PUBLISHING

Lifeway is a trusted, 130 year old publishing company founded in the office of a local church pastor in Nashville, Tennessee (est. 1891). Behind every support specialist, Bible study editor, graphic designer, and accountant is a Sunday School teacher, kids volunteer, or small group leader. And we're all in it for the same reason—to fuel the church's mission of making disciples.

We are the global market leader in Bible studies, devotionals, magazines, camp experiences, events, and curriculum.

Lifeway serves pastors, church leaders, students, kids, women, and men. We provide access to resources for the Church through one of the premier online stores (Lifeway.com) for Christian products in the world. Our customer base is the largest constituency for Christian resourcing in the Christian market.

You Are a Theologian

An Invitation to Know and Love God Well

JEN WILKIN AND J. T. ENGLISH

Theology can be intimidating. Perhaps questions like these have kept you from engaging with it: "What is theology?" "Who does theology?" "What happens if I get something wrong?"

The goal of this book, and of theology, is knowing and loving God well. This is a lifelong journey, a never-ending pursuit, not for knowledge that puffs up but with God as the prize. Authors Jen Wilkin and J. T. English invite you to become more than a mere consumer of theology, but a contributor to the conversation about God.

You Are a Theologian addresses theological questions such as:

- Who is God? - The Doctrine of God
- What is God like? - The Attributes of God
- What is the Bible? - The Doctrine of Scripture
- Who are we? - The Doctrine of Humanity
- What went wrong? - The Doctrine of Sin
- What has God done? - The Doctrines of Christ, Salvation, and the Holy Spirit
- To whom do we belong? - The Doctrine of the Church
- How does the story end? - The Doctrine of Last Things

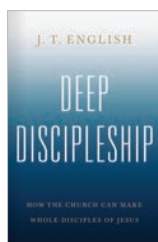

audience

- Everyday Christians looking to develop their understanding of theology
- Church leaders looking for a book to use with groups in their church to train their members in theology
- Readers of Jen Wilkin books and Bible studies and of Deep Discipleship by J. T. English

marketing highlights

- Jen Wilkin's Women of the Word has sold more than half a million copies and she has become a leading voice for training up the church through books and Bible studies
- Jen and J. T. served together at The Village Church Institute, developing much of this content and testing it with their students and also teach this in a cohort setting with training the church
- Jen and J. T. cohost the popular Knowing Faith podcast (alongside Kyle Worley), where they reach more than 40K listeners with each episode

To Be a Woman

The Confusion Over Female Identity and How Christians Can Respond

KATIE J. McCOY

We live in a cultural moment where the definition of “woman” eludes the keenest of thinkers and brightest of scientists, where one’s biological sex and one’s gender are divorced, where the meaning of gender itself is a constantly moving target, and where girls and women, especially, struggle to know who they are.

Where societal confusion has naturally ensued from this state of affairs, and Christians especially wonder how to think and respond to it, Katie J. McCoy offers a clear and helpful guide in her debut trade book, To Be a Woman.

In these pages, Katie will help you understand:

- why, as a culture, we’ve arrived in such a place of gender confusion
- what the relationship is between biological sex and gender, and why this relationship is so crucial
- the truth about gender transitioning, including the irreversible damage of hormone therapy on the female human body
- common myths and misunderstandings in the gender debate
- what Scripture and science have to say on the matter
- ways to respond in a Christlike way to loved ones struggling with gender identity

audience

- Women ages 25-45 who are impacted most by the conversations around biological sex, transgenderism, and female identity
- Christians who are seeking to understand what Scripture says about gender, along with the severe biological risks associated with gender transitioning on the female body
- Christians wondering how to respond in Christlike ways to those struggling with gender identity
- Those associated with women’s ministry across the Southern Baptist Convention

marketing highlights

- Katie J. McCoy offers a clear and helpful guide to this highly controversial hot topic
- This resource will help Christians understand why our culture struggles with understanding gender, why the relationship between biological sex and gender is crucial, what Scripture and science say on the matter, and how Christian should respond
- Katie teaches and writes on the intersection of theology, culture, and women’s issues, and has co-authored a work on the doctrine of humanity as part of the Theology for the People of God series (B&H Academic)

KATIE J. McCOY serves as director of women’s ministry at Texas Baptists. She holds a PhD in systematic theology from The Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary (TX), where she served on faculty for five years. Katie teaches and writes on the intersection of theology, culture, and women’s issues, and has co-authored a work on the doctrine of humanity as part of the Theology for the People of God series (B&H Academic). Included among her research is discovering the pattern of justice for women in Old Testament laws. You can find Katie online at blondeorthodoxy.com.

Women & Work

Bearing God's Image and Joining His Mission through Our Work

COURTNEY MOORE

God gave His people work to do in the Garden of Eden before sin entered the world. Work is not untouched by sin, but it is good, as God allows us to image Him and the way He works through our lives.

Vocation and work are often a charged topic for women—inside or outside the home. Be a homeschool teacher or send your kids to public school? Wash clothes and dishes to the glory of God or work in the corporate world for the same?

In this practical book on the theology of work, read wisdom from women who represent all the realms of where a woman might find herself working and discover:

- how to think about calling
- how to work from weakness
- how to find joy in wise stewardship, no matter the field
- how to join the mission of God in both motherhood and childlessness
- how to image God in both secular and sacred work
- how to manage and work with men
- how to grow through conflict

All work is Kingdom work. As women, let's join together in celebrating the good gift of work.

audience

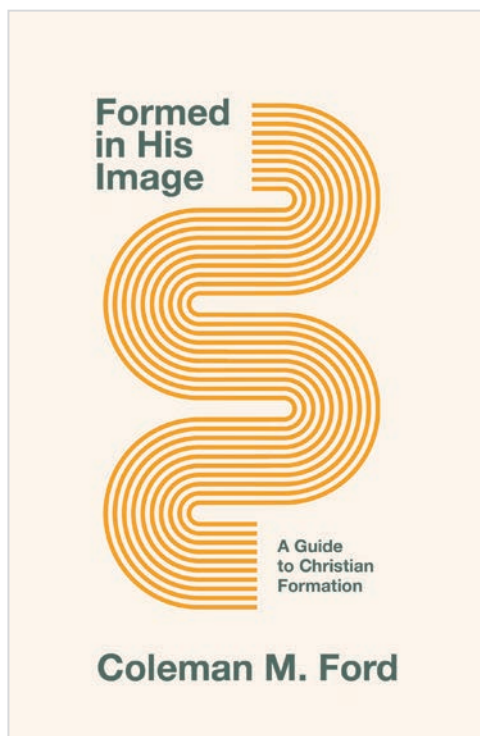

- Women who desire to understand the theology of women and work
- Followers of contributors to the book, which includes Courtney Moore, Elyze Fitzpatrick, Jen Oshman, Hannah Anderson, Missie Branch, Portia Collins, Courtney Reissig, Faith Whatley, Amy Whitfield, Joanna Meyer, and Courtney Powell
- Followers of Women & Work—a Southern Baptist Convention-adjacent organization founded by Courtney Moore that exists to see women confidently step into their God-given calling and view their work as meaningful to the Kingdom of God—and listeners of the Women & Work Podcast and readers of the Women and Work Blog

marketing highlights

- Leading voices like Elyze Fitzpatrick, Jen Oshman, and Hannah Anderson write from their experience as women in the workplace in various capacities
- This book presents a theology of work for women working both inside and outside the home, giving practical instruction for engaging all work as Kingdom work
- Women & Work is an organization with a growing following and media presence

COURTNEY MOORE is the founder and president of Women & Work, as well as co-host of the Women & Work Podcast. She holds a B.A. in Religious Studies from the University of Mobile and an M.A. in Biblical Counseling from The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. Courtney is passionate about seeing Jesus Christ honored by women as they steward their gifts and leverage their unique potential for His glory. She has been married to Brent for 15 years. They have three great kids and live in El Paso, TX where Brent pastors LIFEchurch.

Formed in His Image

A Guide to Christian Formation

COLEMAN M. FORD

Every day, we are being formed by what we consume and engage. From social media to the latest Netflix binge, our minds are being led by what we ingest with our eyes. Yet, the call of the Christian is this: to be conformed to Christ.

The work of Christian formation is an exercise in surrender of the whole self, dwelling in God's Word, and allowing Him to shape and mold His people. In this book, you'll find:

- A call to recover truth, goodness, and beauty in the work of formation
- A clear presentation of key doctrines and the work of "getting it right" for rich Christian formation
- Practical guidance on developing a culture of formation within your church
- A call to a deepened commitment to formation for the minister through embracing humility, cultivating friendship, and pursuing a vibrant spiritual life
- Assessments for both individuals and churches

audience

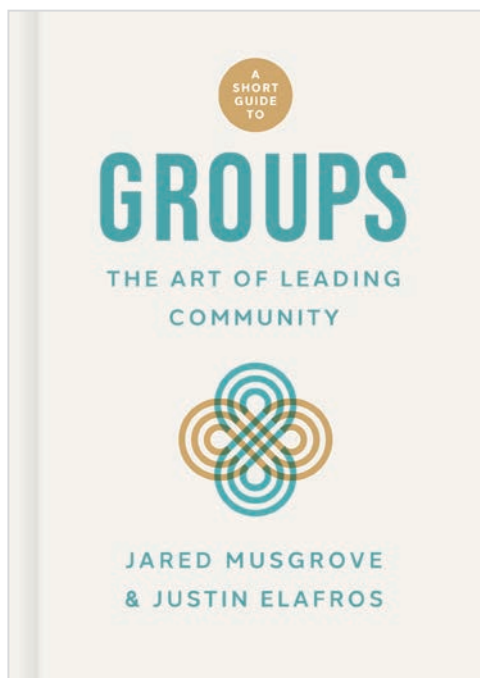

- Pastors and church leaders
- Seminary students and those preparing for pastoral ministry
- Professors who teach formation classes so that they might adopt the book into their syllabus

marketing highlights

- Formation, both in Christian and secular spheres, has become a trending topic and this book provides a guide for right formation according to biblical standards
- Coleman's expertise in guiding future pastors in Christian formation gives him a strong voice on this topic
- With connections to The Gospel Coalition and multiple seminaries, Coleman will support this book with interviews and writing, as well as digital campaigns via B&H

COLEMAN M. FORD is assistant professor of Christian Formation and director of professional doctoral studies at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is the co-director of the Center for Ancient Christian Studies and is a fellow of the Center for Pastoral Theologians (St. Basil Fellowship). He is the author of Salvation in the Patristic Era in Historical Theology for the Church; A Bond Between Souls: Spiritual Friendship in the Letters of Augustine; 'Beauty in Patristic Thought' in Lexham Handbook on Early Christian Dogma; Care of Souls is the Art of Arts: Pastoral Ministry in Patristic Perspective, co-authored; and An Invitation to Christian Formation.

A Short Guide to Groups

The Art of Leading Community

DR. JARED MUSGROVE AND JUSTIN ELAFROS

We are made for community. Deep within the hearts of people is a longing to both know others and be known by them, and groups ministry has the opportunity to meet these needs in every church.

Groups are an art, not a science. There's no one-size-fits-all formula for designing transformational groups that God uses to mold people into the image of Christ together. There are dozens of variables and unknowns in the work of groups, but we believe the following is true:

- There is no lasting transformation in a person without another person or persons.
- The less relational your church is, the less transformational your church will be.
- The people in your group are a partial inheritance from the Lord right now.
- Groups exist for community with God and one another.
- So goes groups, so goes the church. So goes the church, so goes groups.

Groups, at their core, embody the call to love one another found sixty times throughout the New Testament. This book is for people who love the possibilities of groups. And for those who want to.

marketing highlights

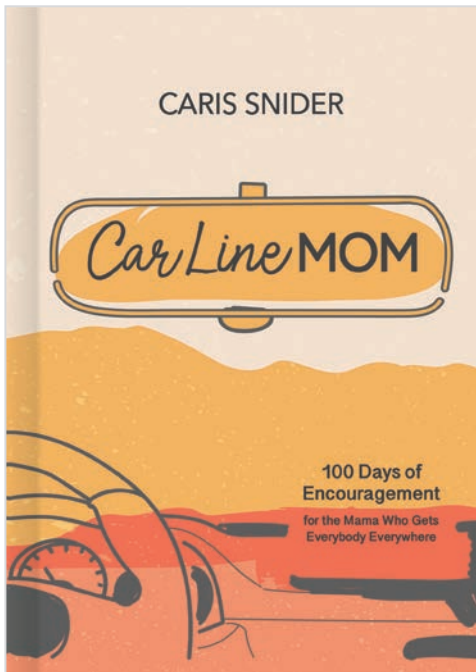

- Musgrove and Elafros have more than forty years of combined experience leading small groups
- Every church's goal is to raise up new groups and new leaders, and this book provides the training needed as churches grow
- All books in this series are specifically designed to be read within churches, whether that be among leadership teams, small groups, or congregationally with discussion guides at the end of each chapter

DR. JARED MUSGROVE is executive director and co-founder of the Community Leadership Collective, serving local churches and nonprofits. He served for years as leadership pastor, groups pastor, and an elder at The Village Church in Flower Mound, TX. He is currently the executive pastor of spiritual formation at The Well Church in Dallas/Fort Worth. He earned a bachelor's in journalism from The University of Oklahoma, a Master of Divinity and a doctorate in Executive Leadership from The Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is active on leadership and advisory boards for Beta Upsilon Chi (BYX), Southwestern Seminary, and Story Church in Rancho Cucamonga, CA. Jared is the proud husband of Jenny and father of Jordan and Joshua.

JUSTIN ELAFROS is the groups pastor at The Village Church in Flower Mound, TX (SBC, Acts 29) and is the co-founder of the Community Leadership Collective. He earned his B.A. from Moody Bible Institute and his M.A. in ministry from Cedarville University. He has dedicated his adult life to ministry leadership, mentoring, and disciple making. Prior to pastoring at The Village Church he worked in Student Ministry for 10 years and was a residential director for men at Cedarville University. He loves theology, sports, good friends, and spending time with his wife Christy and three children Cooper, Beckham, and Adelynn.

Car Line Mom Devotional

100 Days of Encouragement for the Mama Who Gets Everybody Everywhere
CARIS SNIDER

Do you feel like your life these days is basically just carting your people everywhere? Are your mornings filled with horns blaring, cars speeding, and pressure mounting to get out of the house and to the front of the car line on time? Does your blood pressure rise as you fear the inevitable explosion from one of your kids over the wrong breakfast food or forgotten homework assignment? And on the other end of your day, do you find that the afternoon is filled with waiting, at a snail's pace, for the day to conclude?

Caris Snider gets it.

Whether it's waiting in the car line or waiting for the afternoon to finally end, she knows that those moments of pausing are sacred for a busy mama like you. In those precious moments, Caris has learned that she has a choice to move toward things that induce anxiety for the rest of her day, or instead, move toward God's Word, which floods her with encouragement.

In Car Line Mom Devotional, she offers you that very same encouragement with 100 fun, warm, and on-the-go devotions that remind you of God's love, energizing you for the many stops ahead in your journey for the day. As you take in each day's devotion, enjoy relatable stories, life-giving passages of Scripture, and daily action steps, too.

You have to get your people everywhere—that's not changing any time soon. But in the waiting moments, discover the joy available to you if you take back your time and soak in God's favor and grace, day by day, stop by stop!

audience

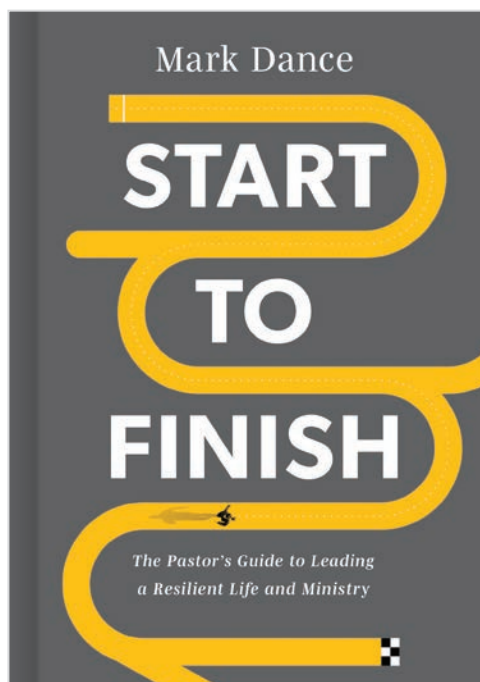

- Evangelical moms
- Followers of Caris and readers of her previous books
- Gift buyers for moms and devotional readers

Start to Finish

The Pastor's Guide to Leading a Resilient Life and Ministry

MARK DANCE

There has always been a special weight to ministry. As pastors come to lead their churches, they recognize very quickly that the task they have been called to comes with very special expectations. And with each passing year, it feels like we now live in a time when pastors and ministry leaders can no longer live up to those expectations. Burnout is rampant. Pastors are stepping down in order to protect the well-being of themselves and their families. Moral failings seem to bring down leaders we once viewed as giants. And amid all of this, upcoming pastors are entering the ministry with the difficult task of finding hope in trying times.

Mark Dance addresses this frustration in his book, Start to Finish. In this book, ministry leaders will find the guidance to finish the race well from start to finish. Whether you are ten years into your ministry or have not even taken the first steps, this book will discuss the important steps to take that will encourage the reader to serve well, lead well, and end well.

audience

- Pastors and ministry leaders
- Seminary students and those preparing for pastoral ministry
- Buyers of similar books like Gun Lap, Shepherding Like Jesus, and Stay the Course

marketing highlights

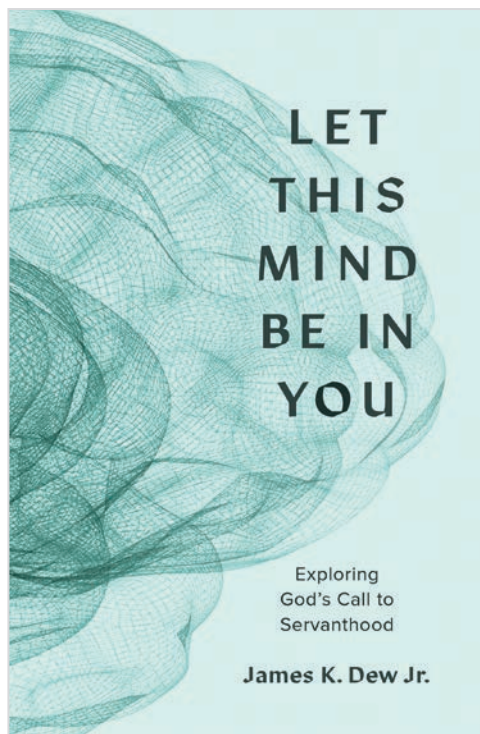

- Mark Dance equips readers with a manual for becoming the kind of men God intends for them to be and leading others to do the same
- Mark Dance has served as a lead pastor/planter for 27 years before launching Lifeway Pastors, the Care4Pastors Network, and Oklahoma's Ministry Pipeline.
- He currently serves as the Director of Pastoral Wellness for Guidestone Financial Resources; he also speaks at conferences and writes for various mediums.

Let This Mind Be in You

Exploring God's Call to Servanthood

JAMES K. DEW JR.

Let This Mind Be in You explores God's call on our lives to servanthood. Aimed specifically at ministers of the gospel, this book argues that servanthood is essential to every form of Christian service. When we consider the teachings of Scripture and the example of Jesus, we simply cannot be who we are supposed to be without taking the posture of servants.

The World God Made

HANNAH AND NATHAN ANDERSON

Then trust the One who loves His own, who gives us all the earth as home.

Celebrating the wonders of nature, this retelling of Psalm 104 invites children and the adults who love them to enjoy and explore “the world God made.”

From page to page, the lyrical language parallels the original psalm, moving from one feature of the natural world to the next—from the sky and earth to the animals and oceans—and introducing questions from a child’s view. What about when strong winds blow? When birds fly far away? When nighttime is long? Each uncertainty is met with a truth about God’s character to comfort children and give them the confidence they need to explore the world around them. These revelations of nature remind readers young and old of God’s presence throughout the entirety of their lives. The One who made all the earth is in control and always with us.

Author Hannah Anderson’s stirring words are joined by soft, realistic watercolors from her husband, Nathan Anderson. Together they have created a book with a timeless aesthetic and readability, one that will resonate with families who celebrate nature and the beauty and wisdom that come from the world God made.

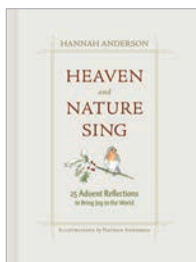

audience

- Parents of children ages 4-8; grandparents and other buyers of books for kids ages 4-8
- Individuals who have read Hannah Anderson’s other books, listen to her Persuasion podcast, or look to her as an example of serving well in many years of ministry as a minister’s wife
- Parents and homeschool families who want to teach young children about the beauty of nature and the world God made

marketing highlights

- Hannah’s astoundingly beautiful retelling of Psalm 104 points to the glory of God’s creation, inviting children to reflect on the beauty of nature and the wisdom that comes from the world God made
- Hannah’s wide network includes outlets like Christianity Today, The Gospel Coalition, Christ and Pop Culture, The Rabbit Room, and more
- This is Hannah’s first children’s book; her husband Nathan’s beautiful watercolor illustrations, which are illustrated entirely by hand, perfectly complement the words in the story

HANNAH ANDERSON lives in the Blue Ridge Mountains with her husband, Nathan, and their three children. An author and speaker, Hannah is captivated by the story of creation and hopes to help readers encounter nature with fresh curiosity and wonder. When not writing, she often finds herself running after her golden retriever, Benjamin, or enjoying long philosophical conversations with her cat, Francis. You can connect with Hannah at sometimesalight.com

NATHAN ANDERSON grew up on a dirt road in the mountains of rural Virginia. As long as he can remember, nature and art have been sources of solace and inspiration. On a given day, you can find him working in his garden, sketching the details of a fern, or out on a bird walk with binoculars in hand. A church administrator by profession, Nathan has a keen eye for detail and loves to travel. He hopes to eventually visit all seven continents in the world God made.

C.S. Lewis

The Very Happy Christian

DANIEL DEWITT

Not every author can write about a wardrobe and a lion and end up delighting readers for generations. But then again, not every author is C.S. Lewis. This biographical picture book welcomes readers to get to know the man behind Aslan and Narnia and to experience the joy that inspired him.

Young Clive Staples Lewis once loved imagination and play but was unable to trust God after the death of his mother. He left behind a belief in God and became an atheist and a professor. But he never stopped hoping to find joy. This unique picture book, narrated by a bespectacled owl, tells the tale of how the once reluctant Lewis slowly embraced Christianity, was surprised by joy, and then used his words and writings to share that joy with the world.

Daniel DeWitt, author and C.S. Lewis scholar, summarizes the life of Lewis in a way that is engaging and inspiring. Young readers will walk away not only wanting to know more about the life and faith of Lewis but wanting to discover their own joy in Christ as well.

C.S. Lewis: The Very Happy Christian is the second book in the Here I Am! biography series for kids, which highlights fascinating and faithful Christians in history.

LINDA MacKILLOP

Home isn't always what we dream it will be.

Eleven-year-old Sierra just wants a normal life. After her military mother returns from the war overseas, the two hop from home to homelessness while Sierra tries to help her mom through the throes of PTSD.

When they end up at a shelter for women and children, Sierra is even more aware of what her life is not. The kind couple who run the shelter, Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin, attempt to show her parental love as she faces the uncertainties of her mom's emotional health and the challenges of being the brand-new poor kid in middle school. The longer she stays at the shelter, the more Sierra realizes she may have to face an impossible choice as she redefines home.

This middle-grade novel offers a compassionate look at poverty, homelessness, and hope. Readers walk alongside brave Sierra as she holds on to a promise she believes God gave her: that one day she will have a real home. But what if that promise looks far different than she has ever dreamed?

audience

- Parents with vocations that require moving often, where home becomes a more challenging concept to define
- Parents of children ages 8-12, teachers and middle-grade readers
- Christian parents who want their children to cultivate compassion about tough issues such as poverty, homelessness, and mental illness
- Summer reading or book-club reading

marketing highlights

- Shows children a compassionate look into the hard reality of others
- The story is written from the perspective of an 11-year-old girl who doesn't have a typical home life
- Readers walk alongside the main character as she redefines home
- Military families will recognize the spelling out of "H.O.M.E." in the title, and will find a shared experience of struggling to define home

LINDA MacKILLOP writes stories for both adults and kids. She and her husband, Bill, raised four sons in a book-filled home with nightly read-aloud time. Her favorite read-aloud place is a tent, preferably on the water. After living in Virginia for many years, she now resides outside of Chicago in an empty nest. Linda earned her MFA degree in creative writing from the Rainier Writing Workshop and strives to put life's broken pieces and people together again through stories filled with heart and charm. Thinking About God

ALEX EARLY

Theology is a word that tends to collect a lot of dust, and in-depth theological thinking often only comes later in life. But that doesn't need to be the case! In Thinking About God, Alex Early proves that theology is absolutely fascinating at any age, and who better to engage than kids whose curiosity and wonder are eager to be fed?

Developed from conversations the author shared with his own kids, this unique book equips young readers with the essential doctrines of the faith while consistently emphasizing the relational aspects of our faith with God, self, and others. The accessible Q & A format allows kids to read straight through or jump to any question that intrigues them, such as What is God like? What or who is the Trinity? Why does sin matter so much? Why did Jesus die?

This book creatively and biblically bridges the gap between big, important theological concepts and young minds. . . and it does it in a way that will help a lot of older minds as well! You don't need to wait for a theme-park trip to see your child's face light up with awe and wonder. With Thinking About God, young minds can be filled with the truths of Scripture in ways that inspire them and engage them at their level. Your child's brilliant mind, fantastic imagination, and endless questions are all welcome in the wonderfully safe world of theology.

audience

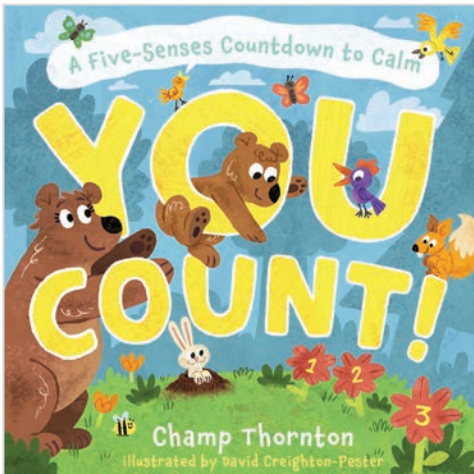

- Parents and grandparents of children ages 6-10
- Children's ministries and churches seeking to encourage discussion about theology
- Readers of The Ology: Ancient Truths, Ever New, 10 Questions Every Teen Should Ask About Christianity, His Grace Is Enough, The Radical Book for Kidss, and Life as a Christian by Mary Wiley

marketing highlights

- Shows children how to wonder at Christian theology at an early age
- Offers a safe place where big, theological words are explained for elementary ages and children are equipped to think about scripture
- Children have the opportunity to grow in theological depth and be discipled before they head into middle and high school
- Q & A format great for a child to read alone or for family discipleship time

ALEX EARLY and his wife, Jana, are happy parents to Tovah ("Boo") and Jude ("Moshi"). Alex is a pastor, author, and lecturer. He's a trail-running, motorcycle-riding, cardigan-wearing, leadership-developing, tattoo-acquiring, atonement scholar who roots passionately for the Seattle Sounders, tacos, and backyard hangs. Beyond earning two master's degrees and his doctorate, his greatest accomplishment is winning his elementary school talent show in the fifth grade doing a stand-up comedy routine. The family dog is a bernedoodle named Dempsey (after the professional soccer player). The Earlys live in Seattle. You can learn more about Alex at paeearly.com.

You Count!

A Five-Senses Countdown to Calm

CHAMP THORNTON

Your feelings always count to God!

Toddlers and preschoolers often struggle with emotions like anxiety, fear, and sadness because they lack the maturity to address, process, and communicate their hardest feelings. But counting down and focusing on the five senses can help calm and conquer any fired-up emotions.

In You Count! A Five-Senses Countdown to Calm, preschoolers follow an upset baby bear through his daily routine. He is guided by his mama to focus his attention on the senses God gave him. By observing the outer world, baby bear learns to manage his inner world.

Once the baby bear is calm and focused, his mama reminds him that God feels for him too. This book serves as a valuable tool for both preschoolers and their parents as they learn that even the biggest feelings are normal and valuable.

marketing highlights

- Teaches preschoolers and caregivers the 5, 4, 3, 2, 1 calm-down strategy
- Reinforces counting skills, the five senses, naming emotions, and other skills important for preschoolers to learn
- Reminds children that even the biggest feelings are normal and valued by God

CHAMP THORNTON (PhD from Midwestern) and his wife, Robben, live in Newark, Delaware, have been married since 1996, and enjoy being parents to three energetic teenage children. He's the author of many books for kids and families, including The Radical Book for Kids and Why Do We Say Thank You? Learning to Be Grateful. INTRODUCING BIBLE STUDIES with VIDEO ACCESS INCLUDED!

As trends in media consumption change from DVDs to streaming video, Lifeway made the decision to invest in technology that would allow for Bible studies to be accessed through mobile devices and smart TVs in addition to our website.

The concept of a Bible study book with video access allows us to use the technology to give all participants easier access to teaching videos. This will alleviate a concern we have heard from many group leaders of members who stop coming to their group after they miss a week of study.

How will customers access the videos that come with their Bible study book with video access?

There is a unique access code printed in each Bible study book. They will access their video content at my.lifeway.com or through the Lifeway On Demand app.

How long will they have access to the videos that come with their Bible study book?

There is no expiration date on the video access that comes with their Bible study book. They'll be able to access it as long as it is available through our Lifeway On Demand video apps.

What are the benefits of video access being included in each Bible study book?

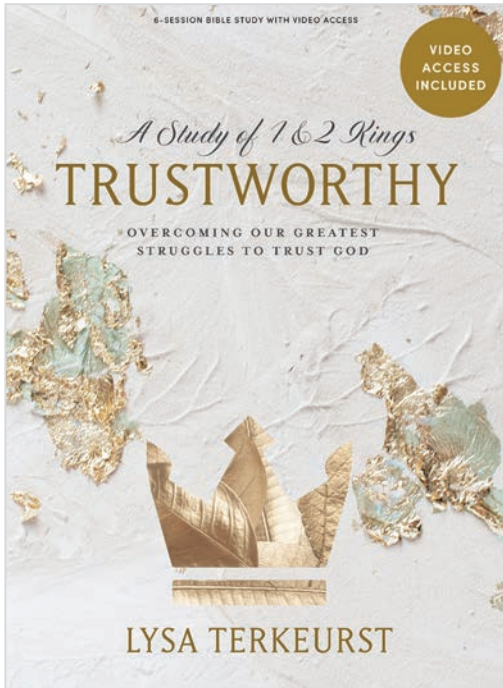

- This provides more flexibility for group meeting time. Groups now have the option to have group members watch video sessions outside of group meetings to allow more time for discussion.
- If a group member misses a weekly group meeting due to sickness or travel, they will be able to access the video content on their own and continue in their study.
- Group members can re-watch video sessions that were particularly impactful on their own time.
- This simplifies what a group leader needs to facilitate Bible study. You'll now get everything you need with just the Bible study book.
- Our goal is to provide an affordable option for both individuals and churches who are looking for Bible study options.

What do churches and individuals need to lead a group?

Each group member will need a Bible study book, which will include video access. There is also a DVD option for groups who want a non-streaming viewing option. For the best experience, we recommend each group member have a Bible study book.

When do group leaders need a DVD Set?

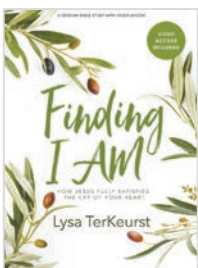

Because the Bible study book includes video streaming access, the purchase of the DVD set is optional (not essential) for group leaders. This option is for groups who may not have reliable streaming internet access.

Overcoming Our Greatest Struggles to Trust God

LYSA TERKEURST

When hard times come and it seems God is deviating from the plan we assume our life should follow, we're more likely to want to tame God, not trust Him. It's then that we begin to press into our ways and our own timing. No human can carry the weight of being their own god, but so many of us try.

In this 6-session study of 1 & 2 Kings, join Lysa TerKeurst in Israel as she honestly reveals the places of distrust in her own heart while exploring the deeply applicable Scriptures that will teach us how to truly trust God.

features

- Leader helps to guide questions and discussions within small groups
- Personal study segments to complete between 6 weeks of group sessions
- 6 enriching teaching videos, approximately 15–25 minutes per session, available via redemption code printed in Bible study book for individual streaming access

benefits

- Identify and challenge doubts in the one true God.
- Explore how the Old Testament applies to our lives today.
- Learn to trust in the goodness and faithfulness of God.

Discovering God's Extravagant Love in Unexpected Places

LISA HARPER

Maybe your head knows that God is always good, but your heart's not so sure. Or perhaps while reading Scripture, you've wondered if our Creator Redeemer went through a personality change—from strictly enforcing the rules in the Old Testament to loving the outcast in the New.

In this 7-session Bible study, you'll discover divine love in the often overlooked and misunderstood passages of Scripture. And you'll be delighted to find that Jehovah of the Old Testament is the same redemptive and compassionate God we see through Jesus Christ in the New Testament. With her signature humor and scholarly insight, Lisa will show you that God has always been and will always be for you!

features

- Leader helps to guide questions and discussions within small groups
- Personal study segments to complete among 7 weeks of group sessions
- 7 teaching videos, approximately 30–40 minutes per session, available via redemption code printed in Bible study book for individual streaming access

benefits

- Tackle some overlooked or misunderstood passages in Scripture, uncovering how they actually amplify the love and goodness of God.
- Explore the historical-cultural context of biblical texts to grasp their deeper meaning.
- Discover God's redemptive heart throughout Scripture and how He longs to redeem you.
- Allow a renewed understanding of God's perfect compassion and perfect holiness to drive you to deeper intimacy and trust in Him.

Desperate for Hope

Questions We Ask God in Suffering, Loss, and Longing

VANEETHA RISNER

Suffering can bring out the hard questions: Why am I going through this? What did I do wrong? What if this never gets better? Does God really care about me? It's easy to feel alone and slip into despair—disillusioned with God, hopeless about the future, and doubting your faith.

In this 7-session study, Vaneetha Risner tackles the hard questions and offers a scriptural framework to help you find hope in your pain. She will be a gracious guide through this difficult topic, walking alongside you as you study about women in the Bible who suffered loss, while also sharing some of her own painful experiences of longing and grief. In the end, you'll find that the answer to your hard questions is found in the character, goodness, and sovereignty of God.

features

- 6 weeks of personal study to be completed between 7 group sessions
- 7 teaching videos 10-15 minutes via redemption code printed in the Bible study book
- Leader helps for group discussion

benefits

- Gain confidence to bring your hard questions to God.
- Find strength and hope through Scripture when all hope seems lost.
- Be equipped to come alongside others who are suffering.
- Rest in the presence, purposes, and promises of God.
- Reframe your circumstances in light of the bigger story.

audience

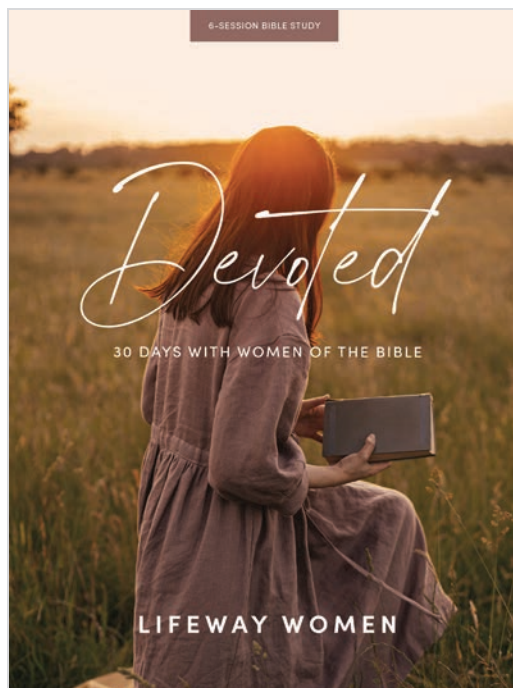

- Women; Small group leaders;

30 Days with Women of the Bible

LIFEWAY WOMEN

Sisters, daughters, friends. Prophets, missionaries, mothers. From Eve in Genesis 3 to Eunice in 2 Timothy 1, the Bible mentions countless women who bear witness to the faithfulness and love of God. While each woman is unique, they all have one thing in common—a life interwoven with God's story of redemption.

In Devoted: 30 Days with Women of the Bible, a 6-session Bible study from Lifeway Women, you'll study more than thirty women in Scripture whose lives have inspired generations of women in their faith and devotion to God. Their stories are a reminder that you, too, are made in the image of God, and you have an important part to play in God's story.

As for Me

Life Through the Lens of the Psalms

ADRIENNE CAMP

"As for me, I will tell about him forever; I will sing praise to the God of Jacob."
Psalm 75:9

From songs of praise to cries of lament and everything in-between, the book of Psalms captures the wide range of emotions in life. The psalmists paint a picture of a relationship with God that is filled with delays, disappointments, surprises, and triumphs. Through it all, their words model an incredible resolve to keep their eyes on God. Instead of being swallowed up by the darkness of their emotions and circumstances, they persevered in grabbing hold of God's unfailing love and faithfulness.

In this 7-session Bible study, author and singer Adrienne Camp invites you to join her on a journey through the book of Psalms. You will gain a deeper understanding of who God is and be encouraged to hold onto Him no matter what is happening around you. Let the psalms become the prayers you carry with you into every moment of every day, so that you, too, can say with confidence, "As for me, I will worship and serve the Lord no matter what."

features

- 6 weeks of personal study to be completed between the 7 group sessions
- 7 teaching videos 15-25 minutes via redemption code printed in the Bible study book
- Weekly reading plan through the book of Psalms for women who want to go further in their study
- Leader helps for group discussion

benefits

- Discover God's steadfast goodness through the psalms.
- Learn how to keep your eyes fixed on God, no matter the circumstances surrounding you.
- Develop a deeper walk with Jesus.
- Invite the Lord into every moment of your day.
- Find the confidence to express the full range of your emotions to God.
- Be reminded of the importance of steadfast and immovable faith in God.
- Understand God is trustworthy even when it's difficult to trust Him.

Grateful

Giving Thanks to God in All Things

LIFEWAY WOMEN

Fostering a heart of gratitude brings such blessing and joy to our lives and to those around us. Being grateful turns our eyes off ourselves and helps us cherish our time and relationships in a new way. When we are a thankful people, we point to our good God who loves and provides for us. But how can we develop grateful hearts?

The Bible shows us that becoming a thankful person begins with acknowledging how the One who owes us nothing has given us everything. Truly grasping God's goodness to us begins a process of growing in gratefulness that can be cultivated into a continual harvest of gratitude, regardless of the circumstances.

In Grateful: Giving Thanks to God in All Things, spend 4 weeks examining reasons to be grateful to God. Each week you'll unpack those reasons by looking at a profile of someone in the Bible who portrayed a grateful heart, two days of teaching from Scripture on gratefulness, one psalm of thanksgiving, and a day to actually practice being grateful. When you're able to see the biblical basis of living with a grateful heart, you will be more motivated to thank God in all things.

features

- 4 weeks of personal study
- Beautiful full color interior to enhance the reader's experience
- Questions for reflection and application
- Journaling space for notetaking and prayers
- Thoughtful commentary by women experienced in ministry
- Practical ideas for living a life of gratitude
- Leader helps for group discussion

benefits

- Learn how to cultivate gratitude as part of your everyday life.
- Understand how God's promises motivate us to live lives of thanksgiving.
- Explore how a grateful heart changes the way we relate to God and others.
- Develop gratitude as a spiritual discipline.
- Discover how the call to give thanks is laced throughout Scripture.

JONATHAN PENNINGTON, author of the personal study guide, is a professor of New Testament Interpretation at Southern Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky. He is also the spiritual formation pastor at Sojourn East and regularly speaks and teaches in churches all over the country. He earned a BA in history as well as a teaching certificate from Northern Illinois University. He received a master of divinity degree from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School (Chicago), where he also taught Greek for two years as a NT Fellow. He also holds a PhD in New Testament Studies from the University of St. Andrews, Scotland (in St. Mary's College).

JAKE PRATT, author of the expositor's notes, is a professor of New Testament at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary and director of PhD studies.

A full-page photograph of a mountain landscape. In the background, several jagged, dark grey mountain peaks rise vertically, some with patches of snow or light-colored rock. Wispy white clouds are scattered around the peaks and in the valleys between them. The sky is a pale blue with soft white clouds. In the foreground, a lush green valley stretches across the bottom of the frame. The grass is a vibrant green, interspersed with patches of light brown soil or sand. A small, calm lake is visible in the lower right corner, its surface reflecting the sky and the surrounding greenery. The overall scene is one of natural beauty and grandeur.

Step into God's beautiful story.

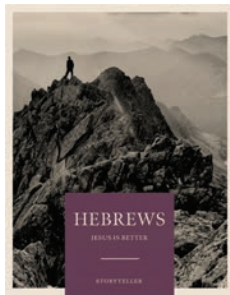

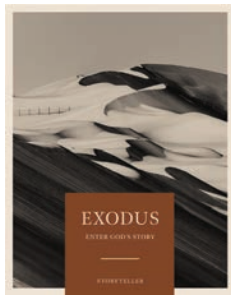

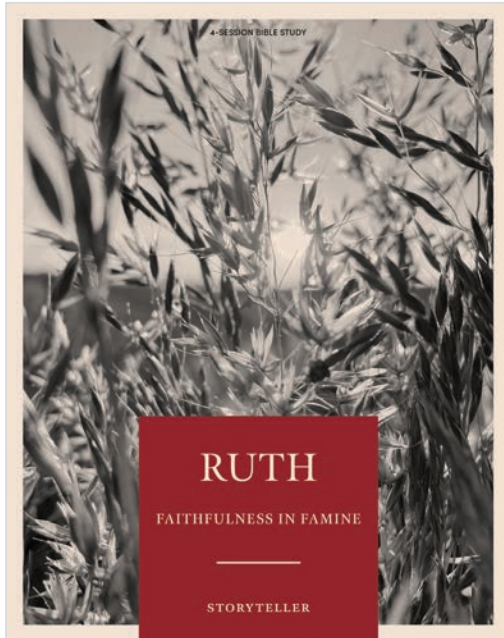

Storyteller is a new Bible study series uniquely designed to be inviting, intuitive, and interactive. Each of the four volumes examines a key theme or story in a book of the Bible. Every week includes five days of short Scripture reading, a daily thought explaining each passage, a short list of questions for a group Bible study, and space for you to write down your discoveries. And new volumes are being added every year.

Ruth

Faithfulness in Famine

STORYTELLER

Many of the stories of the Bible involve seismic events—worldwide floods, warring kings, an entire people being taken into exile. But many of the stories are small and personal. Tucked into the beginning of the Old Testament is the book of Ruth. When we meet Ruth, her husband has died and she is traveling with her mother-in-law to a land that is not her own. Though the circumstances seem dire, they are not beyond God's control. The book of Ruth invites us to wait and hope along with the characters as we wait and hope for our redemption. Through Ruth we find a God who is always at work behind the scenes ready to show his faithfulness. New studies are released every year. (4 sessions)

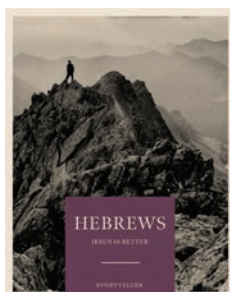

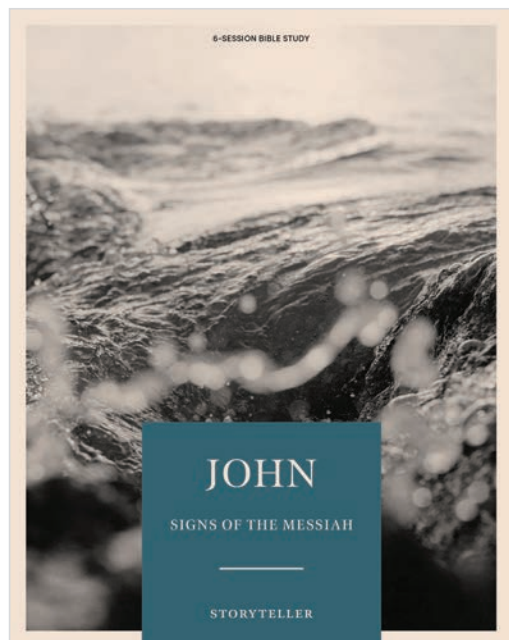

FEATURES

- 4 small group sessions
- Beautiful, intuitive design
- 5-day concise reading plans
- Call outs and study features to help participants understand the story of the Bible

BENEFITS

- Become more familiar with a well-told and well-loved Old Testament story.
- See the thread of redemption begin to be formed and woven throughout Scripture.
- Learn to trust God when you are tempted to embrace bitterness and hopelessness.
- Examine the theme of redemption and providence through an easy-to-understand story.
- Find the ways that God is working and connecting the smaller parts of your story to His bigger story.
- Trust God when hope is hard to find.
- Embrace change and disruption, trusting that God will use all of our stories for His glory.
- See waiting as not a detour off the path but part of God's kindness and plan for you.

John

Signs of the Messiah

STORYTELLER

The Gospel of John is one of four books that describes the life of Jesus. John's Gospel is organized in two parts: the book of the signs and the book of exaltation. The first part introduces us to Jesus through the lens of seven key miracles or signs that Jesus does to disclose His identity and prove His divinity. These signs are meant to show us who Jesus is and what He is like. They disclose to us what He cares about and point us back to God. For all of us following Jesus or maybe those who are getting curious, these signs will point us on a path to the Savior. New studies are released every year. (7 sessions)

FEATURES

- 7 small group sessions
- Beautiful, intuitive design
- 5-day concise reading plans
- Call outs and study features to help participants understand the story of the Bible

BENEFITS

- Learn the narrative structure of a Gospel.
- Understand the purpose of miracles and see how they are signs that point us to a Savior.
- Dive deeper and understand key moments from Jesus's life and ministry for the first time.
- Study the first 12 chapters of John in an easy-to-read fashion that follows the flow of the book.
- See that Jesus is the true Word sent from God to give life and light to all men.
- Embrace Jesus's identity as the true Son of God and only Savior of the world.
- Build your faith in Jesus as you begin to see Him more clearly.
- As you see Jesus more clearly, learn to treasure Him more completely.
- See that Jesus is the one who holds the keys to life and death and that He alone offers resurrection and life.

Daniel

Courage Under Fire

J.D. GREAR

Unlike most of the other books in the Hebrew Bible, the book of Daniel is not set in Israel. Instead, it's in the heart of a hostile, pagan empire where God's people have been taken captive. Daniel is about how to thrive in a dark world. Men facing the cultural challenges of today will connect to the ancient wisdom of Daniel and learn that the power to make a difference is found in the commitment to be different. (8 sessions)

FEATURES

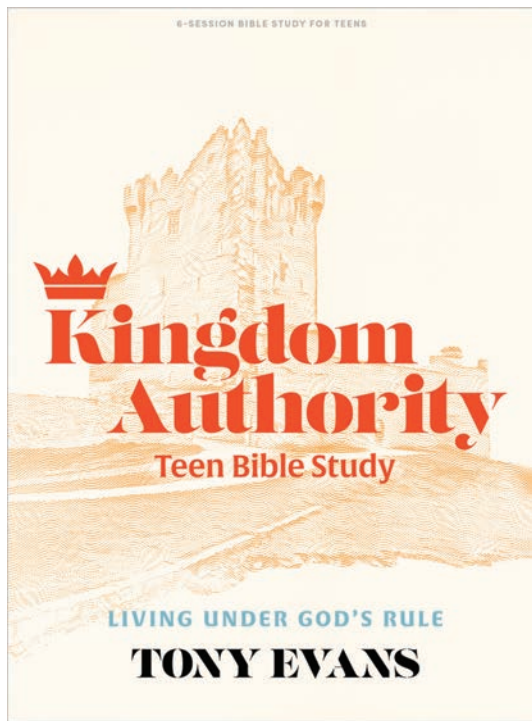

- Videos and session previews featuring author J.D. Greear
- 8 small group sessions
- Personal study opportunities for ongoing spiritual growth
- Promotional content, including promotional video
- Social media assets for the group leader

BENEFITS

- Stand as a man against the contrary messages the culture puts in front of you.
- Become a beacon in a world of despair.
- Live faithfully in a hostile culture.
- Understand the book of Daniel.
- Change the world by transformation instead of separation from it.
- See that God is better than anything death can take away.
- Understand the human condition and the role men play in shaping our culture for the better.
- Develop courage that withstands testing and spiritual adversity.
- Grasp the value of holding to God when everyone and everything else is letting go.
- Embrace and trust in the sufficiency of Jesus.
- Learn to pray in ways that shape and mold the world to be more like the world to come.
- Build your hope upon the future Redeemer and sureness of His coming kingdom.

J.D. GREAR is the pastor of the Summit Church in Raleigh-Durham, North Carolina. Kingdom Authority - Teen Bible Study Book

Living Under God's Rule

TONY EVANS

The God of the Bible is the creator and ruler of all that exists. His authority is absolute, and yet He has given us His authority to rule (exercise dominion) over the world He made. Instead of being ruled by circumstances and emotions, God has called you through Christ to place every aspect of your life under the delegated authority you've received from Him. If you're going through life and find that your mood and manner are tossed to and fro by the waves of circumstance, something may be out of sync. Self-help and self-improvement are not the answer. Now more than ever, you need to look to heaven's solutions to solve your earthly problems. In this Bible study, Dr. Tony Evans will show you how to anchor your life in God's kingdom authority.

features

- Six small-group sessions
- Six interactive teaching videos featuring Dr. Tony Evans; approximately 8-10 minutes for each session (sold separately)
- Leader Guide in the back of the Bible study book to guide questions and discussion with small groups

Jesus and Women - Teen Girls' Bible Study

In the First Century and Now

KRISTI MCLELLAND

Imagine walking the dusty roads of Galilee with Jesus of Nazareth—braving jostling crowds just to touch the edge of His cloak and hear Him say, “Take heart, daughter, your faith has healed you.”

Those words, once meant to comfort a hurting woman’s soul thousands of years ago, were also meant for you.

Join biblical culturalist Kristi McLelland on those dusty roads as she transports you back to Jesus’ world, following in the footsteps of the women who came face-to-face with the Living God. Over 7 sessions, examine the historical and cultural climate of first-century Middle Eastern society to not only understand Jesus more deeply but to fuel your worship of Him today.

features

- Leader guide to lead discussions within small groups
- Personal study segments to complete between 7 weeks of group sessions
- Glossary of Hebrew and biblical terms
- Photographs of Israel with commentary of cultural and historical significance
- Essential teaching videos, sold separately

Navigating Gospel Truth - Teen Bible Study Book

A Guide to Faithfully Reading the Accounts of Jesus's Life

REBECCA MCLAUGHLIN

The Gospels—Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John—are 4 accounts of 1 extraordinary life. Each book tells the story of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. These books aren't fairy tales, fiction, or legend; they are gospel truth. Our eternal future hinges on whether or not they are trustworthy testimonies of events that actually occurred and on whether Jesus meant what he taught.

While exploring the terrain of the gospels, you'll learn to identify and understand the different kinds of writing in these ancient texts, including narrative, poetry, parable, and more. Through this journey, you'll gain a clearer and more captivating view of the Savior. And along the way you'll acquire skills that will help you become a better student of all of Scripture.

Discover How Jesus is Better

LIFEWAY STUDENTS

In this 12-volume series of monthly devotionals, students will gain a more thorough understanding of key Old Testament and New Testament books of the Bible. Students will learn to Discover God's Word, Delight in the Lord, and Display God's work in their lives.

Discover (Identity + Theology): Who is God? Who am I in light of who God is? These are two of the most important questions students can grapple with because in discovering who God is, they learn who He has meant for them to be. Studies within the Discover category will help students align their lives under God's rule which will give them confidence in who they were created to be.

Delight (Spiritual Disciplines): What does it mean to delight in God? What leads to delight in God? Helping students see God in every detail teaches them to delight in Him. When students find their delight in God, they will learn what it means and how to be in relationship with Him.

Display (Leadership, Mission, + Disciple Making): How do students display the glory of God? How do they help others grow in their relationship with Him? How can they lead others to display the truth of God? Through students learning to lead, live on mission, and make disciples, God's glory is on display and His kingdom is expanded.

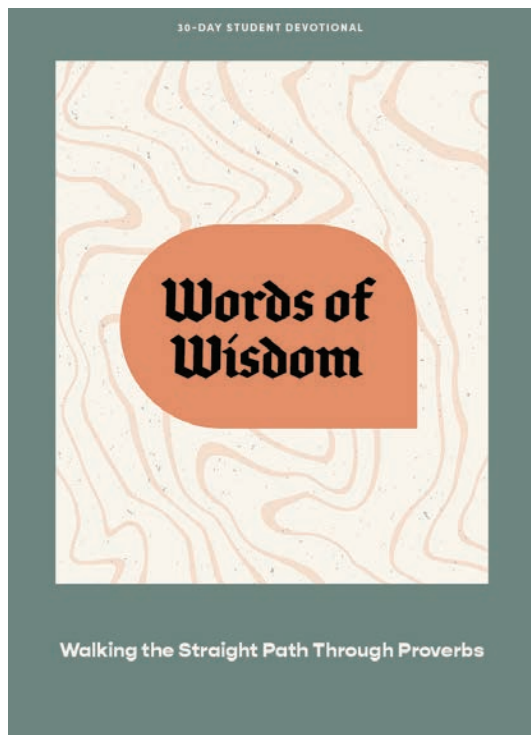

Each book includes 30 daily devotions, applicable Scripture, prayer prompts, and practical application.

With You - Teen Devotional

God's Faithfulness in Jeremiah

LIFEWAY STUDENTS

In this 12-volume series of monthly devotionals, students will gain a more thorough understanding of key Old Testament and New Testament books of the Bible. Students will learn to Discover God's Word, Delight in the Lord, and Display God's work in their lives.

Discover (Identity + Theology): Who is God? Who am I in light of who God is? These are two of the most important questions students can grapple with because in discovering who God is, they learn who He has meant for them to be. Studies within the Discover category will help students align their lives under God's rule which will give them confidence in who they were created to be.

Delight (Spiritual Disciplines): What does it mean to delight in God? What leads to delight in God? Helping students see God in every detail teaches them to delight in Him. When students find their delight in God, they will learn what it means and how to be in relationship with Him.

Display (Leadership, Mission, + Disciple Making): How do students display the glory of God? How do they help others grow in their relationship with Him? How can they lead others to display the truth of God? Through students learning to lead, live on mission, and make disciples, God's glory is on display and His kingdom is expanded.

Each book includes 30 daily devotions, applicable Scripture, prayer prompts, and practical application.

Wake Up - Teen Girls' Bible Study

Stop Hitting Snooze and Start Living Radically for Jesus

GABRIELLE MCCULLOUGH

In this 5-session Bible study, author and speaker Gabrielle Odom invites girls to wake up from cultural Christianity and join the mission of restoring the Word of God in the next generation. As she teaches the meaning of reverence, repentance, redemption, and reconciliation, a generation plagued by relativity will begin to discover a clear view of who God is and what His Word says.

features

- 5 small-group sessions
- Interactive teaching videos featuring author and speaker Gabrielle Odom; approximately 8-10 minutes for each session (sold separately)
- Leader Guide in the back of the Bible study book to guide questions and discussion with small groups
- Personal study segments to complete between group sessions
- Biblically rooted and gospel-centered
- Personal study opportunities for ongoing spiritual growth
- Free leader resources, including promotional video and social media assets, available for download at lifeway.com

benefits

- Wake up from cultural Christianity and discover the joy of having a real, authentic, lasting relationship with Jesus Christ.
- Identify misconceptions about God and get to know who He truly is.
- Turn away negative thoughts and attitudes and trust in the goodness and power of the all-knowing, ever-present God.
- Rest in the healing power of knowing God loves them.
- Build everyday rhythms of worship and spiritual disciplines into their day.
- Stop making excuses due to apathy, fear, or pride.
- Understand the cost of living for Jesus
- Repent and find freedom.
- Experience what it means to know God, not just know about God.

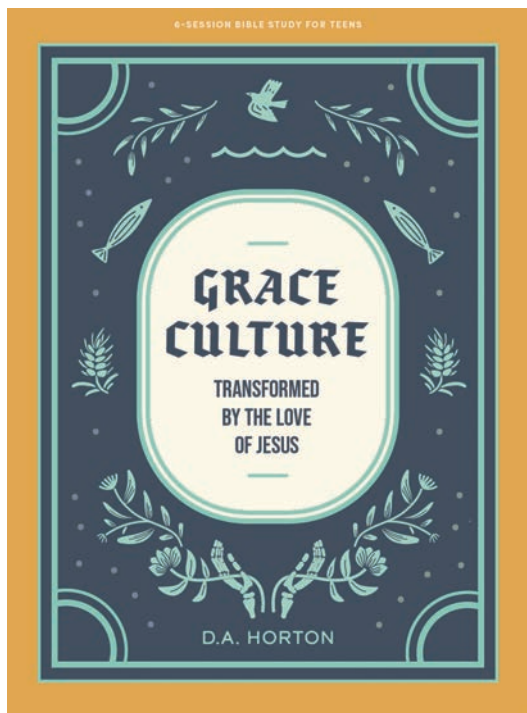

audience

- Teen girls 7-12 grade

GABRIELLE MCCULLOUGH is Minnesota born and raised, currently living in Waco, Texas, where she has the privilege of being on mission with the local body of Harris Creek Baptist Church. She is a Bible teacher, disciple maker, and evangelist who is eager about reaching all people with the gospel of Jesus Christ through the teaching of the Word of God.

Gabrielle's core passion is to partake in the grand rescue mission God has set in motion by fighting for the next generation to be found faithful by calling them to a fear of God, love of God, and repentance back to God.

- Give students the confidence they need to follow Jesus, balanced with humility and a love for Jesus that will continue to grow.
- Inform students about the issues they are likely to face as believers in today's culture.
- Equip students to start off strong in their faith so that they're not caught off-guard by certain temptations or life situations.
- Encourage conversation around the importance of community and accountability.
- Reveal how God helps us grow stronger in our faith through difficult experiences when we allow Him to lead us through.

Grace Culture - Teen Bible Study Book

Transformed by the Love of Jesus

D.A. HORTON

Many great stories can be traced back to a simple origin. How many first pages reveal the plot twists, conflicts, and experiences that make a book or movie script a true classic in the end?

Our own stories are evidence of this as well. In each one of us, God is writing a classic tale of belief, redemption, grace, and transformation. It's a story filled with love, but not without its share of dragons to slay. As followers of Jesus, we can expect trials and temptations to challenge our faith and trip us up along the way. Thankfully, Jesus is always present to help us overcome conflicts and persevere through hard times. He teaches us to exchange "cancel culture" for a culture of grace. He shows us how to find strength in a community of believers, and He promises to be with us for the long-haul.

In this new 6-session Bible study, author D.A. Horton draws from his own life story to show students how God can work through their unique experiences to reveal a life transformed by the love of Jesus Christ.

features

- Six small-group sessions
- Six interactive teaching videos featuring author and speaker D.A. Horton; approximately 8-10 minutes for each session (sold separately)
- Leader Guide in the back of the Bible study book to guide questions and discussion with small groups
- Biblically rooted and gospel-centered
- Personal study opportunities for ongoing spiritual growth

Bibles

Featuring the CHRISTIAN STANDARD BIBLE

Accurate. Readable. Shareable. The Christian Standard Bible is a translation for everyone—a translation you can take to seminary and read to your kids. A translation that new believers can understand and that every believer can return to for lifelong discipleship.

The CSB captures the Bible's original meaning without sacrificing clarity. It's an optimal blend of accuracy and readability—in the many places throughout Scripture where a word-for-word rendering is clearly understandable, a literal translation is used. When a word-for-word rendering might obscure the meaning for a modern audience, a more dynamic translation is used.

The result is a translation that communicates both the words and the thoughts of the original text clearly and accurately to today's readers. A translation pastors can preach from and one you can share with your neighbor hearing God's Word for the very first time.

Every Christian is unique.

We don't all talk the same, look the same, or think the same.
But we can all gather around the same Bible.

For every person in your church, the Christian Standard Bible is an exceptionally clear and faithful translation—so your whole congregation can meet God through his life-transforming Word.

HOSANNA Revival

NOTETAKING BIBLE

Hosanna Revival was created on the belief that as people of a broken and boring life, we are in desperate need of revival. When something is new and beautiful, it can become fun, exciting, and yours. For that reason, our founder, Katie, began re-binding and hand-painting beautiful Bibles in 2015. Years later, our mission is the same: we work to excite women about engaging in Scripture by creating beautiful and intentional tools for their lives. We make beautiful Bibles, journals, and other lovely things because we believe they can be used to draw us closer to our Creator, and that's what we're all about.

CSB Notetaking Bible, Large Print Edition

Enhance your personal Bible study or prepare for teaching and preaching with the CSB Notetaking Bible, Large Print Edition. This Bible features a large 9.5-point type in a single-column setting with wide journaling margins on each page to make observations, raise questions, and inspire additional exploration of Scripture. This beautiful Bible provides the perfect place for insights, over time creating an incredible keepsake of your journey.

Life of Jesus in 30 Days: CSB Edition

Jesus—He is the central figure of the New Testament, and his life, death, resurrection, and exaltation is the heart of the gospel. His story is foretold by the Old Testament prophets, anticipated in the psalms, and then explained by the apostles who witnessed his work. But nowhere do we see him more clearly than in the Gospels, the four biographies that reveal his ministry on earth.

In Life of Jesus in 30 Days, author and teacher Trevin Wax has crafted a devotional experience that takes you through the Gospel accounts of Jesus's life in a "Morning," "Midday," and "Evening" pattern, following the Scriptural precedent for praying three times a day. This prayer journey through the life of Jesus features psalms, other songs from Scripture, confessions of faith, and written prayers from faithful Christians who have gone before us. Here is a guide to walking with Jesus each month by lifting our eyes, three times a day, to see and experience the goodness and faithfulness of Christ in the midst of all things.

Life of Jesus in 30 Days features the highly readable, highly reliable text of the Christian Standard Bible® (CSB). The CSB stays as literal as possible to the Bible's original meaning without sacrificing clarity, making it easier to engage with Scripture's life-transforming message and to share it with others.

Revival

NOTETAKING BIBLE

Hosanna Revival was created on the belief that as people of a broken and boring life, we are in desperate need of revival. When something is new and beautiful, it can become fun, exciting, and yours. For that reason, our founder, Katie, began re-binding and hand-painting beautiful Bibles in 2015. Years later, our mission is the same: we work to excite women about engaging in Scripture by creating beautiful and intentional tools for their lives. We make beautiful Bibles, journals, and other lovely things because we believe they can be used to draw us closer to our Creator, and that's what we're all about.

KJV Notetaking Bible, Large Print Edition

Enhance your personal Bible study or prepare for teaching and preaching with the KJV Notetaking Bible, Large Print Edition. This Bible features large 9.5-point type in a single-column setting with wide journaling margins on each page to make observations, raise questions, and inspire additional exploration of Scripture. This beautiful Bible provides the perfect place for insights, over time creating an incredible keepsake of your journey.

Exalting Jesus in 1 Corinthians

Christ-Centered Exposition Commentary

DANIEL L. AKIN AND JAMES MERRITT

Exalting Jesus in 1 Corinthians is part of the Christ-Centered Exposition Commentary series. Edited by David Platt, Daniel L. Akin, and Tony Merida, this commentary series takes a Christ-centered approach to expositing each book of the Bible. Each chapter explains and applies key passages, providing helpful outlines for study and teaching.

This practical and easy-to-read commentary is designed to help the reader see Christ in 1 Corinthians. More devotional than academic, the expositions are presented as sermons and divided into chapters that conclude with a "Reflect & Discuss" section, making this series ideal for small group study, personal devotion, and even sermon preparation.

The CCE series will include 47 volumes when complete; this volume is written by Daniel L. Akin and James Merritt.

audience

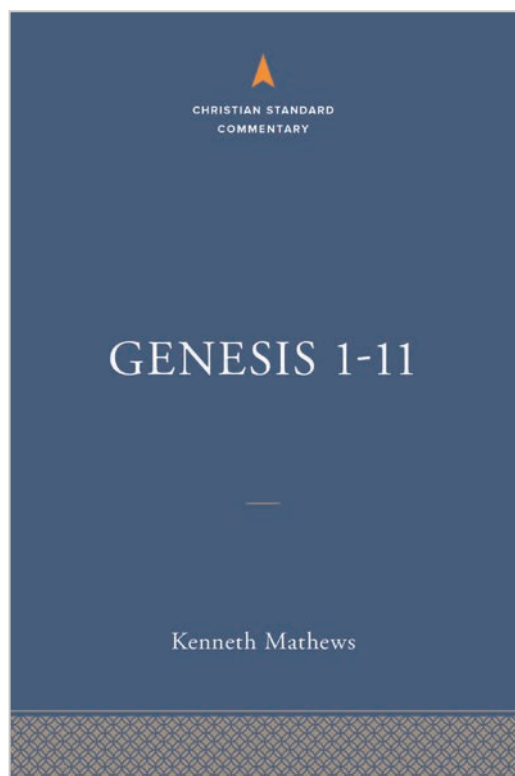

- Pastors and lay teachers, small group leaders, seminary students, students and fans of the contributors

marketing highlights

- Edited by David Platt, Daniel L. Akin, and Tony Merida, this new commentary series, projected to be 48 volumes, takes a Christ-centered approach to expositing each book of the Bible
- Commentary set will include some of the most well respected and sought after evangelical leaders such as Daniel Akin, Al Mohler, Mark Dever, Russ Moore, Matt Chandler, David Platt, Francis Chan, Tullian Tchvidjian, Thabiti Anyabwile, J.D. Greear and many others
- The only commentary series with a special focus on the centrality of Christ
- More of a trade book feel and very accessible—will greatly resemble finished sermons as preached by the authors with applications and illustrations provided
- Our fastest growing series with multiple new releases each year
- Very affordable

DANIEL L. AKIN is the president of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, North Carolina. He holds a Ph.D. in Humanities from the University of Texas at Arlington and is the author or editor of numerous books and Bible commentaries including A Handbook of Theology and the New American Commentary on 1, 2, and 3 John. He is also the co-author of Pastoral Theology: Theological Foundations for Who a Pastor Is and What He Does.

JAMES MERRITT is the pastor of Cross Pointe Church in Duluth, Georgia. He is the host of a nationwide and worldwide broadcast ministry, Touching Lives. He earned a Master of Divinity degree and a PhD in Evangelism from The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. He served as President of the Southern Baptist Convention – the largest protestant denomination in the country. He and his wife, Teresa, have three sons and five grandchildren.

Genesis 1-11

Christian Standard Commentary

BY KENNETH A. MATTHEWS

Genesis 1-11 is part of The Christian Standard Commentary (CSC) series. This commentary series focuses on the theological and exegetical concerns of each biblical book, thoughtfully balancing rigorous scholarship with practical application.

This series helps the reader understand each biblical book's theology, its place in the broader narrative of Scripture, and its importance for the church today. Drawing on the wisdom and skills of dozens of evangelical authors, the CSC is a tool for enhancing and supporting the life of the church.

The author of Genesis 1-11 is Kenneth A. Mathews.

audience

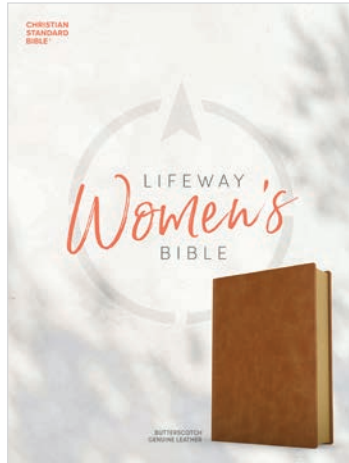

- Pastors and lay teachers
- Small group leaders
- Seminary students
- Students and fans of the contributors

marketing highlights

- Focuses on the intrinsic theological and exegetical concerns of each biblical book, and engages the range of issues raised in contemporary biblical scholarship
- Possible mailing to key seminary professors and pastors along with blast opportunities with entities such as Biblical Archaeology Review
- Commentary notes created by some of the top biblical scholars and theologians

KENNETH A. MATTHEWS is Professor of Old Testament at Beeson Divinity School, Samford University. He is an expert in text criticism, Biblical Hebrew, and the literary study of the Old Testament. He published with David Noel Freedman the official text and notes on the Paleo-Hebrew Leviticus Scroll and has written numerous scholarly and popular articles and books including commentaries on Genesis, Leviticus, Deuteronomy, and Amos. He is a Bible translator, having worked on the New Living Translation. He was educated at Dallas Baptist University (B.A.), Dallas Theological Seminary (Th.M.), and the University of Michigan (Ph.D.).

Urban Legends of Theology

40 Common Misconceptions

MICHAEL E. WITTMER

Urban Legends of Theology surveys 40 of the most common misunderstandings of Christian doctrine. Some of the urban legends are cultural truisms that turn out not to be true; others are misconceptions of what the Bible and Christian tradition actually teach.

Author and theologian Michael Wittmer writes in an engaging and incisive manner, probing beliefs nearly every churchgoer has heard at one time or another, such as:

- The Bible is our only authority
- All sin is the same before God
- God won't give you more than you can handle
- Christianity is not a religion; it's a relationship
- We are the hands and feet of Jesus

Urban Legends of Theology corrects these misconceptions and offers a better alternative in each one's place, guiding readers into the full riches and freedom of Christian theology rightly understood.

audience

- The primary audience is professors and students in undergraduate theology classes at Christian universities, who would use this book as a secondary textbook
- The secondary audience is high school, college, and young adult readers who want an approachable book of apologetics

marketing highlights

- The Urban Legends series is an approachable and unique entry into Christian apologetics through their rebuttals of intriguing misconceptions
- These books are fun, inviting, and readable, but with serious scholarship behind them
- The "legends" are presented in short, easily-digestible chapters that allow readers to flip through to what interests them
- The series includes Urban Legends of the New Testament, Urban Legends of the Old Testament, Urban Legends of Church History, and Urban Legends of Theology. This final volume rounds out the series

MICHAEL E. WITTMER (PhD, Calvin Theological Seminary) is professor of systematic and historical theology and director of the Center for Christian Worldview at Cornerstone University.

Unraveling Philosophy

An Interactive Guide

ADAM GROZA AND J. P. MORELAND

Unlike dry introductions to philosophy that readers may have encountered previously, Unraveling Philosophy by Adam Groza and J. P. Moreland provides a simple overview of the importance and ongoing relevance of philosophy from a Christian perspective. Readers will be exposed to major figures, eras, and questions raised in the history of philosophy. Additionally, this project functions as a textbook and workbook all in one, including illustrations, quotes, interactive exercises, and reflection questions throughout.

Professors, students, and armchair learners will find it to be quite simply the readiest introduction to philosophy available.

audience

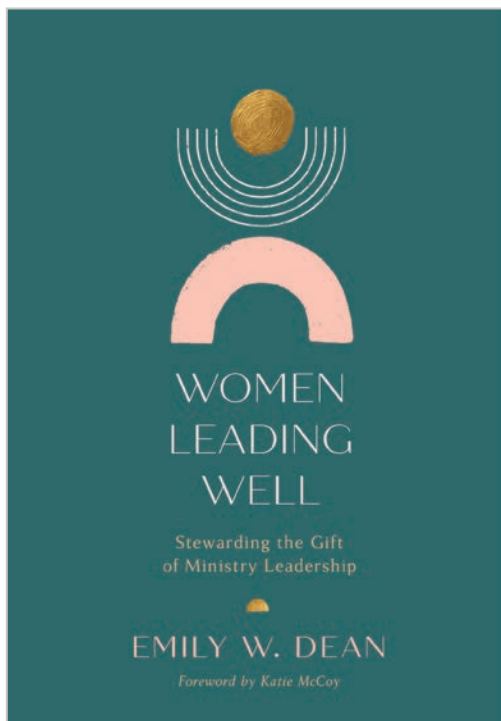

- The primary audience for this title is professors and students in introductory philosophy classes at Christian universities.
- The secondary audience for this title is self-learners who are interested in a Christian introduction to philosophy.

marketing highlights

- J. P. Moreland and Adam Groza are well-respected and trusted philosophers and scholars in the evangelical space
- The content is well-suited for introductory courses, and the exercises and questions make this an approachable book for students

ADAM GROZA (PhD, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary) serves as associate professor of philosophy and vice president for enrollment and student services at Gateway Seminary.

J. P. MORELAND (PhD, University of Southern California) serves as distinguished professor of philosophy at Talbot School of Theology at Biola University.

Women Leading Well

Stewarding the Gift of Ministry Leadership

EMILY W. DEAN

FORWARD BY KATIE MCCOY

The focus of this resource is to help women discover and develop leadership skills for serving in ministry leadership and how women can capitalize on the unique strengths they have to offer. Women need to see that they are leaders, that they are called by God, and that they are gifted for ministry in the local church. While numerous leadership resources exist, including some specific to women in ministry, no current resources are available to encourage and empower women serving in leadership in complementarian churches. The purpose of this book is not to outline exactly which leadership titles a woman should hold but rather to equip and prepare women for whatever leadership opportunities in ministry they may encounter.

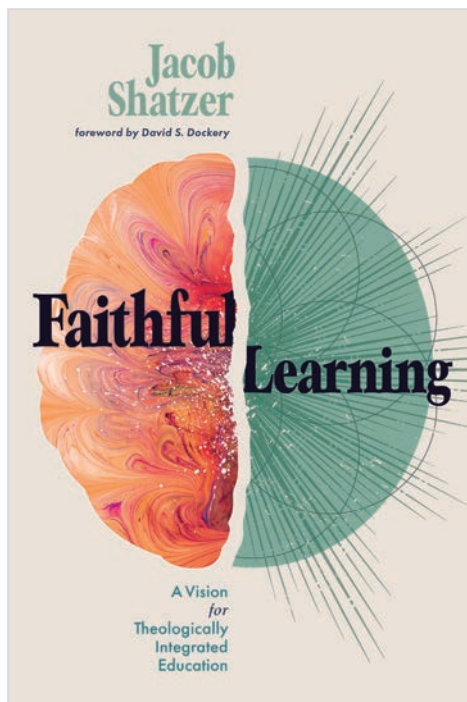

audience

- Professors and students in seminary training courses for women in church leadership
- Women who are pursuing or already involved in leadership within the local church

marketing highlights

- This book fills a crucial gap for leadership materials for women in complementarian churches
- Emily Dean draws from both classroom and practical experience in women's ministry and leadership

EMILY W. DEAN (PhD, New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary) is assistant professor of ministry to women at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Leavell College, New Orleans, LA.

Faithful Learning

A Vision for Theologically Integrated Education

JACOB SHATZER

Faithful Learning aims to fill a gap in Christian higher education by providing a theology primer accessible to Christian educators who may not have any formal theological training and by illustrating how Christian doctrine intersects with various academic disciplines. The intended audience for this book is current and future faculty, staff, and administrators in Christian higher education. The author envisions this book as one that directors of faculty development might purchase en masse to give to new and current faculty or use in faculty trainings.

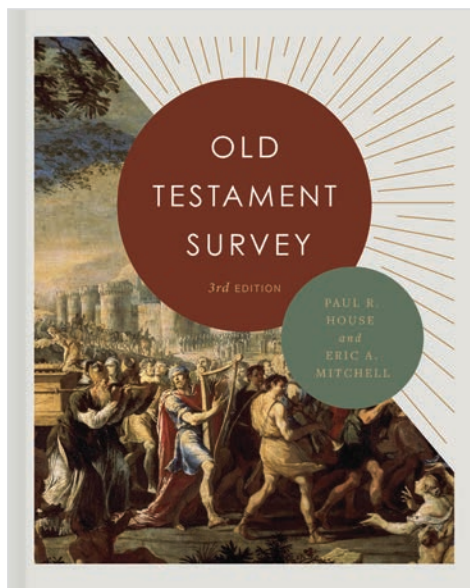

audience

- Faculty, staff, and administrators at Christian universities
- Educators of all disciplines who want to effectively integrate biblical truth into their teaching

marketing highlights

- This book provides an overview of Christian doctrine that is geared toward Christian educators in various disciplines, who are often expected to learn theology on their own
- Faithful Learning benefits Christian academic settings, Christian students, and Christian communities of faith by demonstrating how particular academic disciplines connect to the Christian faith and inviting readers into this work in their own fields
- This book provides a starting place for the theological integration that only Christian institutions are able to provide

JACOB SHATZER (PhD, Marquette University) serves as associate dean of the School of Theology & Missions, associate professor of theological studies, and assistant provost and director for curriculum and program development at Union University.

Old Testament Survey

PAUL HOUSE AND ERIC MITCHELL

This updated third edition of Old Testament Survey revises the second edition and greatly expands its attention to historical, methodological, and geographical topics. These are combined with the second edition's focus on literature and narrative, and an increased number of improved maps are also included. In all, the book charts every major element that unifies the Old Testament, making it an excellent companion for Bible reading, college/seminary classes, and pastoral research.

audience

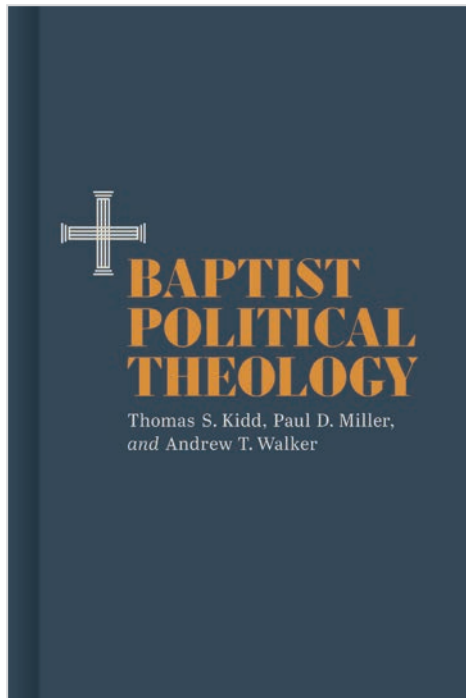

- The primary audience for this textbook is professors and students in Old Testament survey courses at Christian universities and colleges
- The secondary audience for this textbook are informal self-learners, whether through church groups, homeschooling, or self-motivated study.

marketing highlights

- This is a third edition of a popular textbook, with expanded content and improved maps.
- The student workbook gives instructors a simple resource for structuring lessons, increasing student engagement, and assessing understanding

PAUL HOUSE (PhD, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary) serves as professor of divinity at Beeson Divinity School.

ERIC MITCHELL (PhD, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary) serves as professor of Old Testament and biblical backgrounds at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Baptist Political Theology

THOMAS S. KIDD, PAUL D. MILLER AND ANDREW T. WALKER

Baptist Political Theology, edited by scholars Thomas Kidd, Paul Miller, and Andrew Walker, introduces readers to the full sweep of Baptist engagement with politics. Part 1 introduces key thinkers from the early 17th century to the current day; Part 2 surveys Baptist involvement specifically in American politics; and Part 3 applies Baptist principles to a range of contemporary issues. Baptist ideals like the separation of church and state have indelibly shaped Western democracies, and Baptist thinkers continue to influence public policy and political engagement today. Yet the historical contours, enduring commitments, and current contributions of Baptist political thought are little understood.

audience

- Professors and students in political theology courses at evangelical universities and seminaries
- Laypeople interested in the unique perspective Baptist theology offers for political thought and engagement

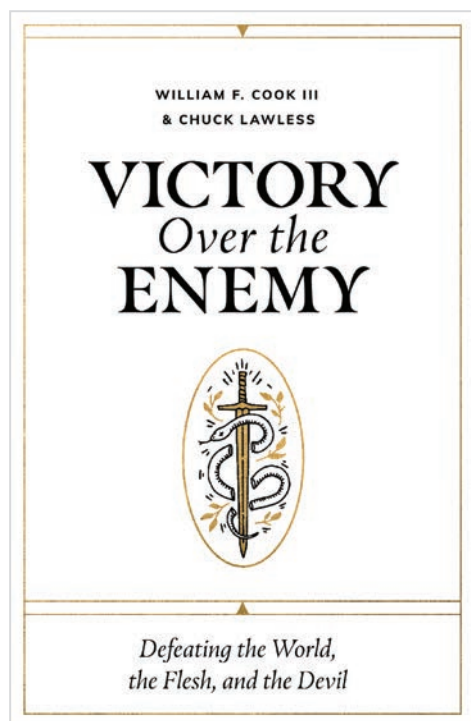

marketing highlights

- The first study of its kind, Baptist Political Theology will be a noteworthy and long-standing resource on Baptists and politics
- Kidd, Miller, and Walker are expert voices in this field, and they've assembled an excellent group of scholars to contribute to this work.
- This book will provide clarity and nuance for contemporary disagreements surrounding Christian political engagement and Baptist identity.

THOMAS S. KIDD (PhD, University of Notre Dame) is research professor of church history at Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

PAUL D. MILLER (PhD, Georgetown University) is professor in the practice of international affairs at Georgetown University's School of Foreign Service.

ANDREW T. WALKER (PhD, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary) is associate professor of Christian ethics and director of the Carl F. H. Henry Institute for Evangelical Engagement at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Religion/Christian Living/Spiritual Warfare

Victory over the Enemy

WILLIAM F. COOK III AND CHARLES E. LAWLESS, JR.

Although spiritual warfare is a recurring theme in Scripture, it is difficult to find balanced, evangelical treatments of this topic. Drawing on their extensive expertise on this subject, as presented in their previous B&H volume Spiritual Warfare in the Storyline of Scripture, Cook and Lawless aim to equip everyday Christians to understand what Scripture teaches about spiritual warfare and how believers can practically apply these scriptural principles. By doing so, readers can experience victory over the world, the flesh, and the devil.

audience

- Church leaders and members seeking a trusted, biblically-based resource on spiritual warfare
- Professors and students in classes on spiritual warfare

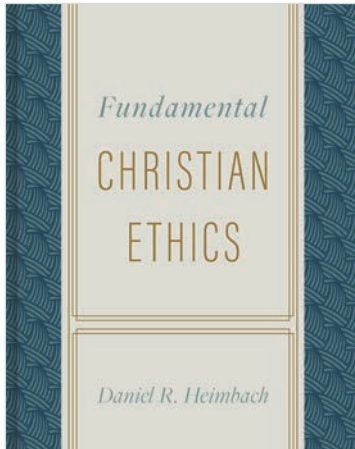

marketing highlights

- This volume provides an accessible overview of spiritual warfare that's biblically grounded but also practical
- Small groups will find it useful for a balanced study on spiritual warfare, as well as individual believers who want to learn more about this topic
- The volume will be attractive as a primary textbook for spiritual warfare courses, and as a supplementary text for other courses (New Testament, spiritual formation, missions, etc.)

WILLIAM F. COOK III (PhD, New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary) is professor of New Testament interpretation at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and lead pastor of Ninth and O Baptist Church in Louisville, KY.

CHARLES E. LAWLESS, JR. (PhD, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary) is vice president for spiritual formation and ministry centers, dean of doctoral studies, Richard & Gina Headrick Chair of World Missions, and senior professor of evangelism and missions at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. He also serves as team leader for theological education strategists for the International Mission Board.

Más allá de mi lista de oración

BEYOND MY PRAYER LIST
 WENDY BELLO

Our prayers often become repetitive, routine, like a well-worn path that we travel almost without thinking. This is also usually accompanied by the deep desire to pray in another way, to pray for matters that have eternal transcendence; but without knowing how or where to start. Hence the idea of Beyond My Prayer List. In his letters, the Apostle Paul shows us the way in that direction. By reading how he prayed for believers, whether outside the churches he met or those with whom he had some kind of relationship, we understand that it is possible to pray in a different way. We can pray for those things that will lead us to a better understanding of who God is, our position in Christ, and our walk as disciples.

Nuestras oraciones a menudo se vuelven repetitivas y rutinarias, como un camino bien gastado que recorremos casi sin pensar. Esto también suele ir acompañado del profundo deseo de orar de otra manera, de orar por asuntos que tienen trascendencia eterna, pero sin saber cómo ni por dónde empezar. De ahí la idea de Más allá de mi lista de oración. En sus cartas, el apóstol Pablo nos muestra el camino en esa dirección. Al leer cómo oró por los creyentes, ya fuera por las iglesias que conoció o por aquellos con quienes tuvo algún tipo de relación, entendemos que es posible orar de una manera diferente. Podemos orar por aquellas cosas que nos llevarán a una mejor comprensión de quién es Dios, nuestra posición en Cristo y nuestro caminar como discípulos.

La vida del Apóstol Pedro

THE LIFE OF APOSTLE PETER

CÉSAR VIDAL

The apostle Peter is, perhaps, one of the most complex characters in the New Testament. The journey of Peter the fisherman constitutes the third installment of the tetralogy that the author has dedicated to recounting the history of primitive christianity. This book deals with a character that has attracted much less attention from historians: Simon the son of Jonas, the fisherman who left everything to follow Jesus to the shore of the Sea of Galilee.

In this work, divided into four parts, the author explains the world Peter lived in, including its political, economic, and social aspects. Vidal is convinced that these pages are enormously useful, and that like his other works, the integrity of the historical research will honor the legacy and life of the apostle Peter.

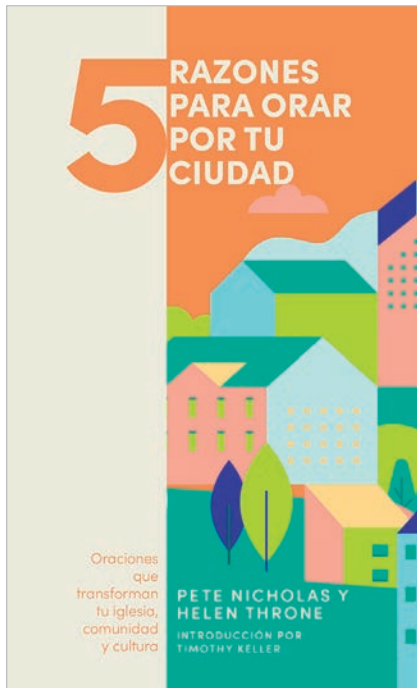

El apóstol Pedro es quizás uno de los personajes más complejos del Nuevo Testamento. El viaje de Pedro el pescador es el tercer episodio de la tetralogía que el autor ha dedicado a relatar la historia del cristianismo primitivo. Este libro trata sobre un personaje que ha atraído muy poca atención de los historiadores: Simón, el hijo de Jonás. El pescador que dejó todo para seguir a Jesús hasta la orilla del Mar de Galilea tiene mucho que decir sobre él.

En esta obra, dividida en cuatro partes, el autor explica el mundo en el que vivió Pedro, incluyendo sus aspectos políticos, económicos y sociales. Vidal está convencido de que estas páginas son enormemente útiles, y que al igual que sus otras obras, la integridad de la investigación histórica honrará el legado y la vida del apóstol Pedro.

5 razones para orar por tus hijos

5 THINGS TO PRAY FOR YOUR KIDS
 MELISSA KRUGER

Whatever their age, the most important thing we can do for our children is to pray for them. But where do we start?

This little guide is both deep and do-able. Melissa Kruger helps us step out of the busyness of family life and pray for our children's spiritual growth and character development in 21 key areas. For each chapter there are five short prayer prompts drawn straight from the Bible. Because when we pray in line with God's priorities as found in his word, our prayers are powerful and effective (James 5:16)—and that is a truly thrilling prospect.

Use this book in any number of ways: work through it as part of your daily quiet time, or pick it up whenever a particular need arises. It will help you to pray meaningfully for your child, grandchild, godchild, or kids in your church—from tots to teens, and every age in between.

Es inmensamente importante orar por nuestros hijos pero, ¿por dónde empezamos?

Esta pequeña guía es profunda y realizable. Melissa Kruger nos ayuda a salir de la rutina de la vida familiar y orar por el crecimiento espiritual y el desarrollo del carácter de nuestros hijos en 21 áreas clave. En cada capítulo hay cinco indicaciones de oración extraídas directamente de la Biblia. Cuando oramos de acuerdo con las prioridades de Dios que se encuentran en Su palabra, nuestras oraciones son poderosas y efectivas (Sant. 5:16), y esa es una perspectiva verdaderamente emocionante.

Use este libro de muchas maneras: trabaje a través de él como parte de su tiempo de meditación, o úselo cada vez que surja una necesidad particular. Le ayudará a orar significativamente por su hijo, nieto, ahijado o niños en su iglesia, desde niños hasta adolescentes y todas las edades intermedias.

5 razones para orar por tus padres

5 THINGS TO PRAY FOR YOUR PARENTS

CHELSEA STANLEY

The Bible calls us to honor our parents—and one way we can do that is by praying for them. Little children often see their mothers and fathers as the ones with all the answers. It's not until we grow up that we realize our parents are just like us—regular people in need of prayer. This guide will help you to pray rich, intentional prayers for your mother or father—be they biological or adoptive, working or retired, frail or fit, married or separated, believers or unbelievers. Whatever their situation, if we want to love them well, we need to pray. Each of the 21 prayer themes in this book takes a passage of Scripture and suggests five things to pray for a particular area of your parents' lives. You can use this book in any number of ways: work through it as part of your daily quiet time or pick it up whenever a particular need arises.

La Biblia nos invita a honrar a nuestros padres, y una de las formas en las que podemos hacerlo es orando por ellos. Los niños a menudo ven a sus padres como quienes tienen todas las respuestas. No es hasta que crecemos que nos damos cuenta de que nuestros padres son como nosotros: personas normales que necesitan oración. Esta guía te ayudará a orar intencionalmente por tus padres, ya sean biológicos o adoptivos, trabajadores o jubilados, frágiles o en forma, casados o separados, creyentes o incrédulos. Cualquiera que sea tu situación, si queremos amarlos bien, necesitamos orar. Cada uno de los 21 temas de oración en este libro toma un pasaje de la Escritura y sugiere cinco cosas para orar por un área particular de la vida de tus padres. Puedes usar este libro de muchas maneras: trabaja a través de él como parte de tu tiempo de devocional diario o úsalo cada vez que surja una necesidad particular.

Timothy Keller

*Su formación espiritual e intelectual*TIMOTHY KELLER: YOUR SPIRITUAL AND INTELLECTUAL FORMATION
COLLIN HANSEN

Millions have read books and listened to sermons by Timothy Keller. But which people and what events shaped his own thinking and spiritual growth? With unfettered access to Keller's personal notes and sermons as well as exclusive interviews with family members and longtime friends, Collin Hansen gives you unprecedented understanding of one of the 21st century's most influential church leaders.

Spend any time around Timothy Keller and you'll learn what he's reading, what he's learning, what he's seeing. The story of Timothy Keller is the story of his spiritual and intellectual influences, from the woman who taught him how to read the Bible to the professor who taught him to preach Jesus from every text to the philosopher who taught him to see beneath society's surface.

For the first time, Hansen introduces readers to Keller's early years: the home where he learned to tell stories from the trees, the church where he learned to care for souls, and the city that lifted him to the international fame he never wanted.

Millones de personas han leído libros y escuchado sermones de Timothy Keller. Pero, ¿qué personas y qué eventos dieron forma a su propio pensamiento y crecimiento espiritual? Con acceso y sin restricciones a las notas personales y sermones de Keller, así como a entrevistas exclusivas con familiares y amigos de toda la vida, Collin Hansen expone de una manera sin precedentes sobre uno de los líderes de la iglesia más influyentes del siglo 21.

A través de esta biografía, aprenderás lo que está leía, lo que aprendió y lo que vió a lo largo de su vida. La historia de Timothy Keller es la historia de influencias espirituales e intelectuales, desde la mujer que le enseñó a leer la Biblia hasta el profesor que le enseñó a predicar a Jesús; desde cada texto hasta el filósofo que le enseñó a ver bajo la superficie de la sociedad.

Por primera vez, Hansen le presenta al lector los primeros años de Keller: el hogar donde aprendió a contar historias desde los árboles, la iglesia donde aprendió a cuidar de las almas y la ciudad que lo elevó a la fama internacional que nunca quiso.

COLLIN HANSEN serves as vice president for content and editor in chief of The Gospel Coalition. He hosts the Gospelbound podcast and has written and contributed to many books, most recently Rediscover Church: Why the Body of Christ Is Essential. He has published with The New York Times and The Washington Post and offered commentary for CNN, Fox News, NPR, BBC, ABC News, and PBS NewsHour. He edited Our Secular Age: Ten Years of Reading and Applying Charles Taylor and The New City Catechism Devotional, among other books. He is a member of Iron City Church in Birmingham, Alabama, and he is an adjunct professor at Beeson Divinity School, where he also co-chairs the advisory board.

La salvación

SALVATION

SUGEL MICHELÉN

God gave us his Gospel as an everyday gift, necessary for life and godliness. Therefore, if we are to walk with God as we preach the gospel to ourselves daily, our knowledge of our salvation (what, why, and how) is essential. Sugel Michelén gives us a valuable tool to strengthen and deepen our knowledge of God and the salvation which is ours in Jesus Christ.

Dios nos dio Su evangelio como un regalo cotidiano, necesario para nuestra vida y devoción. Por lo tanto, si vamos a caminar con Dios mientras diariamente nos auto-predicamos el evangelio, nuestro conocimiento de la salvación (qué, por qué y cómo) es esencial. Sugel Michelén, nos da una valiosa herramienta para fortalecer y profundizar nuestro conocimiento de Dios y la salvación que es nuestra en Jesucristo.

SUGEL MICHELÉN has been a pastor at IBSJ for over 30 years, currently leading the preaching ministry on most Sundays. He is known as a regular conference speaker and most recently, as the author of B&H Español's De parte de Dios y delante de Dios (From God and Before God). Driven by an understanding that children are to be nurtured in the fear and admonition of the Lord, Sugel has completed a great deal of study in education and for several years now has served with ACSI in Latin America. This has established him not only as an amazing communicator, but one ideally suited to serve Children and their parents. Further, for over 25 years, IBSJ has also had a private Christian School (Logos C.S.) where Sugel has served as both a director and a philosophy teacher.

Tiempos de espera

SEASON OF WAITING

BETSY CHILDS HOWARD

We're all waiting for something.

It might be a spouse or a baby. It might be healing or a home. Regardless of what we're waiting for, it's easy to feel discontent when things aren't going as planned and our dreams are delayed—especially when questions of “why?” and “how long?” remain unanswered.

God uses seasons of waiting to teach us patience and make us more like Himself. But sanctification is not the only purpose God has in mind. When we wait faithfully with unmet longings, we become a powerful picture of the bride of Christ waiting for the day when He returns and God's kingdom reigns.

Todos esperamos algo. Puede ser un cónyuge o un bebé. Puede ser la sanidad de una enfermedad o una casa nueva. Independientemente de lo que estemos esperando, es fácil sentir descontento cuando las cosas no van según lo planeado y nuestros sueños se retrasan, especialmente cuando las preguntas «¿por qué?» y «¿cuánto tiempo?» permanecen sin respuesta.

Dios usa los tiempos de espera para enseñarnos sobre la paciencia y hacernos más como Él. Pero la santificación en medio de la espera no es el único propósito que Dios tiene en mente. Cuando esperamos en Él, nos convertimos en una imagen poderosa de la novia de Cristo esperando el día en que regrese y el reino de Dios gobierne.

Contempla a Dios

BEHOLDING GOD

DR. MIGUEL NÚÑEZ

Throughout history many theologians and pastors have dealt with the question of “who is God? And, “what is He like?”. So many people have asked this question, hence why there are so many works on the attributes of God. However, many bypass the necessary response that this understanding of the character of God demands. In this book, Miguel Núñez argues that God reveals His character in order that our hearts and lives might be transformed. This transformation starts with an unsettling of our hearts that moves toward knowledge and gratitude, as we come to know the sovereign God who draws near to those who draw near to Him.

A lo largo de la historia, muchos teólogos y pastores han abordado de la cuestión de «¿quién es Dios?» Y, «¿cómo es Él?». Muchas personas se han hecho estas preguntas, de ahí el por qué hay tantas obras sobre los atributos de Dios. Sin embargo, muchos pasan por alto la respuesta necesaria que esta comprensión del carácter de Dios exige. En este libro, Miguel Núñez sostiene que Dios revela Su carácter para que nuestros corazones y vidas puedan ser transformados. Esta transformación comienza con una inquietud de nuestros corazones que se mueve hacia el conocimiento y la gratitud, a medida que llegamos a conocer al Dios soberano que se acerca a aquellos que se acercan a Él.

La conciencia cristiana

THE CHRISTIAN CONSCIENCE
 JOSELO MERCADO

What do you do when you disagree with other Christians? Can we differentiate the non-negotiables, the things we just personally feel strongly about, and those to which we give a brief second thought? These are key questions to evaluate our daily experience. Joselo gives us a practical, biblical work that cleans out the clutter of our consciences. If our conscience is a gift from God, we will not only experience the freedom of a clear conscience but also discover how to lovingly interact with those who hold different convictions.

¿Qué hacer cuando no estamos de acuerdo con otros cristianos? ¿Podemos diferenciar entre lo que no vamos a ceder, nuestra opinión personal y aquellas ideas a las que podríamos darle una segunda reflexión? Estas son preguntas clave para evaluar nuestra experiencia diaria. En este libro, Joselo Mercado nos da una herramienta bíblica y práctica que limpia el desorden en nuestras consciencias. Si nuestra conciencia es un don de Dios, no solo experimentaremos la libertad de una conciencia limpia, sino que también descubriremos cómo interactuar amorosamente con aquellos que tienen diferentes convicciones.

Regocíjate y tiembla

REJOICE AND TREMBLE

MICHAEL REEVES

Fear is one of the strongest human emotions—and one that often baffles Christians. In the Bible the picture can seem equally confusing: Is fear a good thing or a bad thing? And what does it mean to “fear the Lord”? In Rejoice and Tremble, Michael Reeves clears the clouds of confusion and shows that the fear of the Lord is not a negative thing at all, but an intensely delighted wondering at God, our Creator and Redeemer.

El miedo es una de las emociones humanas más fuertes y una que a menudo, desconcierta a los cristianos. En la Biblia, la imagen puede parecer igualmente confusa: ¿Es el miedo algo bueno o malo? y ¿qué significa «temer a Dios»? En «Regocíjate y tiembla», Michael Reeves despeja estas dudas y muestra que el temor del Señor no es en lo absoluto algo negativo sino más bien un asombro y un deleite por Dios, nuestro Creador y Redentor.

Por nada afanosos

ANXIOUS FOR NOTHING

GIANCARLO MONTEMAYOR

Anxiety is the one of those feelings that every person struggles with during his lifetime. It comes to our door when the things we thought were stable suddenly are threatened to be destroyed. The Bible tells us that we should never worry about anything, because anxiety never solves what it fears. This book explores what the Bible says about the cure for every form of anxiety.

El afán es uno de los sentimientos con los que todos luchamos durante nuestra vida. Viene a nuestra puerta cuando las cosas que pensábamos que eran estables repentinamente son amenazadas con ser destruidas. La Biblia nos dice que nunca debemos preocuparnos de nada, pues la ansiedad nunca soluciona lo que teme. Este libro explora lo que la Biblia dice sobre la cura a todas las formas de afán.

CREATION

DEVON PROVENCHER

Children often wonder how things are made and why, and that includes the world itself. In the illustrated board book Creation, they'll learn how God designed the earth and His people with a special purpose. Kids will also hear about God's promise of a new creation and His plan to redeem believers from their sin. With colorful, modern illustrations and words that are simple for little ones to understand, Creation helps parents teach kids important truths from Scripture.

Los niños a menudo se preguntan cómo se hacen las cosas y por qué, y eso incluye al mundo mismo. En el libro ilustrado «Creación», aprenderán cómo Dios diseñó la tierra y a Su pueblo con un propósito especial; escucharán acerca de la promesa de Dios de una nueva creación y Su plan para redimir a los creyentes de su pecado. Con ilustraciones coloridas y modernas y palabras que son fáciles de entender para los más pequeños, «Creación» ayudará a los padres a enseñar a los niños verdades importantes de la Escritura.

Corrie ten Boom

CORRIE TEN BOOM

LAURA CAPUTO-WICKHAM

In 1940, the Germans invaded the Netherlands, and Corrie ten Boom and her family helped to hide as many Jews as possible. They even had a secret room built in her bedroom. Corrie and her sister were caught by the German army and sent to a concentration camp, where God made sure they always had a Bible to read and plenty of opportunities to share the good news about Jesus. Corrie's trust in God gave her the strength to go on until the war ended. From then on, Corrie talked about her life to big crowds, saying, There's no pit so deep that God's love is not deeper still. Children will enjoy this beautifully illustrated biography of Corrie ten Boom, who saved hundreds of Jews during World War 2. Can be read to young children aged 4-7 and read by children aged 7 years+.

En 1940, los alemanes invadieron los Países Bajos, y Corrie ten Boom y su familia ayudaron a ocultar tantos judíos como les fue posible. Incluso tenían un cuarto secreto construido en su habitación. Corrie y su hermana fueron capturadas por el ejército alemán y enviadas a un campo de concentración, donde Dios se aseguró de que siempre tuvieran una Biblia para leer y muchas oportunidades para compartir las buenas nuevas sobre Jesús. La confianza de Corrie en Dios le dio la fuerza para continuar hasta que terminara la guerra. A partir de entonces, Corrie habló de su vida a grandes multitudes, diciendo: No hay pozo tan profundo donde el amor de Dios no sea aún más profundo. Los niños disfrutarán de esta biografía infantil bellamente ilustrada de Corrie ten Boom, quien salvó a cientos de judíos durante la 2ª Guerra Mundial. Se puede leer a niños pequeños de 4 a 7 años y puede ser leída por niños mayores de 7 años.

Betsey Stockton

BETSEY STOCKTON

LAURA CAPUTO-WICKHAM

When young Betsey joined a missionary voyage to Hawaii, everyone was shocked. A single woman, who was born enslaved, going to mission? How extraordinary! But that's exactly who Betsey was, an extraordinary girl who believed in an extraordinary God! Follow her adventurous five-month journey across the Pacific Ocean. A journey of laughter, tears, prayer and even a newborn life! A journey that would take her to the shores of beautiful Hawaii, where she would finally be able to do what she'd always dreamt of: being a missionary. How extraordinary indeed. Children will enjoy this beautifully illustrated children's biography of Betsey Stockton (c. 1798-1865), who, despite being born enslaved, follows her dream of being a missionary to Hawaii. Can be read to young children aged 4-7 and read by children aged 7 years+.

Cuando la joven Betsey se unió a un viaje misionero a Hawai, todos se sorprendieron. ¿Una mujer soltera que nació esclavizada, yendo a la misión? ¡Qué extraordinario! Pero eso es exactamente lo que Betsey era, una chica extraordinaria que creía en un Dios extraordinario! Sigue su viaje aventurero de cinco meses a través del Océano Pacífico. ¡Un viaje de risas, lágrimas, oración e incluso una vida recién nacida! Un viaje que la llevaría a las costas del hermoso Hawai, donde finalmente pudo hacer lo que siempre soñó, ser misionera. Los niños disfrutarán de esta biografía infantil bellamente ilustrada de Betsey Stockton (c. 1798-1865), quien a pesar de haber nacido esclavizada, sigue su sueño de ser misionera en Hawai. Se puede leer a niños pequeños de 4 a 7 años y puede ser leída por niños mayores de 7 años.

request for proof of delivery must be made within 90 days of shipping/billing.

defective product should be reported to B&H Customer Service for postage paid return.

lost or damaged product

B&H Publishing Group cannot be responsible for products lost or damaged in shipment. In the event you receive damaged products or find a carton shortage, please follow the following procedure.

freight shipments

Sign the delivery receipt and state the exact number of cartons received and any visible damage. If damage is discovered after delivery, notify carrier for inspection within 15 days of delivery. Retain all packing material including boxes from the shipping company. Notify B&H Customer Service, and we will file a claim for you with the carrier and enter a replacement order.

ups/fedex ground shipments

Notify UPS/FedEx within 15 days in case of damage or B&H Publishing Group Customer Service in case of shortage. UPS/FedEx will inspect, pick up, and return damaged products to B&H. We will file a claim for damage and trace the shortage.

handling your order

When you order, include the product ISBN of each product ordered. Please specify order need-by date (as appropriate) to ensure receipt according to your needs. Orders without a need-by date or noted "Send best way" will be shipped the least expensive way. Orders requested to be shipped by motor freight will be shipped by the line which we believe will give you the best service if you have not asked for a specific carrier. Orders for "one" of a product packaged and cataloged in certain quantities will be interpreted to mean "one packaged unit." Orders weighing less than 250 pounds are usually shipped UPS. Orders weighing more than 250 pounds are usually shipped by motor freight. (You may have a preference entered on your permanent customer file.)
