living Water, and so much more.

The Magnificent Names of Jesus is a unique prayer guide that explores 37 of these memorable names, all to show children the breadth and depth of Christ. Each short chapter spotlights one name and offers a modern-day explanation, Scripture, and name-focused prayer. Written in a welcoming style as a “read to me” / “read with me” book, it can be used as a devotional for children and families, with charming illustrations to further convey the message and meaning behind each name.

As kids learn to pray to Jesus their Shepherd, Jesus their Friend, and dozens more, the experience brings deep heart change both for the children and the loving adults who read with them. Allow this unique guide to shape your children’s faith as they learn and love the magnificent names of Jesus.

You Can Rest

100 Devotions to Calm Your Heart and Mind
KATY BOATMAN

Is your worry wheel spinning out of control?

According to the Anxiety and Depression Association of America, anxiety disorders affect 1 in 8 children. With constant access to technology, news cycles, and social media—and with heightened pressures to perform in all areas of life—kids' brains are simply overwhelmed with worries and fears, and they don't know how to slow down and rest.

Katy Boatman, who has worked with tween girls in ministry for 15 years, tackles this phenomenon head-on in You Can Rest, a 100-day devotional that takes an empathetic and honest approach to the topic of anxiety in the day-to-day. Structured with a Scripture to open, a devotional to ponder, and a prayer to close, each devotion guides readers to reflect on everyday concerns from a biblical and hopeful perspective. Journaling prompts are included every 10 days. You Can Rest addresses relevant topics such as:

- Anxiety about the future
- Making (and keeping) friends
- Getting sick
- Believing God
- Resolving conflict
- Being misunderstood
- Feeling isolated
- Even falling asleep!

Katy is a friendly and comforting voice. She's the mentor on the page, the one who has gone before the reader, wrestled with all of these issues too, and—despite still worrying plenty herself—can testify to the faithfulness of Jesus. She reminds the reader because of Jesus, we can rest, no matter what is going on in our lives. Packed with grace and truth and sprinkled with humor and delight, You Can Rest shows tween girls that their anxieties do not have the final say. Jesus does.

marketing highlights

- Katy's network includes Jennie Allen and Annie F. Downs, both of which shared about this book earlier as Katy developed the idea and are expected to share upon release

Drive-Thru Miracle

DANA EDWARDS

Eleven-year-old Mae Moore is having a horrible birthday week. Her sister, Shelby, just had another seizure on account of her cerebral palsy. The school bully won't leave Mae and her best friend alone. Most of the adults in her life are having money troubles. And then there's her secret—the terrible wish Mae made two years ago—that she can't seem to shake.

Mae needs a miracle, or maybe multiple. But why would God bother to listen to her prayers? Especially when it seems He hasn't listened in the past? Still, when Mae discovers that one of her closest friends also needs divine intervention, Mae just might learn to forgive herself, trust in others, and, by faith, step into that miraculous life she's been longing for.

With plenty of adventure, mischief, and humor to keep readers on their toes, Drive-Thru Miracle is a contemporary middle grade novel that confronts the honest—and sometimes difficult—truths about life with loads of spunk and lots of sincerity. God of Freedom

A Study of Exodus 19–40
JEN WILKIN

Every book of the Bible tells us what is true about God. In Genesis we see Him as Creator and Covenant Maker. In Exodus we see Him as our strong Deliverer who sets us free from sin and death.

In this 10-session study of Exodus 19–40, journey through the story of how God shepherds His newly-liberated children into an understanding of what their freedom means: lives consecrated for service to God and to one another. Revisit familiar scenes of the giving of the Ten Commandments, the idolatrous worship of a golden calf, and of the intricate details of the tabernacle. And with fresh perspective, ask what these stories teach God’s children today about how to live as those set free.

In every page of the Bible, learn to see Christ through the stories of His people. And discover how the God who created you and made a covenant with you will deliver you from death to life, for His name and renown.

How Jesus Transformed Ordinary People into Disciples
LIFEWAY STUDENTS

In this 12-volume series of monthly devotionals, students will gain a deeper biblical understanding of Jesus' presence throughout Scripture and the role He continues to play in our lives today. Students will learn to Discover God's Word, Delight in the Lord, and Display God's work in their lives.

Discover (Identity + Theology): Who is God? Who am I in light of who God is? These are two of the most important questions students can grapple with because in discovering who God is, they learn who He has meant for them to be. Studies within the Discover category will help students align their lives under God's rule which will give them confidence in who they were created to be.

Delight (Spiritual Disciplines): What does it mean to delight in God? What leads to delight in God? Helping students see God in every detail teaches them to delight in Him. When students find their delight in God, they will learn what it means and how to be in relationship with Him.

Display (Leadership, Mission, + Disciple Making): How do students display the glory of God? How do they help others grow in their relationship with Him? How can they lead others to display the truth of God? Through students learning to lead, live on mission, and make disciples, God's glory is on display and His kingdom is expanded.

Spiritual Disciplines Jesus Practiced and Taught
LIFEWAY STUDENTS

These are two of the most important questions students can grapple with because in discovering who God is, they learn who He has meant for them to be. Studies within the Discover category will help students align their lives under God's rule which will give them confidence in who they were created to be.

Delight (Spiritual Disciplines): What does it mean to delight in God? What leads to delight in God? Helping students see God in every detail teaches them to delight in Him. When students find their delight in God, they will learn what it means and how to be in relationship with Him.

Display (Leadership, Mission, + Disciple Making): How do students display the glory of God? How do they help others grow in their relationship with Him? How can they lead others to display the truth of God? Through students learning to lead, live on mission, and make disciples, God's glory is on display and His kingdom is expanded.

The Practice of Preaching to Yourself Through Every Season
RUTH CHOU SIMONS

"Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly." —Colossians 3:16a
Many of us want God's Word to dwell richly in us, but life can get in the way. We'd never intentionally write chapters of confusion, failure, loss, pain, conflict, or suffering into our stories. No one plans to wrestle with her identity in Christ, to struggle to love those most important to her, to feel lonely or helpless. Yet we often find ourselves in these seasons, struggling to embrace the hope we need. Join Ruth Chou Simons in this 7-session study of the Book of Colossians as she leads girls through a practice of preaching gospel truth to themselves by studying Paul's example. In every changing season of life, we can rest in God's character, rehearse our identity in Christ, respond in faith, and remember God's provision for us. In today's culture, there's no shortage of self-help, easy fixes, and worldly advice, but only the truth of God's Word was meant to fill us up and satisfy us fully.

features

- Leader tips to guide questions and discussions within small groups
- Personal study segments to complete between 7 weeks of group sessions
- Beautiful full-color interior to enhance user experience
- Scripture recommendations to help girls preach truth to themselves

Featuring the CHRISTIAN STANDARD BIBLE

Accurate. Readable. Shareable. The Christian Standard Bible is a translation for everyone—a translation you can take to seminary and read to your kids. A translation that new believers can understand and that every believer can return to for lifelong discipleship.

The CSB captures the Bible’s original meaning without sacrificing clarity. It’s an optimal blend of accuracy and readability—in the many places throughout Scripture where a word-for-word rendering is clearly understandable, a literal translation is used. When a word-for-word rendering might obscure the meaning for a modern audience, a more dynamic translation is used.

The result is a translation that communicates both the words and the thoughts of the original text clearly and accurately to today’s readers. A translation pastors can preach from and one you can share with your neighbor hearing God’s Word for the very first time.

MILLIONS HAVE BEEN IMPACTED BY THE FELLOWSHIP OF CHRISTIAN ATHLETES. MILLIONS MORE TO COME.

THE E3 DISCIPLESHIP BIBLE IS DESIGNED TO DRAW THEM TOGETHER IN THEIR PURSUIT OF GOD.

GENESIS 2:1

EVE: CHARACTER SPOTLIGHT

Forgiven. Created by God and taken from the flesh and bone of her husband Adam, Eve was the first wife and first mother. While she gave in to the temptation of Satan in the garden and disobeyed God, she was redeemed by the kind and loving heart of the Father in the aftermath of her and her husband's sin.

2 So the heavens and the earth and everything in them were completed. ³On the seventh^a day God had completed his work that he had done, and he rested^b on the seventh day from all his work that he had done. ⁴God blessed the seventh day and declared it holy, for on it he rested from all his work of creation.

MAN AND WOMAN IN THE GARDEN

⁴These are the records of the heavens and the earth, concerning their creation. At the time^c that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens, ⁵no shrub of the field had yet grown on the land,^d and no plant of the field had yet sprouted, for the LORD God had not made it rain on the land, and there was no man to work the ground. ⁶But mist would come up from the earth and water all the ground. ⁷Then the LORD God formed the man out of the dust from the ground and breathed the breath of life into his nostrils, and the man became a living being.

^a2:2 Sam. LXX, Syr read sixth. ^b2:2 Or ceased, also in v. 3. ^c2:4 Lit creation on the day. ^d2:5 Or earth. ^e2:10 Or goes. ^f2:10 Lit became four heads. ^g2:11 Or of the Havilah. ^h2:12 Lit good. ⁱ2:12 A yellowish, transparent gum resin. ^j2:12 Identity of this precious stone uncertain.

^{2:1} This verse serves as a complement to 1:1. Together, the two set the first six days of creation apart from the sacred seventh day. ^{2:2} This is the first use of the number seven in the Bible, a number that will play an especially significant role in the religious and social life of ancient Israel (4:15, 7:2-4, 16, 21:28-31, 25:18-20). On the seventh day God rested, thus setting an example for people—who are made in His image—to follow (Ex 20:8-11; Dt 5:13-14). Though God rested from all his work that he had done, this is not to say that God has abandoned the universe. In the NT, Jesus affirmed that God is still at work in the world, even on the Sabbath (Jn 5:16-17). Also, God's "rest" does not imply that He was tired. It literally means "cease" and implies only that His creative work was complete. ^{2:3} This is the only instance during the creation process when God blessed a unit of time. The term holy is applied in the Bible to something set aside for service to God. ^{2:4} The Hebrew word toledoth, translated here as records, is used eleven times in the book of Genesis to introduce new units of material (5:1, 6:9, 10:1; 11:10, 27, 25:12, 19, 36:1, 9, 37:2). Here it introduces a detailed elaboration of some key aspects of the creation account that opens the book of Genesis (1:1-2:3). Special emphasis is placed on the events of day six. Verse 4 includes the first use of God's personal name, rendered in English as the LORD, but the pre-used noun in the OT. The Hebrew spelling is ⁸The LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and there he placed the man he had formed. ⁹The LORD God caused to grow out of the ground every tree pleasing in appearance and good for food, including the tree of life in the middle of the garden, as well as the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. ¹⁰A river went^a out from Eden to water the garden. From there it divided and became the source of four rivers. ¹¹The name of the first is Pishon, which flows through the entire land of Havilah,^b where there is gold. ¹²Gold from that land is pure; bdellium^c and onyx^d are also there. ¹³The name of the second river is Gihon, which flows through the entire land of Cush. ¹⁴The name of the third river is Tigris, which runs east of Assyria. And the fourth river is the Euphrates.

¹⁵The LORD God took the man and placed him in the garden of Eden to work it and watch over it. ¹⁶And the LORD God commanded the man, "You are free to eat from any tree of the garden,"^e but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for on the day you eat from it, you will certainly die." ¹⁸Then the LORD God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper corresponding to him." ¹⁹The LORD God formed out of the ground every wild animal and every bird of the sky, and brought each to the man to see what he would call it. And whatever the man called a living creature, that was its name. ²⁰The man gave names to all the livestock, to the birds of the sky, and to every wild animal; but for the man^f no helper was found corresponding to him. ²¹So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to come over the man, and he slept. God took one of his ribs and closed the flesh at that place. ²²Then the LORD God made the rib he had taken from the man into a woman and brought her to the man. ²³And the man said:

^a2:2 Sam. LXX, Syr read sixth. ^b2:2 Or ceased, also in v. 3. ^c2:4 Lit creation on the day. ^d2:5 Or earth. ^e2:10 Or goes. ^f2:10 Lit became four heads. ^g2:11 Or of the Havilah. ^h2:12 Lit good. ⁱ2:12 A yellowish, transparent gum resin. ^j2:12 Identity of this precious stone uncertain.

WARM-UP: Read Genesis 3:1-24

WORKOUT: How did God's questions (vv. 9,11) give Adam the opportunity to confess his sin and repent? What does this demonstrate about God's grace and forgiveness?

WRAP-UP: What was Adam's sin, according to God (v. 17)? To whom do you sometimes listen instead of God?

living creature, that was its name. ²⁰The man gave names to all the livestock, to the birds of the sky, and to every wild animal; but for the man^f no helper was found corresponding to him. ²¹So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to come over the man, and he slept. God took one of his ribs and closed the flesh at that place. ²²Then the LORD God made the rib he had taken from the man into a woman and brought her to the man. ²³And the man said:

This one, at last, is bone of my bone and flesh of my flesh; this one will be called "woman," for she was taken from man.

²⁴This is why a man leaves his father and mother and bonds with his wife, and they become one flesh. ²⁵Both the man and his wife were naked, yet felt no shame.

^a2:20 Or for Adam. ^b3:5 Lit on the day. ^c3:8 Lit at the wind of the day. ^d3:10 Lit the sound of you

^{2:19} Like man, animals were formed out of the ground, but they received neither the breath of life from God (v. 7) nor the image of God. By giving names to the animals, Adam showed that he ruled the animals and that he perceived the nature of each animal. ^{2:21} Because God took one of his ribs to use as His raw material, the woman would correspond perfectly—though not identically—to Adam. Like Adam, the woman possessed God's image. ^{2:22-23} Adam's first recorded words express his delight with God's handiwork and his recognition of the unique suitability of God's last recorded acts in the creation accounts. As with no other work of divine craftsmanship, this one was singularly suited for the man, being bone of his bone and flesh of his flesh. Adam viewed her as his equal. The Hebrew term ishah, woman, identifies her as the feminine complement to ish, the man. ^{2:24} God's timeless design for marriage with a need to relate to one corresponding to him, and now God will meet that need.

THE TEMPTATION AND THE FALL

3 Now the serpent was the most cunning of all the wild animals that the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, "Did God really say, 'You can't eat from any tree in the garden?'"

²The woman said to the serpent, "We may eat the fruit from the trees in the garden. ³But about the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden, God said, 'You must not eat it or touch it, or you will die.'"

⁴"No! You will certainly not die," the serpent said to the woman. ⁵"In fact, God knows that when^a you eat it your eyes will be opened and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." ⁶The woman saw that the tree was good for food and delightful to look at, and that it was desirable for obtaining wisdom. So she took some of its fruit and ate it; she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. ⁷Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.

SIN'S CONSEQUENCES

⁸Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze,^b and they hid from the LORD God among the trees of the garden. ⁹So the LORD God called out to the man and said to him, "Where are you?"

¹⁰And he said, "I heard you" in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid."

¹¹Then he asked, "Who told you that you were naked? Did you eat from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?"

¹²The man replied, "The woman you gave to be with me — she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate."

^a2:20 Or for Adam. ^b3:5 Lit on the day. ^c3:8 Lit at the wind of the day. ^d3:10 Lit the sound of you

cludes a husband and wife coming together in spiritual, mental, and emotional harmony. ^{2:25} Because the devastating effects of sin had not yet ravaged nature or humanity, there was no need for clothing. ^{3:1} Though we know the serpent was an instrument of Satan (Rm 16:20; Rv 12:9; 20:2), it was just a created being. Its description as cunning suggests it offered a wisdom not based on the fear of God. ^{3:2-3} The woman's claim that God said, "You must not . . . touch the tree, or you will die," goes beyond anything recorded in God's instructions to Adam. Therefore it seems that Adam had given his wife an additional command beyond what God said, or else Eve herself exaggerated the command as Satan tempted her to view God as selfish and overly restrictive. ^{3:4-5} The serpent boldly contradicted what she had reported to be God's command. He then skillfully lied (Jn 8:44) by distorting God's word (Mt 4:6), implying that God had prohibited people from eating the fruit only to keep them from becoming as knowledgeable as He. ^{3:6} Since the woman did not die when she touched the fruit—in contradiction to what she had thought God said (v. 3)—she ate it. Though Adam was with her at the time, he did nothing to stop her. ^{3:7-8} As the serpent had indicated, the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew, but instead of producing godlike power, the knowledge brought only a sense of human inadequacy, fear, and shame. ^{3:9} God took the initiative in reaching out to sinful humanity. The all-knowing God asked Adam, Where are you? for Adam's benefit, to encourage Adam to face his sin. ^{3:11} Through the use of two direct questions God brought Adam to accountability for his sin. ^{3:12} Adam answered neither of God's questions; instead, he sought to shift the blame for his sin first to the woman, and then to God.

Years later, our mission is the same: we work to excite women about engaging in Scripture by creating beautiful and intentional tools for their lives. We make beautiful Bibles, journals, and other lovely things because we believe they can be used to draw us closer to our Creator, and that's what we're all about.

JOHN 1 1388 Behold the Lamb of God

²³ He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias.

²⁴ And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

²⁵ And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?

²⁶ John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

²⁷ He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

²⁸ These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

²⁹ ¶ The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.

³⁰ This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

³¹ And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

³² And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

³³ And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

³⁴ And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

³⁵ ¶ Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples;

³⁶ And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!

³⁷ And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

³⁸ Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest thou?

³⁹ He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.

⁴⁰ One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.

⁴¹ He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ.

⁴² And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone.

⁴³ ¶ The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

⁴⁴ Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

⁴⁵ Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

⁴⁶ And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

Jesus Cleanses the Temple 1389 JOHN 1-2

⁴⁷ Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!

⁴⁸ Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.

⁴⁹ Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel.

⁵⁰ Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

⁵¹ And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

² And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there:

³ And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

⁴ And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

⁵ Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come.

⁶ His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

⁷ And there were set there six waterpots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

⁸ Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

⁹ And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

¹⁰ When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

¹¹ And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine: and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

¹² This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

¹³ ¶ After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

¹⁴ ¶ And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,

¹⁵ And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:

¹⁶ And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

¹⁷ And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise.

Sections are devoted to its core commitments, historical issues, biblical and theological issues, and ministry issues, providing a wide-ranging assessment of Calvinism's foundations and implications.

Orthodoxy

With annotations and guided reading by Trevin Wax
TREVIN WAX

Catholics and Protestants alike have long appreciated Chesterton’s Orthodoxy as a classic work of apologetics. It is his recounting of his quest to found a new religion, a philosophy of life that would include everything that makes most sense of the world, only to discover at the end of his journey that the religion and its philosophy already exist. It is Christianity. However, due to the temporal and cultural difference between us and Chesterton in 1908, much of the book is not easy to understand upon first (or second) reading. This version of Orthodoxy (with annotations and guided reading) will make Chesterton’s classic more accessible for the first-time reader and will also provide enjoyment for the person who has enjoyed Orthodoxy for many years.

audience

- First time readers of Chesterton looking to read his works
- Long time fans of Chesterton works looking to expand their knowledge

marketing highlights

- Characteristically long paragraph writing has been broken up and includes headings to understand Chesterton’s thought flow
- Spelling has been updated to modern usage
- Annotations have been added throughout to give more detail on people, events, and Scripture references throughout the work

TREVIN WAX (PhD, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary) is general editor of The Gospel Project, theology advisor at LifeWay Christian Resources, and a visiting professor at Wheaton College. He is the author of multiple books, including Rethink Your Self, This Is Our Time, Eschatological Discipleship, and Gospel Centered Teaching.

Logic and the Way of Jesus

How to Think Critically and Christianly
TRAVIS DICKINSON

Logic and the Way of Jesus argues that Christians have failed to engage the culture deeply because they have failed to emphasize and value a Christian intellect. In part one, Dickinson recaptures the need for a Christian worldview, highlighting the use of reason, logic, and evidence to develop and defend Christian beliefs. Part two highlights the way Jesus was an intellectual thinker and employed logic in his teachings. Part three surveys the basic concepts of logic and part four marries those concepts with practical application. The major claim of Dickinson’s work is that if we embrace the life of the Christian mind, we can impact this world for the cause and kingdom of Christ.

audience

- Professors and students of logic and apologetics courses
- Ministry leaders interested in the topic of logic and how it relates to apologetics

marketing highlights

- Hybrid book dealing with both topics of logic and apologetics
- Takes great care at showing how Jesus was an intellectual
- Focus on the link between the Christian mind and evangelism

TRAVIS DICKINSON (PhD, University of Iowa) is associate professor of philosophy and Christian apologetics at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

RVR1960 CENTERED IN CHRIST DEVOTIONAL BIBLE
FOR WOMEN

We know Luke's account of the Messiah being born in a manger in Bethlehem, but did you know that prophecies about Jesus are also found throughout the Old Testament? Patricia Namnún and Cathy Scheraldi de Núñez, along with their team of Latin American women, have created a beautiful, year-long journey for women for diving into Scripture and seeing Jesus in every book of the Bible. From the Garden of Eden to eternity, this Bible will provide women with tools, knowledge, and wisdom for continuing on their walk with Christ.

Conocemos el relato del Mesías, que nació en un pesebre en Belén, pero ¿sabías que podemos encontrar las profecías sobre Jesús en todo el Antiguo Testamento? Patricia Namnún y Cathy Scheraldi de Núñez junto a un equipo de mujeres latinas, han creado un hermoso viaje de un año para mujeres, para que se sumerjan en las Escrituras y puedan ver a Jesús en cada uno de los libros de la Biblia. Desde el jardín del Edén hasta la eternidad, esta Biblia entrega herramientas, conocimientos y sabiduría para que continúen su caminar junto a Cristo.

CATHERINE SCHERALDI DE NÚÑEZ

That God uses women to accomplish his sovereign purposes is universally affirmed. However, the way and where God uses them has been highly contested in our modern times. Does the Bible speak of women in leadership? This book explores the Scriptures with the aim of helping readers understand what it means to have an effective, and biblical women's ministry in the local church. From training to discipling, evangelizing and reaching out to the poor and needy, a ministry for women led by women will generate great benefits to the life of a church. This book, written by seasoned ministry leaders, provides insights for how to build a women's ministry biblically, faithfully, and fruitful.

Escoge tus batallas

El caso del triaje teológico
FINDING THE RIGHT HILLS TO DIE ON GAVIN ORTLUND

In theology, just as in battle, some hills are worth dying on and others are not. But how do we know which ones? When should doctrine divide, and when should unity prevail? Just as a medic on a battlefield treats the severely wounded first and then moves on to the less serious injuries, we must prioritize doctrine in order of importance. Pastor Gavin Ortlund implores us to cultivate humility as we prioritize doctrine into four ranks—essential, urgent, important, and unimportant—so that we will be as effective as possible at advancing the gospel in our time.

En la teología, como en las batallas, vale la pena morir en algunas montañas, y en otras no. ¿Cómo podemos saber en cuáles vale la pena morir? ¿Cuándo debe causar divisiones la doctrina, y cuándo debe prevalecer la unidad? Así como en el campo de batalla los médicos atienden a los más lastimados primero y después atienden las heridas menos urgentes, debemos priorizar la doctrina por orden de importancia. El pastor Gavin Ortlund nos implora que cultivemos la humildad al priorizar la doctrina en cuatro categorías: esencial, urgente, importante y sin importancia, y así poder ser efectivos en el avance del evangelio.

Espiritual y conectado

Cómo usar y entender las redes sociales con sabiduría bíblica
SPIRITUAL AND CONNECTED
JOSUÉ BARRIOS

Our modern day is filled with contradictions. Think of it like this, “never more connected, yet more distant than ever. So many tools for efficiency, yet more distracted than ever before.” One of the main places where this is true is social media where the promise of connection has delivered more solitude and anxiety. This book will help us engage our current day without compromising our spiritual health and our devotion to God.

Nuestra vida hoy en día está llena de contradicciones. Piense esto: “Más conectados y al mismo tiempo más distantes que nunca. Muchas herramientas para ser eficientes, y al mismo tiempo más distraídos que nunca antes”. Uno de los lugares donde esto sucede es en las redes sociales, donde la promesa de la conectividad ha provocado soledad y ansiedad. Este libro nos ayudará a envolvernos en nuestro día actual sin comprometer nuestra salud espiritual y nuestra devoción a Dios.

¡Oye, hijo mío!

Una guía práctica para criar a tus hijos en el Señor
LISTEN, MY SON!
DR. JUAN SANCHEZ

Parenting is hard work. Think about this: before you had children, you probably had hopes and dreams about how you would parent and how your children would turn out. One thing was certain! You were NOT going to parent like your parents. You weren't going to make the same mistakes they made raising you. Then, it happened. YOU became a parent. Very quickly, those hopes and dreams began to dissipate. At some point, you may even have questioned having children. In this book, Juan and Jeanine Sanchez share biblical principles that have helped them to raise their five daughters. While many have attempted to provide a comprehensive guide on how to raise children, this book speaks of ancient truths that will guide you in your parenting.

La paternidad es un trabajo arduo. Piense esto: antes de tener hijos, usted probablemente tenía ilusiones y sueños sobre cómo criar a sus hijos y cómo serían ellos al crecer. Pero de algo estaba seguro, ¡usted no criaría a sus hijos como lo hicieron sus padres! No cometería los mismos errores que ellos cometieron. Luego, sucedió. Usted se convirtió en padre. Rápidamente esas ilusiones y sueños comenzaron a disiparse. En algún punto, usted quizás hasta cuestionó el tener hijos o no. En este libro, Juan y Jeanine Sanchez comparten principios bíblicos que les han ayudado a criar a sus cinco hijas. Aunque muchos han intentado proveer una guía exhaustiva de cómo criar a los hijos, este libro habla sobre verdades antiguas que lo guiarán en su crianza.

El origen y el triunfo del ego moderno

THE RISE AND TRIUMPH OF THE MODERN SELF
CARL R. TRUEMAN

Modern culture is obsessed with identity. Since the landmark Obergefell v. Hodges Supreme Court decision in 2015, sexual identity has dominated both public discourse and cultural trends—yet no historical phenomenon is its own cause. From Augustine to Marx, various views and perspectives have contributed to the modern understanding of the self. Carl Trueman analyzes the development of the sexual revolution as a symptom—rather than the cause—of the human search for identity. Trueman surveys the past, brings clarity to the present, and gives guidance for the future as Christians navigate the culture in humanity's ever-changing quest for identity.

La cultura moderna está obsesionada con la identidad. Desde la decisión del tribunal en el caso Obergefell vs. Hodges en 2015, la identidad sexual ha dominado el discurso público y las tendencias culturales, aunque ningún fenómeno histórico es su propia causa. Desde Agustín hasta Marx, diversos puntos de vista y perspectivas han contribuido al entendimiento moderno del ser. Carl Trueman analiza el desarrollo de la revolución sexual como un síntoma (y no una causa) de la búsqueda de la identidad. Trueman estudia el pasado, trae claridad al presente y da guía para el futuro, mientras los cristianos navegan la cultura en la búsqueda siempre cambiante del ser humano por la identidad.

THE PROMISES OF GOD STORYBOOK BIBLE
JENNIFER LYELL

With more than 700 definitions for theological words and phrases from God's love is unstoppable. And that's a promise. Noah's ark. Joseph's dreams. Jesus's miracles. The Bible is rich with stories for our children to hear and enjoy, but when those stories uncover the thread of God's promises, our children learn much more than individual Bible stories. They discover how God has demonstrated His love for us, from the first promise in the garden to the promise of the new heavens and earth.

El amor de Dios no tiene límite. El arca de Noé, los sueños de José, los milagros de Jesús... La Biblia está llena de historias que nuestros hijos pueden escuchar y disfrutar, pero cuando esas historias dejan al descubierto el hilo de las promesas de Dios, nuestros hijos aprenden mucho más que solo historias Bíblicas individuales. Ellos descubren cómo Dios ha demostrado Su amor por nosotros, desde la primera promesa en el jardín hasta la promesa de un cielo nuevo y una tierra nueva.
