Lifeway Christian Resources has been serving the church since 1891, when it was founded in the office of a local pastor in Nashville, Tennessee. Today, based in Brentwood, Lifeway remains a self-supporting nonprofit and one of the leading providers of trusted Christian resources. Our ministry reaches across generations and formats—offering Bibles, books, devotionals, Bible studies, curriculum, music, movies, church supplies, camps, events, and more. We are also the world’s largest provider of Spanish Bibles, serving a global mission field with excellence and heart.

What sets Lifeway apart is that behind every product—every Bible, every study, every tool—stands a team of people who serve in their local churches as pastors, teachers, kids volunteers, and group leaders. We’re not just creating resources for ministry—we’re using them too. Everything we do is aimed at one mission: fueling the church’s calling to make disciples. We’re honored to partner with you to put gospel-centered resources into the hands of those who need them most.

	OUR CORE VALUES

The Good News of the Trinity

How the Father, Son, and Spirit Shape All of Life

BY J.T. ENGLISH

Most Christians affirm the Trinity but struggle to explain or apply it. The Good News of the Trinity makes this essential doctrine clear, beautiful, and deeply practical. With simplicity and insight, J.T. English helps readers understand who God is as Father, Son, and Spirit—and how the triune God is good news for the Christian's everyday life, transforming it all: from prayer and worship to community and hope.

Join readers as we discover:

- How the work of salvation is Trinitarian
- How the Father welcomes us into His family
- How the Son invites us to follow Him as King
- How the Spirit empowers God's people
- How the Bible has a Trinitarian shape
- How we are invited to fellowship with God through prayer as we speak to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit
- How the Trinity informs our understanding of the Church and how we worship
- How the Trinity determines our hope and the way we love our neighbor

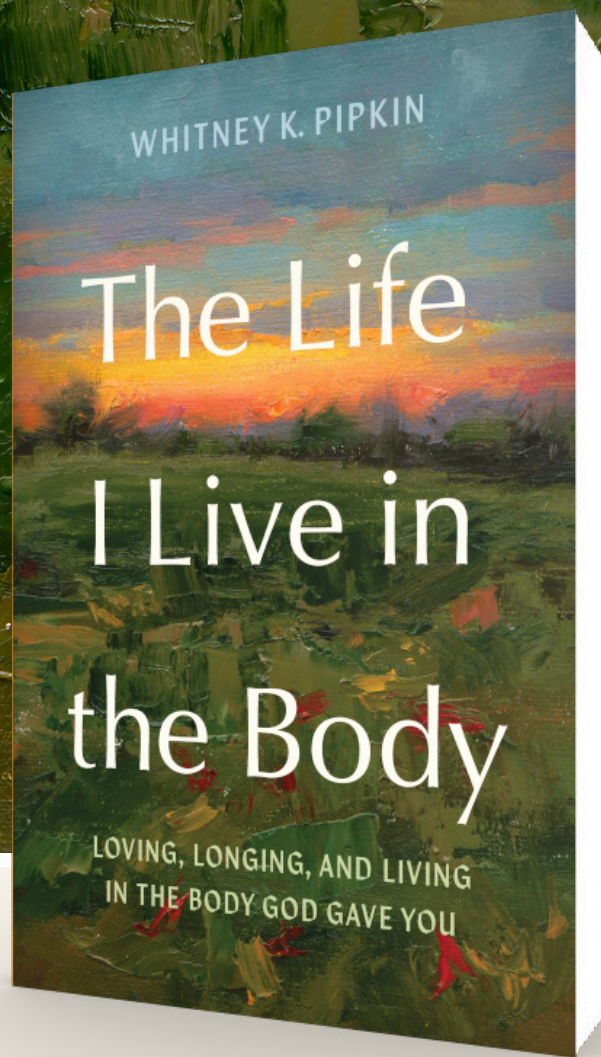

Written for the everyday Christian with small group questions included at the end of every chapter for discussion and reflection, The Good News of the Trinity invites us to understand our loving Father and the nature of his full person in a way that's both approachable and life changing.

audience

- Individuals wanting to grow in their understanding of the Trinity
- Readers of J.T. English's books Deep Discipleship (more than 22K copies sold to date) and Remember and Rehearse, and You Are a Theologian by J.T. English and Jen Wilkin (more than 52K copies sold to date)
- Churches and ministry leaders looking for books on the Trinity

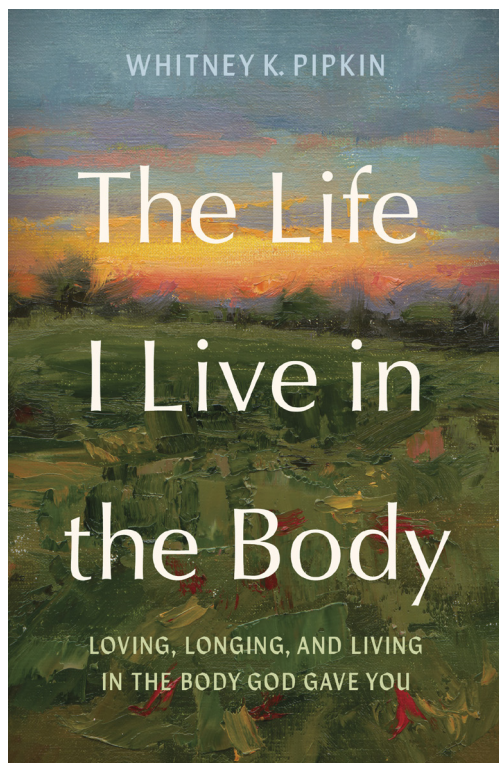

marketing highlights

- According to Lifeway Research's 2025 State of Theology Report, seven in ten persons surveyed (71 percent) agree there is one true God in three Persons—God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit—but many Americans struggle with the logical conclusions of that belief; this book helps explain the doctrine of the Trinity in such a way that is accessible but also biblically accurate
- J.T. cohosts the popular Knowing Faith podcast alongside Jen Wilkin and Kyle Worley, where they reach more than 40K listeners with each episode; this book will be advertised during the Spring 2027 podcast season
- J.T. serves with Training the Church—a network that has equipped hundreds of churches over the past seven years

Award-winning journalist, author, and editor Whitney Pipkin helps readers avoid the extremes of worshipping or hating their physical body, and instead invites readers to receive life in a body as an invitation to experience a level of delight and dependence that only an embodied Savior can offer.

WHITNEY K. PIPKIN lives with her husband, three kids, and a dog named Honeybun in Northern Virginia, where they are longtime members of Grace Bible Church in Lorton. She is a senior editor at Common Good magazine and has previously written for The Washington Post, National Geographic, and NPR while on staff at the Chesapeake Bay Journal. Her book, We Shall All Be Changed: How Facing Death with Loved Ones Transforms Us, was recognized by The Gospel Coalition as its Best Book by a First-Time Author in 2024.

The Life I Live in the Body

Loving, Longing, and Living in the Body God Gave You

BY WHITNEY K. PIPKIN

Many Christians spend our lives swinging wildly between idolizing our body and despising it. On one end of the spectrum, we can easily make too much of our bodies, fixating and obsessing over them. On the other end, we make too little of our bodies, convinced they are in the way of our best work. While we swing back and forth, our bodies are always communicating something, trying to teach us about the One who made us.

In The Life I Live in the Body, award-winning journalist, editor, and author Whitney Pipkin invites you to trade the idea that your body is an award, accident, or impediment for a better and more biblical idea. Namely, she invites you to receive life in a body as an invitation to experience a level of delight and dependence that only an embodied Savior can give you. This book helps you:

- Redirect and redeem your inner dialogue about your body
- Replace false beliefs about the physical body with more holistic, biblical ideas
- Rediscover what it means to be human in an age of machine-like productivity
- And fix your eyes on a God who took on human form to be with you

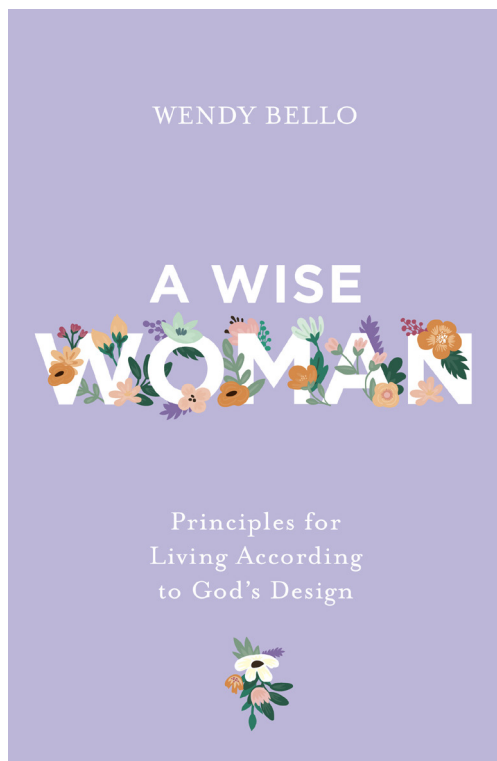

If the human body was worth nothing, God wouldn't have taken on a human body in the person of Jesus. But he did. And that changes everything about how you love, long, and live in the body he gave you.

audience

- Millennial and Gen Z Christian women seeking biblical help and clarity as they navigate body image, identity, and cultural pressure to either worship their body or hate it
- Readers of Whitney's first book, We Shall All Be Changed, as well as those who know her work through Common Good magazine and trust her thoughtful reflections on faith, culture, and formation
- Women facing disordered eating, chronic illness, or physical limitations as well as church leaders and small group facilitators who are looking for biblical and accessible guidance on the value and purpose of the physical body

marketing highlights

- The Life I Live in the Body affirms the goodness of the physical self without idolizing it and without hating it and is a counter-cultural and biblical alternative for readers caught between our culture's extremes of body-shame and body-worship
- Whitney Pipkin is an award-winning, trusted journalist with broad credibility across countless Christian networks; her work with Common Good magazine brings a respected, nuanced voice blending vulnerability and theological clarity, positioning the book as a standout for millennial and Gen Z readers seeking meaningful spiritual growth beyond secular self-help
- B&H will strategically promote this title through Whitney Pipkin's list of potential endorsers and established connections with The Gospel Coalition, Christianity Today, Common Good, Women & Work, and other trusted organizations

A Wise Woman

Principles for Living According to God's Design

BY WENDY BELLO

What makes a life good? Accomplishments? Intelligence? Relationships? According to Scripture, wisdom and living by God's design paves the path to the good life.

Based on the principles found in the book of Proverbs, A Wise Woman offers today's woman the tools she needs to live life to the fullest and make wise decisions in all aspects of daily life.

In this book, author Wendy Bello points you to Scripture that will show you:

- How to speak and listen wisely
- How to bless those around you with your words and actions
- How to build your home and relationships, rather than tearing them down
- How to navigate life's most common issues with God's wisdom

Written for the individual or a group, each chapter ends with questions for reflection and deeper thinking.

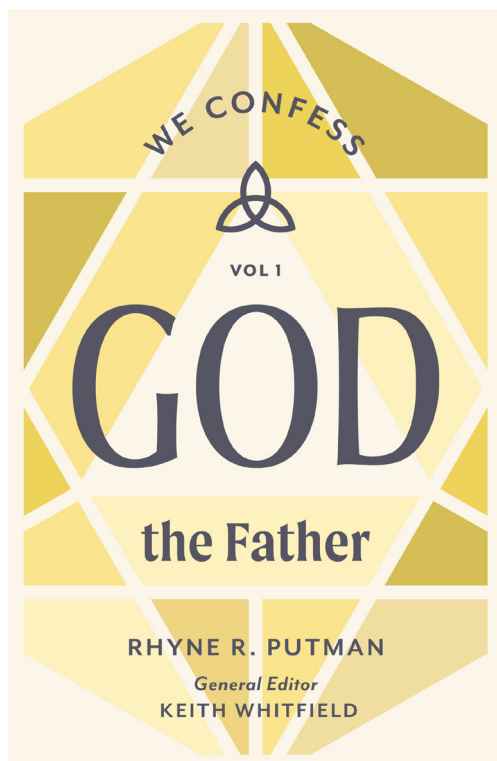

God's principles are designed for our good, and that good is found by living in His wisdom and His ways. Learn practical ways to engage these principles as you read A Wise Woman.

audience

- Women looking for practical, biblical guidance to grow into wise, discerning people across every area of life—relationships, vocation, family, and spiritual growth
- Women's ministry leaders, church groups, and discipleship settings looking for an accessible, discussion-ready resource on biblical wisdom—especially rooted in the book of Proverbs
- Women interested in international perspectives on faith, including Spanish-speaking believers and multicultural Christian communities, who value wisdom shaped by Scripture and lived experience across cultures

marketing highlights

- This title connects the wisdom of Proverbs to the real questions women face today; each chapter includes reflection questions that make the book especially suited for personal growth and women's ministry use
- The Spanish edition of A Wise Woman sold more than 39K copies since release; Wendy Bello brings a well-established and growing platform with more than 73K followers across Instagram and Facebook, is a regular contributor to Lifeway Women, The Gospel Coalition, and Revive Our Hearts, and speaks regularly to women's groups internationally
- B&H Publishing will partner closely with Wendy Bello and her community, supported by paid advertising, email marketing, influencer campaign, and more

God the Father

We Confess, Volume 1

BY RHYNE R. PUTNAM; GENERAL EDITOR KEITH WHITFIELD

What we believe shapes how we live, worship, and witness.

We Confess is a three-volume series designed to help followers of Jesus know, love, and worship the Triune God more deeply. Rooted in the historic Christian faith and written with clarity and conviction, each volume explores core doctrines that form the heart of Christian belief. With biblical reflection, theological depth, and practical application, this series invites readers to confess their faith with understanding—so they may live it out with faithfulness in the church and in the world.

To know the Father is the beginning of worship, wonder, and life.

God the Father invites readers to rediscover the heart of Christian faith: the Father who creates, redeems, and adopts. This volume explores how God is revealed as Father in creation, through Israel's story, and most clearly in His Son. It unfolds the Father's place in the Trinity, His character and attributes, and His sovereign work in salvation history. It also draws readers into the Christian life shaped by the Father's love—through adoption, forgiveness, mission, and prayer.

With clarity and theological depth, this book calls us to behold the glory of the One Jesus taught us to call "Our Father."

audience

- Everyday churchgoers wanting to improve their understanding of theology
- Pastors and church leaders wanting trustworthy content to point new believers and their congregations to as they grow in their faith
- Seminary students, teachers, and undergraduate classrooms looking for foundational resources explaining Christian doctrine

marketing highlights

- Lifeway Research continues to show that both commitment to and knowledge of Christian doctrine is limited in even evangelical churches, with half of Americans having engaged with the Bible beyond just a few stories
- The authors of each volume offer diversity of perspective, background, race, geographic location, and seminary education, making the series a well-rounded resource for a broad, church audience
- The Trinity continues to be a trending topic amongst Christians, especially after celebrating the 1700th anniversary of the Nicene Creed in 2025

Rooted in the historic Christian faith and written with clarity and conviction, each volume explores core doctrines that form the heart of Christian belief. With biblical reflection, theological depth, and practical application, this series invites readers to confess their faith with understanding—so they may live it out with faithfulness in the church and in the world.

Salvation is more than a moment—it is the Triune God drawing us into His life.

In God the Son, readers are invited to behold the beauty of the gospel as the unified work of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. This volume explores how the eternal Son became one of us, how He redeems as our Prophet, Priest, and King, and how the Spirit indwells and liberates us. It then turns to the believer's experience of salvation—from union with Christ to new birth, sanctification, and perseverance.

Rich in biblical insight and rooted in the historic Christian faith, this book shows that salvation is not just what God does—it is who He is, offered freely for us and worked powerfully in us.

We Confess, Volume 3

BY ADAMSON CO; GENERAL EDITOR KEITH WHITFIELD

What we believe shapes how we live, worship, and witness.

We Confess is a three-volume series designed to help followers of Jesus know, love, and worship the Triune God more deeply. Rooted in the historic Christian faith and written with clarity and conviction, each volume explores core doctrines that form the heart of Christian belief. With biblical reflection, theological depth, and practical application, this series invites readers to confess their faith with understanding—so they may live it out with faithfulness in the church and in the world.

The Spirit is God's empowering presence—at work in us and through us for the life of the world.

God the Spirit is the final volume in the We Confess series, focusing on the person and work of the Holy Spirit. It explores how the Spirit applies salvation, forms the church, equips believers for mission, and sustains hope for the renewal of all things. From new birth to new creation, this volume shows how the Spirit unites us to Christ, empowers our witness, and sends us into the world with gospel purpose.

With theological clarity and practical depth, this book invites readers to live in step with the Spirit—until Christ returns and makes all things new.

EMILY A. IBRAHIM (PhD, SBTS) is adjunct professor of Christian teaching at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and the author of Faith and Infertility: Poems of a Mother, Never to Be. She equips teachers to include individuals with disabilities in educational settings, and she ministers to women experiencing infertility through mentoring and writing.

Infertility and Loss

31 Devotions and Poems of Comfort for the Aching Heart

BY EMILY A. IBRAHIM

Written specifically for Christian women walking through infertility, miscarriage, or stillbirth, this 31-day devotional offers a gentle, understanding, and biblical companion through the tender season of longing for a child. Each devotion centers on a passage of Scripture, offering fresh reminders of God's character and rich biblical truth that speaks directly to the pain, waiting, and grief of this season. Paired with every devotion is an original poem written during the author's own infertility journey—a lyrical offering to help readers voice their own sorrow, longing, and surrender while anchoring their hearts in truth.

Inside these pages, women will find:

- Scripture-saturated encouragement
- Gentle guidance for navigating anxiety and doubt
- Permission to lament honestly before God
- Comfort rooted in God's steadfast love and character

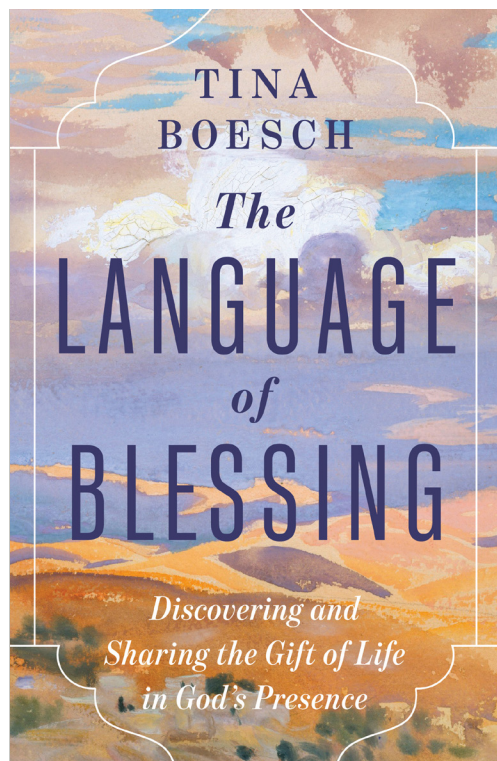

This book does not offer quick fixes, false promises, or easy answers. It offers something steadier: the compassionate, loving, faithful presence of God in the midst of pain and waiting. For the woman who feels unseen, weary, or unsure how to pray in this season, Infertility and Loss is a reminder that even here—especially here—she is held securely in God's mercy and grace.

audience

- Christian women walking through infertility, miscarriage, failed IVF cycles, or other long seasons of waiting who need biblically grounded comfort that honors their pain without minimizing it or promising specific outcomes
- Supporters—including friends, small group participants, and church mentors—of those walking through infertility or loss and who would benefit from clear, faithful guidance in providing care
- Counselors, pastors, small group leaders, and women's ministry teams looking for a gentle, gospel-anchored devotional for women facing infertility, sorrow, or deep emotional ache; this book serves as a practical tool for ministry and support

marketing highlights

- According to a study completed by the World Health Organization in 2023, one in six people globally experience infertility in their lifetime; this devotional supports the ongoing demand for compassionate, biblically grounded resources and provides honest grief language anchored in Scripture, which make it a trusted companion for women facing infertility and loss
- Emily A. Ibrahim, adjunct professor at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, brings strong connections with WORLD, The Gospel Coalition, Samaritan Ministries, and more
- B&H will promote this book through a targeted marketing campaign including email promotions, social media ads, marketing at women's events, and messaging to position this title as a go-to resource for infertility and loss

TINA BOESCH has lived in seven countries on three continents. She and her family lived in the Middle East for more than a decade.

She works at Lifeway, where she manages the women's Bible study publishing team. She's the author of Given: The Forgotten Meaning and Practice of Blessing and has written for The Gospel Coalition and Christianity Today.

The Language of Blessing

Discovering and Sharing the Gift of Life in God's Presence

BY TINA BOESCH

We were created for blessing—to receive it from a loving God and to extend it to others, but many of us have forgotten how.

How do we bless those we love? How do we bless our enemies? How do we speak blessing through every season—good or bad—of life?

Through biblical reflection and rich stories from Tina's experience overseas, The Language of Blessing reveals how blessing shapes families, restores relationships, strengthens communities, and reorients us toward God's future.

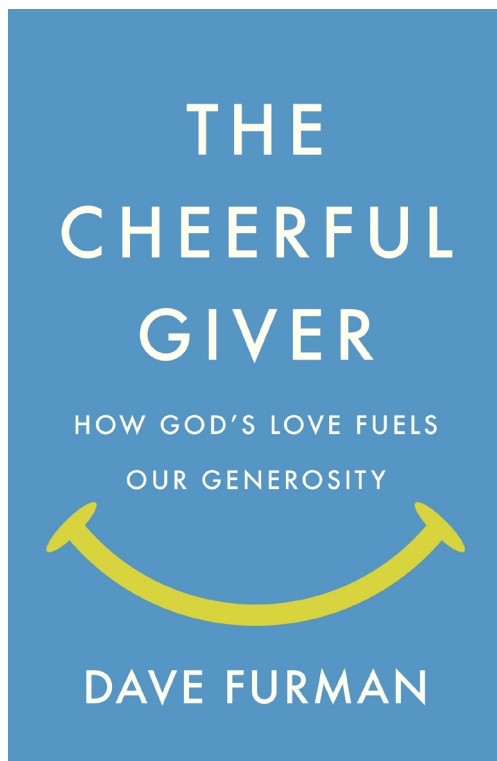

Discover how to speak blessing with wisdom, live it with integrity, and become a source of grace in a weary world.

audience

- Thoughtful Christians looking for a resource that explores the theme of blessing throughout Scripture and readers of books about God's presence, missions, love of neighbor, and spiritual growth
- Women's ministry leaders, church small groups, and individuals seeking a resource to deepen their understanding of what the Bible says about blessing, experiencing God's presence, and sharing these things with others
- Lifeway Women followers familiar with Tina's work as a Bible teacher, author, and editor for Bible studies they know and love

marketing highlights

- Tina is the manager of the Lifeway Women Bible study publishing team where she serves thousands of women each year as an editor, teacher, speaker, and author
- This book offers a compelling blend of biblical insight, personal storytelling, and practical application which is ideal for individual reflection or group study

DAVE FURMAN serves as the pastor of Redeemer Church of Dubai in the United Arab Emirates, which he planted in 2010. He is also the co-founder of the Gulf Theological Seminary. His church currently has over 60 different nationalities gathering weekly from all around the world. Dave and his wife, Gloria, have four children.

The Cheerful Giver

How God's Love Fuels Our Generosity

BY DAVE FURMAN

Money promises happiness but often leaves us anxious, divided, and discontent. In The Cheerful Giver: How God's Love Fuels Our Generosity, pastor and church planter Dave Furman shows how God's lavish grace can transform our relationship with money from fear and guilt to freedom and joy. Drawing on Scripture, pastoral wisdom, and vivid stories—from leaky air mattresses and surprise checks in a seminary mailbox to radical generosity in Dubai and the Arabian Peninsula—Furman helps readers see money as provision, witness, benevolence, enjoyment, stewardship, partnership, and a means of spiritual growth, all flowing from the God who “richly provides us with all things to enjoy.”

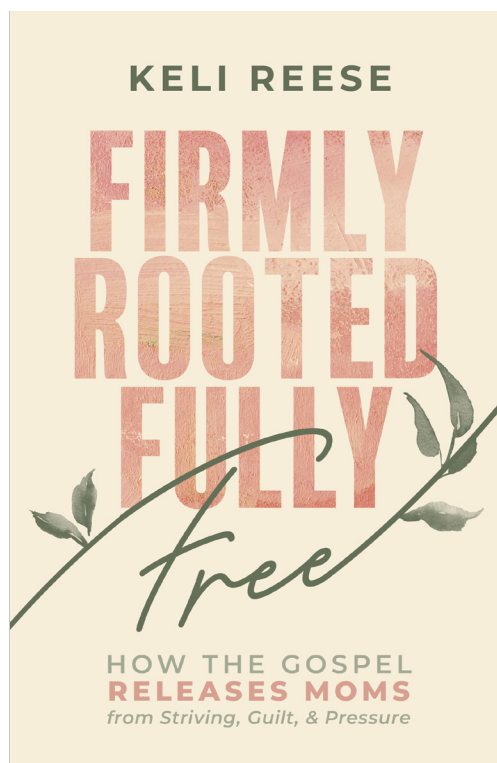

With clarity and warmth, Furman exposes the hidden idols beneath our desire for financial security, comfort, and control, and invites us into a “greater treasure hunt” where generosity becomes a privilege rather than a pressure. Each chapter unpacks biblical teaching, offers down-to-earth illustrations, and concludes with practical action steps and discussion questions—making this an ideal resource for small groups, stewardship teams, or whole churches longing to cultivate cheerful givers. Whether you are wealthy, struggling, or somewhere in between, The Cheerful Giver will help you enjoy God's good gifts, loosen your grip on money, and discover why we really are more blessed to give than to receive.

audience

- Readers of Dave's previous books, Being There: How to Love Those Who Are Hurting and Kiss the Wave: Embracing God in Your Suffering
- Church attendees who want to give but feel unsure where to start or who already tithe but are stuck in guilt-based or duty-based giving and want a more joyful, whole-life understanding of generosity
- Pastors, small group leaders, and ministry teams looking for a theologically rich resource to reframe their congregation's approach to giving

marketing highlights

- According to a 2022 Barna study, fewer than half of all Christians can clearly define the word tithe; this book addresses widespread confusion around giving and offers a deeply biblical theology of generosity by calling readers past guilt and checkbox tithing toward joyful generosity that flows from love and gratitude toward God
- An established author of Being There and Kiss the Wave and contributor to the CSB Men's Daily Bible and the Journal of Global Christianity, Dave offers the perfect perspective on biblical giving and ministry relationships through twenty-plus years of fundraising expertise and strong connections with top editorial platforms such as Desiring God, The Gospel Coalition, 9Marks, FamilyLife, Radical, Verge Network, and Ligonier
- B&H will collaborate closely with Dave's international network including Desiring God, The Gospel Coalition, Family Life, and Gulf Theological Seminary—alongside his robust endorsement list, paid advertising, email marketing, and more

KELI REESE is the founder and speaker of Ministry in Mothering, a Christ-centered ministry devoted to encouraging and equipping moms to live out biblical truths in the everyday demands of motherhood.

Known for her blend of humor, transparency, and Scripture-based teaching, Keli speaks openly about the frustrations and guilt many moms face—and helps them trade those burdens for freedom and joy.

A former music educator, Keli now focuses her speaking and writing on everyday motherhood—addressing issues like overcoming mom-guilt, cultivating joy, and building a healthy rhythm for the home. She also serves as the Manager of Programs for a nonprofit in her hometown of Indianapolis.

Firmly Rooted, Fully Free

How the Gospel Releases Moms from Striving, Guilt, and Pressure

BY KELI REESE

Parenting is hard, but it's also holy.

Your kids are growing fast, and some days it feels like you're just trying to catch your breath—juggling endless school commitments, managing sibling conflict, navigating screens and technology, and wondering if you're doing enough to build a strong foundation of faith. You're pulled between wanting to be present and feeling buried under the constant noise, the emotional needs, and the guilt of not getting it "right."

But what if the frantic pace and self-imposed expectations weren't the way God intended your home to run? What if, instead of carrying the weight of every decision, every mood, and every moment, you let God direct your steps—freeing you to focus on what truly matters for your family's hearts, not just their schedules?

Firmly Rooted, Fully Free explores how the gospel is essential to everyday parenting, re-establishing your identity in Christ, the freedom He has given you to chart the days of your family as He intends, and to see your children transformed by His grace.

Together, we'll discover:

- How to abide in God's perfect love as a mom
- How to offer that same love to your children
- How to remove the burden of striving for parenting perfection

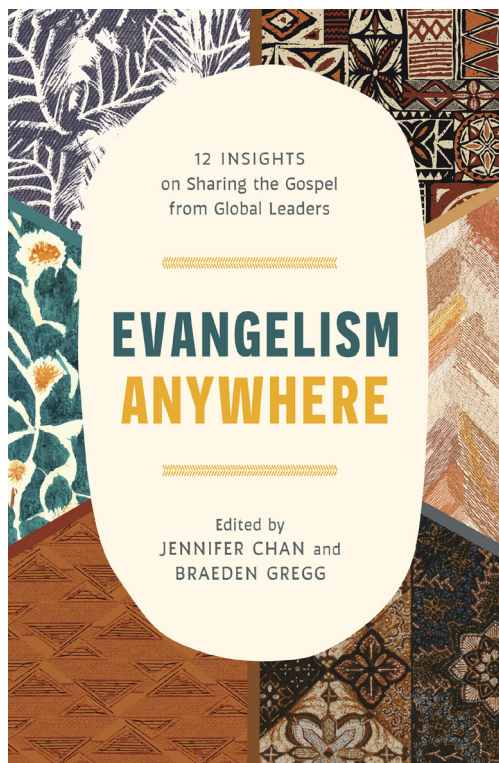

Lay your parenting guilt and worries down and find that the gospel has an answer for your every moment, rest for your weariness, and an answer for your fears.

audience

- Followers of Keli Reese and her ministry, Ministry in Mothering
- Christian moms longing to be freed from guilt, comparison, and parenting pressures searching for a grace-driven, non-perfectionistic vision of Christian motherhood
- Women's ministry leaders and church communities seeking a gospel-rich resource to support moms through real-life pressures, emotional burdens, and identity confusion

marketing highlights

- According to Barna's Motherhood Today report, only 26 percent of Christian mothers say they are very satisfied with their spiritual health; this title helps moms grow spiritually by developing a gospel-shaped view of motherhood and finding their identity in Christ
- Keli brings a substantial audience with more than 24K Instagram followers and engages in multiple speaking events yearly
- B&H will leverage Keli's growing audience and impressive list of potential endorsers alongside strategic print and paid advertising, a dedicated influencer campaign, and more

Evangelism Anywhere

12 Insights on Sharing the Gospel from Global Leaders

BY REDEEMER CITY TO CITY; GENERAL EDITORS JENNIFER CHAN AND BRAEDEN GREGG

"Evangelism" can be a scary word—but it doesn't have to be.

Most Christians are familiar with the Bible's call to spread the gospel and to be a light to the world around them, but many also face fear and uncertainty when it comes to the "how" of evangelism. How do I connect best with my neighbors? How can I talk to people who have really different values than me? How do I bring the hope of the gospel to those who feel like life is hopeless because of their situations?

Providing instruction from leaders serving from NYC to Australia South Africa to Indonesia, and beyond, Evangelism Anywhere: 12 Insights on Sharing the Gospel from Global Leaders helps readers lessen the fear and uncertainty of everyday evangelism with strategies that they have seen work across the globe.

Through stories and reflections from these leaders serving in a multitude of contexts, this book will remind you just how accessible—and exciting—joining God in His work of taking the good news to the nations truly is, whether you're taking it across the street or across the world. Get tested answers to your biggest evangelism questions and learn to take your faith public in your city and beyond.

audience

- Pastors, ministry leaders, church planters and church leaders seeking a broader, global perspective on how to share the gospel effectively; those interested in gaining wisdom from the challenges, persecutions, and faithful work of global church leaders
- Readers eager to learn from global Christian voices on evangelism and gospel witness, including those shaped by the teaching and ministry influence of Tim Keller over the past three decades
- Missions networks, church planting networks, small groups, campus ministries, and pastors aiming to incorporate cross-cultural insights into their strategies, teaching, discipleship, and ministry formation

marketing highlights

- A globally shaped vision of evangelism emerging from the Redeemer City to City movement and influenced by Timothy Keller, showing how gospel witness naturally takes root in everyday contexts
- Features fifteen experienced ministry leaders from six continents who share on-the-ground perspectives that translate global insight into practical guidance for churches, small groups, campus ministries, and everyday believers
- B&H will leverage the City to City network and contributors' connections to drive engagement and target small groups, campus ministries, and church-wide distribution; digital and social media to promote practical, culturally informed practices to equip ordinary believers for meaningful gospel conversations

The Unhappy King Who Had Everything

BY KYLE WORLEY; ILLUSTRATED BY KAJA KAJFEZ

What if you had everything you ever wanted and still couldn't find happiness?

Kids and adults alike often believe, "If I just had ____, I'd finally be happy." In this beautifully illustrated picture book, a very grumpy king goes on a quest for happiness. He tries everything he can think of—knowing all the things, being amazing at everything he tries, and having anything money can buy. Will anything ever satisfy him?

Inspired by the book of Ecclesiastes, this whimsical and heartfelt allegory helps kids understand that God alone is the One who can make us truly happy.

This book is perfect for . . .

- Any child wrestling with a "more, more, more" mentality
- Classrooms, homeschools, or church read-alouds
- Easter baskets
- Birthday, baptism, or holiday gift giving
- Family devotions

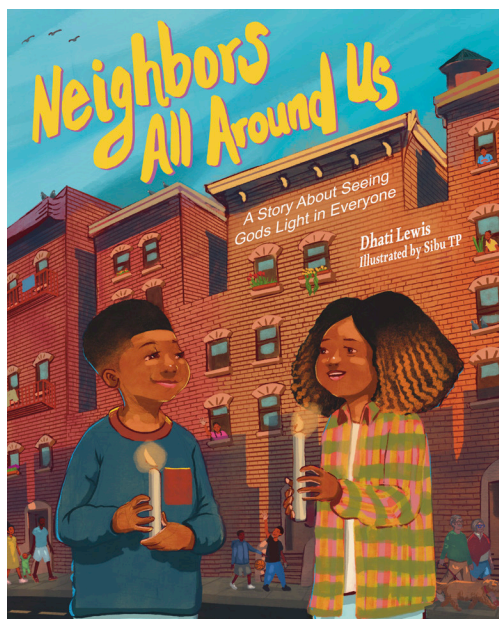

With hilarious scenes, playful repetition, and a memorable refrain, The Unhappy King Who Had Everything invites families to learn where true joy is found and why everything under the sun just isn't enough. Read this book together and help little hearts discover that God Himself is the best gift.

audience

- Parents, grandparents, and caregivers of children ages 4-8 who love allegorical books; specifically, one that focuses on wisdom literature from the Bible
- Children's pastors, Christian schools, and homeschool families looking for resources that make engaging connections between a child's imagination and Scripture's truths
- Listeners of the Knowing Faith Podcast and buyers of Kyle's previous kids' book, The Dragon Slayer and His Super Special Suit, as well as Kyle's other books Home with God and Formed for Fellowship

marketing highlights

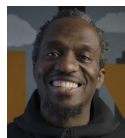

- Kyle is a pastor and cohost of the popular Knowing Faith podcast (alongside Jen Wilkin and J.T. English), where they reach more than 40K listeners with each episode
- Kyle is well-connected to spaces with large parent audiences like the Family Discipleship Podcast, Tiny Theologians podcast, Journeywomen, The Gospel Coalition, and more
- A homeschool and family unit study will be available to accompany this book to encourage families to engage biblical truths together; this resource will be shared with Kyle's growing number of homeschool network social media influencers to share about the book

DHATI LEWIS is the founding pastor of Blueprint Church in Atlanta, Georgia, and the President and Founder of MyBLVD. He earned his master's degree from Dallas Theological Seminary and his Doctorate of Ministry in Great Commission Mobilization from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. Dhati is most passionate about making disciples, equipping urban leaders, and loving his family. He is the author of both the Bible study and book, Among Wolves: Disciple Making in the City and Advocates: The Narrow Path to Racial Reconciliation.

Neighbors All Around Us

A Story About Seeing God's Light in Everyone

BY DHATI LEWIS; ILLUSTRATED BY SIBU T. P.

Celebrate the art of neighboring and learn that we are all made and loved by God!

Siblings Brinade and Baraka are on an adventure to share candles and light throughout their new community and to meet the neighbors—big and small, young and old—God has given them to love and serve. But when the kids discover that some people are hard to love (including the school bully), will they find a way to still shine God's light?

Set in an urban, multi-ethnic environment, Neighbors All Around Us helps readers discover that people are people, and we are all made and loved by God. Features include:

- An inspiring story about loving others, even those who are different than we are
- Rich illustrations of a diverse urban community
- A Parent Connection page to encourage follow-up conversations

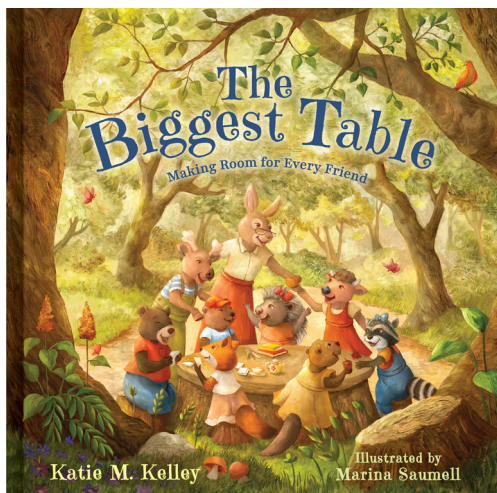

Young readers will close this book with a deeper definition of neighbor and the knowledge that they too can spread God's light just by loving the people around them!

audience

- Parents, caregivers, and teachers of children ages 4–8 looking for culturally diverse and biblical books
- Church planters and urban church kids' ministries and Christian schools seeking resources that teach kids to love others who are different ages and ethnicities and come from different backgrounds
- Missionaries who are part of the Rebuild Initiative Inc., and readers of Dhati's book and Bible study Among Wolves: Disciple Making in the City and his other book, Advocates: The Narrow Path to Racial Reconciliation

marketing highlights

- A 2021 CDC study shows nearly 1 in 5 children face mental, emotional, or behavioral challenges, which can be intensified by today's stressful and anger-infused culture; this title helps children see everyone (even people from different ages and backgrounds or those who are bullies) as neighbors
- This book introduces the art of neighboring for kids through a clear gospel lens; set in a culturally diverse urban neighborhood, the story shows children how to live as day-to-day missionaries
- Dhati Lewis has a broad reach and proven urban-discipleship network as the founder and president of the Rebuild Initiative Inc., the parent organization of MyBLVD experience, MyBLVD Family, and Known 360; MyBLVD partners with more than 65 churches and organizations across the United States

The Biggest Table

Making Room for Every Friend

BY KATIE M. KELLEY; ILLUSTRATED BY MARINA SAMUELL

Step into a forest classroom where curious animals discover the joy of making room for more.

The Biggest Table is a celebration of friendship, kindness, and welcoming others. Katie M. Kelley—a beloved voice from the Coffee + Crumbs community—knows that children long to belong and that it takes courage to ask, “Can I play too?” This story follows a group of adorable animal friends as they learn how a bigger table can mean bigger fun, even if it takes a little creativity. Their wise teacher, Ms. Fernwick, guides the animals on a journey through the forest to discover that shared fun can make a bright day even brighter.

In The Biggest Table, children will:

- Learn to include others, even when it feels hard
- Explore adorable, nostalgic illustrations of woodland animals
- Discover that inviting others into your day—in big moments and small—helps everyone grow

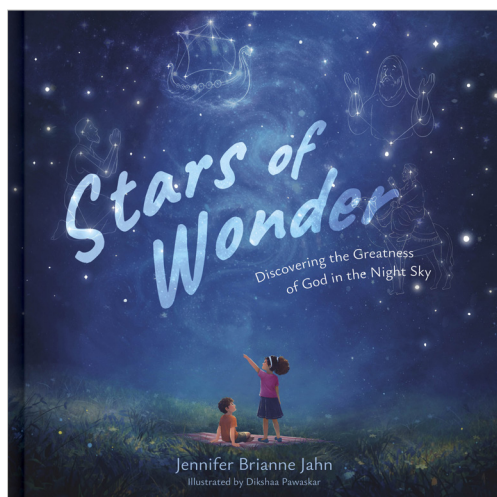

With gentle rhymes, charming characters, and a timeless message, The Biggest Table invites kids and families to celebrate community. Read this book together and help little ones discover that there can always be room for one more.

audience

- Children ages 4-8 years old learning to include others, especially in classroom or playgroup settings
- Parents, grandparents, leaders, and caregivers seeking gentle stories that help children understand empathy, friendship, and inclusion
- Families already connected to Katie M. Kelley through her Coffee + Crumbs community; readers of her previous book The Very Best Baseball Game, and her upcoming trade book Grace Will Be Here, and followers of organizations she's affiliated with such as Risen Motherhood, The Gospel Coalition, and The Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission

marketing highlights

- Katie M. Kelley brings a loyal, established audience through the Coffee + Crumbs podcast (more than 30K downloads per episode) and her Substack readership of more than 30K combined readers; her influence in mom-centric digital spaces like Well-Watered Women, MOPS, Motherly, Journeywomen, and more creates deep credibility among Christian moms
- With childhood loneliness and exclusion on the rise, this story gives families and educators a simple way to model empathy, kindness, and making room for others; retailers can position this as a message-driven picture book parents want to buy because it speaks directly into a cultural moment where inclusion and connection matter more than ever
- B&H will partner closely with Katie and her network to promote this title through a coordinated campaign that includes paid social media advertising, influencer mailings, strategic email marketing, and targeted digital ads, as well as explore opportunities to support potential school outreach efforts the author would like to consider

ADAM K. BOGGS lives in northeast Nebraska with his wife, Grace, and their daughter. When he's not writing or illustrating, he is busy painting murals or working as a designer. Adam creates the God's Kingdom Graphic Novel Bible series to help readers see the beauty and unified story of Scripture in a visually compelling way. His goal is to make biblical truth accessible and engaging while remaining faithful to the heart of God's Word.

The Fallen Kingdom Graphic Novel

A Graphic Novel of Genesis

WRITTEN AND ILLUSTRATED BY ADAM K. BOGGS

The graphic novel that brings Genesis to life like never before!

This first book in the God's Kingdom Graphic Novel Bible series, The Fallen Kingdom is an exciting graphic novel that leads readers through Genesis while uncovering God's kingdom plan. Readers will be excited to explore Bible stories through fast-paced narrative and dynamic illustrations. As they meet characters such as Adam and Eve, Noah, Abraham, and Jacob, they'll discover the joy of choosing God's kingdom and the consequences of choosing the kingdom of self. Features include:

- Dynamic comic-style illustrations
- Trustworthy, easy-to-read Bible-story text
- A comprehensive look at the stories in Genesis

The Fallen Kingdom is best for:

- Graphic novel fans and comic book fans of any age
- Middle-grade readers who prefer illustrated stories or struggle with reading
- Families, kids, Christian schools, and homeschools looking for engaging Bible content
- Ministry leaders searching for trustworthy recommendations

This graphic novel highlights stories and characters that are often overlooked in Genesis and opens readers' eyes to the war between the kingdoms. Readers will be eager for book two in the series and ready to choose the kingdom of God in their own lives!

audience

- Middle-grade readers ages 7-14 who love graphic novels, comic books, manga-style storytelling, action-forward visuals, and biblical adventure—particularly those drawn to visual formats
- Young readers who prefer visual formats or struggle with traditional reading and need a more accessible, story-driven way to engage with meaningful content
- Faith-based families, ministries, and schools seeking comprehensive, age-appropriate biblical storytelling books

marketing highlights

- From 2020 to 2021, Publishers Weekly reported a 61 percent surge in graphic novel sales; this book taps directly into the fastest-growing segment of middle-grade publishing, delivering cinematic, visually driven storytelling that meets rising demand for high-engagement, high-circulation titles
- The illustrations in this book enhance the narrative and help avoid text overload, making it both a theologically trustworthy and highly accessible retelling of Genesis that keeps young readers engaged
- From author-illustrator Adam Boggs, this book enters a high-interest category shaped by the success of The Action Bible and The Kingstone Bible Trilogy, offering a modern, visually cohesive approach to Genesis

Judges

Forgetful People, Faithful God

JEN WILKIN

The book of Judges records the turbulent chapter in Israel's history following Joshua's death and before the rise of Israel's kings. God's people had settled in the land He had promised, yet their hearts still wandered. Again and again, they forgot the Lord and chased after false gods. Their unfaithfulness led to oppression by surrounding nations. In their distress, they cried out for deliverance, and God raised up judges to rescue them and call His people back to covenant faithfulness. Who were these leaders? You may have heard of Gideon, Deborah, and Samson, but their stories each play a part in a well-ordered narrative with one big message.

In this 10-session Bible study, Jen Wilkin takes you verse-by-verse through the book of Judges, tracing its sobering cycles of rest, sin, oppression, and deliverance. Israel's story is our story. The book of Judges reminds us of God's steadfast faithfulness to His forgetful people and leaves us aching for a true and better Deliverer—Jesus Christ.

audience

- Women, small group leaders, fans of Jen Wilkin

marketing highlights

- Bible study promotion to churches, women's ministry leaders, and individuals through Lifeway Women social, email, and direct channels

features

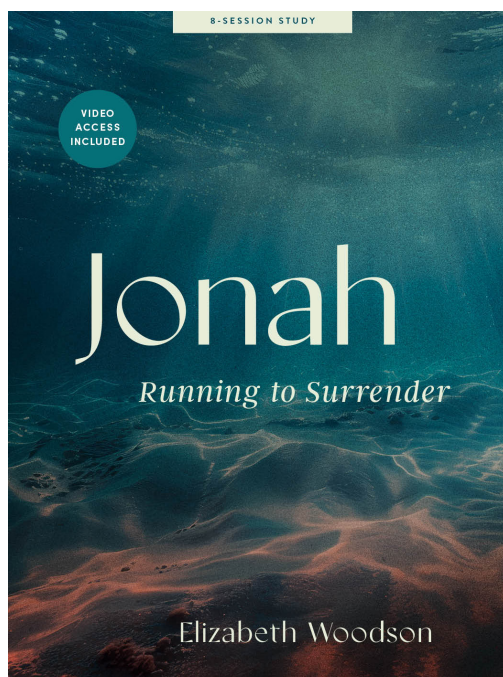

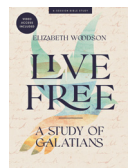

- Verse-by-verse study of the book of Judges
- 10 video teaching sessions, approximately 45+ minutes each, unpacking truths found throughout the study and offering additional insights
- 9 weeks of personal study featuring illuminating questions to help you focus on and understand Scripture
- Leader helps for group discussion

benefits

- Learn how the book of Judges invites us to behold the faithfulness of God to a forgetful people.
- See how the cycles of Israel's judges expose our own tendencies toward compromise—and how each narrative whispers our need for the perfect Deliverer, Jesus Christ.
- Discover the faithfulness of God to a faithless generation, gaining confidence that His purposes do not fail even when His people do.
- Grow in biblical literacy, tracing the pattern of sin, suffering, and salvation as you study Judges verse by verse, learning how this book fits into the larger story of Scripture.

JEN WILKIN is an author and Bible teacher from Dallas, Texas. She has organized and led studies for women in home, church, and parachurch contexts. Her passion is to see others become articulate and committed followers of Christ, with a clear understanding of why they believe what they believe, grounded in the Word of God. Jen is the author of Ten Words to Live By: Delighting in and Doing What God Commands, Women of the Word, None Like Him, In His Image and Bible studies exploring the Sermon on the Mount and the books of Genesis, Exodus, Joshua, Hebrews, 1 Peter, 1, 2, 3 John, and Revelation. Jonah

Running to Surrender

ELIZABETH WOODSON

All believers are called to live on mission with God, but too often, fear, self-doubt, or discontentment leads us to run from that calling. We parallel the story of Jonah, who, instead of being obedient to God's command to go to Ninevah, ran in the opposite direction. But the story of Jonah is about much more than rebellion and a big fish; it's also a look into the heart and character of a loving God.

In this 8-session study, Elizabeth Woodson will walk with you verse by verse through the book of Jonah. As you dive deep into this reluctant prophet's journey, you'll get a clear picture of the sovereignty of God and His compassion for people. You'll witness the high cost of disobedience and the depth of God's grace and mercy. You'll also explore how God's love extends to all people, how His purposes are never hindered by our failures, and how He remains a God of second chances. You'll learn that all of us are called to live on mission, and you'll be challenged to surrender to God's purpose with bold faith and unwavering obedience.

audience

- Women, small group leaders, fans of Elizabeth Woodson

marketing highlights

- Bible study promotion to churches, women's ministry leaders, and individuals through Lifeway Women social, email, and direct channels

- Verse-by-verse study of the book of Jonah
- 8 video teaching sessions (approx. 21-30 minutes each)
- 7 weeks of personal study to be completed between the 8 group sessions
- Leader helps, including downloadable leader guide with tips for organizing the study and questions to guide the discussion

benefits

- Walk verse-by-verse through the book of Jonah to discover how God's mercy calls us to repentance and wholehearted surrender.
- Engage honestly with challenging questions about God's sovereignty, compassion, justice, and mercy.
- Experience renewed joy and purpose as you learn to trust and respond to God's calling on your life.
- Rejoice in how God graciously invites imperfect people into His perfect plan—and what that means for your life and witness.
- See clearly God's heart for all people to come to know Him.

Every Good Gift

Understanding Spiritual Gifts and Stepping into Your God-Given Purpose

PHYLCIA MASONHEIMER

What if your purpose in life is related to your spiritual gifts? And what if these gifts could impact your church and community on a deeper level than you realize? In this 8-session Bible study, Phylcia Masonheimer takes you through the primary Bible passages on spiritual gifts—Romans 12 and 1 Corinthians 12—to discover what Scripture says about the gifts of the Spirit: teaching, hospitality, service, evangelism, and more. You'll also explore questions surrounding certain gifts, including healing, tongues, and prophecy—how they were understood in the early church and how different church traditions view them today.

As you study, you'll learn:

- how the Holy Spirit equips believers with spiritual gifts
- why God gives different gifts to different people
- ways these gifts can benefit your church community
- differences between natural talents and spiritual gifts
- how to avoid misusing spiritual gifts
- and so much more!

With theological insight and practical application, Phylcia equips you to understand every good gift God has given you and embrace your God-given purpose with confidence and humility, right where God has placed you. When all the members of the body live out their calling, the church thrives, God is glorified, and the world is changed.

- 7 weeks of personal study to be completed between the 8 group sessions
- Leader helps for group discussion

benefits

- Learn what the gifts of the Holy Spirit are, how to identify your unique giftings, and the purpose they serve in the body of Christ.
- Be encouraged that you have a purpose in God's kingdom and are empowered to serve His church.
- Discover the joy found in understanding, embracing, and using the spiritual gifts God has given you.
- Dispel confusion and gain insights into how specific spiritual gifts—including wisdom, teaching, prophecy, and more—are utilized in the church today

TONY MERIDA is the founding pastor of Imago Dei Church in Raleigh, North Carolina. He also serves as an associate professor of preaching at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, North Carolina. He's the author of several books and Bible studies, including Ephesians Bible Study, Christ-Centered Exposition Commentary series, and Ordinary: How to Turn the World Upside Down.

Ephesians

Life in Christ

TONY MERIDA

Want to know what it means to live “in Christ”? This study examines what the book of Ephesians says about the identity, calling, and unity God gives His people. You'll see how the gospel reshapes who we are as individuals and the church through adoption, new life, and the sealing of the Spirit. You'll be equipped to navigate spiritual warfare, to pursue Christian ethics marked by love, light, and wisdom, and to stand firm in a culture shaped by idolatry and immorality. Each session ends with guided prompts for prayer, helping you not only understand but embody and embrace your identity in Christ.

features

- Eight small group sessions
- Teaching videos with Tony Merida on location in Ephesus
- Doctrinal focus sections to draw out key points from each week's passage as well as guided prayer prompts
- Personal study opportunities for ongoing spiritual growth
- Promotional content, including promotional video
- Group discussion questions

benefits

- Anchor your identity in Christ by embracing what God declares to be true about you.
- Recognize the church as a unified body with a shared identity and mission in Christ.
- Approach spiritual warfare with discernment, relying on God's strength and the armor He provides.
- Understand the gospel deeply—your adoption, sealing, and new life in Christ—and let it transform your perspective.
- Walk in love, light, and wisdom as an expression of Christian ethics in everyday life.
- Practice truthfulness and integrity as a distinguishing mark of life in Christ.
- Engage your surrounding culture with courage, clarity, and gospel-centered conviction.
- Pray intentionally for spiritual maturity, unity, strength, and boldness as modeled throughout Ephesians.

Jesus Up Close

Teen Bible Study

LIFEWAY STUDENTS

Jesus Up Close invites teens to really get to know Jesus—who He is, what He did, and why it matters for their everyday lives. This 30-day Bible study walks students through the Gospels, focusing on four key moments in Jesus's life: His arrival, His ministry, His teaching, and His sacrifice. Students will have space to reflect, journal, and respond as they discover how Jesus's life and work shape who they are and how they live.

features

- 30-day guided journey through the Gospels
- Daily read-reflect-respond flow
- Leader Guide in the back of the Bible study book to guide questions and discussion with small groups
- Biblically rooted and gospel-centered
- Personal study opportunities for ongoing spiritual growth
- Free leader resources, including promotional video and social media assets, available for download at Lifeway.com

benefits

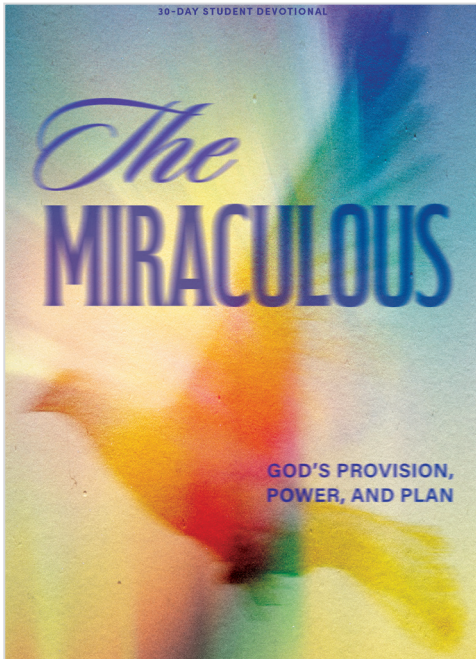

This study will help teens:

- Develop a clear, biblically grounded understanding of who Jesus is by walking through His life, words, and mission across all four Gospels
- Engage directly with Scripture on a daily basis, strengthening biblical literacy and confidence in reading God's Word
- Connect the story of Jesus to real life, showing how His arrival, ministry, teaching, death, and resurrection still matter today
- Take ownership of their faith through intentional reflection, journaling, and personal response to Scripture
- Wrestle thoughtfully with Jesus's teachings, including identity, discipleship, sacrifice, and what it means to truly follow Him
- Understand the significance of Jesus's sacrifice and resurrection, grounding their faith in what Christ has done, not just what He taught
- Move from learning to living, culminating in the Great Commission and the promise of the Holy Spirit

audience

- Teens (Grades 7-12)

LANDON DOWDEN

(M.Div., M.Th., Ph.D. New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary) is lead pastor at Hebron

Baptist Church, Dacula, Georgia. He also serves as Associate Professor of Preaching and Pastoral Ministry at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is married to Tara and father to Arabella, Adalaide, Adoniram, and Alastair. Landon is committed to verse-by-verse exposition of the Bible because "nothing is better for God's people than God's Word."

Exalting Jesus in Deuteronomy

Exalting Jesus in Deuteronomy is part of the Christ-Centered Exposition Commentary (CCE) series. Edited by David Platt, Daniel L. Akin, and Tony Merida, this commentary series takes a Christ-centered approach to expositing each book of the Bible. Each chapter explains and applies key passages, providing helpful outlines for study and teaching.

This practical and easy-to-read commentary is designed to help the reader see Christ in Deuteronomy. More devotional than academic, the expositions are presented as sermons and divided into chapters that conclude with a "Reflect and Discuss" section, making this series ideal for small group study, personal devotion, and even sermon preparation.

The CCE series will include 47 volumes when complete; this volume is written by Landon Dowden.

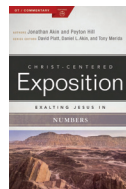

audience

- Individual: Seminary students, professors, teachers, theologians, readers looking to study Deuteronomy, and those who have purchased other installments in the CCE series.
- Church/Ministry: Pastors, teachers, small group leaders, lay leaders, and ministry leaders.

marketing highlights

- A practical, easy-to-read commentary showing the whole Bible as a Christ-centered book—a unified story of redemption where Jesus is the hero
- Each volume is presented as sermons, divided into chapters that conclude with a "Reflect and Discuss" section, making it ideal for small group study, personal devotion, and sermon preparation
- Provides illustrations and applications of the biblical text to better serve pastors as they prepare to preach the Scriptures faithfully week after week

Haggai: The Christian Standard Commentary

Haggai is part of The Christian Standard Commentary (CSC) series. This commentary series focuses on the theological and exegetical concerns of each biblical book, while paying careful attention to balancing rigorous scholarship with practical application. This series helps the reader understand each biblical book's theology, its place in the broader narrative of Scripture, and its importance for the church today. Drawing on the wisdom and skills of dozens of evangelical authors, the CSC is a tool for enhancing and supporting the life of the church. The author of Haggai: The Christian Standard Commentary is Richard A. Taylor.

audience

- Individual: Students of the Word and fans of the contributors to the series.
- Church/Ministry: Pastors, lay teachers, small group leaders, and seminary students.

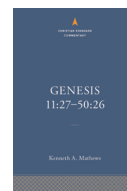

marketing highlights

- Helps the reader understand the book of Haggai's theology, its place in the broader narrative of Scripture, and its importance for the church today
- Aims to embody an "ancient-modern" approach to the biblical text which seeks to balance the theological, exegetical, and historical dynamics of biblical interpretation
- Each biblical book is explored as a work of art that is a combination of style, structure, form, and meaning

Borrowed Light

A Trinitarian Approach to Christian Writing

BY AMY CRIDER AND JONATHAN PENNINGTON

Borrowed Light: A Trinitarian Approach to Christian Writing invites readers to see writing not merely as a technical skill, but as a gift shaped by the truths of the Christian faith. Amy Crider and Jonathan Pennington present nine theologically grounded principles that form a creative and biblically faithful approach to the craft of writing.

Drawing inspiration from the architectural beauty of the Sainte-Chapelle in Paris, the authors offer a compelling framework that connects theological reflection with practical guidance. Like light passing through stained glass, Christian writing becomes a means of reflecting divine truth to the world. Borrowed Light equips writers to develop clarity, creativity, and conviction while cultivating spiritual formation in both the writer and the reader.

audience

- English faculty/staff within Christian higher education institutions.
- Christian writing groups, self-publishing groups, and readers eager to explore the theological implications of the craft of writing.

marketing highlights

- This book is the first of its kind to articulate a trinitarian model of writing, providing a direct connection between theology and writing.
- Amy Crider serves as the co-chair for the IACE's Commission on Innovative Pedagogy and is a member of the Research Hub of Innovative Pedagogy for the Kirby Laing Centre for Public Theology.
- While this book is part of the IACE series, it has broad appeal outside of the IACE within writing groups, self-publishing groups, and Christian writing societies.

Jesus, Hercules, and the Gospel Truth

Encountering Christ Among the Myths

BY JOSEPH R. DODSON

In Jesus, Hercules, and the Gospel Truth: Encountering Christ Among the Myths, Joseph R. Dodson brings readers face-to-face with an ancient “superhero,” Hercules, exploring parallels between the myths about Hercules and the truth about Jesus Christ and showing how New Testament authors presented Jesus as a truer and better hero and savior. Armed with years of research in the New Testament and its Greco-Roman context, Dodson argues that these parallels are evidence not that Christ is a cut-rate copy of cultural content, but rather the completion and fulfillment of the longing for a savior expressed in ancient myth.

audience

- Those who love both Christian nonfiction and grand heroic tales.
- Supplemental text for NT theology/apologetics courses.

marketing highlights

- Short, approachable volume that has trade crossover.
- Deals with troubling apologetic questions head-on.

Finding Belonging

How One Church Built Community in an Isolated World

BY DAN STOCKUM

Finding Belonging: How One Church Built Community in an Isolated World addresses a quiet reality in many congregations: churches are often full of lonely people. Drawing from his experience as a college minister and later a pastor in Silicon Valley, Dan Stockum explores why genuine connection can be so difficult—even among committed Christians.

Blending biblical teaching, psychological insight, and real-life stories from his church, Stockum offers a compelling vision for cultivating belonging through practices like vulnerability, mutual support, forgiveness, and accountability. As he recounts his church's journey from isolation to community, readers gain practical guidance for nurturing meaningful relationships. Finding Belonging equips pastors and church leaders with a clear, faithful path toward building churches where people are truly known, supported, and connected..

audience

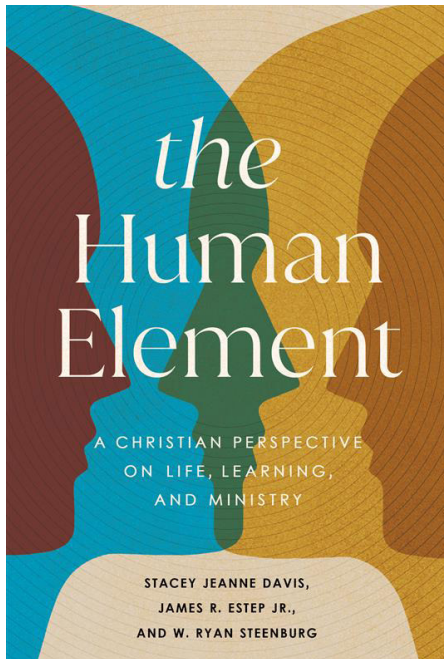

- Pastors, church planters, and leaders in geographical areas lacking a sense of community.
- Practical ministry and church planting courses in undergraduate or graduate contexts.

marketing highlights

- Tells the story of a church that figured out how to foster community in hostile context.
- Helpful for missionaries leaving the Bible belt where isolation is a major hurdle to community.
- A helpful example of a pastor who felt lonely and did something about it.

The Human Element

A Christian Perspective on Life, Learning, and Ministry

BY STACEY J. DAVIS, JAMES RILEY ESTEP JR., AND W. RYAN STEENBURG

The Human Element: A Christian Perspective on Life, Learning, and Ministry offers essential practical insights for faithful ministry to individuals at every stage of life—from before birth to old age. Embracing a holistic approach that combines practical wisdom with theological depth, the authors address faithful ministry for:

- Infancy
- Early childhood
- School years
- Young adulthood
- Middle adulthood
- Senior adulthood

Each chapter follows a basic framework presenting key research and developmental theories for the age group, theological and ministry insights, and practical steps that readers can take to serve individuals in that age group more comprehensively. Pastors, seminarians, and ministry practitioners of all kinds will find in this book a practical and edifying resource for faithful ministry to every age group.

audience

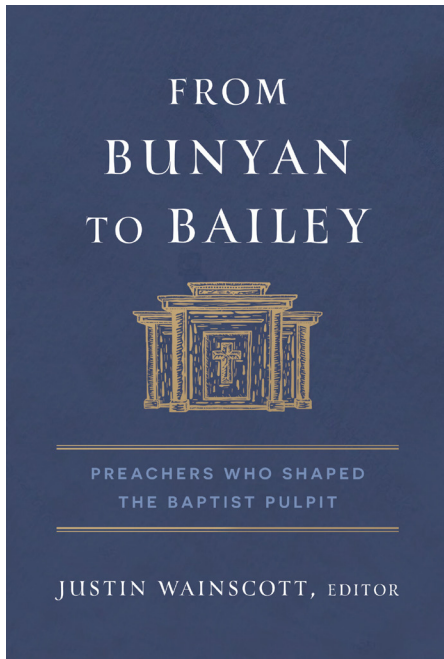

- Leaders of every sub-ministry of churches like children, young adults, senior adults, etc.
- Practical ministry courses in seminaries.

marketing highlights

- This is an inter-generational ministry book with contributors who have this specific ministerial and educational experience.
- Meets a felt need as children's ministries and services are starting to feel separate from main church and leaders struggle with keeping seniors involved in discipleship.

From Bunyan to Bailey

Preachers Who Shaped the Baptist Pulpit

BY JUSTIN WAINSCOTT

From Bunyan to Bailey: Preachers Who Shaped the Baptist Pulpit, edited by Justin Wainscott, traces the powerful legacy of Baptist preaching across more than four centuries. Featuring chapters written by respected scholars and practitioners, this volume highlights influential voices who shaped the theology, practice, and passion of the Baptist pulpit.

From early figures like John Bunyan and John Gill to renowned preachers such as Charles Spurgeon, Martin Luther King Jr., Billy Graham, and E.K. Bailey, each chapter explores the life, ministry, and homiletical contributions of these remarkable leaders.

Blending biography with preaching insight, From Bunyan to Bailey offers readers a panoramic portrait of Baptist proclamation—revealing how these voices faithfully preached Scripture and shaped generations of Christian witness and ministry.

audience

- Pastors and students interested in a historical exploration of preachers who have shaped Baptist preaching.
- Preaching courses within Baptist colleges and seminaries as a supplemental textbook.

marketing highlights

- This book uniquely blends biographical study with helpful preaching insights, making it useful for the classroom and the church.
- Readers will discover the life, ministry, and homiletical contributions of these influential church leaders who shaped the Baptist pulpit.

Unqualified Apologetics

A Biblical-Theological Approach

BY TRAVIS S. KERNS AND JARED C. WELLMAN

Unqualified Apologetics: A Biblical-Theological Approach brings the task of apologetics back from the academy and places it into the hands of ordinary Christians by embracing a return to a biblical mode for defending the faith. Authors Travis Kerns and Jared Wellman argue that apologetics is the task of every Christian, and that Scripture provides the tools for each believer, empowered by the Holy Spirit, to give a reason for the hope that they have in Christ.

Kerns and Wellman build a biblical and theological case for this kind of “unqualified” apologetics, eschewing systems and aspiring to equip ordinary believers to present reasons for their hope. Readers will emerge from this book with a new appreciation for how Scripture provides the necessary tools for every Christian both to share and to defend their faith.

audience

- Professors and students as a primary textbook in undergraduate or first-year seminary apologetics courses.
- Christians interested in a readable volume about apologetics and defending the faith.

marketing highlights

- Author Travis Kerns is a rising voice within the apologetics community and has strong classroom and church connections.
- This book integrates apologetics with evangelism and discipleship, which can make it useful for evangelism courses and ministries.

Pastoral Essentials from the Pastoral Epistles

An Expositional Guide for Ministry

BY R. SCOTT PACE

In Pastoral Essentials from the Pastoral Epistles: An Expositional Guide, R. Scott Pace has prepared a feast of wisdom on pastoral ministry from the ample pantry of Paul's letters to Timothy and Titus. By walking through these letters chapter by chapter he offers readers nourishment to strengthen them for the diverse challenges of pastoral ministry. Pace addresses the gospel as the foundation of ministry, the qualifications of the minister, suffering and endurance, the central importance of faithful preaching, and much more—all rooted in careful, expositional, and thoughtful assessment of the inspired text. Seminarians and current pastors alike will come away from this book refreshed and filled for further service to their churches. .

audience

- Pastors and ministers who need ministerial encouragement from Scripture.
- Beginner expositional courses, NT survey supplements, and pastoral ministry courses

marketing highlights

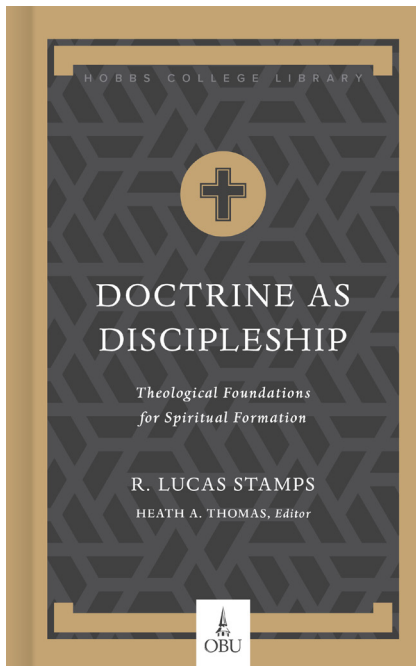

- Provides material for easy sermon creation.
- Fits well with both pastoral ministry and lay ministry.

Theological Foundations for Spiritual Formation

BY R. LUCAS STAMPS

Doctrine as Discipleship: Theological Foundations for Spiritual Formation by R. Lucas Stamps challenges the common divide between theology and the Christian life. Rather than viewing doctrine as abstract ideas reserved for classrooms, Stamps shows how the great truths of the Christian faith are meant to shape the believer's lives, habits, and daily obedience.

Drawing deeply from Scripture and the historic Christian tradition, this book presents doctrine as a pathway to spiritual formation. Each theological conviction—from the nature of God to the work of Christ and the life of the Spirit—forms the heart and guides faithful discipleship.

Clear, thoughtful, and pastorally grounded, Doctrine as Discipleship invites readers to see theology not merely as knowledge to master, but as truth that forms believers into the likeness of Christ.

audience

- Professors and students in intro to theology and discipleship courses at Baptist colleges.
- Pastors and church members interested in reading about how theology informs intentional daily discipleship.

marketing highlights

- Author Luke Stamps is a recognizable authority on Baptist history and practice, making him the right voice for this topic.
- While a significant portion of the audience for this book is OBU and its network, the Hobbs College Library is an accessible series for pastors, lay leaders, and anyone in the church looking to further their study in theology.

Biblia gracia para niños (GRACE BIBLE FOR KIDS)

Every Child Deserves to Read the Word. The first RVR 1960 Bible designed from the ground up for children with reading challenges and dyslexia.

Ages 7+

For too many kids, opening a Bible feels like running into a wall—letters blur, lines crowd together, and the words that should bring life feel out of reach. The Grace Bible for Kids changes that. Built on years of research from the University of Cambridge and typographic mastery from 2K/DENMARK, every letter, space, and color was chosen so that one more child can sit down, turn the page, and actually read it for themselves.

Designed by Researchers. Loved by Kids. Growing in the Word.

Feature list

Built for Readability:

- Dyslexia-friendly typography from 2K/DENMARK
- Wider spacing between letters, words, and lines
- Distinct letterforms that resist blurring
- Research-developed colored page overlays
- Large, comfortable 11-point font
- Black-letter text for visual calm

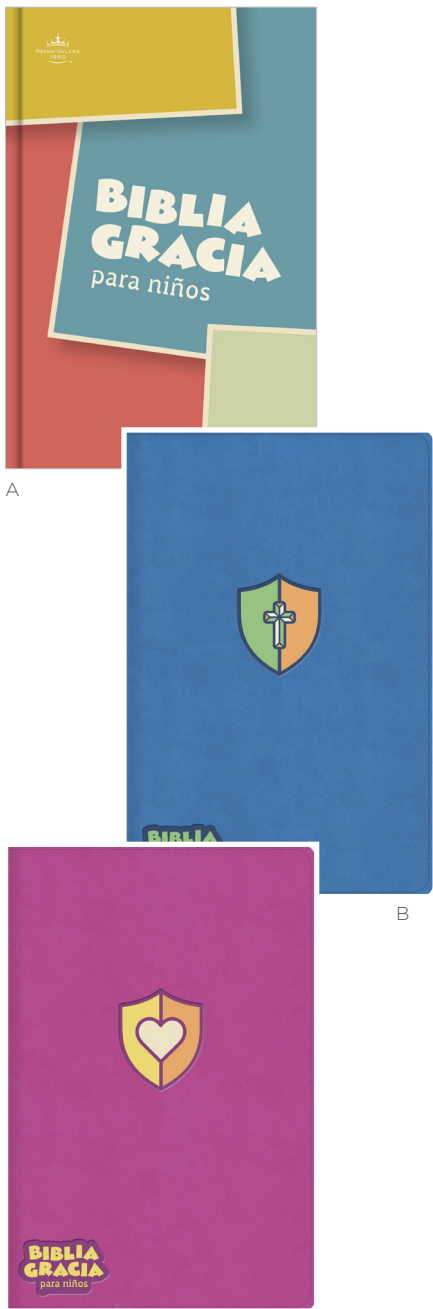

Built to Last & Love:

- Full Reina-Valera 1960 text
- 40 pages of study aids and maps
- Bible skills list & book summaries
- Smyth-sewn lay-flat binding
- Satin ribbon marker
- Gift-ready presentation page

For the child who's been told try harder or you can't focus.
This Bible says, "we made it for you".

A GIFT THAT OPENS A LIFETIME OF FAITH.

JOHN M. FRAME (AB, Princeton University; BD, Westminster Theological Seminary; MA and MPhil, Yale University; DD, Belhaven College) is a renowned American philosopher and Calvinist theologian, especially known for his work in epistemology, presuppositional apologetics, systematic theology, and ethics. He is one of the principal interpreters and critics of the thought of Cornelius Van Til. He formerly taught at Reformed Theological Seminary in Orlando and at Westminster Theological Seminary.

Teología natural

La creación como evidencia divina

NATURAL THEOLOGY

JOHN M. FRAME

Many Christians are suspicious of natural theology, which claims that we can learn about God through revelation outside the Bible. How can we know anything about God apart from the Scriptures?

In Teología natural (Natural Theology), distinguished theologian John Frame argues that Christians are not forbidden from seeking to learn about God from His creation. In fact, the Bible itself shows that this is possible.

In nine short and lucid chapters that include discussion questions, Frame shows us what we can learn about God and how we relate to Him from the world outside the Bible.

If it is true that the heavens declare the glory of God, as the psalmist says, that makes a great difference in how we understand God and how we present Him to those who do not yet know Christ.

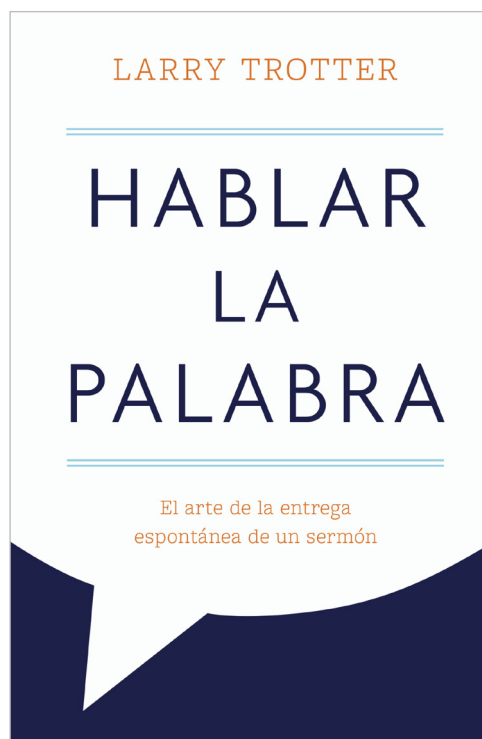

Muchos cristianos sospechan de la teología natural, que afirma que podemos aprender acerca de Dios a través de la revelación fuera de la Biblia. ¿Cómo podemos saber algo acerca de Dios aparte de las Escrituras? En Teología natural, el distinguido teólogo John Frame sostiene que a los cristianos no se les prohíbe buscar aprender acerca de Dios desde Su creación. De hecho, la Biblia misma muestra que esto es posible. En nueve capítulos cortos y lúcidos que incluyen preguntas para discusión, Frame nos muestra lo que podemos aprender acerca de Dios y cómo nos relacionamos con Él desde el mundo fuera de la Biblia. Si es cierto que los cielos declaran la gloria de Dios, como dice el salmista, eso hace una gran diferencia en cómo entendemos a Dios y cómo lo presentamos a aquellos que aún no conocen a Cristo.

Hablar la Palabra

El arte de la entrega espontánea de un sermón

SPEAK THE WORD

LARRY TROTTER

A powerful sermon must have not only clearly organized biblical content but also engaging delivery. Hablar la Palabra (Speak the Word) is about sermon delivery, particularly extemporaneous sermon delivery. Combining biblical principles with the best insights of the ages and personal experiences, it explains the power and pitfalls of extemporaneous speech, how to develop speaking ability, and why preaching method matters.

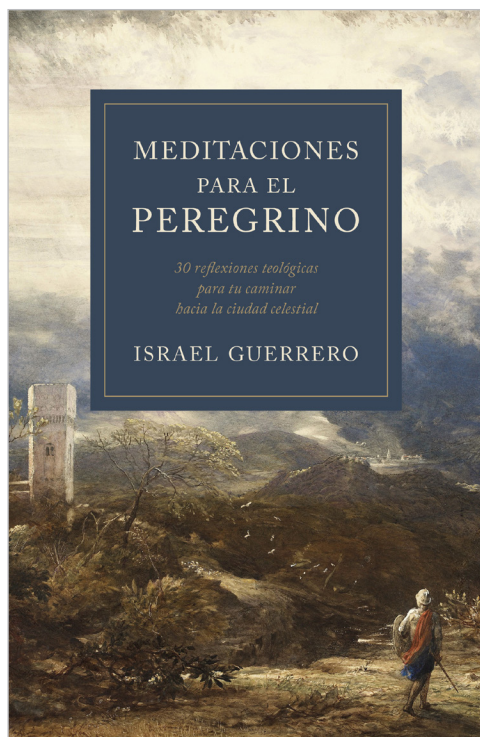

Un sermón poderoso no solo debe tener contenido bíblico organizado, sino también una presentación atractiva. Hablar la Palabra trata sobre la entrega del sermón, particularmente la entrega extemporánea. Combinando principios bíblicos con ideas de todas las épocas y experiencias personales, el autor explica el poder y las trampas del discurso extemporáneo, cómo desarrollar la habilidad para hablar y por qué el método de una predicación importa.

audience

- Pastors and preachers
- Seminary and Bible students
- Church leaders involved in teaching or preaching

marketing highlights

- Explains how to preach effectively without relying on a manuscript
- Combines biblical principles with practical guidance for sermon delivery
- Helps develop clarity, confidence, and conviction in preaching
- Addresses common mistakes in extemporaneous preaching and how to avoid them
- Draws from pastoral experience and theological training to guide communicators

Amigas y hermanas: Estudio bíblico

Pertenecer, amar y caminar juntas en la familia de la fe

FRIENDS AND SISTERS BIBLE STUDY
LIFEWAY WOMEN

God designed us for relationships. The Bible describes the people of God as a family, and Jesus often spoke of His followers as sisters and brothers. In Christ, you are part of a sisterhood that is bound together by faith, love, and a shared purpose. But what does it look like to be sisters in Christ in the midst of a loneliness epidemic, when genuine friendship is difficult and difficult to find? In this 5-week Bible study for women, we'll reflect on how to cultivate deep, Christ-centered relationships and strengthen our bond as friends and sisters. Through biblical examples, we'll explore what the Bible teaches us about loving, caring for, honoring, supporting, and investing in one another for the long haul.

You will also find:

- In-depth digital leader guide to help women's small group leaders.

Dios nos diseñó para relacionarnos. La Biblia describe al pueblo de Dios como una familia, y Jesús a menudo habló de Sus seguidores como hermanas y hermanos. En Cristo, formamos parte de una hermandad unida por la fe, el amor y un mismo propósito. Pero, ¿cómo se vive el ser hermanas en Cristo en medio de una epidemia de soledad, cuando la amistad genuina resulta difícil y escasa? En este estudio bíblico para mujeres de cinco semanas, reflexionaremos sobre cómo cultivar relaciones profundas y centradas en Cristo, y cómo fortalecer nuestro vínculo como amigas y hermanas. A través de ejemplos bíblicos exploraremos lo que la Biblia nos enseña acerca de amarnos, cuidarnos, honrarnos, apoyarnos e invertir las unas en las otras a largo plazo. También encontrarás:

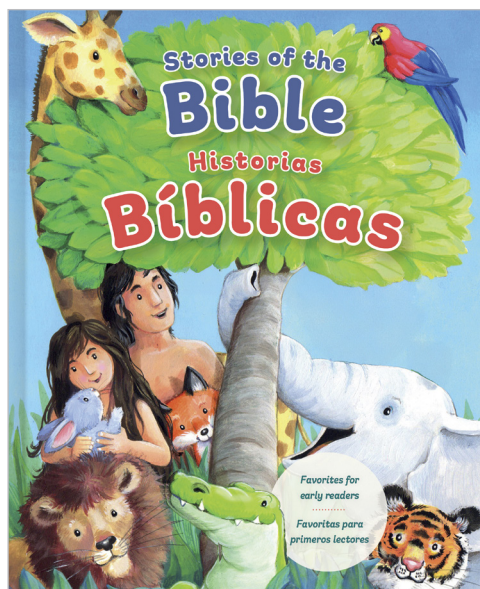

- Una guía digital detallada para líderes, diseñada para ayudar a las responsables de grupos pequeños.

Historias bíblicas

STORIES OF THE BIBLE
 B&H ESPAÑOL EDITORIAL STAFF

Historias bíblicas (Stories of the Bible) brings the Bible's most beloved stories to life in both English and Spanish, beautifully paired with vibrant, engaging illustrations that spark curiosity and wonder.

This bilingual edition uses clear, child-friendly language in both languages, helping young readers understand the big picture of God's story—who He is, what He has done, and how His love is shown throughout Scripture. Perfect for early reading, family devotion time, or language learning, Historias bíblicas invites children to explore God's Word side by side in English and Spanish, growing in both faith and vocabulary as they read. A wonderful introduction to the Bible for first-time readers and a meaningful resource for bilingual homes, classrooms, and ministries.

Historias bíblicas da vida a las historias más queridas de la Biblia en inglés y en español, bellamente acompañadas de ilustraciones vibrantes y atractivas que despiertan curiosidad y asombro.

Esta edición bilingüe utiliza un lenguaje claro y apto para niños en ambos idiomas, ayudando a los jóvenes lectores a comprender el panorama general de la historia de Dios: quién es Él, lo que ha hecho y cómo Su amor se muestra a lo largo de las Escrituras.

Perfecto para los primeros lectores, el tiempo devocional en familia o el aprendizaje de idiomas, Historias bíblicas invita a los niños a explorar la Palabra de Dios lado a lado en inglés y español, creciendo tanto en la fe como en el vocabulario mientras leen.

Una maravillosa introducción a la Biblia para quienes la leen por primera vez y un recurso significativo para hogares, aulas y ministerios bilingües.

SHANE PRUITT serves as National Evangelism Director for the North American Mission Board (NAMB) of the Southern Baptist Convention. He is an author, speaker, and passionate communicator of the gospel, known for connecting deep biblical truths with contemporary audiences. Shane and his wife Kasi have five children and live in Texas. In Ese no es mi Cristo, Shane Pruitt challenges us to abandon counterfeit versions of Jesus shaped by culture and to find the true Christ of Scripture—the only One who can save and transform lives forever.

Ese no es mi Cristo: Estudio bíblico

Rechaza los ídolos y reclama la verdad

NOT MY JESUS, BIBLE STUDY BOOK

SHANE PRUITT

To know the real Jesus, we must see Him through the pages of the Bible. This Jesus doesn't change based on our feelings or opinions; He is the same yesterday, today, and forever. Only this Jesus can save and transform our lives. In this Bible study, you will identify ways that many misunderstand Jesus by comparing the Jesus of Scripture to counterfeit versions shaped by preferences, opinions, and culture. This Bible Study Book includes printed content for eight weeks of study, featuring group sessions with helpful discussion questions, personal study between group sessions, applicable Scripture, "How to Use This Study," and tips for leading a group.

Features:

- Eight group sessions
- Personal study opportunities for ongoing spiritual growth

Session Topics:

1. Moldable Jesus
2. Personal Genie Jesus
3. Non-Judgmental Jesus
4. Participation Trophy Jesus
5. Distant Jesus
6. Comfortable Jesus
7. Boring Jesus
8. National Jesus

Para conocer al verdadero Cristo, debemos verlo a través de las páginas de la Biblia. Este Cristo no cambia según nuestros sentimientos u opiniones; Él es el mismo ayer, hoy y siempre. Solo este Cristo puede salvar y transformar nuestras vidas. En este estudio bíblico, identificarás las formas en que muchos malentienden a Cristo, al comparar al Cristo de las Escrituras con versiones falsas moldeadas por preferencias, opiniones y cultura.

En este estudio bíblico se incluye contenido impreso para ocho semanas de estudio, con sesiones grupales que incluyen preguntas de discusión, estudio personal entre sesiones grupales, pasajes bíblicos aplicables, «Cómo usar este estudio» y consejos para liderar un grupo.

Características:

- Ocho sesiones grupales.
- Oportunidades de estudio personal para el crecimiento espiritual continuo.

Temas de las sesiones:

1. Cristo moldeable
2. Cristo genio personal
3. Cristo sin juicio
4. Cristo trofeo de participación
5. Cristo distante
6. Cristo cómodo
7. Cristo aburrido
8. Cristo nacional

Jesús el Siervo

PAINT AND FIND - SEMESTER 4: PART 8

LIFEWAY RECURSOS EDITORIAL STAFF

Just add water and watch the Bible come to life! Turn playtime into a creative, mess-free biblical adventure. Paint and Find - Gospel Project: Jesus the Servant helps preschool children discover foundational Bible truths while developing essential skills through interactive play. In this book, children will explore 4 stories at the heart of the Gospel: Jesus healing the sick with compassion, the Last Supper with His disciples, the crucifixion, and the glorious resurrection — the empty tomb and victory over death! Why do parents and kids love this book?

- Mess-free activity: Refillable water pen—no ink, no stains, no worries.
- Interactive Bible learning: Children discover the Passion and Resurrection of Jesus.
- Reusable and durable: Pages are designed to be painted, dried, and repainted.
- Multimedia experience: QR code unlocks a Bible story video and a Christian song.
- Skill development: Hand-eye coordination, fine motor skills, and concentration.

Part of the acclaimed Gospel Project series, trusted by families and churches to teach God's plan of redemption from an early age.

¡Solo necesitas agua y la aventura comienza! Transforma el tiempo de juego en una experiencia bíblica educativa, creativa y sin desorden. Pinta y Encuentra - Proyecto Evangelio: Jesús el Siervo es un libro de actividades diseñado para ayudar a los niños pequeños a descubrir las verdades de la Biblia mientras juegan y desarrollan habilidades importantes. En esta entrega, los niños explorarán cuatro historias del corazón del Evangelio: Jesús sanando a los enfermos con compasión, la Última Cena con sus discípulos, la Crucifixión y la gloriosa Resurrección — ¡la tumba vacía y la victoria sobre la muerte! Cada página revela imágenes ocultas a todo color al contacto con el agua. ¿Por qué a los padres y a los niños les encanta?

- Actividad sin desorden: Incluye un lápiz de agua recargable. Sin tinta, sin manchas.
- Aprendizaje bíblico interactivo: Los niños descubren la Pascua y la resurrección.
- Reutilizable y duradero: Las páginas se pintan, se secan y vuelven a usarse una y otra vez.
- Experiencia multimedia: Código QR con video de la historia bíblica y canción cristiana.
- Desarrollo de habilidades: Motricidad fina, coordinación mano-ojo y concentración.

Parte de la aclamada serie Proyecto Evangelio, usada por miles de familias y ministerios infantiles para enseñar el plan de redención de Dios desde temprana edad.

request for proof of delivery must be made within 90 days of shipping/billing.

defective product should be reported to B&H Customer Service for postage paid return.

lost or damaged product

B&H Publishing Group cannot be responsible for products lost or damaged in shipment. In the event you receive damaged products or find a carton shortage, please contact B&H Customer Service.

freight shipments

Sign the delivery receipt and state the exact number of cartons received and any visible damage. If damage is discovered after delivery, notify carrier for inspection within 15 days of delivery. Retain all packing material including boxes from the shipping company. Notify B&H Customer Service, and we will file a claim for you with the carrier and enter a replacement order.

ups/fedex ground shipments

Notify UPS/FedEx within 15 days in case of damage or B&H Publishing Group Customer Service in case of shortage. UPS/FedEx will inspect, pick up, and return damaged products to B&H. We will file a claim for damage and trace the shortage.

processing your order

When you order, include the product ISBN of each product ordered. Please specify order need-by date (as appropriate) to ensure receipt according to your needs. Orders without a need-by date or noted "Send best way" will be shipped the least expensive way. Orders requested to be shipped by motor freight will be shipped by the line which we believe will give you the best service if you have not asked for a specific carrier. Orders for "one" of a product packaged and cataloged in certain quantities will be interpreted to mean "one packaged unit." Orders weighing less than 250 pounds are usually shipped UPS. Orders weighing more than 250 pounds are usually shipped by motor freight. (You may have a preference entered on your permanent customer file.)
