

You've counted down
from five to one.

Let's talk about
what you have done:

You see and smell,
taste, hear, and feel.

God made each sense.
All five are real.

God's with you when you're not okay.

He loves to listen
when you pray.

There's nothing
that you cannot tell.

Your feelings count
to God as well.

You always ...
always ...
count ...
to God!
