Eyes Up

How to Trust God's Heart by Tracing His Hand
ALEXANDRA V. HOOVER

Where were you, God? You betrayed me. You might be good, but just not to me. We've all struggled with thoughts like these, unable to trace where God was in pivotal moments of our story.

In her debut book Eyes Up, author and speaker Alexandra Hoover shows you that she's been in this place of questioning too. As God led her through that place of confusion and doubt, He helped her get to the other side by teaching her how to trace His grace in her life, even in the places she previously couldn't see His hand at work. Ebenezer stone by Ebenezer stone, God lifted her eyes to see the places He had met her and helped her along, even in the darkest parts of the story.

After being led so kindly by the hand of God through her own Ebenezer journey, Alex now seeks to lead fellow strugglers on theirs. In Eyes Up, you will be led into a story of faithfulness, redemption, healing, and mission where you will learn to:

- Chart your own Ebenezer journey with God, stone by stone, even when you previously haven't been able to see His hand at work
- Realize that the real problem is not God's inability to move on our behalf, but rather our inability to see His hand and trust His heart
- Learn how to embrace God's sovereignty in every twist and turn of your life
- Enjoy the gift of confident faith, no matter what part of the story you face today
- Walk away with your own clear testimony of God's faithfulness in your life to share with others who need help and faith right now

Are you ready to finally see God's heart, and His holy handprints, all over your life? Even in the moments you thought He was absent? Then journey with Alex through these pages, and lift your eyes to the Ebenezer stones that God has built in your life. By the end of the journey, you'll know what it looks like to truly trust God's heart in the places you once couldn't see His hand.

Growing Up Revised and Updated

How to Be a Disciple Who Makes Disciples

ROBBY GALLATY

If you are serious about being a disciple of Jesus Christ, a discipleship group can help you achieve that goal. Jesus established this model by forming and leading the first discipleship group—and it worked. The men who emerged from that group took the gospel to the world, and ultimately laid down their lives for Christ.

Growing Up: How to Be a Disciple Who Makes Disciples offers a manual for making disciples, addressing the what, why, where, and how of discipleship. Robby Gallaty, pastor of Long Hollow Baptist Church and founder and president of Replicate Ministries, teaches you how to utilize D-Groups to grow your relationship with God, how to defend your faith, and how to guide others in their relationships with God.

Bearing Fruit Revised and Updated

What Happens When God's People Grow
ROBBY GALLATY

Why are so many Christians stagnant in their faith? Why do we often live as though the gospel stops at the moment of conversion?

The good news of Jesus doesn't stop the moment we get saved. In fact, salvation is only the beginning of God's work in our lives. The gospel of Jesus doesn't only justify us; it sanctifies us. When we receive the Holy Spirit at salvation, an incredible work begins to happen in us: we begin to bear fruit. When we are firmly planted in the gospel and committed to growing in Christ, He produces in us the fruits of the Spirit, the marks of a true Christian.

In Bearing Fruit: What Happens When God's People Grow, Robby Gallaty, pastor of Long Hollow Baptist Church and founder and president of Replicate Ministries, walks us through the life of the Christian. Biblical, intentional, and practical, Bearing Fruit is the perfect conclusion to Gallaty's discipleship trilogy, following Growing Up and Firmly Planted. This book points our hearts to the gracious God who called us, justified us, and is now sanctifying us by the work of His Holy Spirit.

A Fruitful Life Journaling Devotional

A 45-Day Journey through the Fruit of the Spirit

YAHAIRA RAMOS

Fruitfulness—how would you define it?

A big family?

An abundant ministry?

An overflowing bank account?

While there are certainly aspects of life that can be fruitful on the outside, the Bible elevates God's most fruitful work in our lives as something that He does on the inside. Through His Spirit, God makes us fruitful from the inside out, cultivating the famous fruit of Galatians 6:22-23: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

In this beautiful 45-day journaling devotional, Yahaira Ramos (author and founder of Fruitful Girl) explores each fruit of the Spirit that God is bearing in you, right here and right now. No matter what life might look like for you in this season, take heart in knowing that God is doing a work in and through you—a fruitful work.

Fostered

One Woman's Powerful Story of Finding Faith and Family through Foster Care

TORI HOPE PETERSEN

If you're wondering if God can truly move in the life of someone with all the odds stacked against her, look no further than Tori Hope Petersen (Track and Field All-American, and Mrs. Universe 2022).

Tori grew up in the foster care system, a biracial child in a confusing and volatile world. Growing up with a mentally ill mother and living in twelve different foster homes, nothing was in her favor. And yet, even with a miniscule chance of graduating college and a great risk of being homeless, jobless, and on drugs, Tori overcame every negative stereotype and assumption that attacked her identity.

However, Tori will tell you she did not overcome. Christ did. In the face of the darkness, the difficulty, and the damage, Jesus made a way for Tori to find profound hope, deep faith, renewed purpose, and a loving family, too. After so many years of being on one side of foster care as a child, Tori is now on the other side as a foster mom, adoptive mom, and biological mom. On top of that, she was crowned not only as a Track and Field All-American, but as queen of Mrs. Universe 2022, a platform she now uses to pursue her passion for foster care reform, adoption advocacy, and help for vulnerable populations.

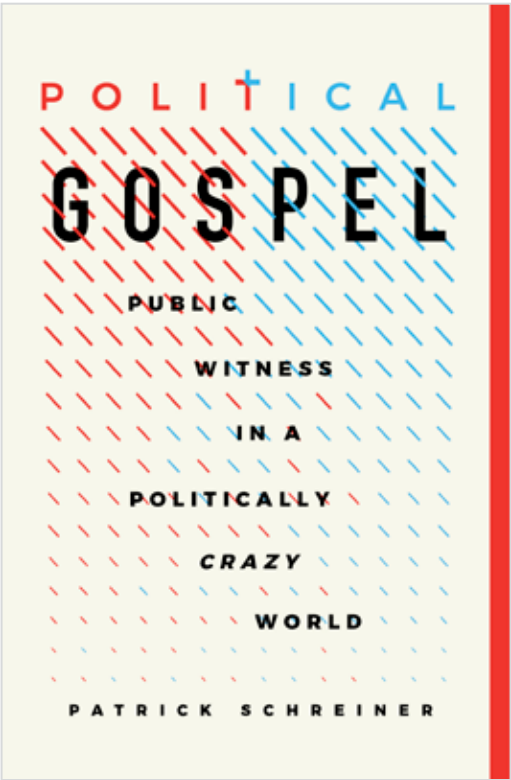

If you want to hear the true tale of an unlikely overcomer, this book is for you. If you want to learn more about the foster care system from a former foster youth's perspective, this book is for you. If you want to better dwell in the reality of your own spiritual adoption by our heavenly Father and better understand the orphan and the widow that He loves dearly, this book is for you. Ultimately, if you want to remember who God is, and what He can do through the most unlikely of people, Fostered is for you.

marketing highlights

- Tori's experience, work, and expertise on this topic is extensive: she has provided respite care and foster care to children, trained foster parents all over the nation, written policy and presented it at the White House, and formed initiatives and scholarships for foster children
- There are few books in the Christian market that are not only about this topic, but are written by former foster youths

Political Gospel

Public Witness in a Politically Crazy World
PATRICK SCHREINER

Almost every pastor feels the pressure to get people in the doors. More people means Christians are constantly accused of being too political or not political enough.

Often, the accusations are fair. Christians tend to get stuck in one of two political ditches: we either privatize our faith or make it partisan. We think religion and politics should be separate and never intermingle, or we align so tightly with a political party that we conflate the gospel with a human agenda.

In Political Gospel, Patrick Schreiner argues Christianity not only has political implications but is itself a politic. The gospel at its very core is political—Jesus declared Himself to be King. But He does not allow you to put Him in your political box.

In a supercharged political climate, Political Gospel explores what it means for Christians to have a biblical public witness by looking to Scripture, the early church, and today. Should we submit to governing authorities or subvert them? Are we to view them as agents of the dark forces or entities that promote order? In these pages, we'll see that Christians live in a paradox, and we'll see how to follow Christ our King right into the political craziness of our day.

audience

- Christian living readers who are interested in the intersection of faith and politics and who want to faithfully navigate those complexities

Spurgeon the Pastor

Recovering a Biblical and Theological Vision for Ministry
GEOFF CHANG

How would you get more than 5,000 people to show up at your church?

Almost every pastor feels the pressure to get people in the doors. More people means more success, more stability, and more godly influence, right? Often, in their zeal for fruit and growth, pastors and church leaders adopt worldly mechanisms for church growth that end up undermining the very call God has given them.

Charles Spurgeon, the Prince of Preachers, was a pastor to well over 5,000 people in a day long before "mega-churches" were the norm. But you might be surprised to know that Spurgeon's vision for ministry was not pragmatic. He did not borrow "best practices" from the business leaders of his day. Rather, his ministry vision was decidedly, staunchly biblical and theological in nature—and it was a ministry vision we ought to adopt more than a century later.

In Spurgeon the Pastor, Geoff Chang, director of the Spurgeon Library at Midwestern Seminary, shows how Spurgeon models a theological vision of ministry in preaching, baptism and the Lord's Supper, meaningful church membership, biblical church leadership, leadership development, and more.

Don't get caught up in worldly methods to pursue ministry growth. Follow the example of the Prince of Preachers, and entrust your ministry to the sovereignty of the Prince of Peace.

Know Thy Gamer

A Parent's Guide to Video Games

DREW DIXON

Between social media platforms, the videos kids watch online, or the television shows they can now stream from anywhere at any time, keeping up with what our kids are doing has become more difficult than ever. Still, there has not been an influence quite like the video gaming world. For a time, video games were as simple as a blue hedgehog running from one side of the screen to the other. Now, video games create grand adventures of secret societies, alien races that have come to destroy entire galaxies, or dark forces that have arrived to destroy ancient kingdoms.

Video games can display wondrous environments but can also house blood and gore. They can create adventures that get kids through rainy days but can also trap them in their rooms for untold amounts of time. This leaves many parents with one of two choices. They can either ignore the problems, or they can simply not allow their children to play games at all.

Drew Dixon, cofounder of Love Thy Nerd, a ministry that exists to be the love of Jesus to nerds and nerd culture, offers a better way. Let's face it: the digital age has changed the way we parent. So, instead of ignoring what your children are playing or removing the games altogether, Know Thy Gamer offers an opportunity for parents to understand their children and the kinds of games they are playing. By discussing some of the most important movements in the gaming world, Drew guides parents to understanding and loving their gamers through a Christian lens.

- Evangelical parents looking for a resource on video games
- Children's pastors, youth pastors, family pastors, and other ministry leaders
- Those affiliated with Drew through Lifeway Christian Resources and Love They Nerd

Three years ago, he cofounded Love Thy Nerd, a ministry dedicated to showing the love of Jesus to nerds and nerd culture. Drew has been speaking and writing about video games for more than a decade. He has written for Christianity Today, Relevant Magazine, World Magazine, Christ and Pop Culture, Think Christian, and the Christian Research Journal. Drew travels to gaming and nerd conventions all over the country to share the love of Jesus. Drew has been married for thirteen years and has three children. He and his wife live in the Nashville area where they love hiking, biking, and playing board games.

Fruitful Theology

How the Life of the Mind Leads to the Life of the Soul

RONNI KURTZ

Why do the theologians rage?

Even a cursory scrolling of social media may lead you to the conclusion that you have to be angry to do theology. Sadly, our day is characterized by theological fighting—complete with harsh words, exaggeration, biting sarcasm, and the spirit of tearing down our brothers and sisters in Christ. But it does not have to be this way. In fact, it should not be this way.

In Fruitful Theology, Ronni Kurtz swims upstream to counter this prevailing problem. Instead of theology leading to anger, division, and discord, this book shows that the life of the mind can actually lead to the fruit of the Spirit. Fruitful Theology is for anyone who:

- Wants to grow in an understanding of Scripture, but is afraid that knowledge will make them arrogant
- Is confused about the relationship between doctrine and Christian living
- Is concerned that theological conviction promotes disunity and discord among Christians
- Desires to grow in Christian maturity, but isn't sure how theology fits into that desire

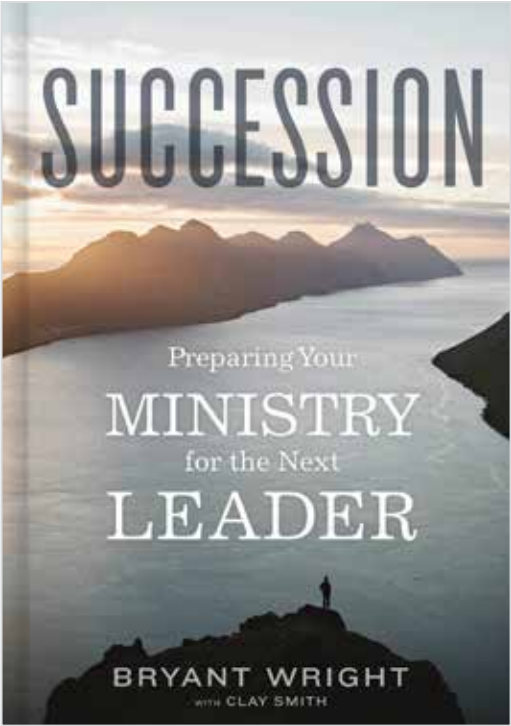

What if our speech and conduct were seasoned more with love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control? How might the church's unity be restored, and our witness be maximized, if we were characterized by the fruit of the Spirit instead of the spirit of our age? Theology may not be the most obvious candidate in helping reorient our life toward the fruit of the Spirit, but a right contemplation of God can indeed lead to right living for God, and that is exactly what this book hopes to explore.

marketing highlights

- Ronni has participated in the marketing of For the Church events and products, and books written by Jason K. Allen, so he is familiar with what is needed for a successful book launch
- Unlike other theology books, this book shows readers how thinking about God can lead to the kind of virtues described in the fruit of the Spirit. In this way, the book has a unique angle on the growing market of accessible theology and discipleship material
- Readers may recognize Ronni from his contributions to The Gospel Coalition, Desiring God, Credo Magazine, and others

RONNI KURTZ (PhD, Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary) is an assistant professor of Christian Studies at Midwestern Seminary and Spurgeon College. He also serves as the managing editor of For the Church and is the pastor of teaching and equipping at Emmaus Church in Kansas City, Missouri. He is the author of No Shadow of Turning: Divine Immutability and the Economy of Redemption.

Succession

Preparing Your Ministry for the Next Leader

BRYANT WRIGHT

One of the most daunting tasks that a pastor will ever face is leading his congregation to the future he will not see. It is a reality that no leader wants to admit exists, but whether they like it or not, they will all have to face it one way or another.

Bryant Wright, the former long-term pastor of Johnson Ferry Baptist Church, faced this issue. After decades of serving his church, the Lord led Bryant to carry out a succession plan. This book captures that journey from the first conversations about stepping down to the final sermon he preached.

Succession discusses this journey in a way that shows the leadership of an experienced pastor, the wisdom of a knowledgeable shepherd, and the humility of an obedient servant. This book not only displays the heart of a man who loved and led his church well, but also serves as a model for those preparing for the most difficult task they will ever face.

audience

- Pastors preparing to step down from their position
- Elders, deacons, pastor search committees, and those in leadership positions
- Those connected to Pastor Wright through Johnson Ferry Baptist Church and Right from the Heart Ministries

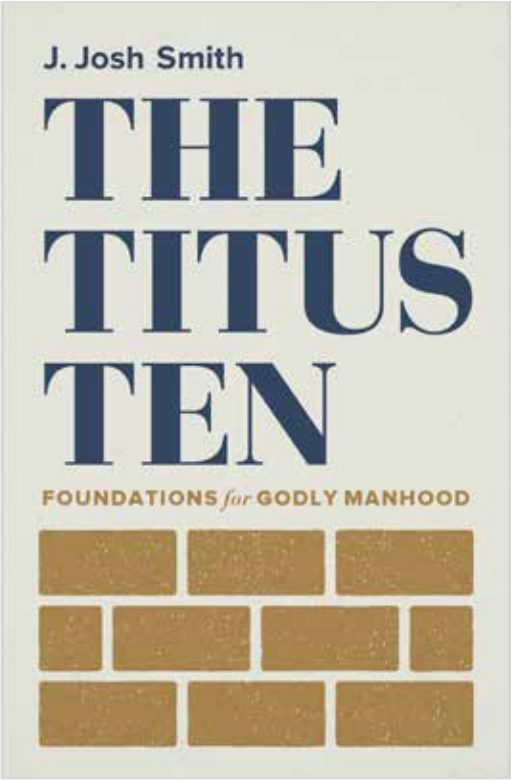

marketing highlights

- Bryant Wright served as the pastor of Johnson Ferry Baptist Church since its founding in 1981 until 2019 and helped propel its growth to more than 8,000 members
- Bryant is well-known among SBC churches and leaders
- Bryant Wright recounts the story of the hardest tasks a pastor will ever face: stepping down and preparing his church for the next leader

BRYANT WRIGHT served in Southern Baptist life as both a pastor and SBC president before becoming the first president of Send Relief in 2020. He retired as the founding senior pastor of Johnson Ferry Baptist Church in Marietta, Georgia, on December 15, 2019, where he pastored for thirty-eight years.

Bryant is a straightforward communicator who uniquely connects God's unchanging truth with a diverse culture through compelling and creative teaching. In addition to his presidential duties at Send Relief, Wright serves as founder and chairman of Right From the Heart Ministries, a media ministry with an international presence, and continues to mentor younger pastors through this platform. He and his wife, Anne, live in Marietta and have three grown sons, three daughters-in-law, and seven grandchildren.

The Titus Ten

Foundations for Godly Manhood

J. JOSH SMITH

Everything in a man's life hinges on the kind of man he is.

Yet, none of us is naturally a godly man. That's something we have to learn, pursue, and cultivate. We need a manual to help us.

This book is a manual for becoming the kind of man God intends for you to be, and leading other men to do the same. Taking 10 qualities from the Apostle Paul's short letter to his mentee Titus, The Titus Ten will help you grow in your understanding of the gospel, your identity, your character, your doctrine, and more. Each chapter includes questions for reflection and discussion, to both process the way the Lord is growing you, and read in a group with other men. As you grow in these areas of your life, you'll become the kind of man God desires to use in your family, your church, and the world.

Breakthrough

Creating a New Scorecard for Group Ministry Success
KEN BRADDY

A church without discipleship is just a gathering.

It is an important distinction that many pastors and leaders have known for years. In leading their churches well, pastors have provided a trustworthy curriculum, enlisted gifted teachers, and have made sure to offer times for members to gather and fellowship with each other. However, amid all these gatherings, one question kept popping up among leaders, "How do we know if what we are doing is working?"

Over the years, leaders have tried to answer this question with numbers. If people attended these groups and seemed to enjoy the material, then they must be finding success. Ken Braddy, the director of Sunday School for Lifeway Christian Resources, felt that there had to be better a way to measure what matters. In Breakthrough, Ken guides leaders to measure their groups by observing if they are discipling each other, if they are caring for others in and outside of their group, and if they are engaging in acts of service. Breakthrough offers a new scorecard for leaders to not only track the progress of their groups but measure their success.

- Leaders of small groups, life groups, and Sunday School classes
- Discipleship pastors and ministry leaders equipping teachers
- Purchasers of similar teaching resources on Lifeway.com

Ken has served on three church staffs as a discipleship pastor. His first church began as a mission with forty-four people in groups on launch day, and grew to more than 2,400 members, becoming the fastest growing Sunday School in Texas. His current church had the fastest growing Sunday School in Tennessee pre-COVID (percentage growth). Ken has trained thousands of Bible study leaders all over the country.

Ken blogs weekly about Sunday School and small groups (kenbraddy.com). He has authored or compiled seven books on Sunday School and small groups and has written numerous articles for Facts & Trends Magazine, Outreach.com, ChurchLeader.com, and Lifeway Voices. His six-session Bible study in the Bible Studies For Life series was studied by 1.6M adults and teens.

What Do I Do with Anger?

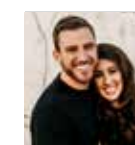

DR. JOSH AND CHRISTI STRAUB

Alex is angry. During practice before the big game, his teammate Emma won't pass him the ball—and then she has the nerve to pass it to Sam! Thankfully, Coach Ryan understands plenty about anger. When Alex reveals his irritation in an unhealthy way, Coach Ryan has biblical tools and wisdom that will help Alex calm his anger and identify the underlying emotion beneath it so he can rejoin the team.

Psychologists have long labeled anger a “secondary emotion.” It's there to cover up other negative feelings such as sadness, betrayal, and embarrassment. Dr. Josh and Christi Straub want children to understand that being angry is not a bad thing: we can express our anger in healthy ways, and we can use it to help us figure out what we're struggling with deep down. What Do I Do with Anger? models this approach to anger in a fun and relatable way for children, ages 4 to 8.

- What Do I Do with Anger? has familiar characters from What Am I Feeling? and What Do I Do with Worry?
- Sound biblical and psychological wisdom to help kids and their parents deal with anger in a healthy way
- Dr. Josh and Christi Straub are well-known, trusted voices in marriage, leadership, and family counseling

Both Fellows of the Townsend Institute for Leadership and Counseling, together they host the weekly Famous at Home podcast, write children's books, including What Am I Feeling?, What Do I Do with Worry?, and 25 Days of the Christmas Story, and cohost “Sex, Love, and Relationships” on the Hillsong Channel.

Isaiah

Striving Less and Trusting God More
MELISSA SPOELSTRA

Isaiah served as God's mouthpiece to the nation of Judah but also to the surrounding nations. His message echoes into our lives today as we read his call to rely on the Lord. Using the genres of poetry, narrative, and prophecy, Isaiah communicated clearly that followers of God could trust in Him.

As you study the chapters Isaiah wrote—from his challenging words to the nation of Israel to his prophecies of the Messiah to come—learn to rest in God's promises and grow in trust. Unpacking Isaiah's words will reveal that you can trust God more than your own human effort or the counterfeits the world suggests. You won't be striving harder, but instead trusting more deeply the Faithful One who is so worthy of our utter dependence. In Him you'll find the comfort and peace you need to sustain you.

Isaiah - Teen Girls' Bible Study Book

MELISSA SPOELSTRA

Have you ever left a church service, youth event, or Bible study determined to do better—to pray more regularly, be more compassionate, or serve God more? Desiring change in our lives isn't a bad thing; we just have to guard against relying on our own human effort to bring about spiritual changes. That determination springs from a longing to grow spiritually and know God better. As we embark together on a study of the prophet Isaiah's biblical book, we will discover a simple but life-changing truth: Following God isn't about striving; it's about trusting God more.

Isaiah served as God's mouthpiece to the nation of Judah but also to the surrounding nations. His message echoes into our lives today as we read his call to rely on the Lord. Using the genres of poetry, narrative, and prophecy, Isaiah communicated clearly that followers of God could trust in Him. I can say with my mouth that I trust God, but my stress, worry, and lack of peace don't always evidence this kind of faith in real life. Isaiah was human just like us, and yet he radically trusted God and called to anyone who would listen to do the same. His message highlights freedom from captivity and light breaking through darkness for those who would heed his words.

The Gospel On the Ground - Teen Girls' Bible Study Book

A Study of Acts
KRISTI MCLELLAND

Jesus never traveled outside of a 100-mile radius from where He was born, yet His name is spoken in every corner of the earth. The Gospel on the Ground is the story of how Jesus' message of hope and reconciliation spread from Jerusalem and how it's still spreading like wildfire today.

Taking Jesus' last words here on earth before He ascended into heaven, "... you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth" (Acts 1:8) seriously, Jesus' first century church grew despite intense persecution and difficulty.

Come along with biblical culturalist Kristi McLelland as she unpacks the life of the early church in the Book of Acts and shows us that the kingdom of God is always on the move, always looking outward to bring meaning and joy to a world searching for true fulfillment and hope. We'll explore the call of Jesus to His disciples then and to us as His disciples today, the way God's Word can sustain us even in the most difficult of times, and the transformative grace that we experience as children of God in His kingdom of celebration.

Presence and Purpose - Teen Devotional

The Mission of Jesus in the Book of Acts
LIFEWAY STUDENTS

Through personal stories of bravery, impossible odds, and new beginnings, these devotions on the book of Acts will answer crucial questions of faith like "What makes someone a Christian" and "What is God's purpose for my life?" Students will learn how the first Christians came to be and how Christianity spread throughout the known world, making the events of 2,000 years ago relevant to their lives today.

Discover (Identity + Theology): Who is God? Who am I in light of who God is? These are two of the most important questions students can grapple with because in discovering who God is, they learn who He has meant for them to be.
Delight (Spiritual Disciplines): What does it mean to delight in God? What leads to delight in God? Helping students see God in every detail teaches them to delight in Him. When students find their delight in God, they will learn what it means and how to be in relationship with Him.
Display (Leadership, Mission, + Disciple Making): How do students display the glory of God? How can they lead others to display the truth of God? Through students learning to lead, live on mission, and make disciples, God's glory is on display and His kingdom is expanded.

Revealed - Teen Devotional

Doctrines Jesus Taught and Lived
LIFEWAY STUDENTS

We get so much of our understanding of Christian doctrine through the teachings and life of Christ. This devotional will focus in on how Jesus revealed the truths of our beliefs about God, people, and the Church.

Discover (Identity + Theology): Who is God? Who am I in light of who God is? These are two of the most important questions students can grapple with because in discovering who God is, they learn who He has meant for them to be.
Delight (Spiritual Disciplines): What does it mean to delight in God? What leads to delight in God? Helping students see God in every detail teaches them to delight in Him. When students find their delight in God, they will learn what it means and how to be in relationship with Him.
Display (Leadership, Mission, + Disciple Making): How do students display the glory of God? How do they help others grow in their relationship with Him? How can they lead others to display the truth of God? Through students learning to lead, live on mission, and make disciples, God's glory is on display and His kingdom is expanded.

30 Devotions on the Family of Jesus
LIFEWAY STUDENTS

This devotional looks at who Jesus' relatives were and how they shaped His life and history, paving the way for Him to bring salvation to the world. These people weren't perfect, but God used them in mighty ways. Through this devotional, students will see that we are no different. We are all flawed and imperfect, but our God is not and He can shape the world and history through us if we let Him lead us and if we model our lives after His Son.

How Jesus Taught Us to Pray
LIFEWAY STUDENTS

When did Jesus pray? Who did He pray for? How did He teach us to pray? These questions and more are answered in this 30 day devotional for students exploring the prayers of Jesus. For Jesus, prayer wasn't just something He checked off His daily "To-Do" list; it was the lifeblood of His ministry, the source of His strength, and the way He communicated with His Father. Prayer can be these things in student's lives as well when they learn to make it an indispensable component of their daily relationship with God.

Discover (Identity + Theology): Who is God? Who am I in light of who God is?
Delight (Spiritual Disciplines): What does it mean to delight in God? What leads to delight in God?
Display (Leadership, Mission, + Disciple Making): How do students display the glory of God? How can they lead others to display the truth of God?

SUMMER 2022

Featuring the CHRISTIAN STANDARD BIBLE

Accurate. Readable. Shareable. The Christian Standard Bible is a translation for everyone—a translation you can take to seminary and read to your kids. A translation that new believers can understand and that every believer can return to for lifelong discipleship.

The CSB captures the Bible’s original meaning without sacrificing clarity. It’s an optimal blend of accuracy and readability—in the many places throughout Scripture where a word-for-word rendering is clearly understandable, a literal translation is used. When a word-for-word rendering might obscure the meaning for a modern audience, a more dynamic translation is used.

The result is a translation that communicates both the words and the thoughts of the original text clearly and accurately to today’s readers. A translation pastors can preach from and one you can share with your neighbor hearing God’s Word for the very first time.

Every Christian is unique.

We don't all talk the same, look the same, or think the same. But we can all gather around the same Bible.

For every person in your church, the Christian Standard Bible is an exceptionally clear and faithful translation—so your whole congregation can meet God through his life-transforming Word.

THE FOURTH SEAL OPENED
¹And when he had opened the fourth seal,
²I heard the voice of the fourth beast say,
Come and see.
³And I looked, and behold a pale horse:
and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, 'to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death,' and with the beasts of the earth.
THE FIFTH SEAL OPENED
⁶And when he had opened the fifth seal,
I saw under 'the altar 'the souls of them that were slain 'for the word of God, and for 'the testimony which they held:
¹⁰And they cried with a loud voice, saying, 'How long, O Lord, 'holy and true,' dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?
¹¹And 'white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, ¹²'that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were,
should be fulfilled.
THE SIXTH SEAL OPENED ¹²And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, 'and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and 'the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood; ¹³And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

⁶8 Hell was popularly known as the grave and resting place after Death (see note at 20:11–15). The text does not say that a fourth of the population of the earth was killed, but only that power was given to "Death" and "Hell" over this proportion of the world, allowing them to kill freely.
⁶9–11 The phrase under the altar and the mention of blood recall the sacrificial blood poured at the base of the altar in Exod. 29:12. They that were slain may refer to believers killed during the removal of the first four seals (6:2, 4, 8) or generally to "the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth" (18:24). Their being killed because of the word of God and their testimony for Christ is the same reason given for John's imprisonment on the island of Patmos (1:9). Since the "hour of temptation" (i.e., the tribulation period; 3:10) is focused on the "earth dwellers," the delay here implies the "hour of temptation" has not yet begun. The Lord's just vengeance (Rom. 12:19) for the martyrs begins in earnest in Rev. 16:4–7 and is not completed until 19:2. On white robes, see note at 3:4–5. It is not known when the number of their fellow martyrs is fulfilled.
⁶12–17 The celestial effects when the sixth seal is lifted from the scroll are very similar to those in Joel 2:28–31, which are said to occur just before the day of the Lord (Joel 2:31). This is the same as the great day of the wrath of God the Father and the Lamb (vv. 16–17; Zeph. 1:14–15). Some think this is the time of the second coming of Christ because of the similarity in wording between certain aspects of the sixth seal and Matt. 24:29–31. Because the exact same Greek word and form for come (elthen) is used in regard to the prophecy in Jude 14, which has a futuristic meaning, it is best to translate it here as "the great day of their wrath is (about to) come." The question of who can stand is answered in chapter 7.
⁷1–17 Two visions make up this interlude between the opening of the sixth (6:12) and seventh (8:1) seals—(1) the sealing of the 144,000 servants of God on earth (7:1–8), and (2) the innumerable multitude arriv- ing in heaven (7:9–17). The answer to the question "who shall be able to stand?" (6:17) is that the 144,000 servants are able to stand on earth, protected by God's seal (7:2–4), while the vast multitude stands triumphantly before the throne in heav- en (7:9–10). The calming of winds on the earth (7:1) and the half hour of silence, and the 144,000 in heaven (8:1) form eye-of-the-hurricane "bookends" effect around chapter 7.
⁷1–3 While there is no mention of damag- ing wind in relation to the removal of the sixth seal (6:12–17), the great earthquake

⁸Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.
⁹Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nephthali were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thousand.
¹⁰Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand.
¹¹Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thou- sand.
A MULTITUDE IN WHITE ROBES
¹After this I beheld, and, lo, 'a great multitude, which no man could number, 'of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, 'clothed with white robes,
and palms in their hands;
²And cried with a loud voice, saying,
'Salvation to our God 'which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.
³And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the of dry bones (Ezek. 37:14), in which Israel was viewed as "a vast army" (Ezek. 37:10) and the 144,000 from all the tribes of Israel appear to be arranged in military formation, as was Israel in the wilderness (Num. 2:2–34). Revelation 7:4–8 could re- flect the point at which the "firstfruits" of Jews (14:4) come under the new covenant (Ezek. 36:24–28; cp. Jer. 31:31–34) during the Apocalypse.

⁷5–8 Judah is mentioned first because it was the royal tribe of Israel (Gen. 49:9–10) into which Jesus was born (Rev. 5:5). Reu- ben is next because he was Jacob's firstborn (Gen. 49:3). The tribes of Dan and Ephraim are omitted from the listing, perhaps be- cause of their instances of gross idolatry (Judg. 17–18). They are replaced by Joseph and Levi, neither of which was included in the military encampment of tribes in Num. 2.
⁷9 In 5:9, the Lamb's worthiness to bear the scroll is based on the shedding of His redemptive blood for "every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation." In 7:9, this group arrives in heaven. Since "all nations" is listed first, this scene is at least a partial fulfillment of the Great Commission—where Christ's disciples are commanded to reach "all nations" with the gospel by "the end of the world" (Matt. 28:19–20). The great multitude wearing white robes links them to the martyrs (6:11) and, in the only other context in Revelation where the phrase "great multitude" is found (19:6), to the bride and the armies of the Lamb (19:8, 14). Some interpreters understand the multitude to be all martyrs, who ar- rive in heaven over a period of time. Others see this as the time when the church is raptured, with some who are dead and some who are still alive all arriving at the same time (1 Thess. 4:14–17).
⁷13–14 The robes of the great multitude (v. 9) being made white in the blood of the Lamb likely refers to the redemptive work of Christ (1:5; 5:9). If so, the multitude coming out of great tribulation (Dan. 12:1; Matt. 24:21; and "the hour of temptation" in Rev. 3:10) may refer to the rapture of the church before the great tribulation, if that period does not begin until the events in the scroll are released by the lifting of the seventh seal (8:1). However 3:10 is un- derstood, 7:14 should be taken the same way since both have the Gk preposition ek ("from, out from") and a time period (i.e., "the hour of temptation" in 3:10 and "the great tribulation" in 7:14).
⁷15–17 The vast multitude's priestly ser- vice in heaven is a partial fulfillment of the promises in 1:6 and 5:10. The mention of the temple looks ahead to the equating of the church before the great tribulation, if the temple looks with the "heaven dwell- ers" in 12:12 and 13:6.
⁸1 When the seventh seal is lifted, the scroll

The Colosseum at Rome, one of the most impressive structures of the Roman Empire. It was origi- nally called the Flavian Amphitheater and was under construction from AD 72 to 80. Large numbers of Christians were martyred in the Colosseum.

Counseling Women

Biblical Wisdom for Life's Battles
KRISTIN L. KELLEN

Counseling Women by professor and counselor Kristen Kellen offers an up-to-date, biblically-informed resource specifically geared toward common struggles that women face. Chapters survey issues such as depression, anxiety, infertility, trauma and abuse, disordered eating, and much more, each one providing a general overview of the problem, a summary of how the Bible speaks to it, and a robust, holistic approach to counseling the individual experiencing it.

Kellen also outlines theological foundations for counseling, specifically the Bible's teaching on human persons, the role of sin and suffering, and the place of Scripture to speak to life's struggles. The practices of mainstream therapy are filtered through Scripture's teachings to provide a wise and balanced approach. Accessible and deeply practical, Counseling Women will be useful both for counselors in various settings and for students in training programs.

God in Eternity and Time

A New Case for Human Freedom
ROBERT E. PICIRILLI

When theology begins with God’s eternal will and knowledge, determinism tends to result. In God in Eternity and Time, eminent scholar Robert Picirilli argues we should look first to God’s creation and the incarnation—to the created order where God has chosen to act and reveal himself. As God’s decrees and foreknowledge in eternity are then read in light of his acts in time, God’s interactions with human beings on the personal level of influence and response clearly reveal themselves.

God in Eternity and Time presents a fresh argument for libertarian human freedom. Divided into two sections, the first part of the book explores how God speaks and acts in creation, while the second carefully examines foreknowledge and “middle knowledge,” demonstrating the fallacy of logical arguments against freedom based on foreknowledge.

- Professors and students of theology at Free Will Baptist institutions
- Pastors and thoughtful lay readers interested in the Calvinism/Arminianism debate and/or the question of determinism vs. free will

marketing highlights

- Presents a fresh solution to the question of determinism versus human freedom
- Begins discussion of human freedom from the vantage point of God’s words and acts in creation

ROBERT E. PICIRILLI (PhD, Bob Jones University) is professor emeritus at Welch College.

Jesus and Disability

A Guide to Creating an Inclusive Church
CHRIS HULSHOF

Stemming from personal, pastoral, and academic interests, author Chris Hulshof seeks to fill a gap in the resources available that address practical and theological concerns related to disability, specifically in the church. Through examining primary biblical texts dealing with disability, Hulshof shows how Jesus’s involvement with the disabled can be instrumental in laying the foundation for disability-inclusive church leadership. Jesus and Disability provides a blueprint for how churches and their leaders can become disability friendly, serving those in the church and in the broader community.

audience

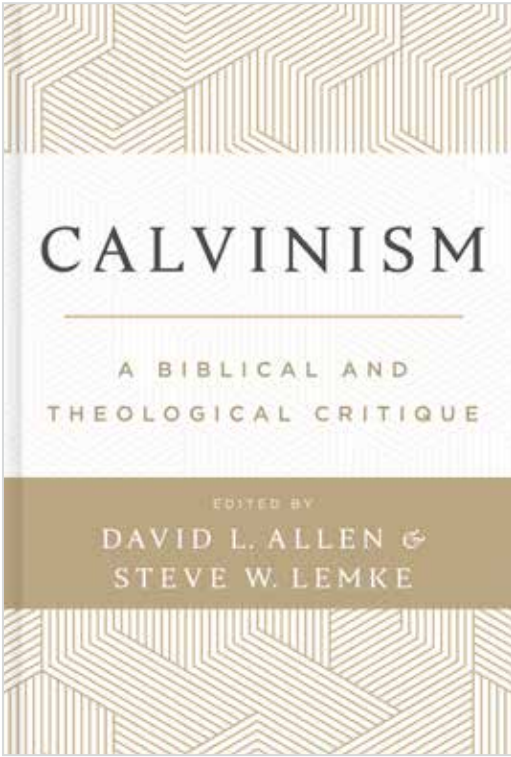

- Pastors and church leaders with a disability or those wanting to start a disability ministry

marketing highlights

- The book enables pastors and church leaders to articulate how disability ministry is in keeping with the ministry of Jesus.
- It will enable churches to have a solid Biblical foundation for doing disability ministry.
- Additionally, it will provide the church with a model for inclusive disability ministry.

CHRIS HULSHOF (EdD, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary) is associate professor for Liberty University’s School of Divinity.

Calvinism

A Biblical and Theological Critique
DAVID L. ALLEN & STEVE W. LEMKE

Calvinism is on the rise both in seminary classrooms and in church life. Yet the weaknesses that have plagued it historically remain relevant today; in particular, a view of salvation that can weaken gospel presentations.

In Calvinism: A Biblical and Theological Critique, editors David Allen and Steven Lemke lead a team of top-notch scholars in carefully critiquing five-point Calvinism. Sections are devoted to its core commitments, historical issues, biblical and theological issues, and ministry issues, providing a wide-ranging assessment of Calvinism’s foundations and implications.

Fair-minded, deeply informed, and focused on the gospel, Calvinism: A Biblical and Theological Critique will benefit students, pastors, lay leaders, and anyone wanting to better understand the downsides of Calvinist teaching.

audience

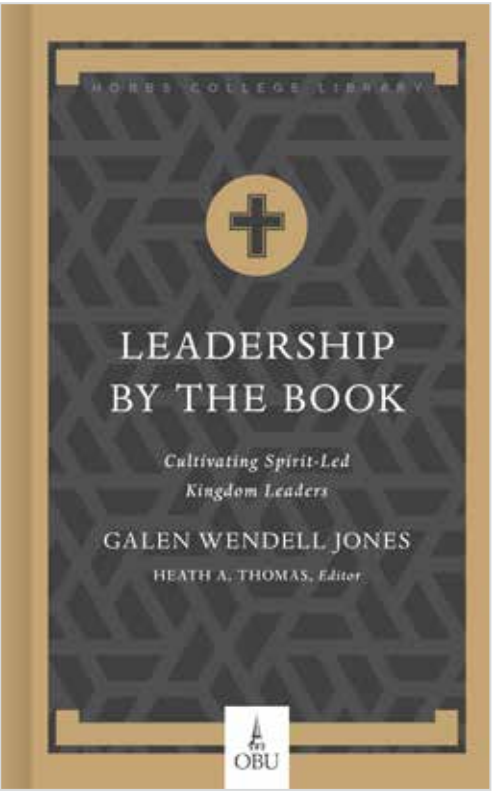

- Professors at non-Calvinist colleges and seminaries, as well as professors at historically Wesleyan universities
- Well-suited to adoption as a secondary text in soteriology courses and courses covering Calvinist-Arminian theology
- Pastors who are concerned about Calvinist soteriology and want a sound resource to equip themselves and others in arguing against
- Thoughtful lay readers who are interested in the Calvinist v. Arminian debate and want to engage in an in-depth alternative to the Calvinist position

marketing highlights

- Provides a resource of strong Arminian scholarship critiquing five-point Calvinism
- Contributors come from multiple denominations and provide wide perspective on the topic

Arlo y el súper gran encubrimiento

ARLO AND THE GREAT BIG COVERUP
BETSY CHILDS HOWARD

Arlo knows better than to get out of bed during rest time. And he definitely isn’t allowed to draw on the wall. But Arlo does it anyway, and then desperately attempts to cover up his disobedience before his mom finds out. When his efforts fail, Arlo discovers not only the misery that comes from hiding his sin but also the relief that comes through confessing it. With easy-to-understand language and engaging illustrations, children will learn important lessons with Arlo about repentance and the forgiveness found only in Jesus.

Arlo sabe que no debe bajarse de su cama durante el tiempo de su siesta y, definitivamente no debe dibujar en la pared. Pero Arlo lo hace de todas formas y después intenta desesperadamente cubrir su desobediencia antes de que se entere su mamá. Cuando sus intentos por cubrir su desobediencia fallan, Arlo descubre no solo la miseria que viene al esconder su pecado, sino también el descanso que trae el confesarlo. Escrito con lenguaje fácil de entender e ilustraciones atractivas, los niños aprenderán con Arlo lecciones importantes sobre el arrepentimiento y el perdón que se encuentra solo en Jesús.

Lo que Dios dice sobre nuestros cuerpos

Cómo el evangelio es buenas nuevas para nuestro ser físico
WHAT GOD HAS TO SAY ABOUT OUR BODIES
SAM ALLBERRY

To modern secular culture, the human body is little more than a vehicle for free self-expression—our bodies belong to us, and we can do with them as we please. In this way, the prevailing culture has lost sight of the true significance of the body. Similarly, Christians also tend to underemphasize the significance of the physical body. In What God Has to Say about Our Bodies, Sam Allberry argues that the Bible has a lot to say about the body, and shows how the practical significance of Scripture's teaching on this topic impacts how Christians should think and behave. Organized around three categories—what God intended for the body (creation), the impact of sin on the body (fall), and how God will redeem the body (redemption)—the book provides believers with a balanced and accessible theology of the body as they seek to glorify God in everything they do.

Para la cultura secular moderna, el cuerpo humano es poco más que un vehículo para la autoexpresión gratuita—nuestros cuerpos nos pertenecen y podemos hacer con ellos lo que queramos. De esta manera, la cultura actual ha perdido de vista el verdadero significado del cuerpo. De igual modo, los Cristianos también tienden a restarle importancia al cuerpo físico. En Lo que Dios dice sobre tu cuerpo, Sam Allberry argumenta que la Biblia tiene mucho qué decir sobre el cuerpo y muestra que la importancia práctica de la enseñanza de la Escritura sobre este tema impacta cómo deben pensar y comportarse los cristianos. El libro está organizado alrededor de tres categorías: lo que Dios planeó para el cuerpo (creación), el impacto del pecado en el cuerpo (caída) y cómo Dios redimirá el cuerpo (redención). Este recurso proveerá a los creyentes una teología del cuerpo balanceada y accesible, al buscar glorificar a Dios en todo lo que hacen.

La muerte de la pornografía

Hombres de integridad construyendo un mundo de nobleza
THE DEATH OF PORN
RAY ORTLUND

Pastor Ray Ortlund calls pornography the “wallpaper of the world”—so widespread that it can't be avoided. No man is free from exposure to it. So how can every man fight to get his dignity back? How can men band together to stop playing defense and start playing offense against the industry creating porn? The Death of Porn is a series of personal letters to young men, calling an entire generation to believe in their God-given royalty and to push back against the degrading porn industry. As men walk together in honesty, prayer, and activism, they can diminish the industry, pushing it out to the margins of culture, stigmatizing its image, choking its demand, calling its bluff, and reducing its income. Men standing together to lead the movement as champions of nobility can build a new world where all people are dignified as never before.

El pastor Ray Ortlund llama a la pornografía el «papel tapiz del mundo», tan extenso que no puede ser evadido. Ningún hombre está exento de ser expuesto a ella. Entonces, ¿cómo pueden luchar por recuperar su dignidad? ¿Cómo pueden los hombres unirse para dejar de jugar defensiva y comenzar a jugar en la ofensiva contra la industria que crea la pornografía? La muerte de la pornografía consta de una serie de cartas personales a hombres jóvenes y llama a la generación entera a creer en su realeza dada por Dios y rechazar la degradante industria pornográfica. Al caminar juntos en honestidad, oración y activismo, los hombres pueden disminuir la industria pornográfica y sacarla a los márgenes de la cultura, estigmatizar su imagen, ahorcar sus demandas, revelar sus engaños y reducir sus ingresos. Los hombres que se juntan para liderar juntos el movimiento como campeones de la nobleza pueden construir un mundo nuevo donde todas las personas son dignificadas como nunca antes.

CHURCH

J. GARRETT KELL

There are times where the church can seem rather intimidating. It can look like a building full of perfect people with perfect lives, not a place where someone who has sinned would belong. There is nothing further from the truth. The church is the people of God that gathers because they love and need God, and they love and need each other. Garrett Kell explains what is the church and why it is important if we attend or not.

En ocasiones, la iglesia puede ser algo intimidante. Puede parecer un edificio lleno de personas perfectas que tienen vidas perfectas, no un lugar al que pertenece alguien que se ha equivocado. No hay nada más lejos de la verdad. La iglesia es el pueblo de Dios que se reúne porque ama y necesita a Dios, y se aman y se necesitan unos a otros. Garrett Kell explica qué es la iglesia y por qué es importante si acudimos o no.

ANDY PRIME

Life is so confusing! There is a multitude of voices calling out to be heard. Which one is the «right one»? We sometimes make decisions that instead of being biblical, good, or even moral, seem to be taken blindly, hoping they result in a positive outcome. This third book of the First Steps series considers the wisdom offered in the book of Proverbs. God has not left us alone navigating life and doing the best we can. His guidance is there if we would only take time to look.

A veces tomamos decisiones que, en vez de ser bíblicas, buenas, o incluso morales, parecen ser tomadas a ciegas, esperando que resulten en algo positivo. Este tercer libro de la serie Primeros Pasos considera la sabiduría que nos ofrece el libro de Proverbios. Dios no nos ha dejado solos para navegar por la vida y hacer lo mejor que podamos. Discipulado profundo

DEEP DISCIPLESHIP

J. T. ENGLISH

The majority of Christians today are being discipled by popular media, flashy events, and folk theology because churches have neglected their responsibility to make disciples. But the church is not a secondary platform in the mission of God; it is the primary platform God uses to grow people into the image of Jesus. Therefore, as church leaders, it is our primary responsibility to establish environments and relationships where people can be trained, grow, and be sent as disciples.

La mayoría de los cristianos hoy en día son discipulados por medios populares, eventos ostentosos y teología tradicional porque las iglesias han descuidado su responsabilidad de hacer discípulos. Pero la iglesia no es una plataforma secundaria en la misión de Dios; es la plataforma principal que Dios usa para que Su pueblo crezca a la imagen de Jesús. Por lo tanto, como líderes en la iglesia, es nuestra responsabilidad principal establecer entornos y relaciones donde las personas puedan ser entrenadas, crecer y ser enviadas como discípulos.

The Book of Psalms is often read and considered as a book that inspires, motivates, and gives comfort throughout the different situations and stages of life. Nevertheless, Psalms is much more than that. In this book, written as a study, the author seeks to explore what Psalms 103 says about who God is, His attributes, His character, and the impact of those truths in the life of the reader that helps him recognize God as worthy of worship and praise. This book seeks to help the reader read and interpret the book of Psalms correctly. This study is 6 weeks long, with 5 lessons each. At the end a guide is included to facilitate group study.

A menudo se leen los Salmos como un libro que inspira, que da aliento y consuelo en las diferentes situaciones y etapas de la vida. Sin embargo, Salmos es mucho más que eso. En este libro, a manera de estudio, se busca explorar lo que el Salmo 103 dice sobre quién es Dios, Sus atributos, Su carácter y qué impacto tienen esas verdades en la vida del lector que lo llevan a reconocer a Dios como digno de alabanza y adoración. También se busca ayudar al lector a leer e interpretar correctamente el libro de Salmos. El estudio abarca 6 semanas, con 5 lecciones cada una. Al final se incluye una guía para facilitar el estudio en grupos.

Basta ya de mí

ENOUGH ABOUT ME
JEN OSHMAN

Women today feel a constant pressure to improve themselves and just never feel like they're "enough." They live their daily lives disheartened, disillusioned, and disappointed. That's because joy doesn't come from a new self-improvement strategy; it comes from rooting their identity in who God says they are and what He has done on their behalf. This book calls women to look away from themselves in order to find the abundant life God offers them—contrasting the cultural emphasis on personal improvement and empowerment with what the Scriptures say about a life rooted, built up, and established in the gospel.

Las mujeres hoy en día sienten una presión constante de mejorar y pueden sentir que nunca son "suficientes". Viven sus vidas diarias desalentadas, decepcionadas y desilusionadas. Esto sucede porque el gozo no viene por tener una nueva estrategia de automejora, sino por arraigar su identidad en quien Dios dice que la mujer es y lo que ha hecho por ella. Este libro anima a las mujeres a desviar sus miradas de ellas mismas para encontrar la vida abundante que Dios les ofrece, lo cual contrasta el énfasis cultural de la superación personal y el empoderamiento con lo que la Escritura dice sobre una vida arraigada, construida y establecida en el evangelio.

Un estudio de la vida de Lea
LEAH UNVEILED
MICHELLE KAFER

Though history has reduced her story to only descriptive paragraphs, this twelve-week Bible study will unveil why God chose to carry her testimony for our benefit in living out the Christian life. God took her humble position and grafted her into the scarlet thread of the Gospel story.

Aunque la historia ha reducido su relato a párrafos descriptivos, este estudio bíblico de 12 semanas revelará por qué Dios escogió preservar su testimonio para nuestro beneficio al vivir la vida cristiana. Dios tomó la humilde posición de esta mujer y la entretejió en el hilo escarlata de la narrativa del evangelio.

Poder redimido

REDEEMING POWER
DIANE LANGBERG

Power has a God-given role in human relationships and institutions, but it can lead to abuse when used in unhealthy ways. Speaking into current #MeToo and #ChurchToo conversations, this book shows that the body of Christ desperately needs to understand the forms power takes, how it is abused, and how to respond to abuses of power. Although many Christians want to prevent abuse in their churches and organizations, they lack a deep and clear-eyed understanding of how power actually works. Internationally recognized psychologist Diane Langberg offers a clinical and theological framework for understanding how power operates, the effects of the abuse of power, and how power can be redeemed and restored to its proper God-given place in relationships and institutions. This book not only helps Christian leaders identify and resist abusive systems but also shows how they can use power to protect the vulnerable in their midst.

El poder tiene un rol dado por Dios en las relaciones humanas e instituciones, pero puede llevar al abuso cuando se usa de manera incorrecta. Este libro habla a las conversaciones actuales #yo también y #la iglesia también y muestra que el cuerpo de Cristo necesita desesperadamente entender las formas que toma el poder, cómo el poder es abusado y cómo responder a los abusos de poder. A pesar de que muchos cristianos quieren prevenir el abuso en sus iglesias y organizaciones, les falta un entendimiento profundo y claro de cómo funciona realmente el poder. La psicóloga internacionalmente reconocida Diane Langberg ofrece un marco clínico y teológico para entender cómo opera el poder, los efectos del abuso de poder y cómo el poder puede ser redimido y restaurado a su lugar dado por Dios en las relaciones e instituciones. Este libro no solamente ayudará a los líderes cristianos a identificar y resistir los sistemas abusivos, sino que también muestra cómo pueden usar el poder para proteger a los vulnerables en medio de ellos.
