A Short Guide to Church

DEAN INSERRA

A common claim in modern American Christianity is that you don't have to go to church to be a Christian. The writers of the New Testament, however, would find a Christian faith separate from the church to be unrecognizable. Dean Inserra has often said to his congregation, "There is more to being a Christian than going to church, but there certainly isn't less." Belonging to a local church is not something made up by a Christian subculture. The local church was God's design. It is his grand idea to display his glory and provide the avenue for his people to flourish as his missionaries to the world. When one begins to see the church as God's plan, the mindset shifts from going to church in order to claim Christianity to seeing oneself as a participant in what God has given his people as a gift.

There is a purpose, design, and reason for why the church functions in the manner she does. Consistent practices that may seem as merely tradition upon first glance, are prescribed by God for his people to practice together until Christ returns. The local church, congregated together, is the Lord's primary plan for discipleship, fellowship, and mission for the Christian life. A Short Guide to Church is not a technical treatment of ecclesiology, but rather a book to put in the hands of every prospective and current church member, to help the body of Christ, expressed locally, to see the purposes and plan of the local church for their life of faith, and why it truly is the best thing going.

audience

- Church members who are looking for a concise guide to help them understand what the Church is and what it means to be a church member
- Previous buyers of the Short Guide series (A Short Guide to Reading the Bible Better, A Short Guide to Spiritual Disciplines, A Short Guide to Islam, and A Short Guide to Groups)
- Readers of Dean Inserra's previous books, including Unsaved Christian and Without a Doubt, and his Bible study, Marks of a Disciple

marketing highlights

- Dean Inserra is a well-known and respected pastor in the SBC; he planted City Church in 2007, and it has since grown to be a thriving church
- 54% of Evangelicals believe that worshipping alone or with one's family is a valid replacement for regularly attending church (Lifeway Research, State of Theology, 2022); this book will help explain the purpose for the local church and why it matters that Christians are involved in a local church
- All books in the Short Guide series are specifically designed to be read within churches, whether that be among leadership teams, small groups, or congregationally, with discussion questions at the end of each chapter

DEAN INSERRA is the lead pastor of City Church in his hometown of Tallahassee, Florida. He is a graduate of Liberty University and Midwestern Seminary. Dean has previously authored four books and frequently works with the Send Network of the North American Mission Board. He and his wife Krissie have four children and are big fans of the local church.

Our Highest Good

100 Days of Knowing and Loving God (A Theology Every Day Devotional)

MARY WILEY

Do you want to know and love God more deeply? Read theology every day.

When peace seems far from us and when true rest doesn't come, we don't need more to-dos on our list or a set of step-by-step instructions to help us get there on our own. True peace, hope, and rest only comes by spending time in the presence of God.

Spend 100 days in His Word focused on who God is and what He is like and find that He is worthy to be trusted at every twist or turn of life. He is better than our minds can imagine, in control of all things, and infinitely good. As you do, you will:

- Find peace in His sovereign care
- Enjoy security in His promise of eternity
- Experience joy in His great love for you
- Rest in the God who never sleeps
- Trust God for your every need
- Find comfort in His Spirit
- Learn to live out your faith as an overflow of His glorious grace

God is the sustainer of the rhythms of the skies and seasons, as well as the intricate rhythms of our lives. To dwell in His presence is the promise of salvation, the abundant life in Christ today, and the eternal life with Him in the future. While the ways of the world lead to death, His invitation is to come and live. He truly is our highest good.

Grief Redeemed

STEPHEN SILVER

"I used to say that my marriage was the anvil on which the Lord was forging the new man in Christ which He was fashioning for His purposes on this side of heaven. Grief is a journey no one truly understands until they walk it. # Sometimes I Forget

60 Reminders of Hope for Your Hard Days

JULIE SUNNE

How do we trust God for good when everything looks so wrong? How do we hold on to hope when our world is falling apart?

Come rest with the One whose very nature promises hope!

When difficult circumstances sow doubt and fear, we need reminders that God is bigger than our troubles. We need to know that he has not changed, that he still loves us and still has a plan for our lives. He promises such things, but promises are only comforting if we believe the One who made them will keep them.

Sometimes I Forget invites us to know God more intimately so we can trust him more deeply. Inspired by her own experiences of desperation, Julie Sunne weaves a prayer of lament and hope through sixty attributes of God. The simple prayers, real stories, and powerful reminders offer comforting reassurance that God will be faithful in all he promises.

In the pages of this book, you will discover:

- More about who God is
- How God relates to us as his children
- Why we can believe God's promises
- Truths to remember
- A simple, yet meaningful way to pray through the valleys

Life will throw you curveballs, but in the character of God lies hope. Because of who God is, you can trust him in your most desperate moments.

Revival

When God Comes to Church

STEVE GAINES

Why don't our churches today look like the church in the book of Acts? Could they? When God manifests his presence to a fellowship of believers in Christ, God's people experience revival. That's one way to define what revival is—when God comes to church. In Revival: When God Comes to Church, Pastor Steve Gaines analyzes how churches can look like the church of the first century. Infused with the Holy Spirit, they evangelized most of the civilized world within only three centuries. We don't need another program, personalities, or marketing; we need his presence. The Holy Spirit is our primary draw, and when he touches people, they're never the same.

audience

- Pastors looking for revival in their own congregations
- Church members wondering about the subject of revival
- Thoughtful Christians seeking to grow in their understanding of the Holy Spirit and how He has moved in church history

marketing highlights

- Steve Gaines is a former SBC president and trusted SBC leader
- This is a trending topic after the revival at Asbury University in 2023, making it an area many want to understand more about
- This title will be heavily promoted at the Southern Baptist Convention as well as through paid social media ads, targeted email marketing, and other key marketing to the target audience

STEVE GAINES, Bellevue's senior pastor, is known as a man of prayer and a preacher of God's Word. He has pastored churches in Texas, Tennessee, and Alabama, before coming to Bellevue in 2005 as senior pastor. He has served on many denominational boards and committees and been the keynote speaker at many denominational events. Steve's wife, Donna, is also a vital part of the Gaines' ministry at Bellevue as she teaches in Bellevue Women, serves out with mission's projects, and leads younger women in discipleship. Steve and Donna have four children and seventeen grandchildren.

Lighthearted 100-Day Devotional

One-Word Promises to Lighten Your Load and Lift Up Your Heart
SUSIE CROSBY

What are the words you hold in your heart?

Are words like afraid, dismissed, alone, and regret weighing you down? Do you feel like you are living under a thick layer of discouragement as words like shame, loss, and frustration hover overhead?

The heaviness of life is causing many of us to become more overwhelmed and anxious than ever before. We often forget that Jesus promises us his peace and his presence no matter what we are going through. We sometimes wonder if the words in the Bible really have the power to help us live differently, peacefully, bravely, lightheartedly.

Susie Crosby has written this refreshing combination of a promise book with a daily devotional to remind us that they do. Lighthearted will:

- Provide several promises from Scripture for each hard emotion
- Include a short meditation with a keyword, prayer, and some simple ways to remember God's faithfulness throughout the day
- Offer compassion, strength, truth, and help by calling readers to look to Jesus

Let this simple devotional help you find these promises to be lasting and true as you accept God's invitation into a lighthearted life with him.

Mission-Ready Marriage

A Christian Guide to Discovering Hope and Purpose as a Military Wife

ASHLEY ASHCRAFT

What if there was a way to enjoy marriage amid the unrelenting trials of life as a military spouse?

Through multiple combat deployments, unexpected reintegration problems, frequent solo parenting, the post-traumatic effects of war, and twelve moves, Ashley Ashcraft realized she needed a plan to survive military life. Exhausted from living with a resentment-filled heart, she laid down her futile efforts to control this unpredictable lifestyle and decided to try something new—modeling Jesus in her marriage. Even though the demands of the military continued to increase, by daily surrendering her life to God and embracing his plans, Ashley finally learned to find purpose and contentment as a military wife.

In Mission-Ready Marriage, Ashley allows you to peer into her service-induced marriage challenges and shares the secrets that brought her healing and joy. Applying God's truths to all areas of military marriage, Ashley helps spouses, from brand new to seasoned, unearth hope in this arduous journey. To equip you fully, each chapter includes a detailed list of essential resources, key tasks, prayers, and reflection questions. Most importantly, you'll discover Jesus in this book. # Who Did You See Today?

The Power of Outrageous Kindness

DUSTIN SCHADT

In January 2019, a U.S. Census Bureau survey reported that 11 percent of respondents indicated symptoms of anxiety or depression. Just twenty-two months later in December 2020, the percentage nearly quadrupled to more than 42 percent. As believers, we are the ones called to truly “see” the lonely and hurting among us. What if instead of getting caught up in our own busy calendars and daily stressors, we dialed into the needs of those around us, listening with bold intentionality and responding to them with extravagant thoughtfulness and outrageous kindness? Jesus offered us the ultimate example of how to serve and minister to others by meeting people right where they were. Through us, neighbors, coworkers, classmates, and family members should experience that same grace, kindness, and loving attention.

Author Dustin Shadt offers a biblical and theological basis for seeing people, outlines practical ways that individuals, families, schools, nonprofits, small groups, churches, and other organizations can collectively value, focus on, and respond to the world around us. Our care builds a bridge of trust strong enough to bear the weight of our gospel conversations. Kindness has become a precious commodity. We are fast-paced, busy, and often distracted. In a world marked by skepticism, loneliness, and anxiety, Christ-followers must be the ones who live beyond differences and distractions to see the people God places in our lives. Jesus saw us, drew closer, and gave Himself up to make a way for us to come to Him. He is calling us to do the same—to love people the way Jesus loved people, ears open and eyes widen to the beauty of the love of Christ shown in His gospel.

audience

- Thoughtful Christians looking for ways to intentionally love those around them
- Church members wanting to reach out to their communities
- Bible teachers and group leaders looking for a resource to share and equip those around them on how to love like Jesus

marketing highlights

- With an ever-growing epidemic of depression, this book addresses a topic that resonates in the hearts and minds of many
- In a culture focused on individualism, this book offers practical ways to love those around us like Jesus modeled
- B&H will promote this title through paid social media ads, targeted email marketing, and other key marketing to the target audience

I'm So Blessed

CAIN

This interactive picture book invites kids and parents to sing about God's blessings in every circumstance. Sibling band, CAIN has harnessed the message from their hit song, "I'm So Blessed," to create a lyrical picture book with bright and playful illustrations. Kids will follow personified fruits, Tay-Tay Tangerine, Logo Lemon, and Maddie Melon, through their daily lives as they encounter challenges and frustrations but learn how to praise God still.

It's easy to feel blessed and praise God on the best days, but what about the worst days? Throughout this story, each fruit friend encounters a hard day. Tay-Tay's Tuesday plans get ruined by a rainstorm, Maddie's friends forget about her birthday, and Logo falls during a flip in front of a big crowd. In each circumstance, they are reminded that even in frustration and embarrassment, God loves them. It's not because we have good days that God's children are blessed—it's because He loves His kids every day!

I'm So Blessed teaches kids that while it's okay to be sad when plans are ruined, friends let them down, and embarrassment strikes, God is with His children in every circumstance. If kids have breath in their lungs, they can find joy in God's blessings and praise Him by singing the fruits' favorite truth: "I'm so blessed!"

Lulu Fleming

The Doctor Who Shared Jesus

Born into slavery in rural Florida, Louisa (Lulu) Fleming might have been the last person anyone expected to grow up and become a doctor. From birth, Lulu was told she wasn't worthy of dignity or respect because of the color of her skin.

This biographical picture book tells the story of Lulu Fleming, whose grandfather was brought to America from the Congo and enslaved. When Lulu was released from slavery, she discovered that Jesus taught that all people are worthy of respect and dignity. Narrated by a kind and curious cat, readers learn that Lulu became one of the first Black women to attend university in the United States, then decided she wanted to be a missionary to the country where her grandfather had been taken from: the Congo. She served as both a doctor and a teacher in the Congo, speaking against a regime and a culture that devalued people because of the color of their skin. Readers will be inspired by Lulu's bravery and drive to break barriers so she could love and share Jesus with others.

ADAM COX

God's faithfulness never ends! God was faithful to Adam and Eve when He promised someone would come to save His people, He was faithful to the early church when they were persecuted, and He has been faithful ever since. In this 52-week devotional, Adam Cox defines God's faithfulness as being always good, never-changing, and trustworthy in every situation.

With more than twenty different kids and family leaders from churches across the country, this multi-contributor devotional includes stories of God's faithfulness from Scripture, stories of His faithfulness from the writers' childhood, prayer prompts, and reflection questions each week. GENESIS 2

Sin has a price.
Genesis 2:15-17

<sup>3</sup>And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made.

<sup>4</sup>These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens, <sup>5</sup>And every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew; for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground.

<sup>6</sup>But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.

<sup>7</sup>And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

<sup>8</sup>And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

<sup>9</sup>And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

<sup>10</sup>And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence

HIDDEKEL AND EUPHRATES RIVERS

DID YOU KNOW? that the Hiddekel (Tigris) River is about 1,550 miles long (that's farther than Miami, FL to Dallas, TX), and that the Euphrates is about 1,700 miles long (that's almost as far as Los Angeles, CA, to Chicago, IL)? Rivers mentioned in Genesis 2:14 are found in Iraq (ancient Mesopotamia). Check it out!

it was parted, and became into four heads.

<sup>11</sup>The name of the first is Pison: that is it which compasseth the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold;

<sup>12</sup>And the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the onyx stone.

<sup>13</sup>And the name of the second river is Gihon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of Ethiopia.

<sup>14</sup>And the name of the third river is Hiddekel: that is it which goeth toward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates.

MAN TO CARE FOR THE GARDEN

<sup>15</sup>And the LORD God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it.

<sup>16</sup>And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat:

<sup>17</sup>But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

<sup>18</sup>And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him.

ADAM NAMES LIVING CREATURES

<sup>19</sup>And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof.

<sup>20</sup>And Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for Adam there was not found an help meet for him.

THE CREATION OF WOMAN

<sup>21</sup>And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof;

<sup>22</sup>And the rib, which the LORD God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man.

<sup>23</sup>And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man.

Come Home

Tracing God's Promise of Home Through Scripture

CAROLINE SAUNDERS

We long for home.

Home should be a place of love and laughter. Shared meals. Special moments. A place of comfort, rest, and safety. Yet, the homes we make always seem to fall short of satisfying our longing. They're imperfect, transitory, and prone to fracture. People leave them. Intruders enter them. Crises shake them. Too often, instead of peace and security, home is a place of brokenness and pain. These failings of our earthly homes expose in us a longing for a better one. The good news is that there is a remedy for our homesickness.

In this 7-session study, Caroline Saunders follows the theme of home through the Bible. From humanity's first home to our eternal one, we'll see God drawing near to abide with us. We'll find that even the best aspects of home here are just a glimmer of what God is building for us through Christ. This study will affirm that our longing for home is good and purposeful, pointing us to our truest home which is found in Him.

features

- 7 video teaching sessions, approximately 20-30 minutes per session, available via redemption code printed in the Bible study book
- 6 weeks of personal study to be completed between the 7 group sessions

benefits

- Unpack the theme of home found throughout Scripture.
- Identify your spiritual homesickness and be equipped to process your longing for home through God's story.
- Understand how God's promise of a true, forever home is better than any home we have experienced.
- Find freedom from the pressure of maintaining the image of a perfect home.
- Discover that your true home is found in Christ
- Leader helps to guide discussions within small groups

audience

- Women; small group leaders; fans of Caroline Saunders

Ephesians

A Study of Faith and Practice

JACKIE HILL PERRY, JASMINE HOLMES, MELISSA KRUGER

Who am I? The question of identity is always in the back of our minds, and it's currently at the forefront of social conversations. But the first question we need to ask is: Who is God? Then we can begin to consider, And who am I in light of who He is? In his letter to the Ephesians, Paul describes God as a merciful and forgiving Father who unites us in Christ and empowers us to live by the Spirit. We're adopted children and fellow citizens with the saints because of God's loving pursuit on our behalf.

In this 7-session study, Bible teachers, authors, and friends Jackie Hill Perry, Jasmine Holmes, and Melissa Kruger walk through the book of Ephesians, examining the invaluable truths Paul's letter holds for us today. Along the way, they'll help us understand the riches of our inheritance as daughters of our heavenly Father, as well as what it means to walk in a manner worthy of our calling.

features

Revelation

Eternal King, Everlasting Kingdom

JEN WILKIN

Perhaps no other book of the Bible feels as inaccessible and as intimidating to us as the very last one. The book of Revelation overflows with images and ideas that confound our modern ears. But if all Scripture is God-breathed and profitable, we should assume Revelation is as accessible and helpful as any other book of the Bible. Why don't we see it that way?

Two thousand years ago, John's Revelation was circulated and read aloud among seven churches in Asia Minor. Those who heard the letter understood it and drew encouragement from its message. The same can be true for you today. # Revival Generation Bible Study for Teens

Awakening to a Movement of God

SHANE PRUITT

It's been 50 years since the Jesus Movement of the 1970s. Could Gen Z be the generation God uses to bring a revival the nation hasn't seen in decades? Through this resource we desire to see revival spark in Gen Z and for this generation to know Jesus and to make Him known, ultimately impacting churches, schools, and communities.

Revival Generation explores how revival ignites only when God's people take Him seriously. God is the initiator of revival, but He uses His people in the process. Throughout history, every great revival started with young people. The truth is, our communities will never experience revival until our churches do. We can't make God move, but we can be ready when He does. Ultimately, revival begins when we come before God and ask for revival to first start within each of us.

In this 8-session Bible study, author Shane Pruitt explores how God prepares our hearts to be catalysts of revival.

Accurate. Readable. Shareable. The Christian Standard Bible is a translation for everyone—a translation you can take to seminary and read to your kids. A translation that new believers can understand and that every believer can return to for lifelong discipleship.

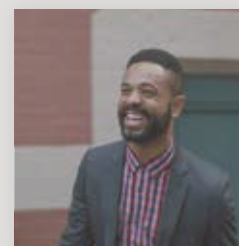

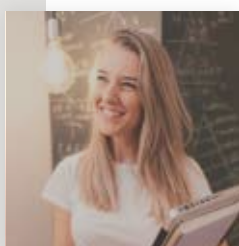

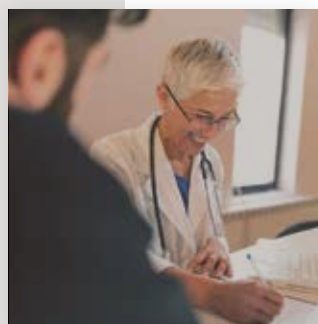

The CSB captures the Bible's original meaning without sacrificing clarity. It's an optimal blend of accuracy and readability—in the many places throughout Scripture where a word-for-word rendering is clearly understandable, a literal translation is used. When a word-for-word rendering might obscure the meaning for a modern audience, a more dynamic translation is used.

The result is a translation that communicates both the words and the thoughts of the original text clearly and accurately to today's readers. A translation pastors can preach from and one you can share with your neighbor hearing God's Word for the very first time.

MEN OF CHARACTER

BIBLE

ADAM MASTER OF THE BLAME GAME

ADAM AND EVE were the first man and woman, the parents of us all, made directly by God's hand. The Lord created Adam first—"out of the dust from the ground." He was special—and so are we—because God "breathed the breath of life into his nostrils, and the man became a living being" (Gn 2:7). Adam was not just a "higher animal." He was a unique creation who reflected God's personality and character.

David captured this difference when he wrote that God created humankind "little less than God and crowned him with glory and honor" (Ps 8:5). That doesn't mean we are Godlike in terms of his all-encompassing wisdom and power. However, we are godlike in terms of God's ability to think, reason, and feel—and even to be creative.

ADAM'S PERFECT COMPLEMENT

God placed Adam in the garden of Eden to "work it and watch over it" (Gn 2:15). Then God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper corresponding to him" (2:18). And so God created Eve from Adam's rib. Though she was uniquely female, Adam exclaimed, "This one, at last, is bone of my bone and flesh of my flesh" (2:23). She was the perfect woman.

Then God established a plan for men and women of all time. Today we call it marriage. The Lord said, "This is why a man leaves his father and mother and bonds with his wife, and they become one flesh" (2:24). In fact, God designed this marital union to be a reflection of the oneness and unity that exists in the holy Trinity.

SIN AND BLAME

Unfortunately what God had created to be heaven on earth soon became a place of deterioration, pain, confusion, tension, and everything else in the world that creates unhappiness. In all of creation, God had made one tree off limits, "the tree of the knowledge of good and evil." If they ate from this tree, God said, Adam and Eve would "certainly die" (2:17).

At that point, Satan entered the scene. Shrewd and conniving, he persuaded Eve to doubt God (3:1) and eat of the forbidden fruit. Eve then gave the fruit to Adam, who also ate. Instantly Adam and Eve realized their sin and tried to hide from God.

What happened next set a pattern people have been following ever since that day. When God challenged Adam's disobedience, he tried to lay the blame on someone else. He started with Eve: "The woman you gave to be with me—she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it" (3:12). We can picture

Adam pointing an accusing finger at Eve. In essence, Adam was saying, "Don't look at me! It was her fault!" But Eve wasn't Adam's primary target. Notice that he said to God in Genesis 3:12, "The woman you gave to be with me..." (emphasis added). Adam's bottom-line excuse was that it was all God's fault! After all, God was the One who made this weak woman who couldn't hold up under Satan's temptation.

And what about Eve's excuse? When God questioned her, she took her husband's approach and tried to blame someone else for her disobedient choice: "The serpent deceived me, and I ate" (3:13). "It's all his fault," she was suggesting.

Obviously, God wasn't deceived. He knew Adam and Eve had both made their own deliberate decisions to disobey his command. And when the excuses were over, God stated the consequences of their fall. Eve would experience increased pain in bearing children and a persistent struggle in her relationship with Adam. Adam, too, suffered serious consequences, for the ground now was cursed and it would require great effort to provide for his family. To both, of course, came inevitable death. Finally, because of their sin, Adam and Eve had to leave the paradise God had created for them, never to return (2:24).

Make no mistake about it, Adam and Eve were personally responsible for their sin. Try as they might to pass it off to another, they found out the hard way that God calls each of us to account for his or her own actions.

RESTORING GOD'S DESIGN

Ever since that day, husbands and wives have tended to blame each other when decisions turn out to be bad ones. Knowing the Lord Jesus Christ personally as Savior, however, brings a very significant element of restoration to our marriages. Though we'll always suffer the consequences of our first parents' sin, we can experience God's saving grace—not only in giving each of us eternal life when we believe in Christ, but also in enabling us as married couples to minimize the relational curse that fell on Adam and Eve.

Restoring and maintaining marriage isn't easy—it takes a lifetime of work. But with God's help, our marriages can experience a growing oneness and mutual love, respect, and support that God intended from the beginning. As husbands, particularly, we are given grace to carry out Paul's command, "Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself for her" (Eph 5:25).

To what extent are you drawing upon God's power through his indwelling Spirit as you relate to your wife?

You will move on your belly and eat dust all the days of your life.<sup>3</sup>
<sup>15</sup> I will put hostility between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring.<sup>4</sup> He will strike your head, and you will strike his heel.<sup>5</sup>

<sup>16</sup> He said to the woman: I will intensify your labor pains; you will bear children with painful effort.<sup>17</sup> Your desire<sup>18</sup> will be for your husband, yet he will rule over you.

<sup>19</sup> And he said to the man, "Because you listened to your wife and ate from the tree about which I commanded you, 'Do not eat from it':

The ground is cursed because of you.<sup>20</sup> You will eat from it by means of painful labor<sup>21</sup> all the days of your life. It will produce thorns and thistles for you, and you will eat the plants of the field.<sup>22</sup> You will eat bread<sup>23</sup> by the sweat of your brow until you return to the ground,<sup>24</sup> since you were taken from it. For you are dust, and you will return to dust."

<sup>25</sup> The man named his wife Eve<sup>26</sup> because she was the mother of all the living.<sup>27</sup> The Lord God made clothing from skins for the man and his wife, and he clothed them.

<sup>28</sup> The Lord God said, "Since the man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil, he must not reach out, take from the tree of life, eat, and live forever."<sup>29</sup> So the Lord God sent him away from the garden of Eden to work the ground from which he was taken.<sup>30</sup> He drove the man out and stationed the cherubim and the flaming, whirling sword east of the garden of Eden to guard the way to the tree of life:

CAIN MURDERS ABEL

<sup>4</sup> The man was intimate with his wife Eve, and she conceived and gave birth to Cain. She said, "I have had a male child with the Lord's help."<sup>2</sup> She also gave birth to his brother Abel. Now Abel became a shepherd of flocks, but Cain worked the ground.<sup>3</sup> In the course of time Cain presented some of the land's produce as an offering to the Lord.<sup>4</sup> And Abel also presented an offering—some of the firstborn of his flock and their fat portions.<sup>5</sup> The Lord had regard for Abel and his offering,<sup>6</sup> but he did not have regard for Cain and his offering. Cain was furious, and he looked despondent.

<sup>7</sup> Then the Lord said to Cain, "Why are you furious? And why do you look despondent? If you do what is right, won't you be accepted? But if you do not do what is right, sin is crouching at the door. Its desire is for you, but you must rule over it."<sup>8</sup>

<sup>9</sup> Cain said to his brother Abel, "Let's go out to the field." And while they were in the field, Cain attacked his brother Abel and killed him.<sup>10</sup>

<sup>11</sup> Then the Lord said to Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?" "I don't know," he replied. "Am I my brother's guardian?"

<sup>12</sup> Then he said, "What have you done? Your brother's blood cries out to me from the ground!"<sup>13</sup> So now you are cursed, alienated from the ground that opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood; you have shed.<sup>14</sup> If you work the ground, it will never again give you its yield. You will be a restless wanderer on the earth.<sup>15</sup>

<sup>16</sup> But Cain answered the Lord, "My punishment is too great to bear!" Since you are banishing me today from the face of the earth, and I must hide from your presence and become a restless wanderer on the earth, whoever finds me will kill me."

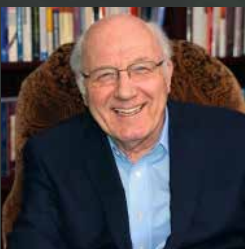

<sup>17</sup> Then the Lord replied to him, "In that case, whoever kills Cain will suffer vengeance seven times over." And he placed a mark<sup>18</sup> on Cain so that whoever found him would not kill him.<sup>19</sup> Then Cain went out from the Lord's presence and lived in the land of Nod,<sup>20</sup> east of Eden.

THE LINE OF CAIN

<sup>1</sup> Cain was intimate with his wife, and she conceived and gave birth to Enoch. Then Cain became the builder of a city, and he named the city Enoch after his son.<sup>2</sup> Irad was born to Enoch, Irad fathered Mehujael, Mehujael fathered Methusael, and Methusael fathered Lamech.<sup>3</sup> Lamech took two wives for himself, one named Adah and the other named Zillah.<sup>4</sup> Adah bore Jabal; he was the first<sup>5</sup> of the nomadic herdsman.

28 "And why do you worry about clothes? Observe how the wildflowers of the field grow. They don't labor or spin thread.

29 "Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was adorned like one of these.

30 "If that's how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and thrown into the furnace tomorrow, won't he do much more for you — you of little faith?"

31 "So don't worry, saying, 'What will we eat?' or 'What will we drink?' or 'What will we wear?'

32 "For the Gentiles eagerly seek all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them.

33 "But seek first the kingdom of God<sup>a</sup> and his righteousness,<sup>b</sup> and all these things will be provided for you."

34 "Therefore don't worry about tomorrow, because tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble<sup>c</sup> of its own.

DO NOT JUDGE

7 "Do not judge, so that you won't be judged."

2 "For you will be judged by the same standard with which you judge others, and you will be measured by the same measure you use."

3 "Why do you look at the splinter in your brother's eye but don't notice the beam of wood in your own eye?"

4 "Or how can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the splinter out of your eye,' and look, there's a beam of wood in your own eye?"

5 "Hypocrite! First take the beam of wood out of your eye, and then you will see clearly to take the splinter out of your brother's eye.

6 "Don't give what is holy to dogs or toss your pearls before pigs,<sup>d</sup> or they will trample them under their feet, turn, and tear you to pieces.

ASK, SEARCH, KNOCK

7 "Ask,<sup>e</sup> and it will be given to you.<sup>f</sup> Seek, and you will find. Knock, and the door<sup>g</sup> will be opened to you.

8 "For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds,<sup>h</sup> and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.

9 "Who among you, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone?"

10 "Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake?"

11 "If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask him.

12 "Therefore, whatever you want others to do for you, do also the same for them, for this is the Law and the Prophets."

ENTERING THE KINGDOM

13 "Enter through the narrow gate.<sup>i</sup> For the gate is wide and the road broad that leads to destruction,<sup>j</sup> and there are many who go through it.

14 "How narrow is the gate and difficult the road that leads to life, and few find it." 15 "You'll recognize them by their fruit."

Are grapes gathered from thornbushes or figs from thistles?"

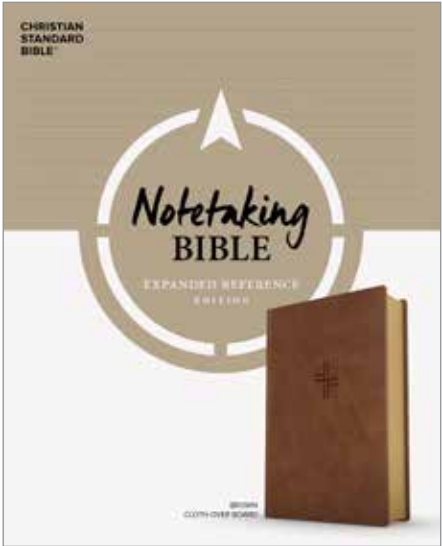

17 "In the same way, every good tree produces good fruit, but a bad tree produces bad fruit."

18 "A good tree can't produce bad fruit; neither can a bad tree produce good fruit."

19 "Every tree that doesn't produce good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire."

20 "So you'll recognize them by their fruit."

Letters of Paul in 30 Days CSB Edition

BY TREVIN WAX

The Apostle Paul: more letters in the New Testament come from his hand than from anyone else. He is the leader whose dramatic conversion God used to rock the early church and whose tireless efforts helped spread the gospel to the Gentiles. His letters, inspired by the Holy Spirit, continue to radiate joy and deliver wisdom, even today.

In Letters of Paul in 30 Days, author and teacher Trevin Wax has crafted a devotional experience that takes you through the letters of Paul to the early church in a “Morning,” “Midday,” and “Evening” pattern, following the Scriptural precedent for praying three times a day. This prayer journey through Paul’s letters features psalms, other songs from Scripture, confessions of faith, and written prayers from faithful Christians who have gone before us. Here is a guide to walking alongside Paul for a month by lifting our eyes, three times a day, to see and encounter the Savior who stands at the center of all his letters.

Letters of Paul in 30 Days features the highly readable, highly reliable text of the Christian Standard Bible® (CSB). The CSB stays as literal as possible to the Bible’s original meaning without sacrificing clarity, making it easier to engage with Scripture’s life-transforming message and to share it with others.

Christ Our All

Poems for the Christian Pilgrim

Written BY CHARLES SPURGEON, Compiled by GEOFFREY CHANG

*Steadfast upon the Rock I stand,
Upheld by God's almighty hand.
In him I move, I live, or die,
In him I'll dwell beyond the sky.*

Charles Haddon Spurgeon was a beloved and celebrated preacher and pastor of the 19th century. But unbeknownst to many, in the quiet habitation of his private life, his prayers poured forth in poetry.

Edited by Spurgeon scholar Geoffrey Chang, Christ Our All: Poems for the Christian Pilgrim offers an intimate glimpse into the soul of Charles Spurgeon. The collection includes 186 never-before-published poems penned by the "Prince of Preachers" and 43 poems and hymns published during his lifetime. Written as private prayers or devotional exercises, these poems express Spurgeon's sorrows, hopes, and love for God with striking imagery and bold conviction.

Christ Our All serves as more than a mere anthology—it is a remarkable treasure awaiting discovery. This volume is meant to be read devotionally, and each poem includes a reference to a passage of Scripture for reflection and prayer. Delve into the hidden depths of a beloved preacher's heart and embark on a poetic pilgrimage with Christ Our All, a remarkable treasure that will ignite your soul and leave you yearning for a deeper connection with God.

Conceived by the Holy Spirit

The Virgin Birth in Scripture and Theology

RHYNE PUTMAN

The New Testament clearly teaches that Jesus was miraculously conceived by the Holy Spirit in the womb of a Jewish virgin named Mary.

This doctrine is often dismissed by modern scholars, who, at best, see it as a misunderstood parable, and at worst see it as a fabrication on the part of the biblical evangelists. However, for orthodox Christians around the world, this doctrine is integrally linked to our understanding of God, his Word, and the incarnation of Jesus.

In Conceived by the Holy Spirit: The Virgin Birth in Scripture and Theology, Rhyne Putman defends the authenticity and significance of the virgin birth of Christ through a meticulous examination of biblical texts and historical context. He addresses both traditional and contemporary objections to the doctrine of the virgin birth, providing robust answers rooted in Scripture and reason.

The virgin birth transcends mere parable; it stands as a testament to the profound union of God and humanity. In this work, Rhyne Putnam demonstrates not only the truth of the virgin birth, but also its necessity for orthodox theology and its implications for Christian life.

audience

- Theology nerds, especially those interested in theological retrieval
- Christians seeking a better understanding of this crucial doctrine of the Christian faith
- Upper-level theology classes at Christian universities and seminaries

marketing highlights

- This book follows in the interest in theological retrieval, as Christians more closely examine the doctrine of the early church as guidance for today
- This book helps Christians understand why the doctrine of the virgin birth is so important, and how it fits in with other essential doctrines of the Christian faith

Based on her extensive research and clinical experience, Roudkovski explains:

Christian Ethics

A Short Companion

GILBERT MEILAENDER

Jesus's final command to his disciples at the Last Supper is a calling to an ethic of love. In Christian Ethics: A Short Companion, renowned ethicist Gilbert Meilaender makes the case that all Christian ethics are an outworking of this command to love one another.

Meilaender accordingly lays out a vision for the spirit and structure of the Christian life, while drawing directly upon theologians from the early church to the Reformation to today. He begins by examining the concept of sin and its profound impact on human life before moving to grace as an agent of pardon and power. He then lays out a framework for a Christian life characterized by a spirit of love, bound by wise limits and fostered through the community of the church.

Within this volume, Meilaender also includes excerpts from and commentary on:

- Martin Luther, The Freedom of a Christian (1520)
- Josef Pieper, About Love (1974)
- H. Richard Niebuhr, Christ and Culture (1951)

Christian Ethics: A Short Companion is a concise and illuminating exploration of the foundational aspects of Christian ethics. Readers will be empowered to live out their faith with wisdom, grace, and moral clarity—but most of all, with love.

The Essentials in Christian Ethics series is designed to illuminate the richness and centrality of ethics to all of Christian life. The series consists of short, introductory volumes written by renowned scholars in the fields of ethics, theology, and philosophy. Each volume explores a crucial element of Christian ethical reflection, approaching the subject from within the broader Protestant moral tradition.

Biblical Ethics

A Short Companion

JACOB SHATZER

Scripture presents a unified story of God's redemptive history and vision for the Christian life. As such, the biblical canon serves as the foundation for Christian ethics. In Biblical Ethics: A Short Companion, Jacob Shatzer offers a primer in biblical ethics that explores principles and interpretative methods for understanding how the Bible speaks with a unified voice and vision for the Christian life.

Shatzer begins by defining biblical ethics and examining its nature in relation to the broader task of ethical discourse. He then pivots to the text of Scripture, employing a narrative approach to ethics. He gleans insights from both the Old and New Testaments, looking at their context and themes before charting a vision forward towards a biblical ethic. Finally, the volume concludes by considering challenges to biblical ethics and particular ways biblical ethics are embodied and put into practice in the life of the Christian and the church community.

Biblical Ethics: A Short Companion is an essential resource for individuals seeking a comprehensive understanding of the ethical framework presented throughout Scripture. With meticulous analysis and insightful reflections, this book equips readers to navigate the complexities of ethical decision-making and embrace a holistic vision of moral life based on the teachings of the Bible.

Faithful Reason

Natural Law Ethics for God's Glory and Our Good

ANDREW T. WALKER

Many evangelical Christians have faith in the Bible, but struggle with confidence in its ethical principles. Some believe that biblical morals are not as effective as secular ideologies in promoting human well-being and societal progress. Others feel that using the Bible as a basis for moral arguments lacks persuasive power in public discussions.

In Faithful Reason: Natural Law Ethics for God's Glory and Our Good, Andrew T. Walker argues that developing a comprehensive Christian ethic is not simply a matter of appealing to biblical authority, but also of understanding the way that God has ordered creation and our place within it. In this work, he provides a comprehensive and accessible introduction to natural law ethics from an evangelical perspective.

In the first section of Faithful Reason, Walker develops a robust framework of natural law ethics, guided by biblical and theological evidence. In the second section, this framework is applied to various contemporary ethical issues within dignity ethics, embodied ethics, personal ethics, social ethics, and political ethics. Through a natural law framework, readers are empowered to reason through the particulars of any situation and develop a godly ethical response.

audience

- Christians interested in ethics, especially in natural law ethics and biblical ethics
- Professors and students in ethics, apologetics, and faith and culture classes at Christian universities and seminaries

The Four Gospels

Jesus, the Hope of the World

PATRICK SCHREINER

The Gospels are the center and climax of Scripture. In them we finally meet Jesus: the anticipated fulfillment of the stories and promises of the Old Testament.

In The Four Gospels: Jesus, the Hope of the World, Patrick Schreiner demonstrates the critical importance of the gospel narratives, not only as the stories of our Savior, but also as the climax of God's story. Schreiner's close and nuanced readings of the Gospels skillfully illustrate how the stories of Jesus, and even his very words, interact with the preceding testimony of Israel. For each Gospel, he provides outlines, an overview of the book's content, and an examination of theological themes and emphases. Schreiner concludes each chapter with an examination of the Gospel as a discipleship text, giving insight for what it means to follow Jesus.

As part of the Scripture Connections series, The Four Gospels includes helpful sidebars with ancient, biblical, gospel, and life connections. Written in an accessible manner, this book will help readers engage more deeply with the stories of the Savior.

The Scripture Connections series is a concise and accessible guide to the Bible that focuses on Scripture's natural unity. Each volume covers a particular set of biblical books, providing a thorough overview of the content and background in a shorter page count than a traditional textbook. The authors bring forward connections between Scripture and the ancient world, other biblical texts, the good news of the gospel, and everyday life, inviting readers to engage more deeply with God's Word.

audience

- Professors and students in New Testament courses at Christian universities

marketing highlights

Special Revelation and Scripture

DAVID S. DOCKERY and MALCOLM B. YARNELL III

The doctrine of special revelation and the role of Holy Scripture have been central to the Christian faith for two thousand years. Yet, the nature, authority, and interpretation of the Bible continue to be discussed and debated. In their book Special Revelation and Scripture, David S. Dockery and Malcolm B. Yarnell III explore the fundamental elements of divine revelation, such as inspiration, reliability, and authority, and how these elements influence and shape the Christian's understanding of theological doctrines, ethical teachings, and matters concerning worldview.

Dockery and Yarnell begin by developing the doctrine of divine revelation that emphasizes the Bible as the revealed word of the triune God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. They examine the relationship between the Second Person of the Trinity, Jesus Christ, and sacred Scripture, highlighting their foundational connection. Furthermore, they explore the work of the Holy Spirit in inspiring the prophetic and apostolic writings and safeguarding them in the biblical canon.

The authors affirm the special nature of Scripture by highlighting its essential attributes of truthfulness, inerrancy, sufficiency, and authority. They conclude by emphasizing the Holy Spirit's role in illuminating Scripture for the development of theology and practice within the church.

The Way of Christ in Culture

A Vision for All of Life

BENJAMIN T. QUINN and DENNIS T. GREESON

Culture is the way that humans organize their lives in a particular place and time. It includes everything from our language to our customs, to our values. As image-bearers of God, we are called to be salt and light in culture, bringing redemption and transformation to all areas of life. However, often the relationship between faith and culture is hard to navigate.

The Way of Christ in Culture: A Vision for All of Life by Benjamin Quinn and Dennis Greeson provides a framework for how to think rightly about the relationship between faith and culture. The authors survey the biblical narrative to develop a theology of culture. They focus on knowing one's time in God's story, one's place in creation, and following the way of Wisdom. These themes help Christians evaluate their callings and responsibilities in society and equip them with the categories to think Christianly about every arena of culture.

The Christ in Everything series exists to demonstrate how Christ is connected to all of life. The primers in this series serve as introductions to important cultural topics, including science, freedom, politics, beauty, and the nature of truth. Each book offers a biblical and theological framework from which to view and approach the topic at hand, followed by examples for how to walk in the way of Jesus in that cultural domain.

audience

- Lay Christians interested in how the Christian life intersects with culture
- Professors and students in worldview and culture classes at Christian seminaries and universities

Perspectives on the Historical Adam and Eve

Four Views

Edited by KENNETH KEATHLEY

The question of the historicity of the biblical Adam and Eve remains a crucial issue for contemporary Christians. The range of Christian beliefs regarding the origin of humanity impacts their understanding of human identity, human uniqueness, and the human condition. Theologically, the historicity of Adam and Eve speaks to original sin, redemption, and God's plan and purpose for humanity.

Perspectives on the Historical Adam and Eve delves into the anthropological and theological dimensions that shape our understanding of humanity. In an essay-and-response model, four leading evangelical scholars examine the biblical teachings, scientific evidence, and theological and practical implications of each view.

As part of the Perspectives series, this volume presents four distinct positions in dialogue, moderated by volume editor Kenneth Keathley and with an afterword by S. Joshua Swamidass:

- the Non-Historical Adam and Eve View (Kenton L. Sparks)
- the Mytho-Historical Adam View (William Lane Craig)
- the Genealogical Adam and Eve Model (Andrew Loke)
- the Recent Adam and Eve View (Marcus R. Ross)

The essays and responses engage with contemporary research into the genealogical Adam and Eve and well as the advancing biblical studies of the Genesis narratives of Adam and Eve as part of the primeval history of Genesis 1-11. Professors, students, pastors, and interested lay readers are invited to join an ongoing and important conversation that has the power to shape their beliefs about human identity, redemption, and God's divine plan.

The Perspectives series brings together scholars with multiple viewpoints on contested topics in biblical studies, theology, and ministry, allowing them to engage with each other's ideas and arguments in a point-counterpoint discussion. From their different perspectives, the scholars address a myriad of questions surrounding complex issues, providing the reader with a broader and deeper understanding of the subject.

Jonathan Edwards

A Reformed Arminian Engagement

Edited by J. MATTHEW PINSON

Jonathan Edwards: A Reformed Arminian Engagement provides a fresh perspective on the theology of one of the most influential thinkers in American Christianity. Famous—or perhaps infamous—for his image of “Sinners in the hands of an angry God,” Jonathan Edwards is closely associated with Calvinist thought. However, this book brings together a collection of essays that reconsiders his theology from the vantage point of Reformed Arminianism.

Through a critical engagement with Edwards’ thought, the authors of this book offer alternative expressions of fidelity to the early Reformed confessions without the deterministic metaphysics associated with Calvinism. This approach provides a unique opportunity for constructive theological dialogue among Calvinists, Arminians, and other varieties of non-Calvinists.

By exploring Edwards’ theology from a Reformed Arminian perspective, readers are invited to think more deeply about the hard lines drawn between confessional traditions and traditional theological systems that too often characterize the Calvinist-Arminian debate. This book challenges readers to consider the ways in which different theological perspectives can enrich their understanding of faith and deepen their engagement with Christians of other confessions.

Written with clarity and insight, Jonathan Edwards: A Reformed Arminian Engagement is an essential resource for anyone seeking to engage with the thought of this influential figure in American Christianity.

Contributors: J. Matthew Pinson, Paul V. Harrison, Kevin L. Hester, Barry Raper, Robert E. Picirilli, and Matthew McAfee

Grounded in missional theology and the true story of the world, the book's narrative approach promotes active reliance on God's Spirit and calls followers of Jesus to eagerly engage in meaningful gospel conversations.

1-3 John

Exegetical Guide to the Greek New Testament

ROBERT L. PLUMMER and E. RODERICK ELLEDGE

The Exegetical Guide to the Greek New Testament (EGGNT) closes the gap between the Greek text and the available lexical and grammatical tools, providing all the necessary information for greater understanding of the text. The series makes interpreting any given New Testament book easier, especially for those who are hard pressed for time but want to preach or teach with accuracy and authority.

Each volume begins with a brief introduction to the particular New Testament book, a basic outline, and a list of recommended commentaries. The body is devoted to paragraph-by-paragraph exegesis of the Greek text and includes homiletical helps and suggestions for further study. A comprehensive exegetical outline of the New Testament book completes each EGGNT volume.

audience

- Pastors and scholars using online tools for sermon preparation and research
- Professors and students in upper-level Greek courses at evangelical seminaries

marketing highlights

- 1 John is often the first New Testament book that a student will translate, making this an excellent resource for students in Greek courses

ROBERT L. PLUMMER (PhD, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary) is the Collin and Evelyn Aikman Professor of Biblical Studies at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

E. RODERICK ELLEDGE (PhD, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary) is an adjunct professor in New Testament interpretation at Erksine Seminary.

Ser mujer

La confusión sobre la identidad femenina y cómo los cristianos deben responder

TO BE A WOMAN

KATIE J. McCOY

We live in a cultural moment where the definition of “woman” eludes the keenest of thinkers and brightest of scientists, where one’s biological sex and one’s gender are divorced, where the meaning of gender itself is a constantly moving target, and where girls and women, especially, struggle to know who they are.

Where societal confusion has naturally ensued from this state of affairs, and Christians especially wonder how to think and respond to it, Katie J. McCoy offers a clear and helpful guide in her debut trade book, To Be a Woman.

Vivimos en un momento cultural donde la definición de “mujer” elude a los pensadores más agudos y a los científicos más brillantes, donde dicen que el sexo biológico y el género de una persona están divorciados, donde el significado del género en sí mismo cambia constantemente de objetivo, y en el que especialmente niñas y mujeres luchan por saber quiénes son.

Donde la confusión social se ha producido naturalmente a partir de una agenda, y los cristianos se preguntan especialmente cómo pensar y cómo responder, Katie J. McCoy ofrece una guía clara y útil en su primer libro comercial, “Ser mujer”.

Sin atajos al éxito

Un manifesto para las misiones modernas

NO SHORTCUTS TO SUCCESS

MATT RHODES

In No Shortcut to Success, author and missionary Matt Rhodes implores Christians to stop chasing silver-bullet strategies and short-term missions, and instead embrace theologically robust and historically demonstrated methods of evangelism and discipleship—the same ones used by historic figures such as William Carey and Adoniram Judson. These great missionaries didn't rush evangelism; they spent time studying Scripture, mastering foreign languages, and building long-term relationships. Rhodes explains that modern missionaries' emphasis on minimal training and quick conversions can result in slipshod evangelism that harms the communities they intend to help. He also warns against underestimating the value of individual skill and effort—under the guise of “getting out of the Lord's way”—and empowers Christians with practical, biblical steps to proactively engage unreached groups.

En Sin atajos al éxito, Matt Rhodes ruega a los cristianos que dejen de perseguir estrategias milagrosas y misiones a corto plazo, y en su lugar adopten métodos de evangelismo y discipulado teológicamente sólidos e históricamente demostrados, los mismos que usaron figuras históricas como William Carey y Adoniram Judson. Estos grandes misioneros no apresuraron el evangelismo; pasaron tiempo estudiando las Escrituras, dominando idiomas extranjeros y construyendo relaciones a largo plazo. Rhodes explica que el énfasis de los misioneros modernos en la capacitación mínima y las conversiones rápidas puede resultar en un evangelismo descuidado que daña a las comunidades que intentan ayudar. Rhodes advierte contra la subestimación del valor de la habilidad y el esfuerzo individual, bajo el pretexto de “no debo salir del camino del Señor”, y anima a los cristianos con pasos prácticos y bíblicos para involucrar de manera proactiva a los grupos no alcanzados.

Tú eres un teólogo

Una invitación a conocer y amar bien a Dios

YOU ARE A THEOLOGIAN

J. T. ENGLISH AND JEN WILKIN

Theology can be intimidating. Perhaps questions like these have kept you from engaging with it: "What is theology?" "Who does theology?" "What happens if I get something wrong?" Theology can be intimidating. But it doesn't have to be. Whether conversations about theology have felt out of reach, over your head, or irrelevant, consider this book an invitation to dialogue.

The goal of theology is knowing and loving God well. This is a lifelong endeavor, a never-ending pursuit, not for the sake of knowledge, but for an ever-deepening relationship with God Himself. Authors Jen Wilkin and J. T. English invite you to become not merely a consumer of theology, but a contributor to the conversation, and to grow in faithfulness to the Great Commission's call to make disciples, You Are a Theologian.

La teología puede ser intimidante y quizás ciertas preguntas como estas te han impedido involucrarte con ella: "¿Qué es la teología?" "¿Quién hace teología?" "¿Qué pasa si me sale algo mal?" Y aunque la teología puede ser intimidante, no tiene por qué serlo. Ya sea que las conversaciones sobre teología se sientan fuera de su alcance, por encima de tu cabeza o irrelevantes, considera este libro como una invitación al diálogo.

La meta de la teología es conocer y amar bien a Dios. Este es un esfuerzo de toda la vida, una búsqueda interminable, no por el bien del conocimiento, sino por una relación cada vez más profunda con Dios mismo. Los autores Jen Wilkin y J. T. English te invitan a convertirte no solo en un consumidor de teología, sino en un colaborador de la conversación y a crecer en la fidelidad al llamado de la Gran Comisión de hacer discípulos, "Tú eres un teólogo".

Llora con los que lloran

WEEP WITH THOSE WHO WEEP

KAREN GARZA

When was the last time you wept with those who weep? Have we forgotten those who God cares for specifically in the midst of deep grief? Are we comforting them as an extension of God's comfort to us or are we giving false remedies that hurt?

There are many books on suffering, but very few deal with "how" to suffer with the ones who suffer. When we talk about suffering we commonly think in the first person. We spend a lot of time seeking comfort and personal hope, which is good and necessary. However, sometimes we find ourselves so immersed in our own suffering that we forget that we have also been called to weep with those who weep. Unfortunately, the church and the testimony of Christ have been affected precisely by our inability to come alongside those who are suffering. This topic is relevant for all of us.

¿Cuándo fue la última vez que lloraste con los que lloran? ¿Hemos olvidado a los que Dios cuida específicamente en medio de profunda aflicción? ¿Los estamos consolando como una extensión del consuelo de Dios para nosotros o les estamos dando remedios falsos que lastiman?

Existen muchos libros que hablan del sufrimiento, pero pocos hablan de cómo sufrir con los que sufren. Cuando hablamos sobre el sufrimiento usualmente pensamos en primera persona. Pasamos mucho tiempo buscando consuelo y esperanza personal, lo cual es bueno y necesario. Sin embargo, algunas veces nos encontramos a nosotros mismos tan inmersos en nuestro propio sufrimiento que olvidamos que también hemos sido llamados a llorar con los que lloran. Desafortunadamente, la iglesia y el testimonio de Cristo han sido afectados precisamente por nuestra incapacidad de caminar junto a los que están sufriendo. Este tema es relevante para todos nosotros..

Yo soy

*Creada con un propósito hermosoI AM

DR. MIGUEL NÚÑEZ

Throughout history many theologians and pastors have dealt with the question of “who is God? And, “what is He like?”. So many people have asked this question, hence why there are so many works on the attributes of God. However, many bypass the necessary response that this understanding of the character of God demands. In this book, Miguel Núñez argues that God reveals His character in order that our hearts and lives might be transformed. This transformation starts with an unsettling of our hearts that moves toward knowledge and gratitude, as we come to know the sovereign God who draws near to those who draw near to Him.

WELCOME TO BIBLEWORLD

MIKE NAPPA

You have heard of Disney World; now welcome to Bible World! This seek-and-find book visualizes various Bible genres as a series of "lands" in a theme park with detailed, fun, colorful, and with Where's Waldo-style illustrations. As children explore these Bible "lands", they will discover for themselves the way Scripture has been collected and organized—from Genesis to Revelation. They will also see the main themes that runs throughout the Bible—God's promise of a rescuing King and its fulfilment in Jesus Christ. Un año de historias bíblicas para niños

BIBLESTORIES

Finding the right resources to teach children about the Bible can be challenging, especially one that includes all the necessary materials for a teacher to conduct an engaging and enriching children's Bible class for an entire year. That's why we wanted to create a simple but powerful tool that could feature stories from the Bible and awaken creative discussions. Each of the 52 mini posters highlights a unique tale and is designed for easy display, allowing children to read and reflect on the story while enjoying the corresponding illustration on the other side. It's a simple yet powerful solution that can make teaching the Bible a more engaging and enjoyable experience for you and your little ones.

Our stories are carefully crafted for children in preschool through 5th grade. To further enhance their learning experience, we have included coloring pages that correspond with each illustration, which can be conveniently downloaded from our website.

Encontrar los recursos adecuados para enseñar la Biblia a los niños puede ser un reto, especialmente cuando buscas uno que incluya todos los materiales necesarios para que un maestro enseñe la Biblia a los niños de forma atractiva y enriquecedora durante todo un año. Por eso quisimos crear una herramienta sencilla pero poderosa que presentara historias de la Biblia y despertara debates creativos. Cada uno de los 52 minicarteles destaca un relato único y está diseñado para exponerse fácilmente, lo que permite a los niños leer y reflexionar sobre la historia mientras disfrutan de la ilustración correspondiente en la otra página. Es una solución sencilla pero poderosa que puede hacer que la enseñanza de la Biblia sea una experiencia más atractiva y agradable para ti y tus pequeños.

lost or damaged product

B&H Publishing Group cannot be responsible for products lost or damaged in shipment. In the event you receive damaged products or find a carton shortage, please follow the following procedure.

freight shipments

Sign the delivery receipt and state the exact number of cartons received and any visible damage. If damage is discovered after delivery, notify carrier for inspection within 15 days of delivery. Retain all packing material including boxes from the shipping company. Notify B&H Customer Service, and we will file a claim for you with the carrier and enter a replacement order.

ups/fedex ground shipments

handling your order

When you order, include the product ISBN of each product ordered. Please specify order need-by date (as appropriate) to ensure receipt according to your needs. Orders without a need-by date or noted "Send best way" will be shipped the least expensive way. Orders requested to be shipped by motor freight will be shipped by the line which we believe will give you the best service if you have not asked for a specific carrier. Orders for "one" of a product packaged and cataloged in certain quantities will be interpreted to mean "one packaged unit." Orders weighing less than 250 pounds are usually shipped UPS. Orders weighing more than 250 pounds are usually shipped by motor freight. (You may have a preference entered on your permanent customer file.)
