Featuring the CHRISTIAN STANDARD BIBLE

Accurate. Readable. Shareable. The Christian Standard Bible is a translation for everyone—a translation you can take to seminary and read to your kids. A translation that new believers can understand and that every believer can return to for lifelong discipleship.

The CSB captures the Bible's original meaning without sacrificing clarity. It's an optimal blend of accuracy and readability; in the many places throughout Scripture where a word-for-word rendering is clearly understandable, a literal translation is used. When a word-for-word rendering might obscure the meaning for a modern audience, a more dynamic translation is used.

The result is a translation that communicates both the words and the thoughts of the original text clearly and accurately to today's readers. It's a translation pastors can preach from and one you can share with your neighbor hearing God's Word for the very first time.

HOSANNA

NOTETAKING BIBLE

Hosanna Revival was created on the belief that as people of a broken and boring life, we are in desperate need of revival. When something is new and beautiful, it can become fun, exciting, and yours. For that reason, our founder, Katie, began re-binding and hand-painting beautiful Bibles in 2015. Years later, our mission is the same: we work to excite women about engaging in Scripture by creating beautiful and intentional tools for their lives. We make beautiful Bibles, journals, and other lovely things because we believe they can be used to draw us closer to our Creator, and that's what we're all about.

CREATION OUT OF NOTHING

ARTICLE

Some theologians today reject that God created the universe out of nothing because they do not see any one verse in Scripture that explicitly teaches this doctrine. Augustine, however, shows in the following excerpt (Confessions 11.5) that it is a logical inference from Genesis 1:1. He prays his thoughts and asks God how he could create the heavens and the earth, and he concludes that God made everything not by fashioning preexistent matter into the heavens and the earth but by speaking them into existence out of nothing.

ow did you make the heaven and the earth, and what was the tool of such a mighty work as yours? For it was not like a human worker fashioning body from body, according to the fancy of his mind, able somehow or other to impose on it a form which the mind perceived in itself by its inner eye (yet how should even he be able to do this, if you had not made that mind?). He imposes the form on something already existing and having some sort of being, such as clay, or stone or wood or gold or such like (and where would these things come from if you had not furnished them?). or such like (and where would these things come from it you had not turnished them?). For you made his body for the artisan, and you made the mind which directs the limbs. You made the matter from which he makes anything. You created the capacity by which he understands his art and sees within his mind what he may do with the things before him. You gave him his bodily sense by which, as if he had an interpreter, he may communicate from mind to matter what he proposes to do and report back to his mind what has been done, that the mind may consult with the Truth which presides over it as to whether what is done is well done.

All these things praise you, the Creator of them all. But how did you make them? How O God, did you make the heaven and earth? For truly, neither in heaven nor on earth did you make heaven and earth—nor in the air nor in the waters, since all of these also belong to the heaven and the earth. Nowhere in the whole world did you make the whole belong to the neaven and the earth. Nowmere in the whole world did not hold any our make the whole world, because there was no place where it could be made before it was made. And you did not hold anything in your hand from which to fashion the heaven and the earth, for where could you have gotten what you had not made in order to make something with it? Is there, indeed, anything at all except because you are? Thus you spoke, and they were made, and by thy Word you made them all.

RUTH 1-2

For wherever you go, I will go, and wherever you live, I will live; your people will be my people, and your God will be my God. 17 Where you die, I will die and there I will be buried May the LORD punish me, and do so severely

if anything but death separates you and me.

18 When Naomi saw that Ruth was determined to go with her, she stopped talking to her.

The two of them traveled until they came to Bethlehem. When they entered Bethlehem, the whole town was excited about their arrival<sup>8</sup> and the local women exclaimed, "Can this be Naomi?"

20 "Don't call me Naomi. Call me Mara," she answered, "for the Almighty has made me very bitter. 21 I went away full, but the LORD has brought me back empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since the LORD has opposed ome, and the Almighty has afflicted me?"

22 So Naomi came back from the territory of Moab with her daughter-inlaw Ruth the Moabitess. They arrived in Bethlehem at the beginning of the barley harvest.

RUTH AND BOAZ MEET

2 Now Naomi had a relative on her husband's side. He was a prominent man of noble character from Elimelech's family. His name was Boaz.
<sup>2</sup> Ruth the Moabitess asked Naomi, "Will you let me go into the fields and gather fallen grain behind someone with whom I find favor?"

Naomi answered her, "Go ahead, my daughter." 3 So Ruth left and entered the field to gather grain behind the harvesters. She happened to be in the portion of the field belonging to Boaz, who was from Elimelech's family.

<sup>4</sup> Later, when Boaz arrived from Bethlehem, he said to the harvesters, "The Lord be with you."

"The LORD bless you," they replied

<sup>5</sup>Boaz asked his servant who was in charge of the harvesters, "Whose young woman is this?"

<sup>6</sup>The servant answered, "She is the young Moabite woman who returned with Naomi from the territory of Moab. She asked, Will you let me gather fallen grain among the bundles behind the harvesters? She came and has been on her feet since early morning, except that she rested a little in the shelter."

*Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Listen, my daughter." Don't go and gather grain in another field, and don't leave this one, but stay here close to my female

She fell facedown, bowed to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found favor with you, so that you notice me, although I am a foreigner?

<sup>11</sup>Boaz answered her, "Everything you have done for your mother-in-law since your husband's death has been fully reported to me; how you left your father and mother and your native land, and how you came to a people you didn't previously know. 12 May the Lord reward you for what you have done, and may you receive a full reward from the LORD God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge."

13 "My lord," she said, "I have found favor with you, for you have comforted and encouraged your servant, although I am not like one of your female servants."

14 At mealtime Boaz told her, "Come over here and have some bread and dip it in the vinegar sauce." So she sat beside the harvesters, and he offered her roasted grain. She ate and was satisfied and had some left over.

15 When she got up to gather grain, Boaz ordered his young men, "Let her even gather grain among the bundles, and don't humiliate her. <sup>16</sup> Pull out some stalks from the bundles for her and leave them for her to gather. Don't rebuke her." <sup>17</sup> So Ruth gathered grain in the field until evening. She beat out what she had gatherred, and it was about twenty-six quarts of barley. When picked up the grain and went into the town, where her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. She brought out what she had left over from her meal and gave it to her.

<sup>19</sup> Her mother-in-law said to her, "Where did you gather barley today, and where did you work? May the Lord bless the man who noticed you." Ruth told her mother-in-law whom she had worked with and said, "The name of the man I worked with today is Boaz."

<sup>20</sup>Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "May the Lord bless him because he has not abandoned his kindness to the living or the dead." Naomi continued. "The man is a close relative. He is one of our family redeemers."

21 Ruth the Moabitess said, "He also told me, 'Stay with my young men until they have finished all of my harvest.'

22 So Naomi said to her daughter-in-law Ruth, "My daughter, it is good for you to work" with his female servants, so that nothing will happen to you in another field." 23 Ruth stayed close to Boaz's female servants and gathered grain until the barley and the wheat harvests were finished. And she lived with  $^\epsilon$  her mother-in-law.

3 Ruth's mother-in-law Naomi said to her, "My daughter, shouldn't I find rest for you, so that you will be taken care of? 2 Now isn't Boaz our relative? Haven't you been working with his female servants? This evening he

Prologue

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. <sup>3</sup> He was with God in the beginning.
<sup>3</sup> All things were created through him, and apart from him not one thing was created that has been created. <sup>4</sup>In him was life, and that life was the light of men. <sup>5</sup>That light shines in the darkness, and yet the darkness did not overcome it.

<sup>6</sup>There was a man sent from God whose name was John. <sup>7</sup>He came as a witness to testify about the light, so that all might believe through him. 8 He was not the light, but he came to testify about the light. <sup>9</sup> The true light that gives light to everyone was coming into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was created through "The was in the worth, and the worth was treated through him, and yet the world did not recognize him." He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. "But to all who did receive him, he gave them the right to be children of God, to those who believe in his name," who were born, not of natural descent, or of the will of the flesh, or of the will of man, but of God.

<sup>14</sup>The Word became flesh and dwelt among us. We observed his glory, the glory as the one and only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. 15 (John testified concerning him and exclaimed, "This was the one of whom I said, "The one coming after me ranks ahead of me, because he existed before me.")

16 Indeed, we have all received grace upon grace from his fullness, <sup>17</sup> for the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. <sup>18</sup> No one has ever seen God. The one and only Son, who is himself God and is at the Father's side—he has revealed him.

John the Baptist's Testimony

<sup>19</sup>This was John's testimony when the Jews from Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to ask him, "Who are you?"

CSB Day-by-Day Chronological Bible

GUIDED BY GEORGE GUTHRIE

Many people are unfamiliar with the stories of the Bible and how they fit together into the grand narrative of God's Word. God gave us the Bible to reveal great truth about himself and about our lives, and he wants to draw us into the ongoing story of what he is doing in the world. The CSB Day-by-Day Chronological Bible features a clear narrative approach to the Bible, arranging the complete text into a fresh chronological reading plan with daily readings guided by Dr. George Guthrie.

In this plan, the books, chapters, and verses of the Bible are thoughtfully arranged so readers can track the story of Scripture, day-by-day, from beginning to end, understanding the flow of events and how the grand narrative of Scripture applies to everyday life. Unlike other chronological Bibles, this arrangement is not date specific (e.g. "January 1"), so the reading plan can begin at any point in the calendar year.

FEATURES

- 52 weeks of readings (six readings per week) in chronological order
- Scripture presented in three main acts (God's Plan for All People; God's Covenant People; God's New Covenant People) and seventeen total scenes

- Single-column text with plenty of space for taking notes
- · Smyth-sewn binding
- · Presentation page
- Full-color maps

Psalms in 30 Days, CSB Edition

GENERAL EDITOR TREVIN WAX

Across the generations, many Christians have made a habit of praying monthly through all 150 psalms—the biblical songs that undergird much of our corporate worship and individual devotion. Over thousands of years of memorization, recitation, and singing, the people of God have found in the Psalms a God-centered view of reality that speaks to all our joys, trials, times of suffering, and experiences of faith and doubt.

In Psalms in 30 Days, author and teacher Trevin Wax has adapted a centuries-old approach to reading the Psalms by providing a "Morning," "Midday" and "Evening" pattern, following the Scriptural precedent for praying three times a day. This journey through the Psalms features other songs from the Bible, confessions of faith, and written prayers from faithful Christians who have gone before us. Here is a guide to praying through the Psalms each month by lifting our eyes, three times a day, to see and experience the goodness and faithfulness of God in the midst of all things.

Psalms in 30 Days features the highly readable, highly reliable text of the Christian Standard Bible® (CSB). The CSB stays as literal as possible to the Bible's original meaning without sacrificing clarity, making it easier to engage with Scripture's lifetransforming message and to share it with others.

For wherever you go. I will go. your people will be my people, and your God will be my God. Where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried.

May the LORD punish me, A and do so severely,

if anything but death separates you and me.

18 When Naomi saw that Ruth was determined to go with her, she stopped talking to her.

20 "Don't call me Naomi, Call me Mara," she answered, "for the Almighty has made me very bitter. <sup>21</sup>I went away full, but the LORD has brought me back empty. Why do you call me Naomi, since the LORD has opposed me, and the Almighty has afflicted me?"

RUTH AND BOAZ MEET

2 Now Naomi had a relative on her husband's side. He was a prominent man of noble character from Elimelech's family. His name was Boaz.

 $^2\,\rm Ruth$  the Moabitess asked Naomi, "Will you let me go into the fields and gather fallen grain behind someone with whom I find favor?"

mi answered her, "Go ahead, my daughter." 3 So Ruth left and entered the field to gather grain behind the harvesters. She happened to be in the portion of the field belonging to Boaz, who was from Elimelech's family.

<sup>4</sup> Later, when Boaz arrived from Bethlehem, he said to the harvesters, "The LORD be with you."

"The LORD bless you," they replied.

5 Boaz asked his servant who was in charge of the harvesters, "Whose young woman is this?"

The servant answered, "She is the young Moabite woman who returned with Naomi from the territory of Moab. 7 She asked, 'Will you let me gather fallen grain among the bundles behind the harvesters?' She came and has been on her feet since early morning, except that she rested a little in the shelter."

<sup>8</sup>Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Listen, my daughter." Don't go and gather grain in another field, and don't leave this one, but stay here close to my female

<sup>10</sup> She fell facedown, bowed to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I und favor with you, so that you notice me, although I am a foreigner?"

Boaz answered her, "Everything you have done for your mother-in-law since your husband's death has been fully reported to me: how you left your father and mother and your native land, and how you came to a people you didn't previously know. 12 May the Lord reward you for what you have done, and may you receive a full reward from the LORD God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge."

13 "My lord," she said, "I have found favor with you, for you have comforted and encouraged <sup>8</sup> your servant, although I am not like one of your female

14 At mealtime Boaz told her "Come over here and have some bread and dip it in the vinegar sauce." So she sat beside the harvesters, and he offered her roasted grain. She ate and was satisfied and had some left over

<sup>15</sup> When she got up to gather grain, Boaz ordered his young men, "Let her even gather grain among the bundles, and don't humiliate her. <sup>16</sup> Pull out some stalks from the bundles for her and leave them for her to gather. Don't rebuke her.  $^{77}$  So Ruth gathered grain in the field until evening. She beat out what she had gathered, and it was about twenty-six quarts  $^c$  of barley.  $^{18}$  She picked up the grain and went into the town, where her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned.

She brought out what she had left over from her meal and gave it to her.

19 Her mother-in-law said to her, "Where did you gather barley today, and where did you work? May the LORD bless the man who noticed you.

Ruth told her mother-in-law whom she had worked with and said, "The name of the man I worked with today is Boaz.'

<sup>20</sup>Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "May the Lord bless him because he has not abandoned his kindness to the living or the dead." Naomi continued. "The man is a close relative. He is one of our family redeemers."

 $^{21}$  Ruth the Moabitess said, "He also told me, 'Stay with my young men until they have finished all of my harvest.' "

22 So Naomi said to her daughter-in-law Ruth. "My daughter, it is good for you to work° with his female servants, so that nothing will happen to you in another field." <sup>23</sup> Ruth stayed close to Boaz's female servants and gathered grain until the barley and the wheat harvests were finished. And she lived vith<sup>e</sup> her mother-in-law.

3 Ruth's mother-in-law Naomi said to her, "My daughter, shouldn't I find rest for you, so that you will be taken care of? <sup>2</sup> Now isn't Boaz our relative? Haven't you been working with his female servants? This evening he

Holman Illustrated Guide to Biblical Geography

Reading the Land PAUL H. WRIGHT

The Holman Illustrated Guide to Biblical Geography includes more than 200 images and over fifty maps to provide a coherent and meaningful set of pegs on which to hang the events that march across the biblical stage. For many Bible readers (and teachers), one king, one battle, one story often blurs into the next. A geographical grid provides an objective structure to make sense of the biblical narrative. Historical and cultural geography give hue and texture to what are sometimes seen as rather flat, black-and-white pages of the biblical text.

Chapters include:

- · Exploring the World of the Bible
- Building Blocks of Biblical Geography
- The Land of Ancient Israel: The Southern Regions (Judah/Judea)
- The Land of Ancient Israel: The Central Regions (Israel/Samaria)
- The Land of Ancient Israel: The Northern Regions (Galilee)
- Transjordan
- Afterword: Geography of the Heart

Biblical geography has great apologetic value. The biblical writers had to be accurate when presenting geographical material. Unlike some matters of history and doctrine, their assertions about the realities of landforms and climate, or about the relation of one city to another, or about the use of strategic routes could easily be verified both by their first readers as well as by contemporary readers. Verifiable geographic information provides a solid foundation on which to place and evaluate the veracity of other truth claims in the biblical text.

MARKETING HIGHLIGHTS

- A unique experience of the Biblical landscape and the places and events readers have encountered in the Bible
- One of the few resources to include a wealth of real-life photography from the Holy Land
- Easily accessible to a wide variety of people hoping to experience the Bible in a new way

PAUL H. WRIGHT is president of Jerusalem University College — Institute of Holy Land Studies, in Jerusalem, Israel. Born in the rich farmland of Illinois to a long line of farmers, teachers, and Bible readers, Paul has an inborn appreciation of how geography has shaped the biblical text. He and his wife Diane have lived in Jerusalem for twenty-five years, where he has taught biblical historical geography, on-site, to thousands of students, helping them come alive to the Bible. Paul received a Ph.D. in Bible and Ancient Near East from Hebrew Union College and is ordained in the Baptist General Conference.

There's no nice way to say it.

Rahab was a hardot—in modern parlance, a hooker. At her home atop the wall that surrounded the bustling, ancient city of Jericho, Rahab took in strange men and gave out sexual favors. There's no nice way to say it. Because of her prominent role in the story of Israel, a few prim and proper types have tried to improve Rahab's image by engaging in a bit of revisionist history. "Maybe": Hye's suggested, 'she wasn't actually a 'lady of the night.' Perhaps she was only an 'linnkeeper." It's a nice try, a kind and understandable gesture; however, it can't change the truth that the Bible repeatedly calls Rahab a "prostitute." This is how the Bible introduces her when we first meet her in the book of Joshua (Joshua 2:1; see also 6:17). It's likely her "home" was less a motel, and more a "brothle". Fully appreciating Rahab's remarkable story takes some historical and cultural background. Here's the context: After fortry years of wandering in the desert wilderness east of Egypt and south of Cansam, the nation of Israel camped near the Jordan River, nor far from Jericho. This was right along the edge of the territory said to be "flowing with milk and honey" (Exodus 3.8; Numbers 14:8). It was this land the LORD (i.e., Yalweh, the God of the Jews) had promised Abraham and his descendants centuries before. Nervously watching the two to three million "homeless" refugees on their doorstep were the Canaanites, the current occupants of the land. ("Canaanites" is the generic name applied to the Amorites, Jebusites, Ammonites, et al.—all those fierce, polytheistic tribes that lived in a patchwork of city-states stretching across Palestine all the way to the biliteration of the mighty Egyptians in liberating his people, his annihilation of lesser nations that dared to stand in Israel's way. Such anecdotes not only raised eyebrows, but heart rates and neck hairs! The "By faith Rahab the prostitute received the spies in peace and didn't perish with those who disobeyed." — Hebrews 11:31 Hebrews themselves weren't much in the way of a fighting force, but their God was not to be trifled with. And suddenly there they were, massed on the border, clearly preparing to invade.

What do you suppose went through Rahab's mind when two Israelite men—sent by Joshua to scope out the city—knocked on her door? No one can say for sure, but clearly something shifted in the soul of this woman of ill repute.

Exalting Jesus in Colossians & Philemon

Christ-Centered Exposition Commentary

BY DANIEL L. AKIN and R. SCOTT PACE

Exalting Jesus in Colossians & Philemon is part of the Christ-Centered Exposition Commentary series. Edited by David Platt, Daniel L. Akin, and Tony Merida, this commentary series, to include 47 volumes when complete, takes a Christ-centered approach to expositing each book of the Bible. Rather than a verse-by-verse approach, the authors have crafted chapters that explain and apply key passages in their assigned Bible books.

Readers will learn to see Christ in all aspects of Scripture, and they will be encouraged by the devotional nature of each exposition presented as sermons and divided into chapters that conclude with a "Reflect & Discuss" section, making this series ideal for small group study, personal devotion, and even sermon preparation. It's not academic but rather presents an easy reading, practical, and friendly commentary.

The Ultimate Bible Character Guide

by Gina Detwiler

The Bible is filled with incredible and interesting characters—from Jesus to Eglon, Gabriel to Legion. This unique encyclopedia brings 150 of them to life with comic-book style illustrations and hundreds of facts for kids to explore.

Young readers will be captivated to read about both well-known characters of the Bible and some they're yet to discover. They'll learn what characters' names meant, what strengths God gave them, who they considered enemies, and what battles they fought. Which one was possessed by demons? Who wrestled an angel? Who never died? It's all here, the good and the evil, the famous and the infamous.

In true encyclopedia form, characters will be arranged alphabetically and indexed so that favorites can be found easily. Contemporaries will be marked as such, and a timeline will help kids understand and place each story. Spreads will include full-length illustrations of each character, list of facts, descriptions, and background info.

RVR1960 CENTERED IN CHRIST DEVOTIONAL BIBLE FOR WOMEN

We know Luke's account of the Messiah being born in a manger in Bethlehem, but did you know that prophecies about Jesus are also found throughout the Old Testament? Patricia Namnún and Cathy Scheraldi de Núñez, along with their team of Latin American women, have created a beautiful, year-long journey for women for diving into Scripture and seeing Jesus in every book of the Bible. From the Garden of Eden to eternity, this Bible will provide women with tools, knowledge, and wisdom for continuing on their walk with Christ.

Conocemos el relato del Mesías, que nació en un pesebre en Belén, pero ¿sabías que podemos encontrar las profecías sobre Jesús en todo el Antiguo Testamento? Patricia Namnún y Cathy Scheraldi de Núñez junto a un equipo de mujeres latinas, han creado un hermoso viaje de un año para mujeres, para que se sumerjan en las Escrituras y puedan ver a Jesús en cada uno de los libros de la Biblia. Desde el jardín del Edén hasta la eternidad, esta Biblia entrega herramientas, conocimientos y sabiduría para que continuen su caminar junto a Cristo.
