Lifeway Christian Resources has been serving the church since 1891, when it was founded in the office of a local pastor in Nashville, Tennessee. Today, based in Brentwood, Lifeway remains a self-supporting nonprofit and one of the leading providers of trusted Christian resources. Our ministry reaches across generations and formats—offering Bibles, books, devotionals, Bible studies, curriculum, music, movies, church supplies, camps, events, and more. We are also the world’s largest provider of Spanish Bibles, serving a global mission field with excellence and heart.

What sets Lifeway apart is that behind every product—every Bible, every study, every tool—stands a team of people who serve in their local churches as pastors, teachers, kids volunteers, and group leaders. We’re not just creating resources for ministry—we’re using them too. Everything we do is aimed at one mission: fueling the church’s calling to make disciples. We’re honored to partner with you to put gospel-centered resources into the hands of those who need them most.

A GUIDE FOR REACHING THE LARGEST GENERATION YET

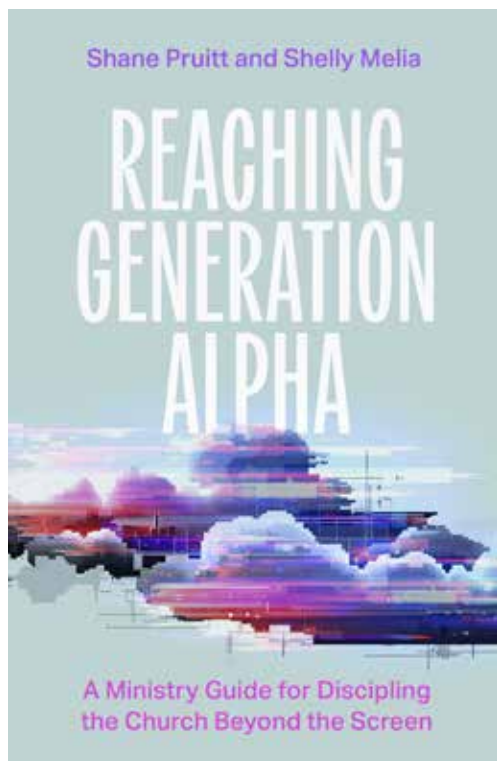

As Generation Alpha emerges as the largest demographic in history, ministry leaders, educators, and parents face a new challenge: how to connect with a generation raised in a digital-first world. In Reaching Generation Alpha, Shane Pruitt and Dr. Shelly Melia combine ministry experience with academic insight to offer a practical, research-backed roadmap for reaching this unique generation with the gospel.

SHANE PRUITT serves as the National Next Gen Director for the North American Mission Board (NAMB). He and his wife Kasi reside in Texas with their five children. He has been in ministry for over 20 years as a church planter, lead pastor, and student pastor. Shane is also a traveling communicator, evangelist, and Bible teacher.

SHELLY MELIA serves as Associate Dean and Program Director for the Master of Arts in Children's Ministry and the Master of Arts in Family Ministry in the Graduate School of Ministry at Dallas Baptist University. She speaks throughout the nation at children's and family ministry conferences. She is a board member of the Disciple Leaders Network, served as the President of the Board for the Early Childhood Christian Network, and is a consultant for Single Parent Ministries.

Reaching Generation Alpha

A Ministry Guide for Discipling the Church Beyond the Screen

SHANE PRUITT AND SHELLY MELIA

Each generation has had their ministerial focus. Many have witnessed the focus on Millennials as well as Generation Z. We are now in a time where the next generation (Generation Alpha) are just now old enough to enter student ministries. And just as we have seen a need for how to effectively reach millennials and Generation Z, Generation Alpha has their own unique needs. They are a generation raised exclusively in the technological age, where the decisions they make today can potentially follow them into adulthood. Many of their relationships are fostered via technology, but there are also those that have been raised in isolation as parents have chosen to remove their children more and more from traditional education. This resource offers expertise provided by on-the-ground interaction from Shane Pruitt as the Next Generation Director at NAMB but will also be paired with scholarly research from Shelly Melia who oversees the Family Ministry and Children's Ministry programs at Dallas Baptist University.

In Reaching Generation Alpha, Shane Pruitt and Shelly Melia provide professional, personal, and well-researched insights into reaching the next generation. This book offers more than a guide on how to give wisdom to specific situations often associated with Generation Alpha. More importantly, this book discusses the ways for ministry leaders to effectively connect with this upcoming generation and present them with the gospel.

audience

- Parents, grandparents, and caregivers of Generation Alpha, who are looking for practical steps to reach this new generation with the gospel
- Pastors and missionary leaders who seek to deepen their understanding of the needs and challenges of Gen Alpha, equipping them to step into their calling of making disciples
- Any Christian who desires to effectively share God's Word in a way that resonates with a younger audience

marketing highlights

- As Generation Alpha becomes the largest demographic in history, this book equips parents, pastors, and educators with the tools to understand and disciple a generation shaped by technology, cultural shifts, and spiritual confusion
- Coauthored by Shane Pruitt, National Next Gen Director at NAMB, and Dr. Shelly Melia, a leading voice in children's and family ministry education, this book blends frontline ministry experience with academic insight—backed by a combined platform that reaches hundreds of thousands annually via podcasts, speaking engagements, social media platforms, and more
- Shane Pruitt is a proven voice with impact—his first two books have sold more than 32K copies; each year, he speaks to more than 100K people at events nationwide and engages a growing audience of 279K followers across his social media platforms

Devotional

CHELSEY DEMATTEIS is a wife, mother, and woman on fire for Jesus. She is a devotional writer for Lifeway's Journey Women Magazine, Salem Media, and YouVersion. She hosts the Living with Less Podcast and is the author of More of Him, Less of Me: Living a Christ-Centered Life in a Me-Centered World and A Thrill of Hope. Chelsey resides in the Midwest with her husband and their two children.

Mercy in the Margin

52 Devotions to Encounter Jesus in the Mix-Ups, Mess-ups, and Marvelous Moments of Motherhood

CHELSEY DEMATTEIS

In 52 devotions, author and mama Chelsey DeMatteis invites you to embrace the fringes of motherhood as sacred spaces where God's mercy meets you in the most unlikely places—even the places and moments you thought didn't count. These moments—often disguised as disruptions, inconveniences, or mundane routines—are unexpected invitations to encounter Jesus in the small margins of motherhood.

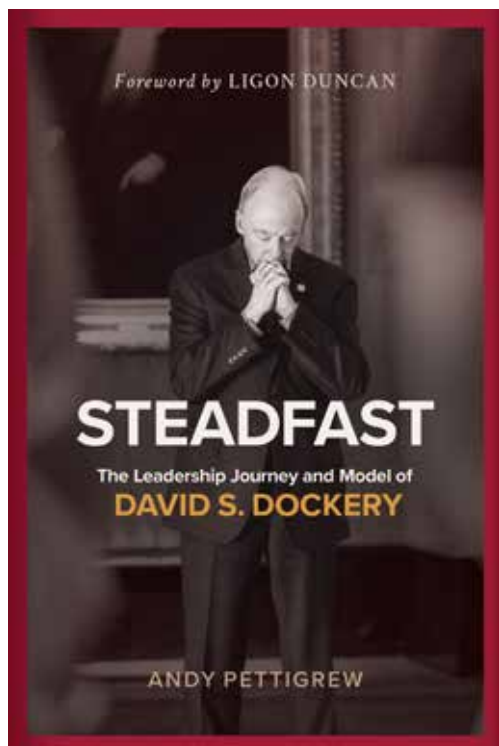

Whether you're navigating mealtimes, mistakes, midnight prayers, or moments when you wish there were more of you to go around, Jesus is there, wanting you to look to Him and receive the grace you need exactly when you need it. It is proven true that in His presence, mothers can experience the gifts tucked inside the mysteries of motherhood. The margin is there, the mercies are new, and with Jesus, He can change our hearts and homes—forever.

audience

- Busy moms who desire to spend time with Jesus, but struggle to find the "perfect" window of time in their day or believe their marginal moments don't count as opportunities to experience the Lord's presence
- Women beginning their journey in motherhood and starting their walk with Jesus
- Gift book for younger moms from those who have been in their shoes

marketing highlights

- Chelsey has been a regular writer for Journey Magazine and YouVersion where her four plans have garnered more than 140K total completions; she also hosts a podcast called Living with Less that has more than 110K downloads
- 73 percent of millennial moms report feeling stressed or overwhelmed at least five days of each week; this giftable devotional gives succinct and heartfelt encouragement to moms who need time with the Lord and perspective in the season they are in
- The format of the book includes extra features like ideas for finding margin for God's mercy and prayer prompts for each entry and also allows moms to use this book throughout an entire year or as 52 consecutive devotional moments

ANDY PETTIGREW (PhD, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary) has served in global ministry for over 25 years, primarily in his current role with the International Mission Board, including many years with his family in sub-Saharan Africa. He is an elder at River City Baptist Church in Richmond, Virginia, and speaks internationally on missions, theology, and leadership. Andy and his wife, Laura, have three children who share a love for travel and good books.

Steadfast

The Leadership Journey and Model of David S. Dockery

ANDY PETTIGREW

What keeps a leader steadfast — across changing times, shifting institutions, and heavy trials?

David S. Dockery has shaped the landscape of Christian higher education for over four decades, leading prominent institutions through seasons of challenge, reform, and renewal. From humble tasks in locker rooms to high-stakes decisions in the halls of learning, Dockery's leadership has been marked by an unwavering commitment to faith, a bold strategic vision, and deeply held values of excellence, trust, and mission.

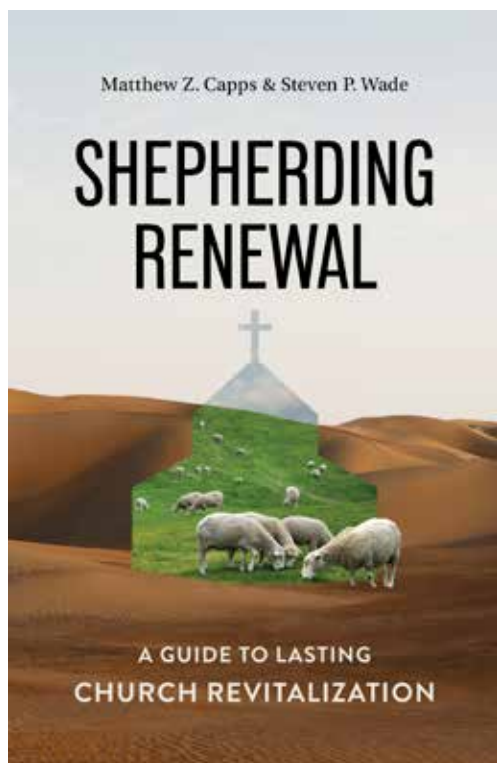

In these pages, you'll discover the convictions and values behind the man—drawn from years of research into his life, his words, and from those who knew him best. Steadfast: The Leadership Journey and Model of David S. Dockery offers a model of Christian leadership rooted not in charisma, but in character. It's a story of faith forged in providence, vision anchored in hope, and a legacy calling every leader to lead from what matters most.

audience

- Evangelical leaders and pastors who have been mentored, educated, or significantly influenced by David Dockery and the institutions he has led
- Christian educators and administrators in higher education who desire to study a model of faithful academic leadership
- Students of Southern Baptist history, leadership, and institutions looking for insight into a key figure from the last fifty years

marketing highlights

- This book is the first full-length biography of one of the most influential evangelical academic leaders of the past half century
- Includes extensive research and interviews offering new insight into Dockery's leadership and legacy
- Author is connected to the IMB and SBC leadership circles, which provides a strategic platform for engagement and promotion

MATTHEW Z. CAPPS has served as the Lead Pastor of Fairview Baptist Church in Apex, NC, since 2015. Capps is a graduate of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary (M.Div. with Biblical Languages), Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary (D.Min. in Pastoral Theology), and is a Ph.D. candidate at Ridley College in Melbourne, Australia. Matt and Laura have three children: Solomon, Ruby, and Abby.

STEVEN P. WADE (PhD Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary) has been in pastoral ministry for 25 years and currently serves as Lead Pastor of Faith Baptist Church in Youngsville, NC. He is also a Professor of Pastoral Theology at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. Steven and his wife, Jenny, have four children: Caleb, Sarah, Lydia, and Anna.

Shepherding Renewal

A Guide to Lasting Church Revitalization

MATTHEW Z. CAPPS AND STEVEN P. WADE

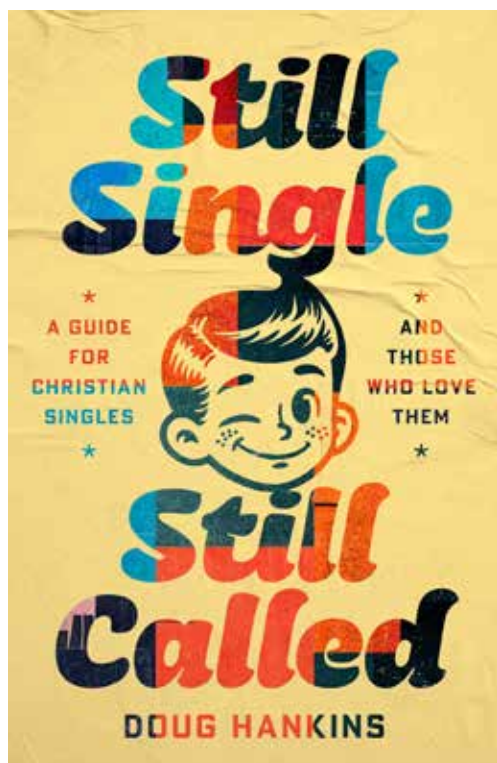

It is not difficult for the observant Christian to recognize a church in decline. In every small town, suburb, or city, there is often a church on the brink of shutting their doors, or at the very least recognizing the stagnancy of a church's growth. Matt Capps and Steven Wade know this not only from observation, but from experience in their own revitalized churches. In Shepherding Renewal, these pastors address the hardship of serving a church in decline, and even more so address the need to breathe new life into the dying church.

audience

- Pastors and church leaders who are serving a church in need of revitalization and are seeking motivation, guidance, and a renewed vision for perseverance
- Christians who are members of an unhealthy church who are looking for answers as to why this has happened and encouragement to make and support changes to their church
- Pastors and church leaders seeking knowledge on the causes of church decline and how to prevent those patterns from arising in their own congregations

marketing highlights

- A recent Lifeway Research study showed that several thousand churches close each year, leaving many pastors and church leaders fearful of what is next for their own churches; this concise and accessible book provides urgent, actionable guidance for pastors and church leaders seeking to breathe new life into struggling congregations
- Southern Baptist churches are experiencing a powerful wave of church revitalization—according to data analyzing recent trends, thousands of smaller congregations are embracing renewal, replanting, and fostering models to restore gospel vitality in their communities
- This title is designed for practical application—ideal for church leaders, seminary students, and ministry teams looking for focused, affordable resources

Personal Growth

DOUG HANKINS (Ph.D., Trinity Evangelical Divinity School) is a pastor, professor, and friend to countless single adults he's walked alongside for more than 20 years. He serves as the Senior Pastor of First Baptist Church in Winter Park, Florida, and teaches as an Associate Professor at the Baptist University of Florida. Over the years, Doug has listened to the hopes, frustrations, and quiet courage of people navigating life outside of marriage—and he's learned that singleness isn't something to fix, but something to understand more deeply. With the heart of a pastor, the curiosity of a storyteller, and the training of a scholar, he brings a rare blend of empathy and insight to a topic too often misunderstood. In this book, Doug offers a fresh vision of singleness—not as what's missing, but as what's meaningful.

Still Single, Still Called

A Guide for Christian Singles and Those who Love Them

DOUG HANKINS

Being single does not mean that something is wrong. Singleness is not a problem that needs to be fixed. And yet, for so long, it has been treated that way. In the past, many churches have felt that the only way to include a single person into the fold of the church is to just get them married. This has often left single Christians feeling as if they don't belong, as if they can only find validation from a congregation if they find a spouse. Singleness is not an illness to cure, nor is it a brokenness that needs repair.

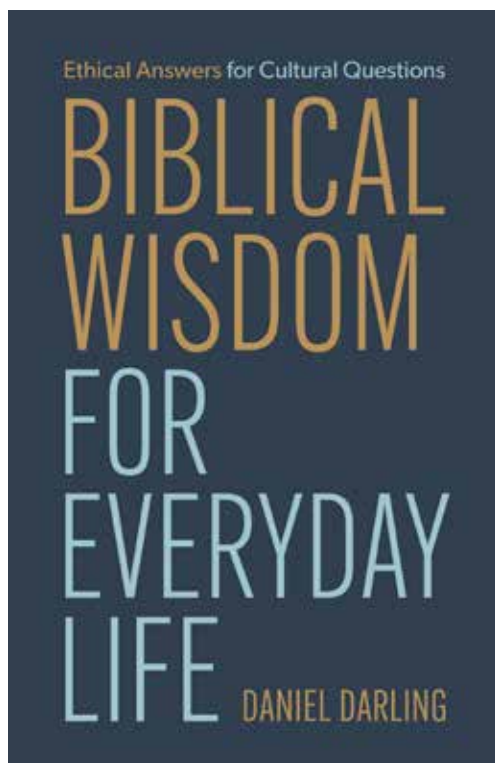

In just about every church, one can find multiple adults who are not married. Whether a personal decision or not, the reality is that many of these adults have sensed the tension of struggling to connect with the church and vice versa. Doug Hankins offers practical wisdom, theological guidance, and hopeful encouragement to both sides of this tension. Doug does not offer a path toward marriage, but instead, he points to the purpose of singleness while highlighting figures in Scripture who walked in singleness with obedience to the Lord. Though treated seriously, Hankins brings levity to the discussion with pop culture references and humorous stories that allow singleness to be addressed with an open hand. This book is not meant to correct singleness but rather to correct how we care for those single adults. Still Single, Still Called is a book that sees singles for who they are: children of God in need of a Savior, not a spouse.

- Evangelical Christians who are seeking practical and theological help for understanding and ministering to single adults
- Pastors, church staff, and lay leaders who recognize the need to adapt their vision and discipleship strategies to better reflect current cultural and demographic realities
- Single, single-again, divorced, and widowed believers looking for encouragement, belonging, and a biblically faithful voice advocating for their place in the church and the mission of God

marketing highlights

- About half the population is single, highlighting a major cultural shift that many churches have yet to fully address; this book offers church leaders a clear, theological, and practical roadmap for including them more fully
- Doug Hankins draws from years of ministry experience and academic engagement, with a built-in promotional base that includes First Baptist Orlando which has more than 10K members, Baptist University of Florida, and more than 2.9K Southern Baptist churches in Florida
- As seen in Sam Alberry's 7 Myths About Singleness and Annie F. Downs' community, Single Purpose League, the demand for thoughtful, hopeful resources on singleness is stronger than ever; Hankins offers a timely, biblically faithful voice to help churches engage and support singles with clarity and compassion looking for focused, affordable resources

Theology/Ethics & Moral Teaching

DANIEL DARLING is an author, pastor, and thought leader. He currently serves as the Director of The Land Center for Cultural Engagement at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and Assistant Professor of Faith and Culture at Texas Baptist College.

Dan has served in a variety of senior executive positions, including eight years as Vice President of Communications at the Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission, where he is now a research fellow. He has also pastored churches in Illinois and Tennessee. He is also a columnist for World and a contributor to USA Today.

Biblical Wisdom for Everyday Life

Ethical Answers for Cultural Questions

DANIEL DARLING

In an age of rapid social change and moral confusion, this book equips Christians to approach tough ethical questions with both conviction and compassion. Whether you're wrestling with how to think about cohabitation, abortion, marijuana, IVF, end of life issues, or the rise of psychedelic drug use, this book draws on the timeless truths of God's Word to offer clarity, not clichés.

Rooted in Scripture and shaped by the Christian tradition, this book is designed to help believers think clearly and live wisely in a complex world. This book will help you:

- Understand the biblical foundation for ethical decision-making
- Apply timeless truths to contemporary cultural questions
- Think wisely about controversial issues such as:
- Cohabitation and sexual ethics
- Abortion and the value of human life
- The use of marijuana and other substances
- The growing interest in psychedelics
- Navigating end of life issues
- Understanding the complex moral questions about IVF
- Build a conscience rooted in Scripture and shaped by grace
- Equip others—family, church, or small group—with a biblical and moral framework

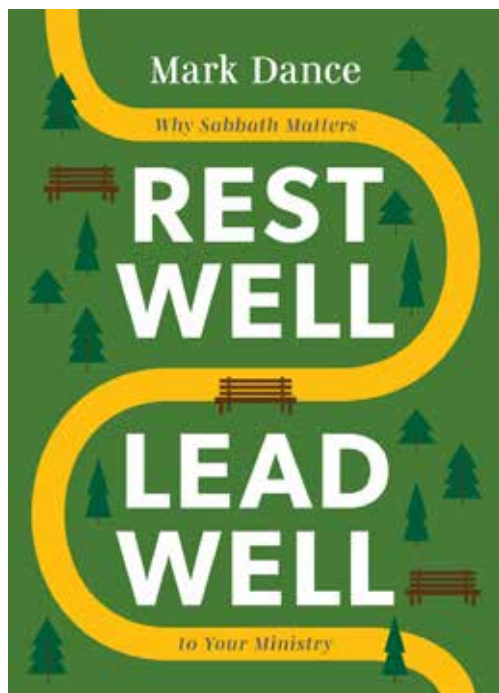

Whether you're a parent, pastor, student, or simply a follower of Christ wanting to honor God in everyday decisions, Biblical Wisdom for Everyday Life is an essential tool. It's not just about having the right answers—it's about becoming formed into the kind of person who can faithfully live those answers out in love and truth.

audience

- Conservative evangelical Christians who want to live faithfully in a rapidly changing culture
- Church leaders, pastors, small group leaders, educators, and thoughtful laypeople seeking biblically sound guidance on contemporary cultural issues
- Engaged believers active in church and community life who want accessible, practical resources to navigate topics like transgender issues, marijuana, technology, and sanctity of life

marketing highlights

- Author Dan Darling, director of the Land Center for Cultural Engagement at Southwestern Seminary, is a respected evangelical voice on ethics; Darling provides scholarly yet accessible content appropriate for all levels of learners
- This book provides a timely, evergreen resource that equips readers to think and live well amidst cultural challenges; it is suitable for personal use, small groups, or training church leaders and includes questions at the end of each chapter to drive discussion

MARK DANCE is the Executive Director of the Arkansas Baptist Convention. He pastored and planted churches for 30 years before leading pastoral ministries at GuideStone and Lifeway. Dr. Dance earned degrees from Howard Payne University (BBA), SWBTS (M.Div), and SBTs (D.Min). He is the author of Start To Finish and a contributor to several other books. Mark and Janet have two adult children and a grandson.

Rest Well, Lead Well

Why Sabbath Matters to Your Ministry

MARK DANCE

Ministers want and need to navigate the tension between being highly motivated and terminally driven. Far too many pastors, missionaries, and ministry leaders quit or coast because they have failed to discern between denying themselves and neglecting themselves. We all need rest, which is why God has generously sewn it into the fabric of our schedules already—the gift of Sabbath. Sabbath is not meant to slow us down; rather, it is meant to stop us for short periods for rest and refueling. This book is a resource that reminds readers of the importance of rest to not only recharge for the work ahead, but to truly appreciate the work that has been done.

audience

- Previous readers of books like Start to Finish by Mark Dance, Stay the Course by Mike Minter and Lead by Paul David Tripp
- Pastors, ministry leaders, and seminary students struggling to understand how to steward their home and work lives well, and missionaries who are faithfully serving but in danger of exhaustion and burnout
- Ministry spouses, deacons, and elders looking to support and strengthen the ministry leaders in their lives

marketing highlights

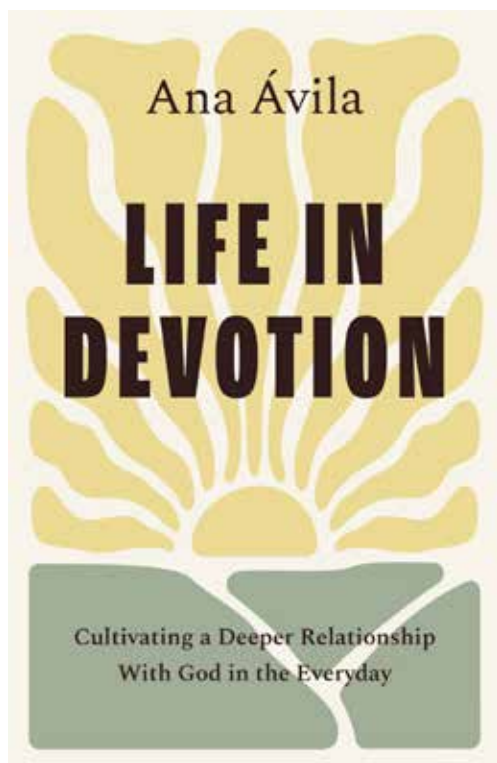

- According to Barna Research, nearly three in four pastors report feeling emotionally exhausted at least some of the time; this book equips those in ministry with not only the permission but, the support to build and maintain a balanced life—highlighting the biblical mandate and beauty of Sabbath, and the issues that arise when this is ignored
- Mark Dance has a broad reach with more than 26K followers on X and 19K followers on Facebook; he writes monthly/quarterly for Lifeway Research, Preaching Today, Focus on the Family, The Texan, and Deacon Magazine, and speaks regularly across the country
- B&H Publishing will promote this title through a close partnership with Mark Dance by leveraging his wide network, collaborating with GuideStone, and through other avenues such as paid advertising, key events, and more

ANA ÁVILA is a Mexican author. She lives in Guatemala City with her husband, a pastor and church-planter, and their children. She wrote Make the Most of Your Productivity: A Guide to Honoring God with Your Time and Lo que contemplas te transforma.

Ana served as a writer and editor at Coalición por el Evangelio, the Spanish sister website of The Gospel Coalition, for almost ten years. She holds a degree in Clinical and Biological Chemistry and a diploma in Biblical Studies. She is currently pursuing a Masters of Divinity at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. Ana is a Consulting Scholar for Blueprint 1543 and co-led "Deep Training for Broader Impact," a faith and science project made possible by the Templeton Foundation.

Life in Devotion

Cultivating a Deeper Relationship with God in the Everyday
ANA ÁVILA

Our lives are filled with distractions, with pleasures that make us happy only for a second but leave us empty. Our hearts are troubled and tired, longing for something that lasts. God made us for Himself so that we might delight in His love, but the things of the world pull us away. Our devotional times can give us the structure we need to grow in our communion with God by applying biblical truths that keep our eyes on the things above:

- The centrality of the Word: God has revealed Himself through a book we can understand and that includes everything we need to know for our salvation and spiritual growth
- The privilege of prayer: God wants to listen to the deepest longings of our hearts—our sorrows and joys—and He wants to use our intercession to accomplish His purposes in the world
- The need for constancy: God is the source of all wisdom; He knows our need and invites you to abide in Him continuously, not to rely on our own strength and understanding
- The intimacy of solitude: God is eager to speak to us... but a lot of the time, the world is too loud. We do good in stepping away from the noise regularly, also making sure we are not engaging in spiritual practices only when other people see us
- The freedom of transparency: God calls us to come as we are, right now. We don't have to feel like it or even pretend we do. He's always available for us and His loving arms never turn us away

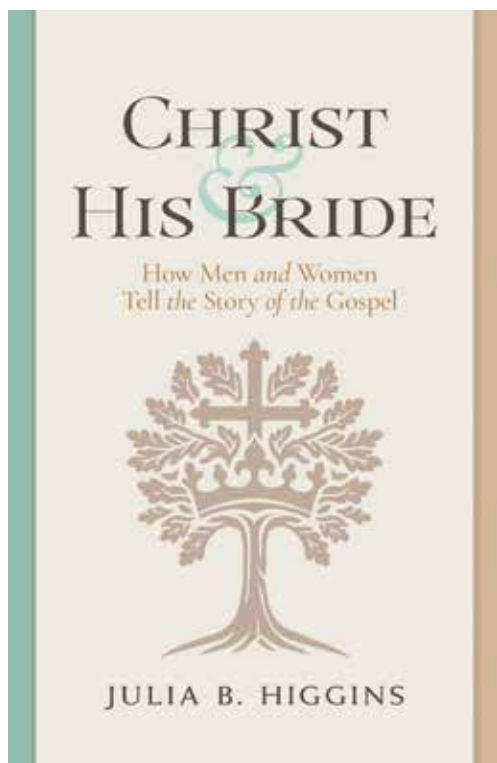

Life in Devotion will remind you of the amazing gift we have of being part of the family of God and will offer you practical tools to develop spiritual practices that keep you focused on Him, growing in communion every day.

audience

- Young adult Christians seeking to grow in consistent, meaningful spiritual habits
- Ministry leaders and small group participants looking for a biblically grounded resource on devotional life
- Readers drawn to global evangelical voices, especially Spanish-speaking believers who could read the Spanish version alongside their English-preferred friends

marketing highlights

- This book challenges the cultural norm of your quiet time simply being something to check off a list with a theologically rich invitation to experience daily intimacy with God
- Ana Ávila is a respected Mexican author with more than 40K Instagram followers and a broad reach through TGC Español, YouTube, and Twitter, among other speaking and writing opportunities stateside and internationally
- This simultaneous release with Lifeway Global introduces a rising international voice to English-speaking audiences and retail markets

Christ and His Bride

How Men and Women Tell the Story of the Gospel

JULIA B. HIGGINS

Do men and women share the same identity and purpose in life? Ask several different people and you'll likely get several different answers.

Too often, Christian men and women have been told to find their identity and purpose in roles like husband or wife, or father and mother. These good roles are designed by God, and yet, such roles are not the starting place for human identity and purpose. Genesis 1:26-28 tells us man and woman were created in the image of God and given a divine mandate—a regency mandate—to rule over the earth in God's stead, extending his grace over the entirety of creation. Anyone familiar with the first few pages of the Bible knows man and woman failed in their creative purpose. The good news in Christ and His Bride is:

- God came in the flesh, in Christ, and in his birth, life, death, burial, resurrection, and ascension, Jesus accomplished what man and woman failed to do
- Christ's kingship exemplifies a humble, self-sacrificing, servant hearted reign
- Now, Jesus calls his bride to proclaim the news of the kingdom so that every man and woman rule in humility and service, demonstrating the gospel with their very lives

audience

- Christians interested in content that will deepen their understanding of the partnering roles men and women play in the life of the church
- Female church leaders, seminary students, and academic readers desiring encouragement as they partner with men in their callings
- Readers of Julia's previous book Empowered and Equipped, and those who know her as a trusted voice in academic spaces

marketing highlights

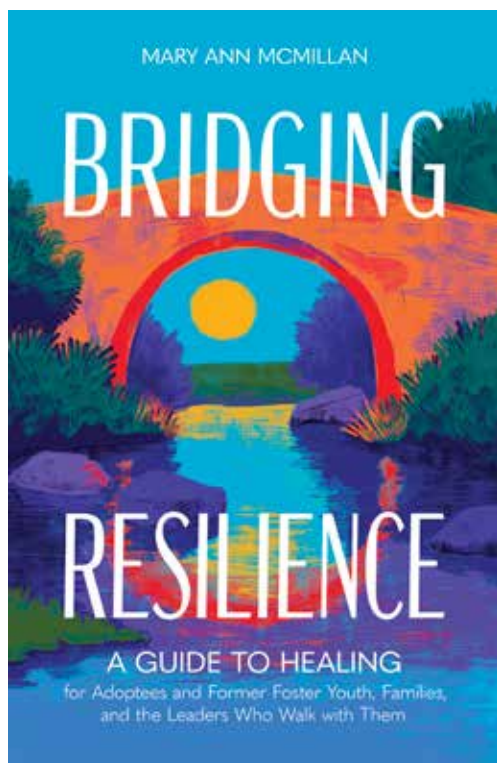

- Julia has taught at the seminary level and currently teaches at Samford University to undergraduate students; she is able to take academic and theological topics and make them accessible to a broader audience
- Discussion questions are included for each chapter, making it perfect for small groups to order in bulk and read together
- B&H will promote this title through targeted paid advertising, email marketing, events, and more

Family & Relationships

MARY ANN MCMILLAN is a former foster youth and adoptee whose life has been shaped by the realities of family separation, identity rupture, and the lifelong search for belonging. Now a professor, researcher, and global advocate, she writes and teaches at the intersection of trauma, justice, and healing. She holds a doctorate in education and teaches courses in human rights, criminal justice, and international relations.

Bridging Resilience

A Guide to Healing for Adoptees and Former Foster Youth, Families, and the Leaders Who Walk with Them

MARY ANN MCMILLAN

What if the healing we long for isn't found in returning to the past, but in learning how to carry it forward with wisdom, faith, and honesty?

Written by a former foster child and adoptee, this book blends lived experience, therapeutic insight, and biblical reflection to explore the lifelong impact of early separation, identity disruption, and attachment trauma.

The book is organized into three sections:

- Between Bridges and Ruins: Healing for Adoptees and Former Foster Youth, which speaks directly to adoptees and those who have aged out of foster care. It gives voice to the invisible wounds of identity loss, gratitude pressures, and fragmented family ties
- Sacred Privilege: A Call to Parents and Guardians, which is written for adoptive, foster, and kinship caregivers. It invites parents and guardians to approach their role as sacred stewardship—not saviorhood—rooted in humility, cultural awareness, and lifelong commitment
- Reimagining Care: Systems, Churches, and Global Orphan Work, which challenges churches, systems, and global orphan advocates to move beyond shallow charity and toward justice

Whether you're walking through your own healing, raising a child from hard beginnings, or shaping systems that serve them, Bridging Resilience is an invitation to step into the hard and holy work of healing. To listen closely. To love better. And to believe that even in broken beginnings, there is still room for restoration. Healing is possible. Connection is possible. And together, we can bridge the gap.

audience

- Adoptees and foster youth seeking connection, understanding, and emotional encouragement
- Current and prospective adoptive and foster parents navigating the complexities of adoption and foster care
- Church leaders, families, and counselors needing a compassionate resource to walk alongside adoptive families, as well as current and former adoptees and foster children

marketing highlights

- A 2022 Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration publication reports up to 80 percent of youth in foster care have a significant mental health need; this rare perspective of a former foster youth and now adoptee offers an understanding space for adoptees and foster youth to cultivate resilience while providing key insight for adoptive parents and the surrounding community
- In 2022, approximately 368,000 children were in foster care in the United States, according to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Service; this large population is often spoken about, but rarely written to by someone who has lived the same experience as Mary Ann McMillan has
- B&H Publishing will promote this title through strategic partnerships with foster care and adoption groups

DANIEL L. AKIN is the president of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, North Carolina. He holds a Ph.D. in Humanities from the University of Texas at Arlington and is the author or editor of numerous books and Bible commentaries including Theology for the Church and the New American Commentary on 1, 2, and 3 John. He is also the author of 10 Who Changed the World, 10 Women Who Changed the World, God on Sex, and the co-author of Pastoral Theology: Theological Foundations for Who a Pastor Is and What He Does.

I Am Going, Second Edition

The Leadership Journey and Model of David S. Dockery

DANIEL AKIN

Are You Going? The lives of many believers rarely escape the tight orbits that circle around their own schedules and interests. But the trajectory of our faith should be one that's continually cycling outward, fueled by a mission and message that God first brought within reach of us . . . so that we can now join with Him in taking it within reach of others.

Dr. Daniel Akin is calling today's church members to a lifestyle of going with the gospel of Jesus Christ—whether going around the world or to people right where they live. With decades of seminary experience as a professor and president, Akin has trained thousands of men and women in both the mandates and methods of fulfilling the Great Commission's call to take the gospel to every nation. Now he passes along his wisdom in a resource that can be used by individuals and churches far and wide. Readers will be inspired to:

- Learn the mission of God
- Understand the centrality of the church in God's worldwide mission
- Go to the nations with the gospel of Jesus Christ
- Go to their own neighborhoods with the good news of Jesus
- Go to their own workplaces with gospel intentionality
- Commit to go anywhere on mission with God

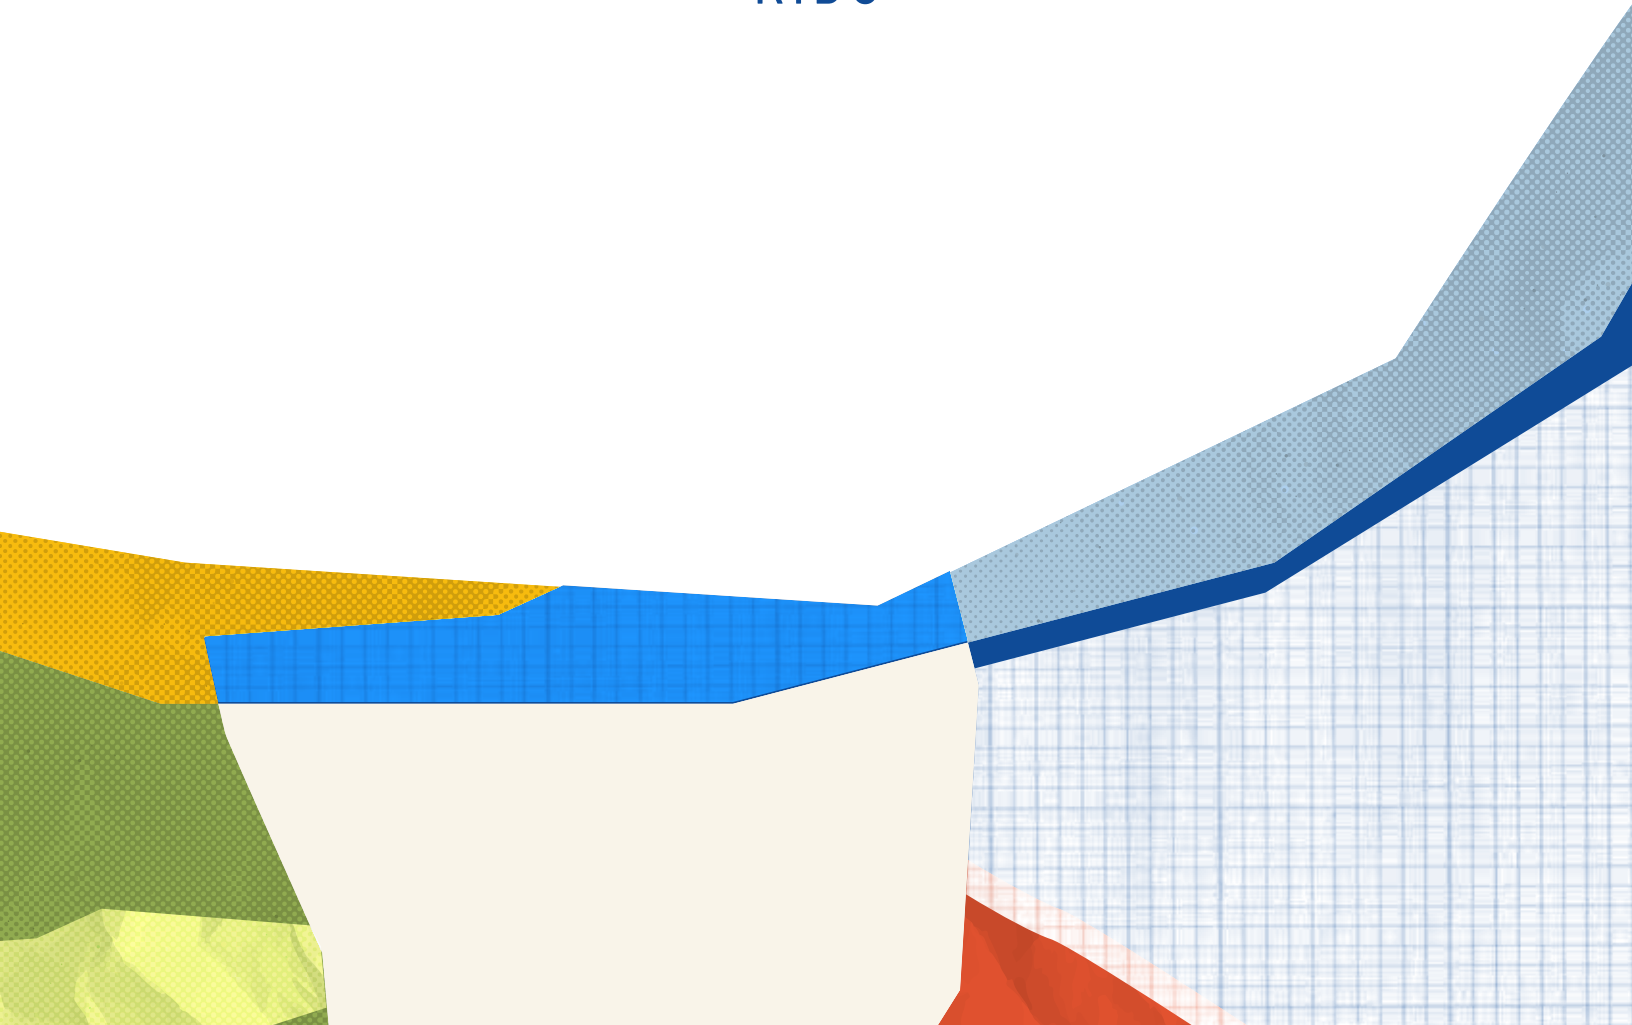

audience

- Previous buyers of Dr. Akin's books including 10 Women Who Changed the World and 10 Who Changed the World. Also, buyers of his commentaries
- Students, staff, constituents, trustees, and supporters of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary
- Christians, pastors, and church leaders looking for resources to inspire church members to share the gospel and follow the Great Commission

marketing highlights

- Daniel L. Akin is the president of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, and a well-known and respected SBC leader
- This book addresses an evergreen topic important for all believers—a call to share the Gospel with their neighbor and the nations
- Each chapter concludes with a call to action that can be used individually or to facilitate group discussion

Autobiography

MEGAN HILL lives in Massachusetts with her husband and four children. She likes reading books and drinking tea, and although she's never been to Ecuador, she does love to visit new places. Megan writes books for adults and kids, and she serves as the managing editor for The Gospel Coalition.

Elisabeth Elliot

The Woman Who Did Hard Things For God

MEGAN HILL, illustrated by CINZIA BATTISTEL

A brave woman's unparalleled story of forgiveness and faith.

As a young missionary, Elisabeth Elliot did the very thing no one would expect: she forgave and loved the Waodoni tribe who had killed her husband. Taking her young daughter with her to the jungles of Ecuador, Elliot relied on God's protection to bring the Gospel to those native people and then to bring the Gospel to the world.

Follow along as a colorful parrot narrates the newest story in the Here I Am! biography series, taking young readers on a journey from Elisabeth Elliot's childhood to her years in South America to the decades she spent writing and speaking to the hearts of millions. As children discover Elliot's fascinating life of faith—one filled with hardship and grief, fame and fruitfulness—they too will be inspired to bravely follow God's will, no matter the cost.

audience

- Parents of children ages 4-8 (and other buyers for kids in this age group) who love the church and stories of heroes of the faith
- Children's pastors, family pastors, Christian schools, church bookstores, and homeschool families
- Previous purchasers of Dietrich Bonhoeffer: The Teacher Who Became a Spy; C. S. Lewis: The Writer Who Found Joy; Lottie Moon: The Girl Who Reached the World; Lulu Fleming: The Doctor Who Shared Jesus; or Augustine of Hippo: The Doubter Who Became a Church Father in the Here I Am! biography series for kids

marketing highlights

- From her childhood to her courageous work in Ecuador and her decades of ministry, this engaging and faith-based picture book brings Elisabeth Elliot's story to life for children ages 4-8
- Written by seasoned trade and kids' author Megan Hill, this book follows the success of B&H Publishing's adult trade books, Becoming Elisabeth Elliot and Being Elisabeth Elliot; this title is poised to resonate with families, churches, and Christian schools alike
- This is the sixth book in the Here I Am! biography series for kids that highlights fascinating and faithful Christians in history

SUE IRWIN is living her dream, using her writing to encourage kids and teens with messages of joy and hope. A former teacher, she enjoys visiting with children in schools, libraries, and church events and joining in on the fun with parents, educators, and librarians at conferences and children's book festivals. Sue often hums, whistles, and sings along to happy tunes as she writes, and she thanks God every day for His blessings.

Hey There, Blue Bird, Why Do You Chirp?

SUE IRWIN, illustrated by AGNIESZKA WAJDA

Why does the blue bird chirp? Why does the brown cow moo? Every child wants to know too!

This fun-to-read board book visits twelve colorful animal friends who each share why they are thankful for the God who made them. Preschoolers are sure to hoot and whinny along with each new animal in the chorus, and they'll be reminded again and again that all creation, including the reader, was made to praise God.

Hey There, Blue Bird, Why Do You Chirp? features

- Fun early-concept learning: animals, sounds, and colors
- Scriptures on how all creation praises God
- Read-aloud rhymes and sturdy pages, perfect for kids ages 0-5

audience

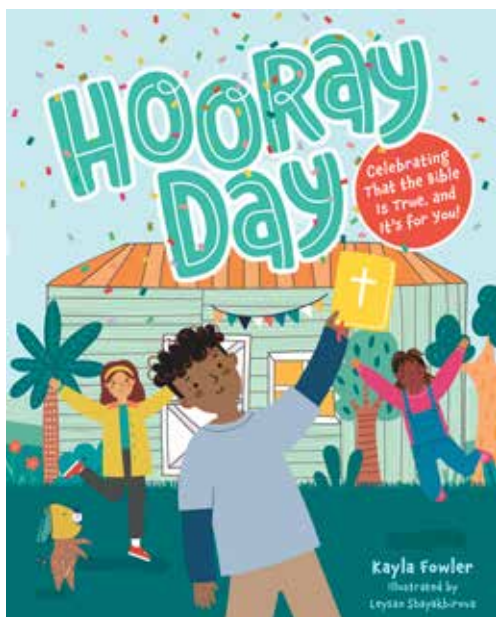

- Parents, grandparents, and caregivers of preschoolers looking for animal books that combine early learning with biblical principles
- Church leaders and ministry directors wanting a fun yet educational way to nurture thankfulness in little hearts and show children that all creation was made to praise God
- Readers of books like Brown Bear, Brown Bear, What Do You See?; What Will You Teach Me?; and Praise God, All Creatures

marketing highlights

- The Center for Disease Control states that by preschool, most children should know multiple colors and words like animal sounds; this primer supports early developmental milestones through teaching 12 different animals, their sounds, and colors, all while praising God
- Sue Irwin is a valued and long-time writer; her work includes nature features on the Clubhouse Jr. Magazine (circulation is approximately 60K), she has received top awards from the Elementary Teachers' Federation of Ontario, and she is a member of the Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators (20K members worldwide)
- B&H Publishing will market this title through key promotional tactics such as paid social media, an influencer campaign, and digital advertising

Discover the beauty of neurodiversity!

This heartwarming picture book takes readers into the thoughts of a child who is neurodivergent, capturing the whirlwind of activity in his mind and body and offering a unique perspective on how he navigates the world. Come along as our young friend discovers a powerful truth: God made him intentionally, and his busy body and brain are gifts he can use to serve God and help others.

This engaging picture book—including its final notes and discussion questions—is perfect for many audiences, including:

- Neurodivergent children (such as those who have ADHD, autism, or sensory processing differences)—offering a relatable story that celebrates their unique qualities
- Neurotypical children—building empathy for and cheering on their friends who may have minds and bodies that God created different from their own
- Teachers—providing a valuable resource to foster understanding and inclusion in the classroom
- Church leaders—sharing a faith-based message that emphasizes God's intentional design and love for every individual

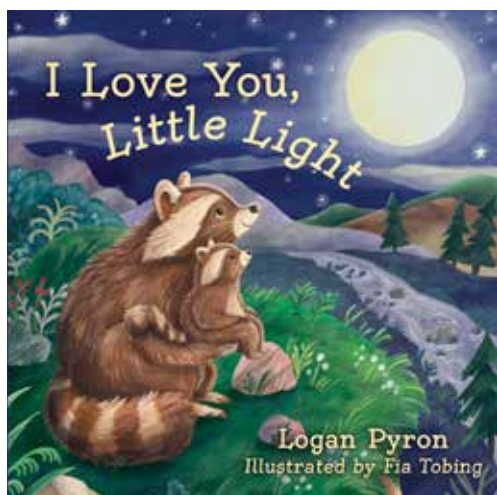

Busy Bodies, Busy Brains is a must-read for anyone looking to celebrate the beauty of neurodiversity, reminding all readers of the truth found in Psalm 139:14: "I will praise you because I have been remarkably and wondrously made."

audience

- Families with neurodivergent children or families with neurotypical children who aim to build empathy for and cheer on their friends whose minds and bodies work differently
- Church leaders, Sunday school teachers, and children's pastors wanting to better learn how to help children in their care and who desire kids to feel seen and understood
- Educators in Christian preschools or daycare centers who want to represent all children in their care

marketing highlights

- An estimated 15 to 20 percent of children in the United States are neurodivergent; this book helps families recognize and celebrate differences and shows how God uses all His children
- Kristie is a respected voice in ministry, an author, and Lifeway Women Academy teacher and regularly writes for TGC, Christianity Today, She Reads Truth, Risen Motherhood, and Revive Our Hearts; she has been diagnosed with ADHD and is an excellent voice to write for representation of neurodivergent readers

Forever for Our Good

A Study of the Book of Deuteronomy

KATIE J. MCCOY

God's law is forever for our good.

In the book of Deuteronomy, Moses says God's law is for our good, always. But when you read the law portions of the Old Testament, they might feel like lists of rules that don't apply to your time and place or are irrelevant in light of the gospel. The truth is these laws are hidden gems of grace that are for your benefit even today.

In this 8-session Bible study, author and theologian Katie J. McCoy walks through Deuteronomy, an invitation to abundant life found through faith-filled devotion to the Lord alone. At the heart of this book is love. God sets His love on us, and as we learn to love Him with all our hearts, souls, and strength, we learn to love our neighbor as ourselves. This kind of love fulfills the entire Law, puts the character of God on display through our lives, and is forever for our good.

features

- 8 teaching videos from Katie J. McCoy, approximately 30 minutes each, available via redemption code printed in the Bible study book
- 8 group sessions and 7 weeks of personal Bible study
- Comprehensive study of the book of Deuteronomy
- Content that connects God's Old Testament laws with followers of Jesus today

benefits

- Learn to see the goodness and grace in God's Old Testament law and its relevance for our lives as women today.
- Grow in your love for God as you encounter Him through His law.
- Explore the connection between the timeless truths in Deuteronomy and life lived in faith and obedience to Jesus.
- Gain confidence as you study, interpret, and apply challenging passages of the Bible.

audience

- Women
- Small group leaders
- Fans of Katie J. McCoy

KATIE J. MCCOY holds a PhD in Systematic Theology from Southwestern Seminary (TX), where she served on faculty for five years. Katie's research includes the patterns of justice for women in Old Testament laws as well as the intersection of theology, gender, and women's studies. She is the author of To Be a Woman: The Confusion Over Female Identity and How Christians Can Respond, as well as co-author of Humanity, part of the Theology for the People of God series. Friends and Sisters

Belonging and Relating to One Another in the Family of Faith

LIFEWAY WOMEN

God designed us for relationship. The Bible describes the people of God as a family, and Jesus often spoke of His followers as sisters and brothers. In Christ, you are part of a sisterhood that is bound together by faith, love, and a shared purpose. But what does it look like to be sisters in Christ in the midst of a loneliness epidemic, when genuine friendship is harder and harder to find?

In this 5-session Bible study, we'll reflect on how to cultivate deep, Christ-centered relationships and strengthen our bond as sisters and friends. Through biblical examples and practical application, we'll explore what the Bible teaches us about loving, caring for, honoring, supporting, and investing in one another for the long haul. And we'll consider what it looks like to seek out and prioritize friendships in the church, the place where we find true belonging. Whether you're new to your relationship with Jesus or have walked with Him for years, this study will remind you that you have a place in God's family and will inspire you to become a better sister and friend.

features

- 5 weeks of personal Bible study for group or individual use
- Biblical and practical advice for finding, fostering, and sustaining long-term friendships
- In-depth digital leader guide to help women's ministry leaders, small group leaders, or mentors facilitate the study
- Beautiful full-color interior to enhance your experience

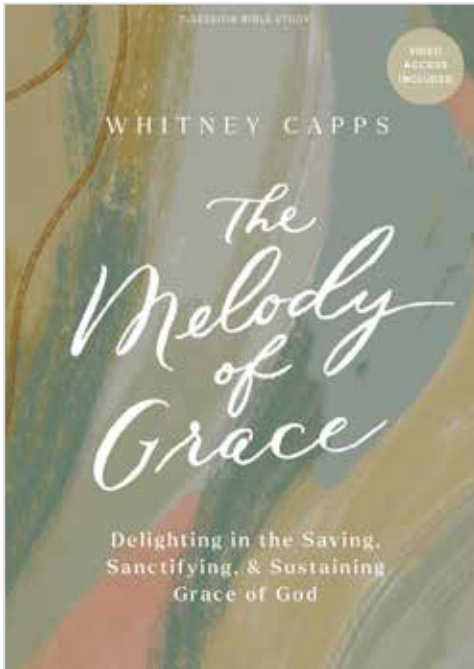

benefits

- Discover your place of true belonging in the family of God.
- Embrace your identity as a friend and sister in Christ and learn what it looks like to follow Jesus's example in those roles.
- Identify barriers that make genuine and lasting friendships challenging to find and keep.
- Celebrate the godly friendships you enjoy and be challenged to widen and diversify your circle of authentic relationships.

The Melody of Grace

Delighting in the Saving, Sanctifying, and Sustaining Grace of God

WHITNEY CAPPS

Grace. It's a word we hear often and a concept we value. But how do you explain it? It's more than a tried-and-true cliché or a catchy phrase in a worship song. It's more than what God gives; it's who He is. It originates with Him and overflows from His character. Amazing, isn't it?

In this 7-session Bible study, Whitney Capps will examine passages throughout the Bible to explore the transformative power of grace. We'll see how grace shows up in every season of our stories and is active in every area of our lives as followers of Christ. We'll dive deep into the multifaceted beauty of God's grace: grace that saves us, grace that grows us in Christ, and grace that sustains us through the darkest valleys. We'll be reminded that grace is not only something we receive, but it's something we extend. Come learn to receive grace fully, live it freely, and share it boldly, experiencing the sweet sound of grace as it flows through you.

features

- 7 video teaching sessions, available via redemption code printed in the Bible study book
- 6 weeks of personal study to be completed between the 7 group sessions
- Personal testimonies from the author and other women on how God's grace has impacted their lives
- Engaging questions to help draw meaning out of passages from the Bible

benefits

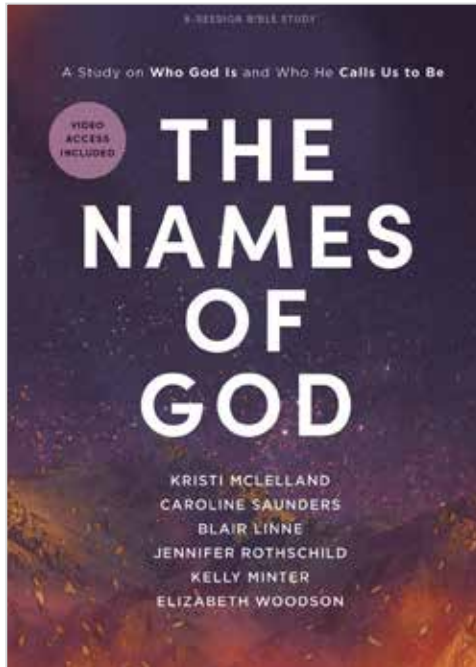

- Understand that grace is not just something God gives, but it is who He is, and that the greatest grace we receive is God Himself.
- See God's grace throughout the pages of Scripture and in the seasons of your story.
- Learn how receiving the grace of God that saves, sanctifies, and sustains us leads us to extend His grace to others.
- Sing a song of gratitude as you marvel at the goodness and favor of God displayed in His abundant grace.

WHITNEY CAPPS is a national speaker for ministries including Proverbs 31, Women of Joy, and Lifeway Women. She was a pioneer writer for the Bible app, First 5, with more than 1,000,000 downloads and users. Whitney's first book, Sick of Me and Bible study with video curriculum, We Over Me, were released in March of 2019. She is the Co-Founder of Simple Seminary, an online learning platform that helps women know and love God's Word. In 2024, Whitney and her buddy Russ Greer launched their podcast, Theology and Other Fun Stuff, where they talk about, you guessed it, theology and other fun stuff.

The Names of God

A Study on Who God Is and Who He Calls Us to Be

KRISTI MCLELLAND, CAROLINE SAUNDERS, BLAIR LINNE, JENNIFER ROTHSCHILD, KELLY MINTER, ELIZABETH WOODSON

"LORD, our Lord, how magnificent is your name throughout the earth!"
 Psalm 8:1a

From the opening chapters of Genesis through the final verses of Revelation, God is known by many names—names that reveal who He is, what He does, and how He relates to His children. He is El-Roi, "the God who sees me." He is Jesus, "the Lord is salvation." He is the Spirit, your Comforter and Counselor. And you? You have a name, too. You are His beloved child, a Christian, one who bears His name.

In this 8-session Bible study, teachers Kristi McLelland, Caroline Saunders, Blair Linne, Jennifer Rothschild, Kelly Minter, and Elizabeth Woodson will walk you through the pages of Scripture. Together, you'll examine names for the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, and you'll discover the impact each of God's names has on your relationship with Him. Each name you encounter will inspire you to worship God for who He is and challenge you to consider how your life can be transformed in light of His character.

features

- 8 teaching videos, approximately 31-45 minutes each, available via redemption code printed in the Bible study book
- 7 weeks of personal study segments to complete between 8 group sessions
- Videos include a panel conversation with the teaching team, spoken word from Blair Linne, and 7 teaching sessions filmed in front of a live audience
- Leader helps to guide questions and discussions within small groups
- Written by six different Bible teachers

benefits

- Deepen your knowledge of God and your relationship with Him through a study of His names.
- Grow in your understanding of the Trinity—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
- Be inspired to live into God's calling for your life as you better understand His relationship with His children.

From Genesis to Revelation

The Grand Narrative

STORYTELLER

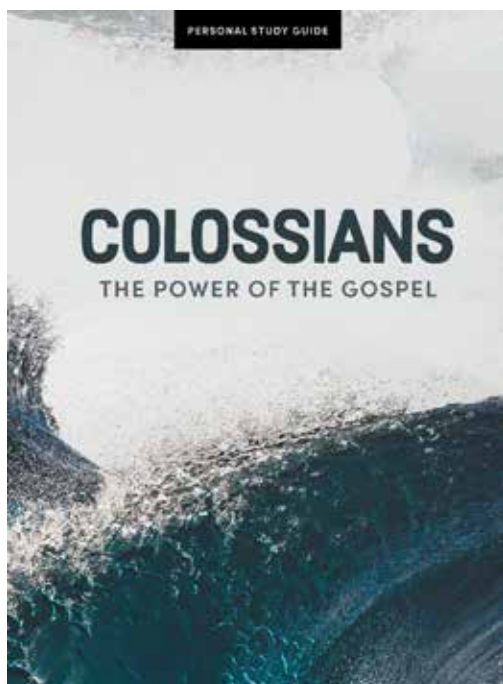

Many of us have heard, read, and loved Bible stories since childhood—stories like Noah and the ark, David and Goliath, or the Good Samaritan. And while those individual stories in Scripture do stand alone to teach us historical facts, specific attributes of God, and helpful life lessons, they cannot stand alone to show us who God is, who we are, and how He relates to us in totality. Each individual piece of the biblical text contributes to the grand narrative of God's plan for redemption in Jesus Christ. Showing how is the aim of this study. Through various scriptures and visual teaching elements, this study will show how the Bible is God's story from beginning to end. Learners will gain deeper understanding of God, His Word, His plan of redemption which Jesus fulfilled, and the gospel's applications in the lives of real people in real times and places throughout history, today, and every day to come. (6 sessions)

features

- 6 small-group sessions
- Five-day reading plans each week
- Open, inviting design
- Guides for group discussion
- Questions for reflection
- Opportunities to memorize Scripture
- Call outs to help participants understand the overarching themes connected throughout Scripture
- Helpful infographics

benefits

- See the Bible's grand narrative represented thematically across its pages.
- Hear God's heart to speak to every person through the different genres of Scripture.
- Learn to trust that God is always at work, even in the darkest days.
- Understand that the overarching story of the Bible reveals God's redemptive plan, completely fulfilled in Jesus Christ, from Genesis to Revelation—and tell others.
- See and share your individual story, not as insignificant in the grand scheme of life on earth but as a micronarrative through which God points to His overarching metanarrative.
- Gain biblical knowledge and insights through interesting infographics.
- Develop foundational knowledge about God's Word as a starting place for other Bible book studies in the Storyteller series.

The Power of the Gospel
JANUARY BIBLE STUDY 2027

The power of the gospel is a central reality of Christianity, but many Christians fail to recognize how that power transforms their daily lives, providing grace, peace, and lasting spiritual change. When we, as believers, center our identity in Christ, we take off the old self and put on the new, empowering us to pursue Christ-centered witness in our relationships and the world. This study invites participants to recognize the power available in the gospel and apply it to their lives through the Spirit of God.
(7 sessions)

features

- 7 small-group sessions
- Personal study opportunities for ongoing spiritual growth
- Separate Leader Guide with teaching plan, expositor's notes, and sermon planning guide
- Leader Guide also includes Powerpoint slides, marketing materials, and guidance on how to plan a JBS campaign

benefits

- Understand the fundamental truth of the gospel message.
- Recognize Christ's preeminence over all things.
- Meet the Jesus of the Bible through the lens of well-loved teaching.
- Grasp what it looks like to live with an awareness of Christ's transforming power in your life.
- Pursue Christ-centered relationships in home and at work.
- Put off the new self and put on the new.
- Embrace the call to pray for and pursue gospel conversations.

Experiencing God in Everyday Life

A Journey Toward Spiritual Maturity

RICHARD BLACKABY, MIKE BLACKABY, AND DANIEL BLACKABY

Many of us meet God in a mountaintop moment—a powerful experience with the living God—but then don’t know how to move forward from that place. The reality is, our Christian lives are not lived on the mountaintop but on a winding path of ordinary, often mundane, sometimes difficult days. But we walk through these days with new perspective and purpose. The Christian life is a daily journey of learning to experience God and follow Jesus.

Building on the momentum of Experiencing God, this study will build around this metaphor of a journey. God’s story is unfolding as He pursues His eternal purposes in our world, and He invites us to be a part. Some days may require major leaps of faith, but more often, we’ll take small steps of faithfulness in the everyday moments of our lives. This study will help you experience God not just on the mountaintops but in all the places in between.

(8 sessions)

features

Footsteps of Paul

Bold Brotherhood, Gospel Mission

TONY MERIDA

God calls men to push past the bare minimum into a fruitful life with Him. Footsteps of Paul is for men who are ready to rise, risk, and run with the gospel into the places where faith meets real life. This study offers an invitation to step out of your comfort zone and into your God-given purpose.

As you trek with Paul and his brothers in Christ through cities like Philippi, Thessaloniki, Athens, and Ephesus, you'll be transformed by Christ and challenged to follow Him with endurance and boldness. Jesus found Paul on the road to Damascus and changed His life forever. As you follow the footsteps of Paul, you'll come into lockstep with Jesus and learn what it means to walk faithfully with Him and others.

features

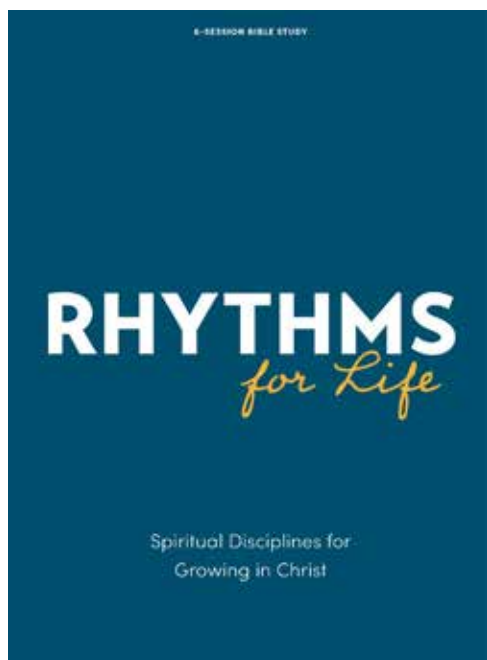

- Video sessions featuring teaching from Tony Merida on location in various New Testament cities
- 8 small-group sessions
- Each week includes action steps—spiritual “reps”—to build strength, accountability prompts to foster brotherhood, and prayer guides to deepen your walk with God and others.
- Personal study opportunities for ongoing spiritual growth
- Promotional content, including promotional video
- Group discussion guides

benefits

- Build relationships with other men centered on discipleship.
- Grow in the practices of Bible study and prayer.
- Raise the bar on personal discipleship, actively pursuing a fruitful life with God.
- Engage the culture with the truths of the gospel.
- Exalt Jesus in daily life in your home, workplace, and community.
- Recognize God's purpose for you as a man.
- Learn to be a man who “turns the world upside down” for the sake of the gospel.

TONY MERIDA is the founding pastor of Imago Dei Church in Raleigh, N.C., and is the vice president of Planter Development for Send Network. Tony has written several books, including The Christ-Centered Expositor, Love Your Church, and multiple volumes in the Christ-Centered Exposition commentary series. He's happily married to Kimberly, and they have five children.

Rhythms for Life

Spiritual Disciplines for Growing in Christ

As in all relationships, there are things we can do that draw us closer to God and things we do, or don't do, that can push us away from Him. This doesn't mean we can earn God's grace and love—salvation is a free gift God gives to undeserving people. Yet how we engage with God impacts the depth of our relationship with Him. He doesn't leave us to figure that out on our own, though. There are spiritual disciplines emphasized and modeled in His Word that help us grow and thrive in ongoing relationship with Him. This study will help new believers begin to grow in Christ by establishing practices that help them engage with God in daily rhythms. It will help longtime believers continue to grow in Christ by revisiting the purpose of spiritual practices, not as items on a to-do list, but as the joyful privilege of life in Christ.

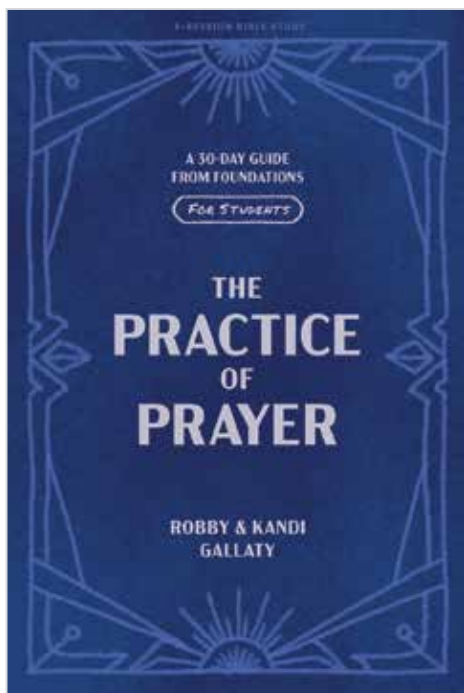

(8 sessions)

features

- 8 small-group sessions
- 5 days of guided learning each week
- Daily practice prompts
- Weekly plans for ongoing application
- Group discussion guides
- Practical tips and encouragement in 7 categories of inward and outward spiritual disciplines
- Spiritual gifts survey
- Opportunities to memorize Scripture

benefits

- Engage in ongoing rhythms for spiritual growth as a new or longtime believer.
- Invite God to continually transform you into the image of Christ.
- Gain a deeper biblical understanding of the role of spiritual disciplines.
- Discover and explore 7 categories of inward and outward spiritual disciplines.
- Make a plan for implementing daily spiritual practices.
- Discover your spiritual gifts.
- Discuss with other believers God's call in our lives to engage with Him and grow in faith.

Thrive: Cultivating a Faith that Endures

Bible Study for College and Young Adults

PAUL WORCESTER

Christian college students and young adults long for a meaningful walk with God and desire to make an eternal impact with their lives. Many are struggling with issues that hold them back from thriving. This 8-session Bible study will help students gain biblical handles on the most common issues college-aged people face. This will result in not only deeper doctrinal understanding but personal transformation. There will be a heavy emphasis on developing practical strategies and habits for thriving in each key area.

features

- 8 small group sessions
- Leader Guide in the back of the Bible study book to guide questions and discussion with small groups
- Biblically rooted and gospel-centered
- Personal study opportunities for ongoing spiritual growth
- Free leader resources, including promotional video and social media assets, available for download at Lifeway.com

benefits

This book will...

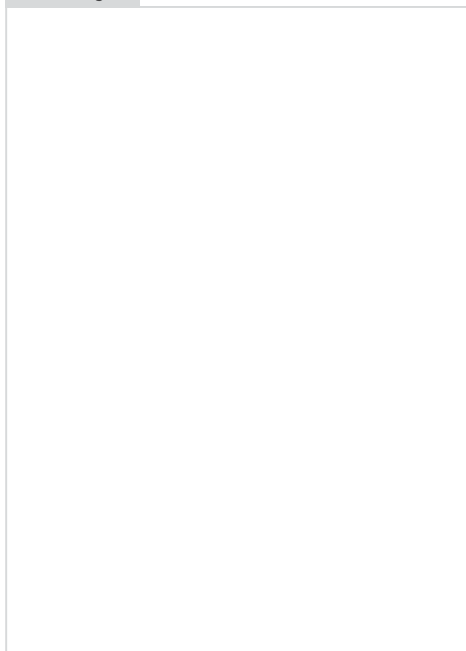

- Help students gain biblical handles on the most common issues college-aged people face like identity, doubt, anxiety, and more.
- Provide students with a deeper understanding of Christian doctrine.
- Invite personal transformation through the study of God's Word.
- Aid students in developing practical strategies and habits for thriving as they develop their own life rhythms.

audience

- Young Adults (18-25)

PAUL WORCESTER serves as the National Collegiate Director for the North American Mission Board, where he focuses on encouraging, inspiring, and equipping leaders who serve more than 900 college ministries. He also leads an interdenominational coaching network for collegiate leaders called Campus Multiplication Network, which has provided coaching for over 300 leaders from 15 countries. He's the author of Tips for Starting a College Ministry and Do More with Less Time. He also co-wrote The Fuel and the Flame: Igniting Your College Campus for Jesus Christ with Steve Shadrach. He is also a host of The GenSend Podcast.

Teen Girl Bible Study

JEN OSHMAN

From social media to friends, teen girls hear a lot of voices telling them what it means to be a girl, what they're worth, and how they should live. They're left wondering, "What's my purpose? Does God even care about me?" In Jen Oshman's new Bible study, Created On Purpose, teen girls will explore what Scripture says about God's design and purpose for girls. As we study stories about women in Scripture, we'll see that God intentionally made us with purpose, joy, and love. Teen girls will learn to counter lies with the truth of God's Word and walk in confidence about who they are and who God is.

Joshua: The Christian Standard Commentary

Joshua is part of the Christian Standard Commentary (CSC) series. This commentary series focuses on the theological and exegetical concerns of each biblical book, while paying careful attention to balancing rigorous scholarship with practical application.

This series helps the reader understand each biblical book's theology, its place in the broader narrative of Scripture, and its importance for the church today. Drawing on the wisdom and skills of dozens of evangelical authors, the CSC is a tool for enhancing and supporting the life of the church.

audience

- Individual: seminary students, professors, teachers, theologians, readers looking to study Joshua, those who have purchased other installments in the CSC series
- Church/Ministry: pastors, teachers, small group leaders, lay leaders, ministry leaders (church/parachurch)

marketing highlights

- Helps the reader understand the book of Joshua's theology, its place in the broader narrative of Scripture, and its importance for the church today.
- Aims to embody an "ancient-modern" approach to the biblical text which seeks to balance the theological, exegetical, and historical dynamics of biblical interpretation.

This commentary series focuses on the theological and exegetical concerns of each biblical book, while paying careful attention to balancing rigorous scholarship with practical application. This series helps the reader understand each biblical book's theology, its place in the broader narrative of Scripture, and its importance for the church today. Drawing on the wisdom and skills of dozens of evangelical authors, the CSC is a tool for enhancing and supporting the life of the church.

audience

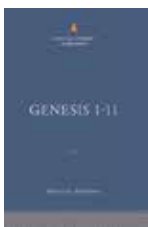

- Individual: seminary students, professors, teachers, theologians, readers looking to study Genesis, those who have purchased other installments in the CSC series
- Church/Ministry: pastors, teachers, small group leaders, lay leaders, ministry leaders (church/parachurch)

marketing highlights

- Helps the reader understand the theology of the book of Genesis, its place in the broader narrative of Scripture, and its importance for the church today.
- Aims to embody an “ancient-modern” approach to the biblical text which seeks to balance the theological, exegetical, and historical dynamics of biblical interpretation.

30 días en los Salmos, edición RVR 1960

30 DAYS IN PSALMS RVR 1960 EDITION

Throughout generations, many Christians have developed the habit of praying monthly through all 150 Psalms—the biblical songs that form the foundation of much of our corporate worship and personal devotion. Over thousands of years of memorization, recitation, and singing, God’s people have found in the Psalms a God-centered view of reality that speaks to all our joys, trials, times of suffering, and experiences of faith and doubt.

Author and teacher Trevin Wax invites us to embark on a monthly journey through the book of Psalms, following a biblical pattern of prayer: morning, midday, and evening. This structure, inspired by the ancient practice of praying three times a day, helps us weave praise, petition, and reflection into our daily rhythm. Each day includes:

- Psalms and biblical songs
- Historic confessions of faith
- Prayers from faithful Christians throughout the centuries

Psalms in 30 Days is more than a reading plan—it’s an invitation to lift our eyes daily and rediscover the goodness and faithfulness of God in every circumstance.

A lo largo de generaciones muchos cristianos han orado mensualmente usando los 150 salmos como guía. Durante miles de años, el pueblo de Dios ha memorizado, recitado y alabado con el Salterio. En gran parte esto se debe a que los Salmos nos presentan una visión de la realidad centrada en Dios que informa nuestra experiencia terrenal: tanto nuestras alegrías como nuestras pruebas, incluso nuestras dudas.

El autor y maestro Trevin Wax nos invita a embarcarnos en un recorrido mensual por el libro de los Salmos, siguiendo un patrón de oración que encontramos en la Biblia: mañana, mediodía y noche. Esta estructura, inspirada en la antigua práctica de orar tres veces al día, nos ayuda a integrar alabanza, súplica y reflexión en nuestra rutina diaria. Cada día incluye:

- Salmos y cánticos de las Escrituras
- Confesiones de fe históricas
- Oraciones de cristianos fieles a lo largo de los siglos

30 días en los Salmos es mucho más que un plan de lectura: es una invitación a levantar los ojos diariamente y redescubrir la bondad y fidelidad de Dios en toda circunstancia.

b&h returns policy

A Returns Authorization is now required on all returns. Please fax your return request to 800-296-4036 or call customer service at 800-251-3225.

returns should be sent to:

Lifeway Christian Resources
Undated Service Center
535 Maddox-Simpson Parkway
Lebanon, TN 37090

- To ensure proper credit your Return Authorization number must be printed clearly on each box returned and a copy of the authorization must be included in each box. Credit will be issued only for product listed on the authorization.
- Credit will be issued at the retail price and discount listed on the authorization. Products not listed on the Return Authorization will be returned to the customer at the customer's expense.
- Product should be adequately packed and protected to prevent damage. Product must be in resalable condition, in original packaging, with all store stickering removed. Product not in resalable condition or damaged by improper packaging will be returned at the customer's expense.

request for proof of delivery must be made within 90 days of shipping/billing.

defective product should be reported to B&H Customer Service for postage paid return.

lost or damaged product

B&H Publishing Group cannot be responsible for products lost or damaged in shipment. In the event you receive damaged products or find a carton shortage, please contact B&H Customer Service.

freight shipments

Sign the delivery receipt and state the exact number of cartons received and any visible damage. If damage is discovered after delivery, notify carrier for inspection within 15 days of delivery. Retain all packing material including boxes from the shipping company. Notify B&H Customer Service, and we will file a claim for you with the carrier and enter a replacement order.

ups/fedex ground shipments

Notify UPS/FedEx within 15 days in case of damage or B&H Publishing Group Customer Service in case of shortage. UPS/FedEx will inspect, pick up, and return damaged products to B&H. We will file a claim for damage and trace the shortage.

handling your order

When you order, include the product ISBN of each product ordered. Please specify order need-by date (as appropriate) to ensure receipt according to your needs. Orders without a need-by date or noted "Send best way" will be shipped the least expensive way. Orders requested to be shipped by motor freight will be shipped by the line which we believe will give you the best service if you have not asked for a specific carrier. Orders for "one" of a product packaged and cataloged in certain quantities will be interpreted to mean "one packaged unit." Orders weighing less than 250 pounds are usually shipped UPS. Orders weighing more than 250 pounds are usually shipped by motor freight. (You may have a preference entered on your permanent customer file.)

Prices subject to change without notification. Due to current volatility of prices, the costs to produce many of our products has risen significantly. While B&H Publishing Group attempts to absorb much of this increase, it may be necessary for us to raise our prices in order to maintain production if a future increase in costs occur.
